SECTION 1. Arkansas Code of 1987, Title 12, Chapter 14, Subchapter 1, shall read as follows:

"SUBCHAPTER 1. STATE CAPITOL POLICE.

12-14-101. 12-14-102. State Capitol Police appointed pursuant to the authority herein contained shall, except to the extent otherwise limited by the Secretary of State, protect property, preserve and maintain proper order and decorum, prevent unlawful assemblies and disorderly conduct, exclude and eject persons from and prevent trespasses upon and in all of the State Capitol grounds and other grounds, buildings, improvements, streets, alleys and sidewalks under control of the Secretary of State and shall have the authority to regulate the operation and parking of motor vehicles upon the State Capitol grounds and other grounds under control of the Secretary of State and upon all streets adjoining and traversing the State Capitol grounds, as long as it does not impede normal traffic patterns. The State Capitol Police officers shall have and exercise police supervision on behalf of the Secretary of State and are hereby authorized as peace officers to arrest, with or without warrant, any person upon or in the areas described above who is or is reasonably believed to be committing an offense against any laws of the state of Arkansas or against the ordinances of the city wherein the State Capitol grounds are located, and to deliver such person before any court of competent jurisdiction to be dealt with according to law.

12-14-103. The Secretary of State is hereby authorized and empowered to promulgate rules and regulations, and to amend or change the same from time to time as he shall deem necessary, providing for the operation and organization of the State Capitol Police, so long as such rules and regulations are not arbitrary or capricious.

12-14-104. This act shall apply to and encompass all lands, buildings, and improvements which are commonly referred to as the State Capitol grounds and bounded as follows: Beginning at the corner of Woodlane Avenue and Seventh Street, then west along Seventh Street to the Rock Island Railroad right-of-way, then northeasterly along the railroad right-of-way to Third Street, then east along Third Street to a point where Woodlane Avenue if extended would intersect Third Street, then south to and along Woodlane Avenue to the point of beginning, and all streets and adjoining or traversing the State Capitol grounds. Provided, nothing herein shall be interpreted as in any way interfering with the ownership and control which is by law now vested in the governing boards of each department as to its lands, buildings, and improvements. The provisions of this act shall be cumulative to any remedies which each such department may now possess for enforcing its rules and regulations including its rights to impose sanctions through fees and charges, its right to discipline, deny service to and to expel.

12-14-105. The prosecuting attorney and/or the city attorney as may be appropriate shall appear and prosecute all actions arising in any court under the provisions of this act. All fines which may be collected by any court on account of the violation of this act shall be paid into the State Treasury and placed to the credit of the State Capitol Police."

SECTION 6. All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this Act are hereby repealed.

SECTION 7. EMERGENCY.
