19 (a) It is a violation of this subchapter for a manufacturer,
20 wholesaler, or distributor to coerce a dealer to accept delivery of parts, 21 accessories or specialized tools which the dealer has not voluntarily ordered.

22 (b) It is a violation of this subchapter for a manufacturer to:

23 (1) Condition or attempt to condition the sale of farm
24 implements, machinery, utility and industrial equipment, lawn and garden 25 outdoor powered machinery and equipment, and attachments on a dealer also 26 purchasing other goods or services; except that a manufacturer may require the 27 dealer to purchase those parts reasonably necessary to maintain the quality of 28 operation in the field of the equipment used in the trade area and to purchase 29 or lease such telecommunication equipment, including computer software, as is 30 substantially and reasonably necessary to communicate with the manufacturer 31 provided, however, that upon termination, nonrenewal, or cancellation of an 32 equipment dealer franchise, the equipment manufacturer must reimburse the 33 equipment dealer for all telecommunications equipment, including computer 34 software, purchased by the equipment dealer in order to comply with the 35 requirements of the equipment manufacturer that the dealer returns or offers

1 to return to the equipment manufacturer, subject to a reasonable reduction for 2 depreciation.

3 (2) Coerce or attempt to coerce a dealer into refusing to 4 purchase the equipment manufactured by another equipment manufacturer.

5 (3) Discriminate in the prices charged for equipment of like 6 grade and quality sold by the equipment manufacturer to similarly-situated 7 equipment dealers. This does not prevent the use of volume discount or a 8 differential which makes only due allowance for differences in the cost of 9 manufacture, sale, or delivery or for the differing methods by which or 10 quantities in which the equipment is sold or delivered, by the equipment 11 manufacturer; or

12 (4) Attempt or threaten to terminate, cancel, fail to renew, or 13 substantially change the competitive circumstances of the dealership agreement 14 based on the result of a natural disaster, including a sustained drought in 15 the dealership market area, labor dispute, or other circumstances beyond the 16 dealer's control."

17

18 SECTION 4. All provisions of this act of a general and permanent nature
19 are amendatory to the Arkansas Code of 1987 Annotated and the Arkansas Code
20 Revision Commission shall incorporate the same in the Code.

21

22 SECTION 5. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to 23 any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect 24 other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without 25 the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this 26 act are declared to be severable.

27

28 SECTION 6. All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this act are 29 hereby repealed.

30

31 SECTION 7. EMERGENCY. It is hereby found and determined by the 32 Seventy-Eighth General Assembly that the present laws are not clear as to the 33 rights and responsibilities of certain retailers of farm equipment when a 34 contract or franchise is terminated; that certain terms should be defined for 35 clarity; that this act is needed to clearly define the rights and

1 responsibilities when terminating a contract or franchise and should be 2 effective immediately. Therefore, an emergency is hereby declared to exist
3 and this act being necessary for the immediate preservation of the public 4 peace, health and safety shall be in full force and effect from and after its 5 passage and approval.
