33 detective acting within the reasonable scope of his duty while conducting a
34 surveillance on an official work assignment.

35

36 SECTION 2. Stalking in the First Degree.

1           (a) A person commits stalking in the first degree if he purposefully
2 engages in a course of conduct that harasses another person and makes a 3 terroristic threat with the intent of placing that person in imminent fear of 4 death or serious bodily injury or placing that person in imminent fear of the 5 death or serious bodily injury of his or her immediate family and:

6                   (1) either does so in contravention of an order of protection
7 consistent with the Arkansas Domestic Abuse Act of 1991, Ark. Code Ann. §9-15-8 101 et seq, protecting the same victim or victims, or any other order of 9 protection issued by the court protecting the same victim or victims; or

10                   (2) he has been convicted within the previous ten (10) years of:

11                           (A) stalking in the second degree, or

12                           (B) violating Ark. Code Ann. §5-13-301 or 5-13-310; or

13                           (C) stalking or threats against another person's safety 14 under the statutory provisions of any other state jurisdiction; or

15                   (3) is armed with a deadly weapon or represents by word or 16 conduct that he is so armed.

17           (b) The judicial officer in a court of competent jurisdiction shall,
18 upon pre-trial release of the defendant, enter an order consistent with Rules
19 9.3 and 9.4 of the Arkansas Rules of Criminal Procedure and shall give notice
20 to defendant of penalties contained in Rule 9.5. This protective order shall 21 remain in effect during the pendency of any appeal of a conviction under this
22 provision.

23           (c) It is an affirmative defense to prosecution under this section
24 whenever the actor is a law enforcement officer, a licensed private
25 investigator, attorney, process server, licensed bail bondsman, or a store
26 detective acting within the reasonable scope of his duty while conducting a
27 surveillance on an official work assignment.

28           (d) Stalking in the first degree is a Class B felony.

29

30           SECTION 3. For the purpose of this act:

31           (a) "Course of conduct" means a pattern of conduct composed of two (2)
32 or more acts separated by at least thirty-six (36) hours, but occurring within 33 one year. Constitutionally protected activity is not included within the 34 meaning of "course of conduct". If the defendant claims that he was engaged 35 in a constitutionally-protected activity, the court shall determine the

1 validity of that claim as a matter of law and, if found valid, shall exclude
2 that activity from evidence.

3 (b) "Harasses" means acts of harassment as defined by Arkansas Code 5-4 71-208.

5 (c) "Immediate family" means any spouse, parent, child, any person
6 related by consanguinity or affinity within the second degree, or any other
7 person who regularly resides in the household or who, within the prior six (6)
8 months regularly resided in the household.

9

10 SECTION 4. Arkansas Code 5-13-301 is amended to read as follows:

11 "5-13-301. Terroristic threatening.

12 (a) (1) A person commits the offense of terroristic threatening in the 13 first degree if, with the purpose of terrorizing another person, he threatens 14 to cause death or serious physical injury or substantial property damage to 15 another person.

16 (2) Terroristic threatening in the first degree is a Class D
17 felony.

18 (b) (1) A person commits the offense of terroristic threatening in the 19 second degree if, with the purpose of terrorizing another person, he threatens 20 to cause physical injury or property damage to another person.

21 (2) Terroristic threatening in the second degree is a Class A
22 misdemeanor.

23 (3) The judicial officer in a court of competent jurisdiction
24 shall, upon pre-trial release of the defendant, enter an order consistent with 25 Rules 9.3 and 9.4 of the Arkansas Rules of Criminal Procedure and shall give 26 notice to defendant of penalties contained in Rule 9.5. This protection order 27 shall remain in effect during the pendency of any appeal of a conviction under 28 this provision."

29

30 SECTION 5. Arkansas Code 5-71-208 is amended to read as follows:

31 "5-71-208. Harassment.

32 (a) A person commits the offense of harassment if, with purpose to 33 harass, annoy, or alarm another person, without good cause, he:

34 (1) Strikes, shoves, kicks, or otherwise touches a person,
35 subjects him to offensive physical contact or attempts or threatens to do so;

1 or

2           (2) In a public place, directs obscene language or makes an
3 obscene gesture to or at another person in a manner likely to provoke a 4 violent or disorderly response; or

5           (3) Follows a person in or about a public place; or

6           (4) In a public place repeatedly insults, taunts, or challenges
7 another in a manner likely to provoke a violent or disorderly response; or

8           (5) Engages in conduct or repeatedly commits acts that alarm or 9 seriously annoy another person and that serve no legitimate purpose.

10           (6) Places the person under surveillance by remaining present
11 outside his or her school, place of employment, vehicle, other place occupied
12 by the person, or residence other than the residence of the defendant for no
13 purpose other than to harass, alarm or annoy.

14           (b) Nothing in this section may be construed to limit free speech, 15 picketing on public property or private property with permission of the 16 property owner, or other constitutionally protected activities.

17           (c) Harassment is a Class A misdemeanor.

18           (d) It is an affirmative defense to prosecution under this section
19 whenever the actor is a law enforcement officer, a licensed private
20 investigator, attorney, process server, licensed bail bondsman, or a store
21 detective acting within the reasonable scope of his duty while conducting a
22 surveillance on an official work assignment.

23           (e) The judicial officer in a court of competent jurisdiction shall,
24 upon pre-trial release of the defendant, enter an order consistent with Rules
25 9.3 and 9.4 of the Arkansas Rules of Criminal Procedure and shall give notice
26 to defendant of penalties contained in Rule 9.5. This protective order shall 27 remain in effect during the pendency of any appeal of a conviction under this 28 provision."

29

30           SECTION 6. Arkansas Code 5-71-209 is amended to read as follows:

31           "5-71-209. Harassing communications.

32           (a) A person commits the offense of harassing communications if, with 33 the purpose to harass, annoy, or alarm another person, he:

34           (1) Communicates with a person, anonymously or otherwise, by 35 telephone, telegraph, mail, or any other form of written communication, in a

1 manner likely to harass, annoy, or cause alarm; or

2           (2) Makes a telephone call or causes a telephone to ring
3 repeatedly, with no purpose of legitimate communication, regardless of whether 4 a conversation ensues; or

5           (3) Knowingly permits any telephone under his control to be used
6 for any purpose prohibited by this section.

7           (b) Offenses involving use of telephones may be prosecuted in the 8 county in which the defendant was located when he used a telephone, or in the 9 county in which the telephone made to ring by the defendant was located.

10           (c) Harassing communications is a Class A misdemeanor.

11           (d) The judicial officer in a court of competent jurisdiction shall,
12 upon pre-trial release of the defendant, enter an order consistent with Rules
13 9.3 and 9.4 of the Arkansas Rules of Criminal Procedure and shall give notice
14 to defendant of penalties contained in Rule 9.5. This protective order shall
15 remain in effect during the pendency of any appeal of a conviction under this 16 provision."

17

18           SECTION 7. All provisions of this act of a general and permanent nature
19 are amendatory to the Arkansas Code of 1987 Annotated and the Arkansas Code
20 Revision Commission shall incorporate the same in the Code.

21

22           SECTION 8. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to 23 any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect 24 other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without 25 the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this 26 act are declared to be severable.

27

28           SECTION 9. All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this act are 29 hereby repealed.

30

31           SECTION 10. Emergency. It is hereby found and determined by the 32 General Assembly that the Attorney General and the Prosecuting Attorneys are 33 in need of specific legislation by which to eliminate stalking and that 34 immediate passage of this act is necessary to protect the public peace, health
35 and safety of the State of Arkansas. Therefore, an emergency is hereby

1 declared to exist and this act being necessary for the immediate preservation
2 of the public peace, health and safety shall be in full force and effect from 3 and after its passage and approval.
