28	SECTION 1. TEMPORARY LANGUAGE. DO NOT CODIFY. Legislative intent.
29	(a) It is the intent of the General Assembly to clarify and provide
30	sufficient recourse under the Workers' Compensation Law, § 11-9-101 et seq.,
31	for employees to receive workers' compensation benefits during the
32	coronavirus 2019 (COVID-19) outbreak.
33	(b) This act is intended to be retroactive to March 11, 2020, and to
34	remain in effect for claims filed until May 1, 2023, for the purposes of
35	providing coverage to employees for illness or injury sustained as a result
36	of the coronavirus 2019 (COVID-19) outbreak.

HB1488

2 SECTION 2. Arkansas Code § 11-9-105(a), concerning exclusivity of 3 rights and remedies under the Workers' Compensation Law and resulting from 4 Initiated Act 4 of 1948, is amended to read as follows:

5 (a)(1) The rights and remedies granted to an employee subject to the 6 provisions of this chapter, on account of injury or death, shall be exclusive 7 of all other rights and remedies of the employee, his or her legal 8 representative, dependents, next of kin, or anyone otherwise entitled to 9 recover damages from the employer, or any principal, officer, director, 10 stockholder, or partner acting in his or her capacity as an employer, or 11 prime contractor of the employer, on account of the injury or death, and the 12 negligent acts of a coemployee shall not be imputed to the employer.

13 (2) No A role, capacity, or persona of any employer, principal, 14 officer, director, or stockholder other than that existing in the role of 15 employer of the employee shall not be relevant for consideration for purposes 16 of this chapter, and the remedies and rights provided by this chapter shall 17 in fact be exclusive regardless of the multiple roles, capacities, or 18 personas the employer may be deemed to have.

19 (3) Requiring an employee to perform work when the employer has 20 knowledge that, within the normal course and scope of the employee's job 21 performance, exposure to coronavirus 2019 (COVID-19) or severe acute 22 respiratory syndrome coronavirus 2 (SARS-CoV-2) or any of its mutations is 23 possible, likely, or certain is not intentional conduct that would remove the 24 employer from the protections of this chapter.

26 SECTION 3. Arkansas Code § 11-9-601(e), concerning the definition of 27 "occupational disease" as used in the Workers' Compensation Law, is amended 28 to read as follows:

(e)(1)(A) "Occupational disease", as used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires, means any a disease that results in disability or death and arises out of and in the course of the occupation or employment of the employee or naturally follows or unavoidably results from an injury as that term is defined in this chapter.

(B) However, a causal connection between the occupation or employment and the occupational disease must shall be established by a preponderance of the evidence.

1	(2) No compensation Compensation shall not be payable for any
2	contagious or infectious disease unless contracted in the course of
3	employment in or immediate connection with a hospital or sanitorium in which
4	persons suffering from that disease are cared for or treated.
5	(3) (A) No compensation Except as applicable to coronavirus 2019
6	(COVID-19) or severe acute respiratory syndrome coronavirus 2 (SARS-CoV-2) or
7	any of its mutations, compensation shall not be payable for any ordinary
8	disease of life to which the general public is exposed.
9	(B) Coronavirus 2019 (COVID-19) or severe acute
10	respiratory syndrome coronavirus 2 (SARS-CoV-2) or any of its mutations may
11	be established as an occupational disease if all requirements for
12	occupational diseases provided by law are established by the claimant,
13	including the requirements stated in subdivisions (e)(1)(A) and (B) of this
14	section, for the exception provided under subdivision (e)(3)(A) of this
15	section to apply.
