Dear Mr. Hansen:

Enclosed please find the above-styled claim filed against the Arkansas State Claims Commission. We have also enclosed documentation from two prior claims that Mr. Gilliam filed against the Arkansas Department of Correction which are mentioned in this current claim. We request that you represent the Arkansas State Claims Commission in this claim. Obviously we will be denying liability in this matter.

Your assistance in this matter is much appreciated.

Sincerely,

Norman L. Hodges, Jr.

RESPONDENT

RESPONDENT'S MOTION TO DISMISS

Comes now the Respondent, the Arkansas State Claims Commission, by and through its attorneys, and for its Motion to Dismiss hereby states as follows:

- 1. Petitioner filed the present claim attempting to seek review and reversal of prior Commission decisions denying two claims Petitioner filed against the Arkansas Department of Correction.
- 2. Petitioner's claim is barred as a matter of law on any one of several, independent grounds.
- 3. First, Petitioner's claim is barred by res judicata, because he has already litigated and appealed the property and personal injury claims he asserted against the Department of Correction.
- 4. Second, Petitioner's claim is barred, because the only method to challenge a decision of the Arkansas State Claims Commission is by appeal to the Arkansas

General Assembly. A disgruntled claimant may not challenge a Commission decision by filing a new claim against the Commission itself.

- 5. Third, Petitioner's claim is barred because it fails to state any claim upon which relief can be granted.
- 6. A brief in support of this motion is filed herewith and incorporated by reference herein.

WHEREFORE, for the reasons stated herein, the Respondent respectfully requests that its motion be granted and for any and all other relief to which it may be entitled.

Respectfully submitted,

ARKANSAS STATE CLAIMS COMMISSION

RESPONDENT

RESPONDENT'S BRIEF IN SUPPORT OF ITS MOTION TO DISMISS

Comes now the Respondent, the Arkansas State Claims Commission, by and through its attorneys, and for its Brief in Support of its Motion to Dismiss hereby states as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION.

In late 2012, ADC Inmate Alonzo Gilliam filed two claims with the Commission against the Department of Correction. In Claim No. 13-0329, October 22, 2012, Mr. Gilliam alleged that certain items of his clothing had gone missing from a property storage room while he was temporarily relocated from his cell and that certain other items of his clothing had gone missing from the prison laundry. Mr. Gilliam's claim sought recovery of $950.00 from ADC. In Claim No. 13-0408, Mr. Gilliam sought $6500 for injuries he says he suffered by being pushed into the bars of his cell and struck during an incident when a fire was set near his cell.

In January 2013, the Department of Correction filed a motion to dismiss Gilliam's property claim (13-0329), stating that ADC property records showed no record that Gilliam ever possessed the items he alleged to be missing. ADC contended that either Gilliam never possessed the items, or he had obtained them illegally through prohibited trafficking and trading among inmates, and as a result they were never inventoried. In either event, ADC argued that the claim should be denied. (ADC Motion to Dismiss filed January 2, 2013.). On January 16, 2013, Gilliam responded to the Department's motion to dismiss and argued again that the items of clothing were missing and ADC should be responsible for replacing them. (Claimant's Response to Motion to Dismiss filed January 16, 2013). On February 8, 2013, the Commission granted the Department's motion to dismiss. On March 6, 2013, Mr. Gilliam filed a Motion for Reconsideration of the Commission's Order. He argued that ADC's contentions in its motion to dismiss were incorrect and therefore the Commission's decision granting the motion to dismiss was in error. On April 11, 2013, the Commission issued an order denying Mr. Gilliam's motion for reconsideration. On April 30, 2013, Mr. Gilliam filed a notice of appeal, appealing the Commission's decision to the Arkansas General Assembly. That appeal has not yet been heard or decided.

In December 2012, the Department of Correction filed an answer denying liability on Mr. Gilliam's personal injury claim (No. 13-0408). The Commission then mailed Gilliam a letter advising him that the Department was denying liability and notifying Gilliam that he had 15 days to respond in writing if he wished to have a hearing on the claim. Gilliam did not submit any written request for a hearing within 15 days. On January 11, 2013 the Commission denied and dismissed Gilliam's persona injury claim based on his failure to timely respond. Gilliam filed a Motion for Reconsideration. The Commission denied the Motion for Reconsideration. On February 25, 2013, Mr. Gilliam filed a notice appealing the Commission's dismissal of his claim to the General Assembly. The Claim was reviewed and the Commission's decision was upheld by the Claims Review Subcommittee on March 21, 2013.

Mr. Gilliam has now filed the instant claim against the Commission itself, seeking recovery of $9550.00 from the Commission for refusing to grant his two previous claims against the Department of Correction, including both the property claim (13-0329) and the personal injury claim (13-0408).

II. STANDARD OF REVIEW.

When a respondent moves to dismiss a petitioner's claims, the facts alleged in the complaint are treated as if they were true and reviewed in the light most favorable to the petitioner. Biedenharn v. Thicksten, 361 Ark. 438, 206 S.W.3d 837 (2005). But, the Arkansas Rules of Civil Procedure require fact pleading, and a complaint must state facts sufficient to entitle the petitioner to relief; mere conclusions or bare assertions are not sufficient. Ark. R. Civ. P. 8(a) (1); Doe v. Weiss, 2010 Ark. 150. Petitioner's complaint is properly dismissed, if, on the facts alleged, the respondents are entitled to judgment as a matter of law. Arkansas Dep't of Environmental Quality v. Brighton Corp., 352 Ark. 396, 102 S.W.3d 458 (2003). On appeal, the grant of a motion to dismiss will not be disturbed absent abuse of discretion. Ark. Tech Univ. v. Link, 341 Ark. 495, 501, 17 S.W.3d 809, 812 (2000).

III. DISCUSSION.

A. Petitioner's Claims are Barred by Res Judicata.

Petitioner's claims are barred by principles of res judicata and collateral estoppel, because both claims have been previously litigated to a final decision. He may not now use this action in an attempt to relitigate or collaterally attack the decisions on his claims against the Department of Correction. His personal injury claim has already been upheld by the General Assembly, and his property claim is still pending on appeal to the General Assembly. The decisions may not be challenged by filing a new claim against the decision maker.

A prior ruling precludes a new action on the same facts so long as the litigant had a fair opportunity to litigate the issues in the previous action. Davis v. Little Rock School Dist., 92 Ark. App. 174, 211 S.W. 3d 587 (2005); Cox v. Keahey, 84 Ark. App. 121, 133 S.W. 3d 430 (2003); Pentz v. Romine, 75 Ark. App. 274, 57 S.W. 3d 235 (2001). Consistent with the Arkansas Rules of Civil Procedure and its own procedures, the Commission rejected Petitioner's claims; he cannot now attempt to relitigate those claims by filing a new action raising the same issues. See, e.g., Owen v. State, 249 Ark. 903, 462 S. W. 2d 469 (1971) (Inmate was held to be barred from seeking to litigate in a second proceeding the same claim that had already been decided in a prior action.) There is no doubt that Mr. Gilliam had a full and fair opportunity to litigate his claims. Because his claims were already considered and rejected, Petitioner is barred from relitigating those contentions in the present case. Accordingly, Petitioner's Complaint should be dismissed.

B. Petitioner's Claims against the Department of Correction, a State agency, were cognizable only in the Claims Commission and the only avenue for challenging the Commission's decisions is by appeal to the General Assembly.

The Arkansas General Assembly has established the Arkansas State Claims Commission to provide for the payment of the State's "just and legal debts." See Ark. Code Ann. §§ 19-10-201 through 19-10-210. "The legislature has thus created a method by which claims alleged to be just and legal debts of the state shall be filed, processed, and reviewed by the General Assembly while preserving the state's sovereign immunity as declared in the Constitution." Fireman's Insurance Co. v. Arkansas State Claims Commission, 301 Ark. 451 (1990) (State courts lacked jurisdiction to hear claim against a State agency).

The Claims Commission operates according to the Arkansas Rules of Civil Procedure as supplemented by its own rules; and the review and disposition of claims against the State and her agencies by the Claims Commission satisfies the constitutional requirement of due process of law. Austin v. Arkansas State Highway Commission, 320 Ark. 292 (1995) (State courts lacked jurisdiction to hear claim against State arising from highway construction project; claim properly brought in Arkansas State Claims Commission, which comports with due process); Tri-B Advertising v. Arkansas State Highway Commission, 260 Ark. 227 (1976) (landowner's claims against the State Highway Commission properly brought in Arkansas State Claims Commission).

The Arkansas Code provides the sole means for review of the decisions of the Claims Commission. Section 19-10-211(a) specifically states: "A decision of the Arkansas State Claims Commission may be appealed only to the General Assembly."

That Section also sets forth the specific timelines and procedures for a party to file a notice of appeal. Mr. Gilliam not only was aware of the provisions of 19-10-211 for an appeal to the General Assembly, but he has actually invoked those appeal procedures with respect to both his property and personal injury claims.

The Arkansas Supreme Court has reviewed and upheld the Claims Commission process for claims against the State as satisfying all the requirements of due process; and the Court has explicitly recognized that the power of reviewing the decisions of the Claims Commission lies solely with the legislature. Fireman's Ins. Co. v. Arkansas State Claims Comm'n, 301 Ark. 451, 457 (1990). In Fireman's Insurance the Court explicitly held that Arkansas law did not provide for any review of Claims Commission matters other than by the General Assembly; the Supreme Court concluded that this system satisfied all constitutional requirements:

We hold that the Claims Commission is an arm of the General Assembly and the General Assembly has total control over the determination of and subsequent funding for payment of the "just debts and obligations of the state — all other avenues for redress through legal proceedings being barred by the sovereign immunity provision of the Arkansas Constitution.

Id. at 457. And, in Hanley v. Arkansas State Claims Commission, 333 Ark. 159, 970 S.W.2d 198 (1998), the Court reiterated that the exclusive remedy to challenge a Commission decision is by appeal to the General Assembly:

"In 1949, the General Assembly created the Arkansas Claims Commission for the sole purpose of hearing and resolving claims against the State that could not otherwise be heard by the judiciary. In Fireman's, we clarified that the Commission was an "arm of the legislature," and thus all appeals of the Commission's rulings must be heard by the General Assembly, and not the courts."

Id., at 166.

Thus, under Arkansas law the sole remedy for a claimant aggrieved with a decision of the Claims Commission is to appeal the Commission's decision to the General Assembly. Mr. Gilliam may not institute a new action against the Commission itself in an attempt to collaterally attack the Commission's rulings.

C. Petitioner's claim is also barred as a matter of law, because it fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted.

Petitioner's complaint appears to raise three basic claims. First, he contends that his rights were violated, because he was not given an in-person hearing on his claims. Second, he contends that his rights were denied, because his personal injury claim was dismissed for failing to respond. Third, he argues that -- given his own belief that his claims had merit -- his claims must have been dismissed because of a conspiracy between the Commission and the Department of Correction. Petitioner has failed to back up his conclusory assertions with supporting fact allegations, and his Complaint fails to state any claim upon which relief can be granted.

First, neither due process nor the Commission's rules require that every claim filed with the Commission must be decided only after a full in-person hearing. The Commission follows the same Arkansas Rules of Civil Procedure applicable to suits in Arkansas courts. Just as in lawsuits filed in court, a claim filed in the Commission may be decided on the papers without any hearing, and a claim may be dismissed for failure of one of the parties to follow the applicable procedural rules. Indeed, Mr. Gilliam conceded this point by arguing that his personal injury claim should be decided in his own favor without ever getting to the merits, based on his contention that ADC had defaulted by not timely filing its Answer. Mr. Gilliam's argument that he should win by default turned out to be mistaken, because ADC had 30 days to file its first responsive pleading and not 20 days as Mr. Gilliam asserted. But by so arguing, Mr. Gilliam admitted that not every case must be decided on the merits after a hearing; some cases will be decided on procedural grounds or based on a party's failure to follow the applicable rules. Mr. Gilliam's personal injury claim fell into this category. He was required to respond to the Commission's notice within 15 days but failed to do so.

Procedural due process requires only that a person be given notice and the opportunity to be heard before he is deprived of any significant property interest. Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319 (1976); Boddie v. Connecticut, 501 U.S. 371 (1971). So long as a person has the opportunity to argue why proposed action should not be taken, due process is satisfied. Cleveland Bd. of Educ. v. Loudermill, 470 U.S. 532 (1985). Mr. Gilliam was not denied due process merely because his claims were decided without a full-blown, in-person hearing.

Second, due process is also not denied where a claim is dismissed for failing to follow a procedural requirement, such as the rule here requiring Gilliam to respond within 15 days. As the Arkansas Supreme Court has held, denial of subsequent relief is fundamentally fair where a petitioner had the opportunity to pursue his remedies but failed timely to do so. Maulding v. State, 299 Ark. 570, 776 S.W.2d 339 (1989). And, due process does not require a separate set of rules for pro se or inmate litigants. All litigants, including those proceeding without counsel, are responsible for following procedural rules in perfecting their rights in litigation. Watkins v. State, 2010 Ark. 156 (2010) (Inmates like other litigants are required to follow the procedural rules and act in a timely manner.). Petitioner's Complaint demonstrates that he had notice of the proceedings and, indeed, he actively participated. Due process is not violated merely because the Commission dismissed Petitioner's complaints and denied his motions for reconsideration.

Finally, Petitioner's conclusory contention that his claims were denied as the result of a conspiracy between ADC and the Claims Commission is entirely baseless and devoid of factual support. Accordingly, his argument is legally insufficient to state a claim for relief. The Arkansas Supreme Court has repeatedly held that a petitioner must allege specific facts; vague assertions, conclusory allegations, and the use of legal terms or labels without factual support will not suffice. Doe v. Weiss, 2010 Ark. 150 ("Our rules require fact pleading, and a complaint must state facts, not mere conclusions, in order to entitle the pleader to relief."). To state a claim for conspiracy, a petitioner must show: (1) a combination of two or more persons; (2) based on an agreement to accomplish a purpose that is unlawful or oppressive, (3) which resulted in the injury of another. See, e.g., Born v. Hosto & Buchan, PLLC, 2010 Ark. 292, 308 S.W.3d 573 (2010). Petitioner's Complaint makes plain that he has no facts to back up his claim of a conspiracy. He merely infers, based on his belief that his claims had merit and the fact that they were denied, that the reason for the denial must have been due to a conspiracy against him. As the Arkansas Supreme Court said in Hodges v. Lamora, another case where a public official was alleged to have engaged in a conspiracy: "Even viewing these allegations expansively, we cannot make the leap in logic that the [mere fact that the event occurred] . . . equated to a conspiracy." Hodges v. Lamora, 337 Ark. 470, 476, 989 S.W.2d 530, 533 (Ark. 1999) (Because the complaint failed to allege specific facts that would support a claim of conspiracy, the Circuit Court granted the defendants' motion to dismiss for failure to state a claim and the Supreme Court affirmed.). Having pleaded no specific facts showing agreement, unlawful purpose, or unlawful means (because there are no such facts), Petitioner's conspiracy claim, like his other arguments, is insufficient as a matter of law.

IV. CONCLUSION.

WHEREFORE, for the reasons stated herein, the Respondent respectfully requests that its motion be granted and for any and all other relief to which it may be entitled.

Respectfully submitted,

Department of Corrections

Dear Mr. Gilliam:

Please be advised that the Respondent in the above-styled claim is disputing liability in an "answer" filed on your claim. This letter does not deal with any motions, discovery request or other matters related to this claim.

When liability is contested by the Respondent, the only alternative available to the Claimant is to appear before the Arkansas State Claims Commission at an oral hearing so testimony and evidence may be presented to refute the position of the Respondent. If you wish to attend a hearing on this claim, please notify this office in writing within fifteen (15) calendar days from the date of this letter and a hearing will be arranged.

If you fail to respond to this letter, or do not wish to pursue this claim at a hearing, this claim will be dismissed at the next meeting of the Claims Commission.

Sincerely,

Norman L. Hodges, Jr.

Dear Mr. Gilliam:

This office mailed you a complaint form that may be used to file your claim against the Claims Commission. The instructions are on the back of the yellow copy of the form. We also enclosed detailed instructions for filing your claim. This office does not have grievance forms nor does it require you to file a grievance prior to filing a claim with us.

Also, regarding your letter the Attorney General's Office forwarded to us, inmates cannot file a FOIA request. You are or should be aware that it is your responsibility to maintain records of your claim filings.

Copies of Claims Commission's Rules and Regulations are in your unit's library for your use.

The Claims Commission has no copies of any rules/procedures used by the General Assembly Committee. The Claims Commission only requires that you file any appeal of the Commission's decision(s) on regular paper and submit it to this office. We will then forward the appeal to the Legislative Subcommittee.

BEFORE THE ARKANSAS STATE CLAIMS COMMISSION

ALONZO GILLIAM (ADC #09194)

CLAIMANT

٧.

NO. 13-0329-CC

ARKANSAS DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTION

RESPONDENT

RESPONDENT'S MOTION TO DISMISS

1. Claimant filed two claims for loss of property. He seeks a total of $950.00 in damages.

CLAIM #1:

- 2. Claimant alleges that on May 15, 2012, upon his release from isolation, he discovered that 2 mugs, 1 denture gold cup, 1 pair of Nike shoes, 1 laundry bag, 4 sweat pants, 4 sweat shirts, and 4 t-shirts were missing from his property.
- 3. A review of claimant's property records prior to his entry into isolation is most helpful in determining what property he possessed.
- 4. Attached hereto are personal property inventory records written December 9, 2011 and returned on January 5, 2012 and February 2, 2012 and returned on March 7, 2012; and his behavior control inventory from May 10, 2012 and his shakedown on November 11, 2012. See Exhibit "A".

5. The table created below illustrates the discrepancies in claimant's allegations of missing

property versus what he possessed prior to and after May 15, 2012:

Alleged missing 5/15/12	12/9/11-1/5/12	2/10/12-3/7/12	5/10/12	11/11/12
2 cups —	1 .	2	0	0
1 denture gold	0	?	0	0
cup
1 Nike shoes	0	0	0	0
1 laundry bag	3	0	1	2
(claimed had 4)
4 shirts	0	0	0	0 ~
3 sweatpants —	0	0	0	0 2
3sweatshirts -	1	2	0	0 ~
1 wristwatch —	0	0	0	0 ×
1 eyeglasses -	2	2	0	1 ×

6. Claimant alleges he was missing a gold denture cup, yet, he has never been in possession of a gold denture cup prior to May 15, 2012 and there is no record of Claimant wearing dentures to be in need of a denture cup which are usually made of plastic and issued by dental services.

RE: Alonzo Gilliam, ADC#098194 v. Arkansas State Claims Commission

Claims Commission Case No. 13-0759-CC

Dear Mr. Hodges:

I am in receipt of Mr. Gilliam's response to the Motion to Dismiss I previously filed on behalf of the Commission. As Mr. Gilliam does not advance any new arguments in his response, but merely repeats the same contentions he has made several times previously, it does not appear that any Reply on behalf of the Commission is warranted. Accordingly, it appears that the Commission may treat the matter as ready for decision at its convenience.

Please let me know if can be of further assistance.

very truly your

Mr. Nornan Hodges . Jr.

I'm In Receipt Of A Letter Fron Attorney Dennis Hansen Directed To You Regrading My Response To the Motion To DISMISS That HE FILE CONCERNING This Claim. In This Letter Mr. Hansen Stated That I made No New Anguments In My Response And That I Merely Repeat The Same Things That I Had several Times Previously: Claimant State The Following In Response To The Comments made by Attorney Honsen In That Letter. I State The Following.

*1. In My Response To His Motion To Dismiss. Claimant Stated Several New Argumenta And submitted "Exhibits" As Documentary Evidence To support My Arguments with Facts. *2. Ma. Hansen Made A Mistake When He State I Merely Repeated. The Same Things That I Had Several Times Previously. __ That Responde Was The Frist Thing I've File Stare The Filting Of This Above Claim. Attorney Hansen Clearly Made Mistakes Regrating the Facts In My Responde

To His Motion To Dismics.

Therefore I Ack That Respondents Motion Be Denicd. And That This Claim Be Schedule For A Hearing With Claiment Present And or To Be Awarded Reliet.

Respertfully submitted.

On April, 30,2013, I Pro Se Claimant File A Claim Against The Claims Conmission For Failing To Correct A Filing Mistake Made By The Comm
Claimants Clain To Be Dismissed, The Commissions Actions was Abuse of Discretion, For The Wrongful Dismissal of Other Claims Stating That Their Action Did Not Satisfy Due Process And Consisted Of Some Conspiracy Like Activist.
The Respondents File A Motion To Dismiss Which was Consided  By The Connission On July-11-2013, Stating The Reason Contained
. Therein For Disnissal.
On July 24, 2013. Claimant File A Notice of Appeal To That Decision And Today on Aug. 5. 2013. Gilliam Is Filing His. Appeal. Stating That With These Documents And Other Informs. tion Gilliam Will Show That His Property Claims Were Wrongfully. Dismissed And That His Personnel Injury Claims Were Dismiss. For A Mistake Made Solely By The Clain Commission Own Person. nel. And That Once Claimant Alonzo Gilliam Informed The Commission Of Their Error, Instead Of Correcting Their Mistake, They Purposely Disregarded That Information And Dismissed All Three Of Claimants Claims At Once.

When It was Clear That Those Claims were Not Frivolous on Any Ground . See: Nash V. Black 781 F. 2d 665, 668 (8th Cir. 1986)
Citing Horsey V. Asher, 741 F. 2d 209, 212 (8th Cir. 1984).
It was An Abuse Of Discretion For The Commission To Dismiss A Complaint That Is Not Legal Frivolous E.g., Nash V. Black, 781 F.2d. At 668, Citing Horsey V. Asher, 741 F.2d at 212; Green V. Black, 755 F.2d 687, 688 (8th Cir. 1985)
The Question of Whether A Complaint Is Legally Frivolous Is One of Law Not Just Fact. Nash V. Black, 781 F. 2d At 667.
And To Denie And Dismiss This Claim Would Be To Subject Claiment  To The Same Faith And Misjust. Tilhen Claiment Could Clearly  Prove Several Set of Facts To Support Of Thiose And This Claim  Which Would Entitle Me To Relief.  Smith V. Baron. 699 F. 2d H34 (8th Cla 1983) (Per Cunian), citing.  Willson V. Towa. 636 F. 2d 1165, 1168 (8th Cix. 1981); See Honsey.  M. Asher. 741 F. 2d At 211 28 8 N. 3, Citing Haines V. Kranen, 4nd  125. 519, 520, 92 S. Ct. 594, 595, 30 L. Ed. 2d 652 1972  This Count To Under A Duty of Law To Examine The Complaints To Determine of Claimants Allegations Provide For Relief on Any Possible  Theory. — Bramlet V. Wilson, 495 F. 2d 714, 716 8th Cix 1974;  See Eng. White V. Bloom, 621 F. 2d 276, 279 (6th Cix.)
This Claim Involves Three Complaints, # Being The Warnafully Dismissal of Gilliam Property Claim, were The Committee Cleanly Abused Discretion, #2. The Dismissal of Failliam Pensonal Injury Claim For Fabricated Reasons And A Filing Mistake Made By The Claims Commissions Staff" Which They Choose To Over Look Each Time Gilliam Inform Them of Their Mistake, But A Total of Att Less Six People Came Together with The Knowledge of The Endling Franks on The Commissions Part

And Agreed To Over Look Those Mistake And Denie "Disniss"
#3 Claims At Once
. Those Actions Were Clearly Abusive, Depriving, Conspiratorist.
And Denied Due Process, See: Nash V. Black, 781, F. 2d 665, 668
(8 th Cin. 1986) Citing Horsey V. Asher, 741 F. 2d 209, 212(8th cin.
1984). Nach V. Black 781 F. 2d at 668, citing Honsey V. Ashen, 741
- F-2d at 212; GREEN V. Black, 755 F. 2d 687. 688 (8 +4 Cir 1985).

AD 10-20, And That Form Was Sign By Officer Steven A Eldnidge
On May-15-2012 To Verify He Had Inventoried And Place That Property In Storage His Self. See Exhibit D-1.
On Der 14. 2012 The Claim Commission Granted Gilliam Motion.
. For Production of Doruments, And ordered Respondents to Respond
By Jan. 4. 2013, In Which They Complyed In Part, In Those Documents Respondents Produced The Very Documents They Claim
- Did Not Exist, Which was A Property Form Dated May-15-2012

And To Rrove My Point And To Show That I was Intitled To Relief, I Ask. That You Look At Exhibit E-1, This Is The Table Respondents Made up
That You Look At Exhibit E-1, This Is The Table Respondents Made up
To Illustrate Claimants Property As You Can See From This Illustration.
Respondents ARR Saying That Gilliam Had Almost No Property At All In Respondents ARR Saying That Gilliam Had Almost No Property At All In His Possession, And This Illustration was said to Have Begin On Dec. 9 2011.
Now I Ask That You Look At Exhibit A-1 And And These Documents Not Only Show That I Had These Items And That I Had Them Before Dec. 9
2011. It Also Shows That The ADC Also Had Records of This Property
Because It was Inventoried At This Unit. These Exhibits Also Proves That This Property Table was Just Fabrication And All The Reasons
They Used In Their Motion To Dismiss Was Fabricated As Well.
And There Is No Doudt That Claimant If Given A Full And Fair Chance
To Litigate His Claim, Would Have Been Awarded Relief And These Exhibits Proves That Beyond A Shadow Of A Doudt.
Which I Pointed out In My Motion For Reconsideration, But on.
April 11, 2013, The Commission Denied Claimants Motion Stating That Claimant Fail To offer Evidence That Was Not Previously Available
On April, 30, 2013, Gilliam File A Notice of Appeal, Arguing That HE Could Not Possible Office Evidence That Was Not Previously Available
Because I Did Not Have It Until Respondents Provided Them To Miles
And That The Commission Had Ordered Them To Produce Those Doruments.
So Why Would The Commission Hold Mr. Accountable For Producing Evidence That Support My Claims, And Dismiss My Claims For Providing Then With The Evidence That Showed I was Intitled To Relief?
> That Claim Is Ftill Pending A Discision which Has Yet To Be Made By The General Assembly, As Fax As I know.
But For My Claim To Be Dismissed As They WERE After All The Proof
That I Prosented Tham With There Had To Be something Else
Behind Those Dismissals, Because It's Clear My Claims Were Not Behind Those Dismissals, Because It's Clear My Claims Wenc Not Frivolous On Any Claim, "BUT RESPONENTS DEFENSE WAS" 60

BEFORE THE ARKANSAS STATE CLAIMS COMMISSION

ALONZO GILLIAM (ADC #09194)

CLAIMANT

٧.

NO. 13-0329-CC

ARKANSAS DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTION

RESPONDENT

RESPONDENT'S MOTION TO DISMISS

1. Claimant filed two claims for loss of property. He seeks a total of $950.00 in damages.

CLAIM #1:

- 2. Claimant alleges that on May 15, 2012, upon his release from isolation, he discovered that 2 mugs, 1 denture gold cup, 1 pair of Nike shoes, 1 laundry bag, 4 sweat pants, 4 sweat shirts, and 4 t-shirts were missing from his property.
- 3. A review of claimant's property records prior to his entry into isolation is most helpful in determining what property he possessed.
- 4. Attached hereto are personal property inventory records written December 9, 2011 and returned on January 5, 2012 and February 2, 2012 and returned on March 7, 2012; and his behavior control inventory from May 10, 2012 and his shakedown on November 11, 2012. See Exhibit "A".

5. The table created below illustrates the discrepancies in claimant's allegations of missing

property versus what he possessed prior to and after May 15, 2012:

Alleged missing 5/15/12	12/9/11-1/5/12	2/10/12-3/7/12	5/10/12	11/11/12
2 cups —	1 .	2	0	0 :
1 denture gold cup	0	?	0	0
1 Nike shoes	0	0	0	0
1 laundry bag (claimed had 4)	3	0	1	2
4 shirts	0	0	0	0 ×
3 sweatpants —	0	0	0	0 ×
3sweatshirts 🚄	1	2	0	0 ×
1 eyeglasses -	2	2	0	1 ×

6. Claimant alleges he was missing a gold denture cup, yet, he has never been in possession of a gold denture cup prior to May 15, 2012 and there is no record of Claimant wearing dentures to be in need of a denture cup which are usually made of plastic and issued by dental services.
