- Supplemental Education Services - $8.5 both fiscal years, to be funded with ARPA funds.
- Merit Teacher Incentive Fund - $10 million both fiscal years, to be funded with ARPA funds.
- High Impact Tutoring - $20 million both fiscal years, to be funded with ARPA funds.
- Charter School Facilities - $10 to $12 million funded with a Charter School Facilities Set-Aside established in Act 561.

FUNDING FOR ACT 659 – THE PROTECT ARKANSAS ACT

The following is a summary of the funding associated with the Protect Arkansas Act:

- Act 561 established the “Correctional Facilities Set-Aside”, in the amount of $330 million for the Correctional Facilities related cost that may be released from time to time as requested by the Department of Corrections and approved by the Arkansas Legislative Council.
- The Prosecutor Coordinator's Office will establish a statewide certified facility dog program to assist child and vulnerable victims and child and vulnerable witnesses throughout the criminal justice system, known as the Paws for Justice program, at an estimated cost of $600,000.
- The Administrative Office of the Courts will implement the expansion or establishment of specialty court programs in circuit courts with an estimated cost of $4.5 million to be funded from the State Central Services Fund.
- DHS – Division of Aging, Adult and Behavioral Health Services may establish and maintain a mental health program to provide restoration services in a secure setting for defendants who have been found to lack fitness to proceed and are not in an acute phase of illness requiring the services of a psychiatric hospital, at an estimated cost of $2.25 million, funded from the Revenue Stabilization Act.
- The Department of Corrections - Sentencing Commission will provide training associated with the Protect Arkansas Act, at an estimated cost of $100,000, funded from the Revenue Stabilization Act.

Personnel Related Legislation Enacted – 2023 Regular Session

The Uniform Classification and Compensation Act for Departments and Agencies Act 886 of 2023 (SB565)

- Section 1 was amended to remove a sunset date for the listed classifications. This eliminates the requirement to address the listed classifications each session. That section will only be adjusted if needed.
- Section 2 increased the number of Surrender Pool positions from 700 to 1500. This will provide the legislature and the executive branch the flexibility to adjust positions as needed during the interim.
- Section 3 creates the option for employees at the maximum salary level of their assigned grade to receive a Merit Increase that will exceed the maximum. OPM must receive approval from Legislative Council prior to paying over the maximum by providing a list of all employees who will receive the salary increases.

The Uniform Classification and Compensation Act for Institutions of Higher Education Act 778 of 2023 (SB491)

- During the fall hearings all institutions were approved to move graded positions to unclassified (line item maximum) positions.
- Due to the change in position status for all institutions, Act 778 eliminates all language related to Higher Education in Arkansas Code under Title 21, Chapter 5, Subchapter 14 of the Arkansas Code.
- Included in the elimination of Subchapter 14 is the need for a “Pay Plan” for the positions at Institutions of Higher Education, because they no longer have pay grades.
- Language that needed to be retained was moved to Title 6, Chapter 63, Subchapter 3 of the Arkansas Code.
- Included in transfer of language was new language that created a “Surrender Pool” for the institutions to be maintained by the Division of Higher Education.
