SECTION 2. Arkansas Code 17-96-309 is amended to read as follows:

"17-96-309. Fees.

(a) There shall be paid to the board chairman by each applicant for a permanent license an application fee of two hundred dollars ($200). An additional fee to be determined by the board, but in no event to exceed the sum of one hundred dollars ($100), shall be paid as deemed necessary to defray the cost of acquiring and administering the examination test and related expenses in connection therewith.

(b) An additional sum of two hundred dollars ($200) shall be paid when the initial license is issued.

(c) Each licensee shall pay the board an annual fee in an amount as may be determined by the board, but not to exceed three hundred dollars ($300) for renewal of a license.

(d) No part of any fee shall be returnable under any circumstances other than failure of the board to hold examinations at the time originally announced, whereupon the entire fee may be returned at the option of the candidate."

SECTION 2. All provisions of this act of a general and permanent nature are amendatory to the Arkansas Code of 1987 Annotated and the Arkansas Code Revision Commission shall incorporate the same in the Code.

SECTION 3. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are declared to be severable.

SECTION 4. All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.
