     or 11
                                   (h) Domestic battering in the first degree, §
     5-26-303; or
                       (B) A conviction of a comparable felony involving violence
13
14
     from another jurisdiction.
15
                 (3)(A) The following procedure shall govern trials at which a 16
     sentence to an extended term of imprisonment is sought pursuant to this 17
     subsection:
                                  The jury shall first hear all evidence relevant 18
                             (i) 19
     to the felony involving violence with which the defendant is currently charged and shall retire to reach a verdict of guilt or innocence on this 20
21
     charge;
22
                             (ii)(a) If the defendant is found guilty of the 23
     felony involving violence, the trial court, out of the hearing of the jury, 24
     shall hear evidence of whether the defendant has pleaded guilty or nolo 25
     contendere to, or been found guilty of, two (2) or more prior felonies 26
     involving violence and shall determine the number of such prior felony 27
     convictions, if any.
28
                                   (b) The defendant shall have the right to hear 29
     and controvert this evidence and to offer evidence in his or her support; 30
                             (iii)(a) The trial court shall then instruct the 31
     jury as to the number of previous convictions involving violence and the 32
     statutory sentencing range.
33
                                   (b) The jury may be advised as to the nature
34
     of the previous convictions and the date and place thereof; and 35
                                   The jury shall retire again and then determine (iv)
36
     a sentence within the statutory range.
