"SECTION 1. The subsection of Arkansas Constitution, Article 5, § 1, titled "Initiative", is amended to read as follows:

Initiative. (a) The first power reserved by the people is the initiative. Eight ~~per cent~~ percent (8%) of the legal voters may propose any law and ten ~~per cent~~ percent (10%) may propose a constitutional amendment by initiative petition and every such petition shall include the full text of the measure so proposed. Initiative petitions for ~~state-wide~~ statewide measures shall be filed with the Secretary of State ~~not less~~ no later than ~~four months~~ January 15 before ~~of the year of~~ the election at which they are to be voted upon; provided, that at least thirty ~~(30)~~ days before the aforementioned filing, the proposed statewide measure shall have been published once, at the expense of the petitioners, in some paper of general circulation.

(b) The General Assembly shall enact laws establishing a process for the approval of the sufficiency of the title of a proposed initiated measure prior to the circulation of initiative petitions.

SECTION 2. The subsection of Arkansas Constitution, Article 5, § 1, titled "Referendum", is amended to read as follows:

Referendum. (a) The second power reserved by the people is the referendum, and any number not less than six per cent percent (6%) of the legal voters may, by petition, order the referendum against any general Act, or any item of an appropriation bill, or measure passed by the General Assembly, but the filing of a referendum petition against one (1) or more items, sections or parts of any such act or measure shall not delay the remainder from becoming operative. Such petition shall be filed with the Secretary of State not later than ninety (90) days after the final adjournment of the session at which such Act was passed, except when a recess or adjournment shall be taken temporarily for a longer period than ninety (90) days, in which case such petition shall be filed not later than ninety (90) days after such recess or temporary adjournment. Any measure referred to the people by referendum petition shall remain in abeyance until such vote is taken. The total number of votes cast for the office of Governor in the last preceding general election shall be the basis upon which the number of signatures of legal voters upon ~~state-wide~~ statewide initiative and referendum petitions shall be computed.

(b) The General Assembly shall enact laws establishing a process for the approval of the sufficiency of the title of a statewide referendum before the circulation of referendum petitions.

(c)(1) Upon all statewide initiative or referendum petitions provided for in any of the sections of this article, it shall be necessary to file ~~from at least fifteen of the counties of the State,~~ petitions bearing the signature of not less than one-half (1/2) of the designated percentage of the electors of ~~such county at least one-fourth (1/4) of the counties in each congressional district.~~

(2) In calculating the number of counties representing one-fourth (1/4) of the counties within a congressional district, the number shall be rounded up to the nearest whole number.

SECTION 3. The subsection of Arkansas Constitution, Article 5, § 1, titled "Definition", is amended to read as follows:

Definition. (a) The Except as provided in subdivision (b) of this subsection, the word "measure" as used herein includes any bill, law, resolution, ordinance, charter, constitutional amendment or legislative proposal or enactment of any character.

(b) The word "measure" does not include the following, which shall not be proposed and submitted to the people under this section:

Verification. (a) Only legal votes signatures shall be counted upon petitions. Petitions may be circulated and presented in parts, but each part of any petition shall have attached thereto the affidavit of the person circulating the same, that all signatures thereon were made in the presence of the affiant, and that to the best of the affiant's knowledge and belief each signature is genuine, and that the person signing is a legal voter and no other affidavit or verification shall be required to establish the genuineness of such signatures.

(b)(1) An initiative petition shall not be circulated before the date of the general election preceding the general election at which the proposed measure is to be voted upon.

(2) Any signatures obtained on an initiative petition in violation of subdivision (b)(1) of this section are invalid.

SECTION 8. The subsection of Arkansas Constitution, Article 5, § 1, titled "Court Decisions", is amended to read as follows:

Court Decisions. If the sufficiency of any petition is challenged such cause shall be a preference cause and shall be tried at once. A challenge to the sufficiency of the title of a proposed measure or the text of a proposed measure shall be filed not later than thirty (30) days following the approval of the title of a proposed measure in the manner required by the General Assembly. A challenge to the sufficiency of the signatures submitted on a statewide petition or the form of the statewide petition on which the signatures were submitted shall be filed no later than thirty (30) days following the petition being declared sufficient. but ~~the~~ The failure of the courts to decide prior to the election as to the sufficiency of any such petition, shall not prevent the question from being placed upon the ballot at the election named in such petition, nor militate against the validity of such measure, if it shall have been approved by a vote of the people.

SECTION 9. The subsection of Arkansas Constitution, Article 5, § 1, titled "Amendment of Petition", is amended to read as follows:

Amendment of Petition.

(a)(1) If the Secretary of State, county clerk or city clerk, as the case may be, shall decide any petition to be insufficient, he or she shall without delay notify the sponsors of such petition, and permit at least thirty (30) days from the date of such notification, in the instance of a ~~state-wide~~ statewide petition, or ten (10) days in the instance of a municipal or county petition, for correction or amendment.

(2) For a ~~state-wide~~ statewide petition, correction or amendment of an insufficient petition shall be permitted only if the petition contains valid signatures of legal voters equal to:

(A) At least seventy-five percent (75%) of the number of ~~state-wide~~ statewide signatures of legal voters required; and

(B) At least seventy-five percent (75%) of the required number of signatures of legal voters from each of at least ~~fifteen (15) counties of the state~~ one-fourth (1/4) of the counties in each congressional district as required under this section.

(b)(1) Signatures for the correction or amendment of an insufficient petition shall not be collected while the Secretary of State, county clerk, or city clerk, as the case may be, is determining the sufficiency of the petition.

(2) A signature collected for the purpose of correction or amendment before a petition has been deemed insufficient and eligible for correction or amendment is not valid for the purposes of correction or amendment of an insufficient petition.

(b)(c) In the event of legal proceedings to prevent giving legal effect to any petition upon any grounds, the burden of proof shall be upon the person or persons attacking the validity of the petition.

SECTION 10. The subsection of Arkansas Constitution, Article 5, § 1, titled "Unwarranted Restrictions Prohibited", is amended to read as follows:

Unwarranted Restrictions Prohibited. (a) No law shall be passed to prohibit any person or persons from giving or receiving compensation for circulating petitions, nor to prohibit the circulation of petitions, nor in any manner interfering with the freedom of the people in procuring petitions; but laws shall be enacted prohibiting and penalizing perjury, forgery, and all other felonies or other fraudulent practices, in the securing of signatures or filing of petitions.

(b) The General Assembly may enact laws necessary for the implementation of this section, including without limitation laws concerning the regulation of:

(1) Individuals involved in the process of the submission and circulation of petitions under this section, including without limitation persons who:

(A) Submit the title of a measure for approval prior to the circulation of petitions;

(B) Sponsor a measure for approval and compensate persons to canvas for petition signatures;

(C) Canvas for petition signatures; and

(D) Receive any type of compensation to canvass for petition signatures; and

(2) Organizations that compensate canvassers for petition signatures or otherwise provide services to the sponsor of a petition.

SECTION 11. Arkansas Constitution, Article 5, § 1, is amended to add additional subsections to read as follows:

Extension of Time. If a deadline under this section occurs on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, the deadline shall be the next day which is not a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday.

Amendments to this Section by the General Assembly. The General Assembly, in the same manner as required for amendment or repeal of measures approved by a vote of the people, may amend this section so long as such amendments are germane to this section and consistent with its policy and purposes.

SECTION 12. Arkansas Constitution, Article 19, § 22, is amended to read as follows:

§ 22. Constitutional amendments.

Either branch of the General Assembly, at a regular session thereof, may propose amendments to this Constitution; and if the same be agreed to by a majority of all members elected to each house, such proposed amendments shall be entered on the journals with the yeas and nays, and published in at least one (1) newspaper in each county, where a newspaper is published, for six (6) months immediately preceding the next general election for Senators and Representatives, at which time the same shall be submitted to the electors of the State, for approval or rejection; and if a majority of the electors voting at such election adopt such amendments, the same shall become a part of this Constitution. But no more than three (3) amendments shall be proposed or submitted at the same time. They shall be so submitted as to enable the electors to vote on each amendment separately. The sufficiency of a proposed amendment under this section shall be decided by the Supreme Court, which shall have original and exclusive jurisdiction over all such causes. If the sufficiency of a proposed amendment is challenged, the challenge shall be a preference cause and shall be tried at once. The failure of the Supreme Court to decide prior to the election as to the sufficiency of any proposed amendment, shall not prevent the question from being placed upon the ballot at the election named in such proposed amendment, nor militate against the validity of such proposed amendment, if it shall have been approved by a vote of the people.

SECTION 13. Arkansas Constitution, Amendment 70, § 2, is amended to read as follows:

§ 2. Additional Constitutional amendments authorized.

(a) In addition to the three (3) amendments to ~~the~~ this Constitution allowed pursuant to Article 19, § 22, either branch of the General Assembly at a regular session thereof may propose an amendment to ~~the~~ this Constitution to change the salaries for the offices of Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Attorney General, Secretary of State, Treasurer of State, Commissioner of State Lands, and Auditor of State and for members of the ~~General Assembly. If the same be agreed to by a majority of all members elected to each house, such proposed amendment shall be entered on the journals with the yeas and nays, and published in at least one newspaper in each county, where a newspaper is published, for six months immediately preceding the next general election for Senators and Representatives, at which time the same shall be submitted to the electors of the State for approval or rejection. If a majority of the electors voting at such election adopt the amendment the same shall become a part of this Constitution.~~

~~(b) Only one (1) amendment to the this Constitution may be referred pursuant to this section.~~

~~(c) An amendment proposed under the authority of this section shall comply with the requirements of Article 19, § 22, of this Constitution.~~

~~SECTION 14. EFFECTIVE DATE. This amendment shall be effective on and after January 1, 2021.~~

~~SECTION 15. BALLOT TITLE AND POPULAR NAME. When this proposed amendment is submitted to the electors of this state on the general election ballot:~~

~~(1) The title of this joint resolution shall be the ballot title; and~~

~~(2) The popular name shall be "An Amendment to the Arkansas Constitution Concerning the Requirements Governing Circulation, Submission, and Challenges to the Sufficiency of Initiated Measures and Referenda Proposed Under Arkansas Constitution, Article 5, § 1, and Constitutional Amendments Proposed by the General Assembly".~~
