"SECTION 1. LEGISLATIVE INTENT.

(a) The General Assembly finds that:

(1) The Arkansas Constitution establishes the General Assembly to serve the citizens of the State of Arkansas;

(2) Members of the General Assembly are subject to term limits established by Arkansas Constitution, Amendment 73; and

(3) Each provision of this amendment is intended to allow the citizens of the State of Arkansas to amend the Arkansas Constitution concerning the terms served by members of the General Assembly.

(b) The General Assembly finds that this proposed constitutional amendment addresses the subject of the terms served by members of the General Assembly by amending the term limits applicable to members of the General Assembly and reserving the right to amend legislative term limits in the future to the General Assembly."
