28 SECTION 3. Arkansas Code Title 12, Chapter 15, is amended to add an 30

31 Subchapter 4 – The Arkansas Red Flag Law

32
33 12-15-401. Title.

34 This subchapter shall be known and may be cited as the "Arkansas Red 35 Flag Law".

1           12-15-402. Legislative intent.

2           The intent of this subchapter is to provide for a restriction of access 3 to a firearm for a person who has demonstrated that he or she poses a risk of 4 imminent personal injury to himself, herself, or to another person while 5 providing the person with due process to contest the restriction if the 6 person can show that he or she does not pose a risk of imminent personal 7 injury to himself, herself, or to another person. Further, the General 8 Assembly intends to provide for the return of any firearm taken into custody 9 to the person from whom the firearm was taken either after a definite period 10 of time or after the person has shown that he or she no longer poses a risk 11 of imminent personal injury to himself, herself, or to another person.

12

13           12-15-403. Sworn affidavit required.

14           (a) Any two (2) certified law enforcement officers may swear under 15 oath by affidavit to a district court judge or circuit court judge that 16 probable cause exists to believe that:

17                   (1) A person poses a risk of imminent personal injury to 18 himself, herself, or to another person;

19                   (2) The person possesses one (1) or more firearms; and 20                   (3) The firearm or firearms are in or at any place or thing, or 21 are possessed by the person.

22           (b) The certified law enforcement officers shall not swear under oath 23 by affidavit unless the certified law enforcement officers have conducted an 24 independent investigation and have determined that probable cause exists as 25 described in subsection (a) of this section and that there is no reasonable 26 alternative available to prevent the person from causing imminent personal 27 injury with a firearm to himself, herself, or to another person.

28

29           12-15-404. Issuance of emergency risk protection order and warrant by 30 judge – Grounds and findings.

31           (a) A district court judge or circuit court judge may only issue an 32 emergency risk protection order and warrant under this subchapter if the 33 sworn affidavit under § 12-15-403 establishes the required grounds for 34 issuing the emergency risk protection order and warrant.

35           (b) In determining whether grounds for the emergency risk protection 36 order and warrant exist or whether there is probable cause to believe the 1 grounds exist, the district court judge or circuit court judge shall consider 2 any recent:

3 (1) Threat or act of violence by the person directed toward 4 another person; and

5 (2) Threat or act of violence by the person directed toward 6 himself or herself.

7 (c) When evaluating under this section whether the recent threat or 8 act of violence constitutes probable cause to believe that the person poses a 9 risk of imminent personal injury to himself, herself, or to another person, 10 the district court judge or circuit court judge may consider other factors, 11 including without limitation:

12 (1) The reckless use, display, or brandishing of a firearm by 13 the person;

14 (2) A history of the use, attempted use, or threatened use of 15 physical force by the person against another person;

16 (3) An act of cruelty by the person to an animal;

17 (4) Prior involuntary confinement of the person in a mental 18 health facility, crisis intervention unit, or medical facility where the 19 person received treatment for a mental health condition; and 20 (5) The illegal use of a controlled substance or abuse of 21 alcohol by the person.

22 (d)(1) If the district court judge or circuit court judge is satisfied 23 that grounds for the emergency risk protection order and warrant exist or 24 that there is probable cause to believe that the grounds exist, the district 25 court judge or circuit court judge shall issue an emergency risk protection 26 order and warrant naming or describing the person, place, or thing to be 27 searched, and what thing or things may be seized or otherwise taken into 28 custody.

29 (2) If the search results in the discovery of a firearm 30 possessed by the person who has been shown to pose a risk of imminent 31 personal injury to himself, herself, or to another person, the law 32 enforcement agency conducting the search may take the firearm into custody.

33
34 12-15-405. Orders contained in emergency risk protection order and 35 warrant.

36 An emergency risk protection order and warrant issued under this

1 subchapter shall:

2 (1) Be directed to any certified law enforcement officer;

3 (2) State the grounds or probable cause for issuance of the 4 emergency risk protection order and warrant;

5 (3) Command the certified law enforcement officer to immediately 6 search the person, place, or thing named in the emergency risk protection 7 order and warrant for any firearm; and 8 (4) Order the certified law enforcement officer to take any 9 firearm located or discovered into the certified law enforcement officer's 10 custody.

11
12 12-15-406. Filing application and supporting documents.

13 (a) An applicant for an emergency risk protection order and warrant 14 issued under this subchapter shall file a copy of the application for the 15 emergency risk protection order and warrant and all affidavits upon which the 16 emergency risk protection order and warrant are based with the clerk of the 17 district court or circuit court, as applicable, no later than the next 18 business day following the execution of the emergency risk protection order 19 and warrant.

20 (b) Before the execution and return of an emergency risk protection 21 order and warrant issued under this subchapter, the clerk of the district 22 court or circuit court, as applicable, shall not disclose any information 23 pertaining to the application for the emergency risk protection order and 24 warrant or any affidavits upon which the emergency risk protection order and 25 warrant are based.

26 (c) An emergency risk protection order and warrant issued under this 27 subchapter shall be executed and returned with reasonable promptness 28 consistent with due process of law and shall be accompanied by a written 29 inventory of all firearms taken into custody.

30 31 12-15-407. Copy of emergency risk protection order and warrant to be 32 given to named person.

33 A copy of an emergency risk protection order and warrant issued under 34 this subchapter shall be given to the person named in the emergency risk 35 protection order and warrant together with a notice informing the person that 36 he or she has the right to a hearing under this subchapter and the right to 1 be represented by an attorney at the hearing.

2
3 12-15-408. Hearing required.

4 (a)(1)(A) No later than three (3) days after the execution of an 5 emergency risk protection order and warrant issued under this subchapter, a 6 court with jurisdiction shall hold a hearing to determine whether any firearm 7 taken into custody should be returned to the person named in the emergency 8 risk protection order and warrant or should continue to be held by the state.

9 (B) The period of three (3) days under subdivision
10 (a)(1)(A) of this section does not include a Saturday, Sunday, or holiday.

11 (2)(A) A hearing is not required under this section if the 12 person from whom the firearm was taken into custody voluntarily forfeits 13 possession and ownership of the firearm.

14 (B)(i) A firearm voluntarily forfeited under this 15 subsection shall be held for thirty (30) days pending a claim of ownership of 16 the firearm by another person, during which time the person claiming 17 ownership may file a petition in a court with jurisdiction to determine 18 whether or not the person claiming ownership is the true owner of the 19 firearm.

20 (ii) In a hearing to determine the true ownership of 21 a firearm under this subdivision (a)(2)(B), the prosecuting attorney shall 22 represent the law enforcement agency that has custody of the firearm.

23 (iii) There is no filing fee required to file a 24 petition under this subdivision (a)(2)(B).

25 (iv) The court in which a petition is filed under 26 this subdivision (a)(2)(B) shall return the firearm to the petitioner if the 27 petitioner can show he or she is the true owner of the firearm by a 28 preponderance of the evidence.

29 (C) If after thirty (30) days a petition claiming 30 ownership of the firearm has not been filed in a court with jurisdiction or 31 if after a hearing on a petition the court with jurisdiction has determined 32 that the petitioner has not proven true ownership of the firearm, the law 33 enforcement agency that took the firearm into custody shall within forty-34 eight (48) hours destroy the firearm.

35 (b) At a hearing under this section, the state has the burden of 36 proving all material facts by clear and convincing evidence.

1           (c)(1)(A) If, after a hearing under this section, the court finds by 2 clear and convincing evidence that the person from whom a firearm was taken 3 into custody poses a risk of imminent personal injury to himself, herself, or 4 to another person, the court may order that a firearm taken into custody 5 under this subchapter continue to be held by the state for a period not to 6 exceed one (1) year.

7           (B) The person from whom the firearm was taken into 8 custody may petition the court for the return of the firearm before the one-9 year period of time has elapsed under § 12-15-410.

10           (2) If the court does not find by clear and convincing evidence 11 that the person poses a risk of imminent personal injury to himself, herself, 12 or to another person, the court shall order the firearm taken into custody to 13 be returned to the person named in the emergency risk protection order and 14 warrant.

15           (d)(1) If the court finds that the person whose firearm has been taken 16 into custody poses a risk of imminent personal injury to himself, herself, or 17 to another person, the court shall give notice to the prosecuting attorney 18 and local law enforcement agencies with jurisdiction that the person may be 19 in need of mental health services or other medical treatment.

20           (2)(A) Upon receiving notice under this subsection, the 21 prosecuting attorney may institute commitment proceedings under § 20-47-201 22 et seq. or § 20-64-801 et seq. if the prosecuting attorney has not done so 23 already.

24           (B) The findings of the court conducting a hearing under 25 this section may form the required basis and factual predicate for any 26 subsequent commitment proceeding under § 20-47-201 et seq. or § 20-64-801 et 27 seq.

28

11 ownership of the firearm was transferred.

12           (d) Upon conviction an eligible person is guilty of a Class A
