

Towards a More Inclusive Museum: Creativity on the Spectrum

Mosaic Templars Cultural Center an African American museum of the Department of Arkansas Heritage

Who we are and what we do

The mission of the Mosaic Templars Cultural Center is to collect, preserve, interpret and celebrate Arkansas's African American history, culture, and community from 1870 to the present, and to inform and educate the public about African American's achievements—especially in business, politics, and the arts.

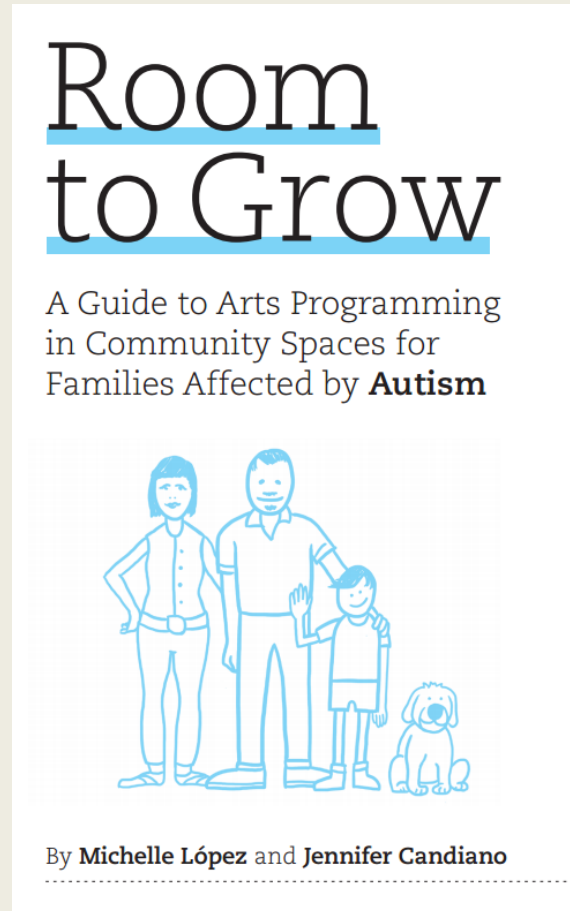

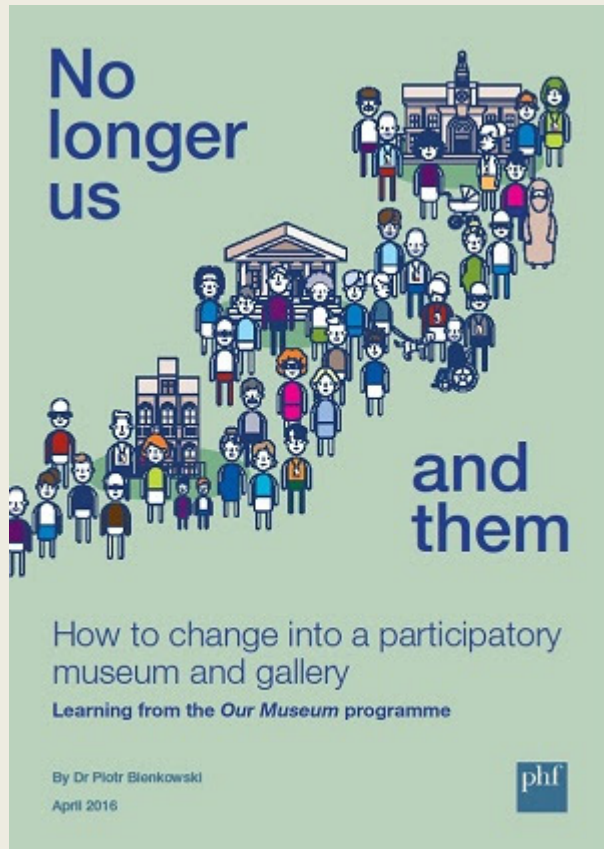

Photograph by Ed Lederman, courtesy of The Whitney Museum, <http://whitney.org/About/NewBuilding>

#InclusiveArkansas

Creativity on the Spectrum: research

Stacy Alberson, Occupational Therapist, OTR/L, PATH RI Hippos & Fish Pediatric Therapy Services

Creativity on the Spectrum: planning for the event

Creativity on the Spectrum: the event

Discoveries & Moving Forward

- Discover ways to connect excitement with visitor attendance
- Pre-visiting therapy centers and classrooms
- More arts & history programming for families is needed

