Governor Beebe's Fiscal Session Address to the 87th General Assembly

This is a historic day, one that provides a great lesson about our democracy and reminds us that our Constitution is a living document. Amendment 86, approved by the people of Arkansas, much to the surprise of many of us, established this fiscal sessions with a clear intent.

They wanted you to be brief, and they wanted you to deal with fiscal matters only, unless two-thirds of both houses approved a concurrent resolution for a non-budget bill. And we have the opportunity and responsibility to set the tone for future fiscal sessions by acknowledging the will of the people and keeping this session focused, brief, and on the budget.

There is one exception that we will address quickly: setting the amounts for the lottery scholarships.

As I've said, I agree with all of you that the State should award the largest scholarships possible to as many recipients as we can-including students currently in college.

While I am notoriously conservative about money, and while I would prefer to err on the side of being overly conservative, in this democracy that we have, I am willing and able, if you are convinced that we can make it, to go a little bit higher than my own conservative values would have suggested. This is with the caveat and the warning that it will be up to this legislature, every year, to look at the numbers and adjust those amounts accordingly. Keeping in mind, I hope, that once we establish a scholarship for a new student that we live with that amount and keep that faith throughout the four years of college for that student.

I've been saying for more than a year now that Arkansas is not immune from the effects of this international economic crisis. Times are tough for a lot of our people. Many have lost jobs; many more are worried about paying their bills.

But Arkansas remains in better fiscal shape than 47 of our sister states, and that is the direct result of your leadership. During this recession, we have lost 27,000 jobs, but we have announced 23,000 new jobs during the same period; and the Quick Action Closing Fund, which you all created and you all have afforded this State, is part of the main reason that we've remained competitive in a tough economy and added even higher-paying jobs, in many instances, than the ones we have lost.

By the end of this year, you all, in conjunction with adding new jobs, will also have decreased taxes more than any legislature in any four-year period in the history of Arkansas, with more than $500 million in tax cuts for the people of the State of Arkansas.

You made a series of unprecedented budget decisions last year that proved to be very wise, preserving our essential state services that have a real impact on Arkansans.

You put $61 million in one-time money into this year's budget. Without this infusion, the cuts we have had to make this fiscal year would have been even deeper. You all know I don't like using one-time money for ongoing programs, but if you're ever going to do it, you do it on a rainy day. Why have a rainy-day fund if you're not going to use it for a rainy day?

In addition to that $61 million, you created a $40 million rainy-day fund for that same purpose, and trust me, it's being utilized and will be utilized in a way that will keep those essential services where they need to be.

Every one of our citizens needs to be constantly reminded, when we talk about cutting here and cutting there, that 95 cents out of every general revenue dollar goes to three places: education, human services, prisons - all essential for the welfare, education, and protection of our people. So when somebody says to take it from somebody, you ask which of those three you want to take it from. Ninety-five cents out of every dollar goes to those three critical services, and you all have kept the faith to keep all those things alive

Now, I want everyone to understand why, in relation to the rest of the country, why that's important.

California has laid-off 27,000 teachers, and has announced the release of 40,000 prisoners from state prisons in an effort to reduce a $20-billion budget deficit. They're trying to make up some of that. Listen to this: running a red light in Los Angeles now costs you $446. The reason it's an odd number is because when you add whatever the cost is to go to driving school and keep it off your record or get it off faster it comes to an even $500. Can you imagine what Arkansans would say about $500 for running a red light?

Michigan furloughed 38,000 state employees. Georgia just announced more furloughs for all 250,000 state employees, including teachers.

Because of you, Arkansas has not laid off a single teacher. In fact, you all have increased funding for schools. We haven't been forced into massive releases of prisoners in our penitentiaries, as I referenced was done in California. Your foresight and your commitment to fiscal discipline have helped to spare Arkansans from the financial disaster that so many other states are currently experiencing.

But what's more important is that you've ensured that Arkansas is prepared to emerge from this recession in better shape than nearly every other state in America. If you'll think about it, most of those states, which have used their stimulus money just to keep from having to fire more people than they've already fired, are in a position, when that one-time stimulus money is gone, they're going to be saddled with trying to come up with their regular budget just to keep their people employed. You didn't spend your stimulus money for that purpose. You spent one-time money on one-time purposes, and that's what it should be spent for. You spent it to create jobs, and spent it in such a way that, when that one-time money is gone, you won't have to try and find some other money just to keep people employed. You've already taken care of them, too. And, as we continue with the theme of setting a precedent with our first-ever fiscal session, I want you to remain as fiscally astute and as conservative and as aware as you have been, going forward.

A General revenue budget of $4.5 billion that my administration has presented for your consideration restores this year's budget cuts, but that's all. It keeps everything else flat. All of us, I recommend, suffer together.

We have critical needs that have to be addressed, not the least of which are Medicaid, children and family services, youth services, health-information technology, the Departments of correction and Community Correction, and disaster preparedness and response. And most of all, not forgetting our top priority, yesterday, today, and tomorrow, will be education. It will always be the cornerstone to allow our people their share of the American Dream.

Oh, by the way, recent newspaper and television accounts have suggested the success of your program to put defibrillators in our schools. We need very little money to continue doing that so we can save kids' lives in those catastrophic instances.

We have to preserve jobs, particularly in our smaller agencies that don't have the ability to make up for some of these losses because they don't have vacant positions or a lot of employee turnover that can absorb those things.

We have to make sure we pay our county jails. Incidentally, we're already out of money for this fiscal year, so we have to be able to reimburse our counties for our county jails. We have to be able to pay the bills that come into our State, and we have to address these and other issues, so that we can continue down the path that we've been going down better than most of the country.

Now, you've given me extraordinary authority in the past 12 months. I have to tell you, I would never, ever overreach. Those of you who know me well know that I sat where you sit. I sat as a member of the Senate and as a member of the General Assembly, and I dealt with a lot of governors. Some I agreed with, some I disagreed with; more often than not both applied to every governor. One of the things that I don't ever want to happen is , if in our disagreements, and it's healthy to have them, that we have those disagreements based upon something I've done to breach the trust and understanding and cooperation in the relationship between the legislative branch and the executive branch. I am a product of the legislative branch. At the risk of immodesty, I will tell you that I don't think there will be a governor, or ever has been a governor, who appreciates and understands and respects the legislative branch more than I do. Whatever we do going forward, I want us to remember that.

Because a whole lot of the reason we've had the success that we've had, a whole lot of the reason the rest of the country is talking about Arkansas in a favorable light, is because of that cooperation, that trust, and that working together between the legislative branch of the State of Arkansas and the governor's office.

So in an effort to keep the theme of this session what you all want it to be, short and sweet, I'm going to leave it with you and tell you that my door is open and always has been. You are invited, and most of you have availed yourself of that invitation, at anytime. If there are people waiting, if there are cabinet heads or agency heads waiting in the lobby, they know to wait until the members of the General Assembly who are there to see me, have their chance to come in and say whatever they have to say. If you have to wait, it's usually because I'm talking to one of your colleagues already.

So let's go forth to serve this State we love, and let's do the things we need to do to ensure that the progress we've made is built upon, and that the people of Arkansas are served by the people they've elected into these respected offices. Let's remember that the people trust you, they believe in you, and the most sacred thing we have is that trust of the people. God bless you all, let's go to work.

SECTION 14. NOT TO BE INCORPORATED INTO THE ARKANSAS CODE NOR PUBLISHED SEPARATELY AS SPECIAL, LOCAL AND TEMPORARY LAW. UNCLAIMED PROPERTY PROCEEDS TRUST FUND TRANSFER. On the effective date of this Act and notwithstanding the provisions of A.C.A. § 18-28-213 (c)(2) regarding the transfer of funds from the Unclaimed Property Proceeds Trust Fund to the general revenues of the state, the Auditor of State shall transfer on his books and those of the State Treasurer and the Chief Fiscal Officer of the State, the sum of twenty-one million dollars ($21,000,000) from the Unclaimed Property Proceeds Trust Fund to the Educational Adequacy Fund established in A.C.A. §19-5-1227.

SECTION 15. NOT TO BE INCORPORATED INTO THE ARKANSAS CODE NOR PUBLISHED SEPARATELY AS SPECIAL, LOCAL AND TEMPORARY LAW. BUDGET STABILIZATION TRUST FUND TRANSFER. After June 1 of fiscal year 2010, if the Chief Fiscal Officer of the State determines that individual income tax refunds or corporate income tax refunds will exceed the amount for refunds in the official forecast for the 2010 fiscal year, and the amount over forecast will decrease general revenue necessary to provide essential government services, he will certify that amount to the Governor. During the fiscal year 2010, as directed by the Governor, upon review by the Arkansas Legislative Council, the Chief Fiscal Officer of the State may transfer, up to a total of twenty-five million dollars ($25,000,000) for the 2010 fiscal year, from the Budget Stabilization Trust Fund established in A.C.A. §19-5-501 to the General Revenue Fund Account established in A.C.A. §19-5-202 to prevent general revenue reductions that would result from income tax refunds as certified pursuant to this section.

In no event shall the Chief Fiscal Officer of the State utilize funds provided in this Section to supplement those fund or fund accounts allocated in the Revenue Stabilization Law that would result in exceeding the January 11, 2010 Official Forecast.

SECTION 16. NOT TO BE INCORPORATED INTO THE ARKANSAS CODE NOR PUBLISHED SEPARATELY AS SPECIAL, LOCAL AND TEMPORARY LAW. YEAR-END FUND BALANCE TRANSFERS. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary pertaining to the transfer of year-end fund balances, the year-end fund balances remaining on June 30, 2010 to be credited to the General Revenue Allotment Reserve Fund by August 15, 2010, shall instead be transferred as follows:

(a) First, in the event the 87th General Assembly meeting in Fiscal Session enacts legislation authorizing the transfer of monies from the funds set aside in the Legislative Division of the 87th Session Projects Account of the General Improvement Fund for distribution during the fiscal year ending June 30, 2011, an amount up to the actual amount authorized for transfer from the Legislative Division, or so much thereof as is available shall be transferred from the year-end fund balances to the Legislative Division of the 87th Session Projects Account of the General Improvement Fund for allocation to the various Legislative Division projects;

(b) Second, in the event the 87th General Assembly meeting in Fiscal Session enacts legislation authorizing the transfer of monies from the Executive Division of the 87th Session Projects Account of the General Improvement Fund, an amount up to the actual amount authorized for transfer, or so much thereof as is available shall be transferred from the year-end fund balances to the Executive Division of the 87th Session Projects Account of the General Improvement Fund and made available for allocation to the various Executive Division projects at the discretion of the Governor;

(c) The Chief Fiscal Officer of the State shall initiate the transfers authorized from the available year-end fund balances to the Legislative Division and the Executive Division as authorized in (a) and (b) herein on August 15, 2010 or as soon thereafter as is practical; and

(d) The remainder of any year-end fund balances on June 30, 2010 to be credited to the General Revenue Allotment Reserve Fund by August 15, 2010, or thereafter after fully funding the provisions of subsections (a) and (b) of this section shall then be credited to the General Revenue Allotment Reserve Fund.

SECTION 17. EMERGENCY CLAUSE. It is hereby found and determined by the General Assembly of the State of Arkansas that changes in the state's fiscal laws must take effect at the beginning of the fiscal year, that the effectiveness of this act on July 1, 2010, with the exception that Section 15 in this Act shall be in full force and effect from and after the date of its passage and approval, is essential to the operation of the agencies for which allocations in this act are provided, and the delay in the effective date of this act beyond July 1, 2010, with the exception that Section 15 in this Act shall be in full force and effect from and after the date of its passage and approval, could work irreparable harm upon the proper administration and provision of essential government programs. Therefore, an emergency is declared to exist and this act being necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health, and safety shall become effective on July 1, 2010, with the exception that Section 15 in this Act shall be in full force and effect from and after the date of its passage and approval."

March 1, 2010

Dear Mr. President Pro Tempore and Members of the Senate:

In accordance with Article 6, Section 15 of the Arkansas Constitution, I write to notify you that today I vetoed Senate Bill 130. I write further to explain the reason for my action.

There was much discussion before and during this first fiscal session about setting precedents. I believe that we cannot, in good conscience, set a precedent of taking funding from a tenuous source, such as the State Central Services Fund, in order to protect local projects.

As you know, the State Central Services Fund supports the core functions of our government, and if it falls short of funding, the needed money is drawn from the rest of our revenue, essentially creating an automatic budget cut for other state services.

I believe that putting the State in such a position is inconsistent with the spirit of fiscal responsibility that typically places Arkansas in such good stead as compared to most of our sister states.

My office is working with the Secretary of State's office to determine what, if anything, can be done this year regarding the Board of Apportionment.

Sincerely,
