REMARKS OF
SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE ROBBIE WILLS
JANUARY 12, 2009

Thank You. Members, Staff, and honored guests:

As we gather today in this historic chamber - the home of the House of Representatives since 1911 – I'm reminded of the many occasions in the past when previous House Speakers have stood in the same place for the same purpose. Today, it's my honor and privilege to congratulate you on your election and welcome you to the 87th General Assembly.

I want to begin my remarks today where it all began for me, in fact where all my hopes and dreams begin and end - with my family. They're here in the chamber today.

To all my family I'll say. If not for you, not only would I not be where I am today, I wouldn't be who I am today. I love you and I'm so glad you're here!

We are all surrounded by our families today. None of us would be here without them. And we all bring to the Legislature lessons taught to us by our families. I've been thinking about one such lesson a lot lately.

There's a place you may know on the highway north of Conway called Pickles Gap. It's a local tourist attraction. You may not know that it was founded by my grandfather, Poppa Will Adams, and that for almost 20 years that was our family business. There used to be an old covered bridge over Pickles Gap Creek, a working water wheel, blacksmith shop and a petting zoo. It was a great place to grow up. Pickles Gap was known all over as the "Home of the Do-Nothing" because we made and sold these little things called the Do-Nothing. As you can see, it's a complicated process, lots of moving parts, working very hard to stay out of each other's way and accomplishing absolutely nothing.

Well, unlike this thing we all had a job at Pickles Gap. Like many of you, when I was a kid I was expected to come home after school and work, and like most eight-year old boys, I didn't want to do it. And Poppa was always after me to do better. He refused to let me be lazy. I remember him taking one of these and saying "Son, if you don't straighten up, you're gonna be a Do-Nothing! Don't be a Do Nothing! Be a Do-Something!" I can still hear him today. You see, that was his way of teaching me: Do your best! Apply Yourself! Work hard! Anything worth doing is worth doing right! So I keep one of these things handy to remind me: I am not a Do-Nothing. I am a Do-Something!

And so, as we begin this General Assembly, I want you to commit to be a Do Something too!

Our state faces a number of serious issues. We begin this session in a period of economic uncertainty with job losses, a tight state budget, increasing costs and stagnant revenues. Now more than ever, the people of Arkansas look to us for leadership, responsibility and results. I ran for Speaker on a simple platform: "Do the Right Things, The Right Way." This statement sums up many principles we all agree are important. So I say lets Do Something about the Right Things! The Right Things for Education. The Right Things for Economic Development, and the Right Things for Healthcare.

If you agree that Education is our top priority, then I say lets Do Something! Let's not only meet our constitutional mandate to provide an equitable and adequate education, let's exceed it. Let's maintain the progress in Pre-K education. Let's keep demanding accountability from our schools. Let's do all we can for our teachers.

If you agree that Arkansas students deserve the most successful scholarship programs, providing the most benefit to Arkansas's families, I say lets Do Something! Let's create a successful independent lottery commission that operates with integrity, transparency and accountability. Let's open these scholarships to more and more of our students. Let's make it our goal that every person wanting to continue their education after high school should have help paying for it. We can Do it and it's the right thing to do!

If you agree that creating jobs in this tough economy is one of our greatest challenges then, I say let's Do Something! We all know this is the best place to live and work. And our competitive edge begins with our people. So let's continue to invest in our workforce training to give our people the skills they need to be productive. Let's increase our ability to act quickly when these economic development opportunities come along. Let's strengthen our Economic Infrastructure Fund to help our communities grow and compete, not just for the jobs of today, but for the careers of tomorrow.

If you agree that Arkansas has to compete in the global, 21st Century economy, then let's Do-Something to build on the progress we've made. Let's bring broadband access to every area of the state. Let's move forward with the ideas proposed by Accelerate Arkansas and the Task Force for 21st Century. Let's fund the research and development here in Arkansas, Let's raise the venture capitol to start these new businesses here in Arkansas, let's grow these high-paying, new-economy jobs here in Arkansas. We can do it and it's the right thing to do!

If you agree that Arkansans deserve quality and affordable Healthcare, I say let's Do Something! Let's be ambitious and bold! Let's create a Trauma System linking our state's hospitals together, providing life-saving care within the golden hour. Let's save 200 lives a year. Let's save millions in rehabilitation costs and lost productivity. Let's provide funding for Community Health Centers, for AHECS, for in-home care for our Senior Citizens, for Cancer Treatments and Medicaid. Let's expand AR Kids first. Lets' Do Something about the shortage of health care professionals in the state and provide funding for a second campus for UAMS and train the Doctors and Nurses of the future. Let's make the courageous decision and raise the cigarette tax and do ALL these things for our people.

We Can Do it and it's the Right Thing to do!

Members, I'll ask you to Do Something and Accomplish Something about Education, Economic Development and Healthcare and many other important proposals. I know these decisions won't be easy. But you didn't run for an easy job. If it were easy, anyone could sit in your chair. You asked for this job and it's supposed to be hard! Your personality, principles and patience will be tested. You'll be outside your comfort zone. You'll be tempted to lose your temper. But we can Do Something about that too.

STYLE – The Right Way

While we may not always agree on the Right Thing to do, I hope we will all agree on the Right Way to do it. Doing things the Right Way means Equality and Fairness, where each and every member has equal access to the legislative process; It means Statesmanship, where dignity and decorum govern our relationships with each other, with the Senate, and the Governor; and it means Leading by Example, where we conduct ourselves in such a way as to bring credit to this institution through our actions - inside and outside this chamber. You can count on me to uphold these principles. You can count on me to work across party lines, geographical interests, and ideological differences. You can count on me to do everything I can to bring credit to this institution and nothing to bring shame upon this House....so help me God.

All I ask in return...is that you do the exact same thing!

98 years ago today, the House of Representatives convened in this chamber for the very first time. And since 1911, these old marble walls and golden columns have been the setting for some of the most important decisions in the life of our state. And while some of those events make us proud, and some still disappoint us, the fact remains: history has been made in this room, right here, in this chamber. And it's that understanding that gives us our sense of duty and responsibility.

And since it is my duty and responsibility to lead as Speaker of the House, it's my goal that we come together in this chamber and write our own page in our state's history. That on the last day of this session, you'll walk out of those doors with your head held high, knowing you were in the right place at the right time and made the most of your God-given talents and abilities. That we that we not only Do Something, we Accomplish Something by doing the Right Things the Right Way.

CONCLUSION

You know, it's funny where the road of life leads us. My road began in Conway and ran through a place called Pickles Gap. We've each traveled a different road to get where we are today. On the road behind us are bitter campaigns and hard-fought victories, personal triumphs and professional success. Life's road has brought all of us twists and turns, ups and downs. But all of those roads have led us here, to this place, at this time. And the Road ahead beckons...

Pop died just over ten years ago. He never lived to see me elected to anything, much less Speaker of the House. I wish he were here today. I wonder what he'd think of all this. I wonder if he'd recognize in me the eight-year-old boy that he helped mold. I wonder if he'd see the results of that lesson. Well I know he's up there watching, just like I know the people of Arkansas are watching. They are watching us now to see how we respond to the road ahead. One thing's for sure: if Poppa were here I know he'd challenge me the same way I now challenge you: Do your best! Roll up your sleeves! Apply yourself! Get here early! Stay late! Work hard every second of the day! DO NOT miss your chance to make a difference! Anything worth doing is worth doing right! And remember: Don't be a Do-Nothing. Be a Do something! And working together we'll not only Do Something, We'll Accomplish Something, and for the people of Arkansas we'll Accomplish Something Great. Thank you.

HOUSE RESOLUTION

AN ACT TO ADOPT THE RULES OF THE HOUSE OF THE
REPRESENTATIVES OF THE EIGHTY-SEVENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Subtitle

TO ADOPT THE RULES OF THE HOUSE OF THE
REPRESENTATIVES OF THE EIGHTY-SEVENTH
GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE EIGHTY-SEVENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ARKANSAS:

SECTION 1. The Rules of the House of Representatives of the Eighty- Seventh General Assembly of the State of Arkansas are adopted to read as follows:

MEMBERS

1. Every representative shall be present within the House during the session of the House and every member shall be present at each committee meeting of which he/she is a member, unless excused or necessarily prevented. It is the policy of the Arkansas General Assembly, as a term-limited body, to encourage legislators to learn as much as possible by attending meetings of committees of which they are not a member. Prior signed and documented approval must be obtained from the chairperson of a committee for a visiting non-committee member to enjoy certain privileges offered to regular members.

2. For the purpose of seating in the House Chamber for an upcoming regular session of the General Assembly, the Speaker of the House shall, on the first Friday following the November General Election, declare all House Chamber seats vacant and representatives and representatives-elect must select in the order of their seniority any seat not occupied after notification by the Chief Clerk of available seats. Absence or failure to select a seat at the assigned selection time will automatically allow the Speaker to assign the member to his or her same seat if it is available or the member or member-elect to a seat selected by the Speaker. Immediately following the selection of a seat by a member or member-elect or assignment of a seat by the Speaker, the member or member-elect's signature or Speaker's signature is required. Following all seat selections or assignments, member or member-elect's signatures or the Speaker's signature shall represent final movement. The Chief Clerk shall furnish voting machine and desk keys.
3. When it is necessary for seniority of incoming members to be determined by lot, the Speaker of the House and the Speaker-designate of the House shall conduct a drawing by lots upon receiving certification from the Secretary of State of the election of membership to each General Assembly. Qualified and certified persons to be seated and officially receive the oath of office may do so only at a time and place prescribed by the House. No person having resigned from public office as a provision to a plea agreement to avoid felony prosecution shall be seated or administered the oath of office. Incoming members with previous legislative tenure shall be placed highest in seniority among the incoming members based upon previous terms of service. Where an equivalence of terms of service exists, seniority for those with equal terms shall be asserted by drawing lots to determine their numerical standing.

THE SPEAKER

10. Selection.

10.(a) As used in this rule, the term "Speaker-designate" shall mean the member of the House of Representatives selected by the House of Representatives of each General Assembly held preceding the convening of the next-following regular session of the General Assembly, in the following manner:

10.(a)(4) If it is determined that the Speaker-designate will not serve as a member of the House of Representatives of the next-following General Assembly due to death, resignation, failure to be a candidate for reelection in the party primary election, or failure to be reelected as a party candidate in the Primary Election, a vacancy in the position of Speaker-designate shall exist and be filled at the caucus of the entire House of Representatives-elect held on the Friday of the week designated for the biennial Institute of Legislative Procedure (House Legislative Orientation), and the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall be elected upon convening of the next regular session.

10.(a)(5) It is the intent of this subsection that the Speaker- designate be the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the next- following General Assembly, subject to selection by the membership of the House upon convening of the regular session.

PARLIAMENTARY PRACTICE

17. When a question is under debate, motions shall have precedence in the following order (the request for a quorum call is always in order; the Chairperson is not compelled to accept any motion):

17.(a) To fix the time to which the House will adjourn (non-debatable) (majority of a quorum);

17.(a)(1) (A majority of a quorum is a majority of those voting when at least a majority of the members are present and voting;)

17.(b) To adjourn (non-debatable) (majority of a quorum);

17.(c) To take a recess (non-debatable) (majority of a quorum);

17.(d) Postpone temporarily; lay on the table (non-debatable)

(majority of a quorum) To take from the table (non-debatable) (majority of a quorum);

17.(e) Immediate consideration (non-debatable) (2/3 of a quorum);

17.(f) Previous question (non-debatable) (5 seconds) (majority of a quorum);

- 17.(g) Limit or extend debate (non-debatable) (2/3 of a quorum);
- 17.(h) To expunge (debatable) (2/3 of membership) (67);
- 17.(i) Postpone to a day certain (debatable) (majority of a quorum);
- 17.(j) Committee of the Whole, go into (non-debatable) (majority of a quorum);
- 17.(k) Refer (debatable) (majority of a quorum);
- 17.(l) Amend (debatable) (majority of a quorum);
- 17.(m) Substitute motion (debatable) (majority of a quorum);
- 17.(n) Postpone indefinitely (debatable) (majority of membership);
- 17.(o) Take out of proper order (non-debatable) (2/3 of a quorum);
- 17.(p) Special order of business (debatable) (2/3 of a quorum); and
- 17.(q) To suspend the rules (non-debatable) (2/3 of a quorum).
18. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order, when the Floor can be obtained for that purpose, except when the previous question has been ordered.
19. The motion to recess, when the Floor can be obtained for that purpose, must specify the time which shall elapse and the time for reconvening. It may be amended to alter specific time.
20. Previous question:
- 20.(a) When any debatable question is before the House, any member may move the previous question. It shall be seconded by five (5) members whether the question shall be stated. When the previous question shall have been adopted, the proponents shall be allowed fifteen (15) minutes in which to debate it, and the opponents of the main question shall be allowed fifteen (15) minutes, after which time a vote upon the main question shall be taken.
- 20.(b) Pending a vote on the main question, one (1) motion to refer is permitted. A motion to refer under this rule applies to House resolutions as well as to House bills, to Senate bills and to Senate amendments to a House bill, and to a motion to amend the Journal. The motion to refer under this rule is non-debatable and may not be laid upon the table.
21. A motion to postpone to a day certain may not specify the hour; a special order is necessary to specify the hour; the motion may be amended and it is debatable within narrow limits only, confined to the merit of the motion itself.
22. The simple motion to refer is debatable within its narrow limits, but the merits of the proposition to which it is proposed to refer may not be brought into the debate. The motion to refer with instructions is debatable (majority vote of a quorum). When a question is raised about the proper referral of a bill to committee, if the Speaker admits error in the referral of the bill to a committee, the bill may be re-referred by a majority vote of a quorum; however, if the Speaker does not admit error in the referral of the bill to committee, the bill may only be re-referred by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of a quorum. When a bill is re-referred to a committee, any previous committee recommendation is automatically stripped from the bill.

22.(a) When a motion is under consideration, only two (2) substitutes to that motion shall be in order. Only a motion applicable to the main motion and of a higher precedence upon recognition may be substituted for the motion under consideration. A substitute to the third degree shall not be in order.

23. The motion to postpone indefinitely opens to debate all the merits of the proposition to which it is applied. It may not be applied to the motion to refer, or to suspend the rules, or to motions relating to the order of business.

23.(a) The motion for indefinite postponement and possible consideration by a joint interim committee shall be as follows: "Mr. Speaker, I move that consideration of _____ be postponed indefinitely and that consideration be given by the joint interim committee on _____ for a study of _____." (majority of membership).

24. The motion to limit or extend debate must specify time limitations. A substitute motion specifying a lesser time may be accepted.

25. Reconsideration:

25.(a) When a proposition has been made and carried or lost, it shall be in order for any member of the majority on the same or succeeding legislative day to move for the reconsideration thereof, or give notice of his/her intentions to do so and such motion shall take precedence over other questions except consideration of a conference report or a motion to adjourn: Provided, the motion or proposition shall only be considered during the period reserved for regular bills. The notice shall not be withdrawn after the said succeeding legislative day without the consent of the House, and thereafter any member may call it up for consideration: Provided, the notice to reconsider must be disposed of within three (3) legislative days following the day the vote was taken; provided, that such notice to reconsider cannot be given after the 57th day of a regular session or during a special session during which times a motion to reconsider must be disposed of immediately.

25.(b) The provisions of the rule that the motion may be made "by any member of the majority" is construed, in case of a tie, to mean the member of the prevailing side, and the same construction applies in the case of a two-thirds (2/3) vote. Where the yeas and nays have not been ordered recorded in the Journal, any member, irrespective of whether he/she voted with the majority or not, may make the motion to reconsider or give notice thereof; but a member who was absent or who was paired in favor of the majority contention and did not vote may not make a motion.

25.(c) A bill in the possession of the House is not considered passed or an amendment agreed to if a motion to reconsider is pending; the effect of the motion being to suspend the original proposition. A notice or motion to reconsider shall not be allowed unless the bill is in the House. A bill shall not leave the House once notice of reconsideration is given. When the motion to reconsider is decided in the affirmative, the question immediately recurs on the motion reconsidered. However, prior to consideration of the question at hand, the Speaker shall have the title, expressing the main contents of the proposition being reconsidered, read to the House. When the motion to reconsider is defeated, a second motion to reconsider may not be made.

25.(d) The motion to reconsider is agreed to by a majority of a quorum, even though the vote reconsidered requires a majority or more of the membership. Upon reconsideration when a proposition has been voted twice and either carried or lost it is considered "Clinched".

25.(e) A notice to reconsider is not debatable. A motion to reconsider is debatable when the item to which it applies is debatable.

25.(f) No bill, petition, memorial, or resolution referred to a committee or reported there-from for recommitment shall be brought back into the House on a motion to reconsider.

25.(g) The "Clincher" motion is two (2) motions in one (1); it is a motion to reconsider and to lay on the table. Having prevailed, the proposition shall not be again considered except by expunging the record. The "Clincher" motion is adopted by a majority of the membership. The Speaker shall accept a "Sound the Ballot" request after the "Clincher" has been adopted and before the next order of business is called.

25.(h) No "Clincher" motion shall be entertained on a bill passed during the morning hour or which has been represented to be non-controversial regardless of when passed. Prior to the 60th day of a session, no bill passed during the morning hour, or a bill appearing on the non-controversial bill calendar which has passed, shall be transmitted to the Senate until the expiration of the morning hour of the day next following its passage in which the House is in session.

26. No dilatory motion shall be entertained by the Speaker.

27. Two-thirds (2/3) of a quorum may suspend the rules, other than rules that require a two-thirds (2/3) or three-fourths (3/4) vote of the membership. (J.R. 14 - Suspending Joint Rules)

28. No standing rule or order shall be revised without one (1) day's notice being given thereof.

29. In every case not provided for in the House rules, the Speaker, the Parliamentarian, and the members shall be guided by Mason's Manual of Legislative Procedure. Each member of the Rules Committee may be furnished a copy of the current edition and of each new or revised edition of Mason's Manual of Legislative Procedure and additional copies may be available to other members from the Parliamentarian, upon approval of the Rules Committee.

Notwithstanding Rule 25 (h), a concurrent resolution or concurrent memorial resolution that is subject to this rule may be transmitted to the Senate on the same day that it is passed. A joint resolution proposing a Constitutional amendment shall be placed on the regular House calendar and is subject to Rule 25 (h).

may not be extended on those designated Senate days beyond the one (1) hour limit. (J.R. 12 – Senate days)

34. Unfinished business items, except items “(a)” through “(g)”, take up where the House left the day before when it adjourned. Items “(a)” through “(g)” begin new each day.

(House Rule 64) No committee shall transact business without a quorum (a majority of the committee membership present). All final action on bills or resolutions, and on proposed amendments to bills or resolutions, shall be decided by a majority vote of the total membership of the committee. Provided, however, that the Speaker of the House shall not be included for the purpose of determining what is a majority of a standing committee, unless present at the time of the vote. A member of the committee must be present at the time of the vote for his/her vote to be counted on any matter considered by the committee (no pairs, no proxies).

8) (House Rule 52. (c)(2)) The rules or proceedings of the House of Representatives shall be observed in all select committees, standing committees, and subcommittees of the House so far as they may be applicable. The precedence of motions so far as they are applicable shall be as listed in House Rule 17(a) – (q): (House Rule 17) When a question is under debate, motions shall have precedence in the following order (the request for a quorum call is always in order; the chairperson is not compelled to accept any motion):

17(a) To fix the time to which the House will adjourn (non-debatable) (majority of a quorum);

17(a)(1) (A majority of a quorum is a majority of those voting when at least a majority of the members are present and voting);

17(b) To adjourn (non-debatable) (majority of a quorum);

17(c) To take a recess (non-debatable) (majority of a quorum);

17(d) Postpone temporarily; lay on the table (non-debatable) (majority of a quorum)

To take from the table (non-debatable) (majority of a quorum);

17(e) Immediate consideration (non-debatable) (2/3 of a quorum);

17(f) Previous question (non-debatable) (5 seconds) (majority of a quorum);

17(g) Limit or extend debate (non-debatable) (2/3 of a quorum);

17(h) To expunge (debatable) (2/3 of membership) (67);

17(i) Postpone to a day certain (debatable) (majority of a quorum);

17(j) Committee of the Whole, go into (non-debatable) (majority of a quorum);

17(k) Refer (debatable) (majority of a quorum);

17(l) Amend (debatable) (majority of a quorum);

17(m) Substitute motion (debatable) (majority of a quorum);

17(n) Postpone indefinitely (debatable) (majority of membership);

17(o) Take out of proper order (non-debatable) (2/3 of a quorum);

17(p) Special order of business (debatable) (2/3 of a quorum); and

17(q) To suspend the rules (non-debatable) (2/3 of a quorum).

9) (House Rule 58(a)) All committee and subcommittee meetings including but not limited to hearings at which public testimony is to be taken, (normally called “public hearings”) shall be open to the public (Art. V, Sec. 13) and shall be scheduled at least eighteen (18) hours in advance; agendas of bills, resolutions, and other proposals to be considered at such meetings shall be posted in a designated place at least eighteen (18) hours in advance; but in case of an emergency, a two-thirds (2/3) majority of the membership of the committee may bring bills or resolutions up for consideration upon notice of not less than two (2) hours.

10) (House Rule 58(b)) Special meetings of a standing committee may be called by the chairperson of the committee or by a majority of the members of the committee for conducting any business of the committee; provided, a special meeting of the committee may not conflict with regularly scheduled meetings of any standing committee; provided further, special meetings shall be subject to the same procedures regarding the publishing of agendas and notices of meetings that apply to regular standing committee meetings. (J.R. 21 – Joint Committee)

11) (House Rule 59) All persons wishing to offer testimony to a committee hearing shall be given a reasonable opportunity to do so as determined by a majority of the committee. An oral or written statement shall not be a prerequisite to offer testimony before a committee.

12) (House Rule 61) No committee shall sit while the House is in session except the Committee on Rules or a Conference Committee, which shall notify the House.

13) (House Rule 64(a)) A bill, resolution or amendment in a House committee, having been rejected twice, shall not be placed on the committee calendar again or considered again during the same legislative session unless the vote is expunged (two-thirds of the membership of the committee). The motion to expunge shall be placed on the committee agenda, by a committee member, and placed at the bottom of the active list. A bill or resolution may be amended before a second consideration; but, unless expunged, even an amended bill having failed twice shall not be placed on the calendar or considered. Notice of reconsideration not permitted in committee.

14) (House Rule 45(a)) When a bill or resolution is under consideration, amendments shall be in order. Upon adoption, amendments shall become a part of the bill or resolution. Amendments to amendments may not be offered. All amendments offered before the House or one of its committees must be typewritten on an approved amendment form and signed by the sponsor. All amendments shall be attached to the original bill or resolution, numbered by the Bill Clerk, and shall be placed upon the members' desks before being acted upon by the House. (House Rule 36(e)) All amendments shall be entered on a separate sheet of paper noting the line or lines to be changed and the words to be deleted or inserted.

15) (House Rule 66) No bill or resolution shall be introduced with a committee as the author of said bill or resolution unless that committee has voted unanimously to sponsor the bill or resolution.

16) (House Rule 67) Committee Records and Reports

67(a) The chairperson of each committee of the House shall keep or cause to be kept a separate record for each committee meeting in which there shall be entered:

67(a) 1. The time and place of each hearing and each meeting of the committee.

67(a) 2. The number and title of the bill or resolution with one of the following three recommendations: "do pass", "do pass as amended", or "do not pass". If a committee recommends a bill or resolution "do pass as amended" and any of the amendments recommended by the committee are not adopted on the floor, the bill or resolution shall be re-referred to the same committee for further consideration and recommendation.

67(a) 3. A summary of each bill or resolution's major provisions which may be several paragraphs in length in case of major bills or resolutions or simply the title of the bill or resolution in the case of minor bills or resolutions.

67(a) 4. The reason for the committee's action on the bill or resolution, including a brief minority report, if requested by any two (2) committee members.

67(a) 5. A record of how every member voted on each bill or resolution when action is taken by the committee, including votes on a motion to postpone consideration on the bill or resolution and a recorded vote on any other motion, if requested by any two (2) committee members.

67(a) 6. A list of all people testifying before a committee on each bill or resolution, the interest that they represent, and an indication of their position on the bill or resolution.

17) (House Rule 67(b)) Such records for each separate committee meeting shall be approved by the chairperson before the expiration of a seven (7) day period, with the exception of those records referred to in (a) 1. and 2., hereinabove which shall be filed immediately with the Clerk of the House.

18) (House Rule 22 part) When a question is raised about the proper referral of a bill or resolution to committee, if the Speaker admits error in the referral of the bill or resolution to a committee, the bill or resolution may be re-referred by a majority vote of a quorum; however, if the Speaker does not admit error in the referral of the bill or resolution to committee, the bill or resolution may only be re-referred by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of a quorum. When a bill or resolution is re-referred to a committee, any previous committee recommendation is automatically stripped from the bill or resolution. When a motion is under consideration, only two (2) substitutes to that motion shall be in order. A substitute to the third degree shall not be in order. Only a motion applicable to the main motion and of a higher precedence upon recognition may be substituted for the motion under consideration.

19) (House Rule 53 (a)) House Committee Staff will automatically and without delay place all bills or resolutions referred to the committees on the committee agendas. Staff will notify the sponsor of bills or resolutions assigned to committee. Referred bills shall be placed on the committee's active agenda in the order they are read across the desk on the House Floor. When an active agenda is established in a committee and bills from that agenda are not placed on the deferred list and if they are passed over, they are placed at the bottom of the list of the day's active agenda. Bills read across the desk on the House Floor later that same day or on a later day are placed on the active agenda in the order they are read below bills already on the active agenda.

20) After a bill or resolution has appeared on the Committee agenda and has been called up for consideration by the Committee and the sponsor of the bill or resolution or a representative is not present to present the bill or resolution, the bill or resolution will be placed on the active agenda two (2) additional times, but will be placed at the bottom of the active agenda.

21) If the sponsor or a representative is not present to present the bill or resolution when called up after the bill or resolution has appeared on the active agenda when called up during the third meeting, the bill or resolution will be automatically dropped from the active agenda and placed on the deferred list unless the sponsor notifies staff to put the bill or resolution back on the active agenda before the agenda is prepared, for the next called meeting. Requests to move bills or resolutions from the deferred list to the active agenda must be made by 2:30 p.m. two (2) days prior to the scheduled committee meeting. Bills moved from the deferred list to the active agenda shall be listed at the bottom of the active agenda. Bills on the deferred list may be moved to the active calendar as provided by rule for a total of three (3) times only. A suspension of this rule by the Committee (two-thirds of a quorum) will be required for each transfer of any bill having been moved three (3) times previously.

22) Bills or resolutions suggested as non-controversial will be considered before consideration of controversial bills or resolutions on the agenda. The objection of one (1) committee member to the consideration of a bill or resolution as non-controversial will automatically keep the bill or resolution from being considered as being non-controversial. Even though a bill or resolution has been considered as non-controversial, it will be necessary after a "do pass" or "do pass as amended" recommendation that a motion be made and there be unanimous consent of no less than a quorum of the Committee for a bill or resolution to be eligible to be placed on the House Non-controversial Calendar.

23) If a bill or resolution is discussed by a committee at a meeting, but is not voted on because of time limitations or because the vote is deferred to the next meeting, the bill or resolution will not lose its order on the agenda and will not be counted as having been considered.

24) The author/sponsor of a bill or resolution may make a presentation for his/her bill or resolution and may elect at that time to respond to questions from the committee members. Following the initial presentation, non-legislative---non-committee members will be allowed to alternately speak against and for the bill or resolution. A procedural motion made by a member of the committee and adopted by the committee to limit or end debate will be allowed to govern non-legislative---non-committee members' discussions. At the conclusion of the non-legislative---non-committee member proponent and opponent presentations, the sponsor may return to the podium and may elect to field questions from the committee members. Those questions should be limited to requests for clarification or the securing of information. Questions that are rhetorically offered and are dilatory for the effect of debate are discouraged. At this point, the chair will entertain motions from committee members only. For disposition of a proposition in a House Committee, procedural motions (limit debate, immediate consideration, etc.) are allowed only following a main motion (do pass, do not pass, do pass as amended, etc.). Discussion from that point forward is limited to committee members for and against the motion, if debatable, in alternating fashion. If immediate consideration is not adopted and if debate has not been limited and time has not expired, the author/sponsor will be allowed to close for his/her bill or resolution. During the closing, the author may elect to field questions from committee members. At the conclusion of these presentations, a vote will be taken on the motion properly before the committee.

25) As determined by the presider courtesy may be extended to General Assembly members who are non-committee members who need to return to their own committee meetings.

26) (House Rule 64) Eleven (11) members of a standing committee constitute a committee quorum with the Speaker present if he/she is a member of the committee and ten (10) members when the Speaker is not present. A committee recommendation of a bill or resolution will require these same numbers.

27) Smoking is prohibited in the committee rooms and all adjoining rooms.

28) (House Rule 67(a)5) A roll call vote will be required if requested by any two (2) committee members, except for a quorum call which may be requested by one (1) member. The request for a quorum call is always in order.

29) When a roll call is required, the roll will be called by seniority with the vice chairperson being called next to last and the chairperson last. For a member's vote to be counted and recorded, he/she must vote "yes", "no" or "present".

30) During a roll call vote, when a member's name has been called twice and he/she does not respond, or when a member passes, they will not be allowed to vote at a later time on the current issue before the committee.

31) No seconds are required during the legislative process except those that are explicit in the rules, (roll call, previous question, sound the ballot, etc.)

32) (House Rule 36(p)1) When any House or Senate bill or resolution requiring an expenditure of public funds or otherwise imposing a new or increased cost obligation on any municipality or county is pending before any committee of the House of Representatives, any member of the committee may request that a fiscal impact statement for such bill or resolution be placed on the desk of each member of the committee before the bill or resolution is called up for final action in the committee. If such request is made, the chairperson of the committee shall refer the bill or resolution to the appropriate state agency or to the legislative staff for the preparation of a fiscal impact statement, to be returned to the committee in writing not later than five (5) days from the date of the request.

33) (House Rule 36(p)4) Failure of the sponsor of a bill or resolution to provide the fiscal impact statement required in this rule shall not prohibit the consideration of it in the committee to which referred or on the floor of the house in which the bill or resolution is called up for final passage, if no objection to it is made at the time such action is taken. (House Rule 36(p)5) Nothing in this rule shall prohibit a committee to which a bill or resolution is referred or the house in which the bill or resolution is being considered from suspending the requirement of the filing of a fiscal impact statement on any such bill or resolution in the same manner as provided for the suspension of the rules in the house in which the bill or resolution is being considered.

34) Bills imposing new or additional costs on education.

(a)(1) As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires, "fiscal impact statement" means a realistic written statement of the purpose of a proposed law, or a regulation promulgated under a law, and the estimated financial cost to the state or any local school district of implementing or complying with the proposed law or regulation.

(2) The fiscal impact statement shall be developed by the Office of Economic and Tax Policy of the Bureau of Legislative Research with the assistance of the Department of Education within the guidelines adopted by the House Committee on Education and the Senate Committee on Education, as applicable.

(b) Any bill filed in the House of Representatives or Senate that will impose a new or increased cost obligation for education in grades kindergarten through twelve (K-12) on the State of Arkansas or any local school district shall have a fiscal impact statement attached to it prepared and filed with the chair of the committee to which the bill is referred:

(1) At least three (3) days before the bill may be called up for final action in the committee during a regular session of the General Assembly; and

(2) At least one (1) day before the bill may be called up for final action in the committee during a special session of the General Assembly.

(c)(1)(A) If any such House or Senate bill is called up for final passage in the House or Senate and a fiscal impact statement has not been provided by the author of the bill or by the committee to which the bill was referred, any member of the House or Senate may object to the bill's being called up for final passage until a fiscal impact statement is prepared and made available on the desk of each member of the House or Senate at least one (1) day prior to the bill's being called up for final passage.

(B) An affirmative vote of two-thirds (2/3) of a quorum present and voting shall override the objection.

(2) If an objection is made without override, the presiding officer of the House or Senate shall cause the bill to be referred to the office for the preparation of a fiscal impact statement which shall be filed with the presiding officer not later than five (5) days from the date of the request. (A.C.A. 10-2-127)

35) Bills imposing new or additional costs and restrictions on inmate population patterns or affecting programs or services of the Department of Corrections.

(a) Each of the following bills introduced in the General Assembly shall have a cost impact statement attached to the bill prior to the committee to which the bill is referred taking action in regard to the bill:

(1) Bills which affect inmate population patterns at facilities of the Department of Correction by imposing restrictions on inmate release, or by increased intake into the department of inmates based on felony convictions; and

(2) Bills which affect programs or services of the department.

(b) In addition, copies of the cost impact statement shall be furnished on the desk of each member of the Senate and of the House of Representatives at least one (1) day prior to the date on which the bill is on third reading and debated for final passage in the respective houses.

(c) Cost impact statements required under this section shall be prepared, upon referral thereof by the Speaker of the House of Representatives, with respect to House bills, and by the President of the Senate upon recommendation of the Senate Rules Committee, with respect to Senate bills, at the time of introduction thereof, to:

(1) The Director of the Department of Correction, who shall either personally prepare, or cause appropriate officials of the department to prepare, a cost impact statement to be approved by the director before submission to the house in which the request was made; or

(2) Any other state agency which has information available upon which to base a cost impact statement.

(d) The cost impact statement shall be furnished to the Governor and to the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives who shall cause copies thereof to be prepared for distribution upon the desks of the members of the House and Senate at least twenty-four (24) hours prior to consideration of any such bill by committee or twenty-four (24) hours prior to the bill's being called up for third reading and final passage.

(e) The cost impact statement shall be certified by the director, or the director of the appropriate agency to which the bill is referred for preparation of an impact statement, and shall be returned and filed as required in this section within not more than five (5) days from the date of receipt thereof unless additional time in which to prepare the statement is granted by the requesting official. Method of Preparing Bills and Resolutions - Automated Bill Preparation System

Section 18. (A) No bill or resolution, as defined herein, shall be accepted for introduction by clerks of the Senate or of the House of Representatives unless such bill or resolution has been prepared for introduction by an automated bill preparation system developed by the Bureau of Legislative Research.

(1) The Bureau of Legislative Research shall establish and operate, in cooperation with the appropriate officials of the House of Representatives and the Senate, an automated bill preparation system in which all bills and resolutions, as defined herein, shall be prepared for introduction. Such system shall be designed in a manner which will permit either or both houses of the General Assembly to install compatible and interconnecting electronic equipment for the preparation of bills and resolutions in the same format as prepared by the Bureau of Legislative Research for introduction in either house of the General Assembly.

(2) The Bureau of Legislative Research shall provide the Secretary of the Senate and the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives access by electronic medium to the central bill files in which bills and resolutions recorded in the automated bill preparation system are stored, to enable the engrossing rooms of the respective houses to have ready access thereto for enrollment of engrossed amendments adopted to such bills and resolutions.

(3) As used herein:

(a) "resolutions" shall mean all resolutions prepared for introduction which require the concurrence of both houses of the General Assembly for the adoption thereof, and shall include resolutions prepared for consideration by only the house in which introduced;

(b) "automated bill preparation system" shall mean an automated system using word processors, computers, or other electronic devices for the typing and preparation of bills and resolutions (as defined herein) for introduction by members of the General Assembly in either the Senate or the House of Representatives, and shall include the following features:

(i) a separate identification number, to be placed upon each page of the original and each copy thereof prepared for introduction in the General Assembly;

(ii) a method of electronically recording the contents of each bill and resolution for ready access for retrieval and engrossment purposes;

(iii) security features to protect the automated bill preparation files from access by unauthorized persons, and to maintain the integrity and confidentiality of drafts of bills and resolutions prepared by the Bureau of Legislative Research for members of the General Assembly which have not been filed for introduction; and

(iv) such other features as deemed to be necessary and advisable by the Bureau of Legislative Research after consulting with the appropriate officials of the House of Representatives and the Senate.

(B) All bills and resolutions introduced in the House and Senate shall be prepared on 8 1/2 x 11 inch paper. A computer generated original and eight (8) copies of the bill or resolution, or a photocopy of an original computer generated copy with eight (8) additional copies thereof, shall be prepared for introduction. The original computer generated copy shall be placed in the manuscript cover provided for the official copy of bills or resolutions and a photocopy of the computer generated original shall be placed in the manuscript cover provided for the duplicate copy, with the eight (8) copies thereof to be attached thereto in such manner as may be prescribed by the respective houses. In addition, eight (8) copies of the caption on each bill or resolution shall be prepared and attached thereto at the time of introduction.

(C) Upon the introduction of each bill and resolution, the appropriate clerks of the respective houses shall cause the original signed copy thereof (which is contained in the official bill or resolution manuscript cover) to be identified as the official copy by perforation or stamping on the left margin of each page thereof the words "HOUSE ORIGINAL" to be placed on each official original copy of House bills and resolutions, and the words "SENATE ORIGINAL" to be placed on the left margin of each official original copy of Senate bills and resolutions. Whenever any bill or resolution is amended, the engrossed page or pages thereof shall be perforated in the same manner as the original introduced copy. GOVERNOR'S
STATE OF THE STATE ADDRESS

Mr. President, Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House and Senate, Constitutional Officers, Mr. Chief Justice, Members of the Court, Distinguished Guests, Friends, and Fellow Arkansans:

On behalf of our State, I begin by saying thank you. Thank you to all Arkansans who have served and continue to serve so honorably throughout the world, especially in Iraq and Afghanistan. We are proud of our men and women in uniform and humbled by their devotion to duty. On a very personal note, I want to thank all my fellow citizens for the extraordinary kindness and support they have shown to Ginger and me these past two years. We are forever grateful for their friendship. And all of us who sit in this Chamber know how important our people back home are to our continued success.

I stood here before you two years ago and laid out my administration's commitments, commitments we have honored: responsible stewardship of taxpayer dollars, restoring faith in state government, investing in education and economic development, improving health care and generally improving the quality of life of our people.

Despite our nation's struggle with an economic slide unmatched since the Great Depression, Arkansas continues to make advancements in education and attract new businesses. Still, the impact of the global recession has reached within our borders, and it's not yet over. The fallout from the national economic downturn will be our biggest challenge this year and in this legislative session, but our charge and our responsibility remain unchanged. We must remain firm in providing not only the services our people depend on from their State, but also in striving to make them even better, even in tough economic times. We must prepare Arkansas and her children today for whatever the world may bring tomorrow.

Together, we've begun that preparation. Presented with a one billion dollar surplus in the 2007 legislative session, we took the responsible step of dedicating roughly half of that money for school facilities. This investment helped end the prolonged legal battles of the Lake View case and put us on the right path toward excellence in education for all our children. Arkansas is today building new, state-of-the art schools and enhancing existing facilities, even in the face of this international economic crisis.

A common thread runs through our fiscal policies and sets Arkansas apart from other states, a thread spun from the wisdom of careful budgeting. By holding to our traditions of budget stabilization and conservative forecasting, we now find ourselves in an enviable position. Other state governments are convening this month. They must decide how deeply to cut state programs, what services to terminate, which teachers to lay off, which scholarships to cut, and which nursing homes to close. We don't face these precarious decisions in Arkansas, but we still face serious challenges. There are only two areas in my balanced budget where I have proposed real increases in funding. Those are for public education and for the Division of Children and Family Services. It is no surprise that public education remains my first, and my highest, priority for Arkansas. It remains our constitutional obligation and it is our moral imperative to provide the best education possible for our children. In my proposed budget, we have again reached beyond the legal definition of "adequacy" that you all determined and toward excellence by providing school districts with additional per-student funds. If approved annually by the Legislature, we will add 234 dollars of additional per-student funding over the next two years, and will give school districts additional one-time enhancement money of 35 dollars per student. Providing excellence in grades K through 12 is only one piece of our education commitment. We have made quality pre-kindergarten education available to all at-risk children, and this will pay dividends for decades to come. We will stand fast on that commitment. Quality pre-k instruction has a positive ripple effect throughout our education system as a whole and the academic life of any single student. It creates a richer learning environment that better prepares our children to succeed throughout elementary and secondary grades, reducing the need for remediation, and allowing entire classes to learn at a faster pace. As our schools improve and better prepare our students for college, so, too, must our higher-education system better prepare our workforce for the competition of a global job market. Arkansas holds its own nationally when it comes to enrolling college students. Where we fall to the bottom is in our inability to graduate those students, to get degrees in their hands, and put them on stronger footing to begin their careers.

Two primary factors keep us at the bottom of that list. Some students are not adequately prepared when they enter college; others run out of money before they can graduate. We're addressing preparation through increased overall funding, through pre-k, through Smart Core and stronger college prep programs, and now through pilot programs for after-school and summer learning. These will all be beneficial. But, even our best-prepared students sometimes struggle to afford the pursuit of a college degree. We need to improve our scholarship programs so that scholarships reach more students, and so that the amount of assistance they receive is greater. In 2007, we initiated a need-based financial-aid program in Arkansas, the GO Opportunities Grant, to make college more attainable for students who show potential for success in professional and technical careers, even though they may have been late bloomers academically. It's a good start, but this program must be broadened to include more non-traditional students, to help additional students in two-year programs, and to expand the total financial support available.

A growing number of students also qualify for state merit scholarships. However, many of these scholarships never reach students who qualify for them, and even when they do, there's often not enough money to sustain enrollment in the face of rising tuition costs. I want to rectify that troubling dilemma, as well.

The lottery, approved by our voters, can help. Our first step is to structure the lottery to be as efficient and as transparent as possible. We must then open up the doors of higher education to students who qualify for both need-based and merit-based aid, while increasing scholarship amounts. We have a unique opportunity to address both of those problems, that is the amount of the scholarship and the number of people who are entitled to the scholarships. Reducing the financial burden of our college students can help them focus on their studies, rather than on how they will pay for school next semester. Our work to ease that burden must be approached responsibly. When we promise scholarships, the money must remain available if the students remain qualified. What that really means is making sure that the funding is there for expanded scholarships before we make them that promise. Some of you were here in 2000, when we had to take back money or reduce scholarships because we didn't have the money to complete the promises. That's not going to happen with this General Assembly, and it's not going to happen with this administration.

Scholarships are only beneficial, however, when students can access them. We need simpler paperwork. I'll go further and say we need and less paperwork, with the State stepping up to provide a single application listing the college assistance available, rather than students and their families struggling to seek out their best match for financial aid. Just as all of you, just as the Lieutenant Governor, just as the Speaker, I want every Arkansan who has earned it and wants to go, to have the chance to get a college degree. That's what Arkansas is all about, that's what America is all about.

We will also adjust the higher-education funding formula to stress graduation rates, rather than the number of students that happen to be on campus. For too long, that formula has emphasized enrollment numbers over degrees. Shifting some of the funding formula's weight from the beginning of the school term to its successful conclusion of that term will provide a financial incentive for our colleges and universities to increase graduation rates.

Along with the expanded funding for public education, I also want to significantly increase resources for the Division of Children and Family Services. Every state struggles to serve children who, through no fault of their own, find themselves wards of the State. However, the strain upon DCFS and its subsequent inefficiency have recently emerged in stark relief. After working closely with DHS officials on a top-to-bottom review of this division, I am confident that they are taking dramatic steps that will improve the service for, and protection of, the vulnerable children in our care. Our next step is to increase skilled personnel, provide additional money to reduce caseloads, and stem the turnover of qualified, caring people who too often burn out in an overworked and understaffed system. We will also increase the visibility and accountability of the system by sharing more information with the public.

I was disappointed when voters passed an initiated act last November limiting the number of Arkansans who may qualify to become foster and adoptive parents. Before Act 1, we already had three times more foster children than we had qualified homes available. Now our ability to place these children is further impeded. It is imperative for those who supported shrinking the pool of potential foster parents to realize that the number of young and vulnerable Arkansans needing foster care will only continue to grow, and action must now follow their words. More than ever, we need Arkansas families to open their hearts and their homes to give these children the chance to grow up in safety and security, with devoted families who can raise them with care and compassion.

While my budget does call for increased funding for education and for DCFS, we're holding the line everywhere else and recommending that we set aside funds in case dire budget forecasts become reality. We've saved enough money to cover gaps in key areas, especially in Medicaid and in our prison system. I would authorize the use of these "rainy-day" funds with the consensus and oversight of this Legislature.

This is a departure from my philosophy of not using one-time surplus money for ongoing revenue needs. However, a recession is, by its nature, a temporary phenomenon. As the national economy recovers and Arkansas's economy continues to grow, we anticipate that these will be one-time expenditures. Even if we spend some savings shoring up state services, funds remain available for general improvement. And this brings me to the second cornerstone of my administration: economic development. This may be the longest gap in any speech I've given between the first mention of education and the first discussion of economic development. The two are indeed intertwined and inseparable, and I stand by my assertion that one cannot fully succeed without the other.

I am proud to say that, through the tireless work of the Arkansas Economic Development Commission and the Legislature's willingness to provide the tools we need to be competitive, Arkansas continues to attract new jobs and industry from throughout the United States and, indeed, from around the world. Just last week, we announced the arrival of Caterpillar in North Little Rock with plans to create 600 jobs and invest $140 million. Last month, Cooper Tire decided that not only would they keep their 1500 employees in Texarkana, but would add as many as 250 more in the coming year. Last summer, Hewlett-Packard announced 1200 technology jobs in Conway. All this economic expansion and more in Little Rock, West Memphis, Rogers, Jonesboro, Booneville and throughout Arkansas, adds up to $2.7 billion of new investment and 19,000 new jobs for Arkansas.

Now let's give credit where credit is due. This success would not have been possible without the Governor's Quick Action Closing Fund, which you created as a tool in the last session. You made these tools available for the State of Arkansas to be competitive; you trusted me; I asked you to do that, and you did it. And I ask you to replenish it this time with $50 million over the next two years, so that we can continue to be competitive and continue this progress. Through our strategic plan for economic development, we will position Arkansas to be at full speed when the recession lifts - and it will lift - and we will continue working to defy the global economic downturn today.

As we put more Arkansans to work, the struggling economy means that more Arkansans now must get back to work. As we celebrate the arrival of new jobs, we also empathize with friends and neighbors who have lost their jobs to closures and outsourcing. This makes our ability to educate, train, and re-train our workforce that much more valuable. Our Workforce Cabinet agencies continue working together to provide efficient and effective programs that prepare Arkansans for employment.

I have spoken repeatedly about restoring our people's faith in their government and the individuals they elect to lead it. Last year showed us a presidential campaign with strong words and accusations on all sides. It showed us scandal and corruption in respected seats of power. It reinforced the cynicism of those who already doubted their leaders. Restoring confidence is a commitment we owe to our citizens and our democracy. To Arkansas's leaders assembled before me, I say we must seek every opportunity to cooperate when addressing our State's challenges. When we cannot agree, we must debate with respect and dignity. Above all, we must be reasonable and realistic in the promises we make. There was a line in a speech that John F. Kennedy was to deliver on the day he died. It said "Leadership and learning are indispensable to each other." Listen to your constituents; be willing to learn from one another, and from history. While being guided by our hearts, we must lead with our minds to navigate our State through good times and bad, together.

When I ran for governor, I made a promise to attack Arkansas's regressive grocery tax. Attempts to remove or reduce this tax had failed for decades, because the revenue it generated proved too precious to give up. But, together with the General Assembly, we passed the largest package of tax cuts in Arkansas history, including reducing that grocery tax by half. Today's economic climate will not allow us to completely eliminate the tax this year, but even under pessimistic forecasts, we can afford an additional one-penny decrease. This easing of the grocery tax will provide our citizens with additional relief for basic necessities. But even more important than the relief it provides, even more important than the revenue that is lost, even more important than the sheer numbers - it shows our continued dedication to eradicate this onerous tax and restore our people's faith in their government and their leaders, by doing what we said we were going to do. It's more important to keep your word than anything else, and that's what we need to do in this session. I know it's going to be tough for some of you, but I ask you to join me - we can do this, we can afford to do this, and I ask for your help.

This faith has been tested enough of late. Oil prices skyrocketed in 2008, and we shook our heads and sometimes our fists at the record prices we paid for gasoline and diesel over the summer. Six months later, we are shaking our heads again as those same prices plummet to levels we thought would never return. However, we know that gas prices won't stay low, because oil-producing countries won't let them.

OPEC has already reduced supply in an effort to bring back higher prices and increase profits. In our nation, this activity would be prosecuted as an anti-trust violation. When a collection of foreign nations is involved, it amounts to international blackmail.

We can't change OPEC, but as Arkansans and Americans, we can change the game. By continuing to develop alternative energies, we lessen our dependence on fossil fuels and shrug off the grip of foreign powers. That money can go into the pockets of farmers, timber growers, and innovators in Arkansas and throughout America, creating jobs while we become better stewards of our environment, our resources, and our national security.

Alternative fuels are only part of the solution. We must conserve energy and operate more efficiently to preserve our natural resources and to lower costs. Arkansas recently formed a partnership with the Clinton Climate Initiative, a joint effort that gives us the guidance and purchasing power to construct and retrofit buildings for energy efficiency without additional cost to taxpayers. State government will lead by example, conserving both our natural resources and our tax dollars.

Arkansas sits amidst the Fayetteville Shale, a rich source of natural gas and a welcome boost to our economy. This year, we will see new revenue from the severance of this natural resource, money destined to improve our highways. The amount of revenue is tied to the price of natural gas, which has swung just as wildly as oil prices. Still, we will see tens of millions of dollars in new money for state and local roads. Additionally, this money will fund new resources for the Arkansas Department of Environmental Quality to regulate and monitor these drilling operations and safeguard our Natural State.

We have the opportunity, in this session, to take our next big step forward as a State. We've started the climb from the bottom of national rankings in both education and economic development. You might have seen this week we were ranked 10th in that overall report card on education - who ever thought Arkansas would be 10th? Now it is time to do the same for the health of our citizens. Education lasts a lifetime and new jobs can take lives to new and prosperous heights. But by improving the health of our citizens, we can free them from ailments that threaten their well-being and help prevent chronic illnesses that are so devastating and so costly. Providing new and better health-care programs that offer more options is an investment that we cannot afford to ignore.

Our State is becoming a shining example for attacking the problem of uninsured children. Ten years ago, nearly one in four Arkansas children had no health insurance. Through the ARKids First program, we have provided care to tens of thousands of Arkansas children. New statistics show that a decade later, the percentage of uninsured Arkansas children has fallen into single digits. Still, nearly 70,000 children in our State remain without health insurance, and we can continue chipping away at that number by increasing the maximum eligible income to 250 percent of the federal poverty level.

Arkansans must have more home-health programs. More options for outpatient treatment will keep our loved ones in familiar surroundings and out of institutions, whenever possible. Our community health centers, which are best suited to provide basic health services directly to Arkansans, need more resources to help more people.

I am excited about a UAMS residency program taking shape in Northwest Arkansas. It will prepare new doctors and other health professionals by providing the experience they need to finish their medical education and care for patients throughout Arkansas. The State will keep its promise to match the enthusiastic private fundraising efforts already undertaken to initiate the satellite program. But ongoing funding must be provided to keep it operational.

We can expand our statewide coordinated school-health system to provide new resources and equipment for our school nurses and in-school mental-health services for our children. We can explore new outlets of care for autistic children. We can step up our fights against breast, cervical, prostate, and other cancers. Our health-education centers, the AHECs, can expand preventive-care programs that keep our people healthy and reduce state Medicaid costs. We can give thousands of Arkansans, who can't afford regular dental care, relief from persistent pain and infections that cause other health problems. We can fight hunger, a daily drain on the health and wellness of so many Arkansans. We can make annual flu vaccines available to every man, woman, and child who wants one, again reducing the toll of lives lost and taxpayer money spent.

And, we can save lives through the establishment of a statewide trauma system. When traumatic accidents occur on our roads, on our farms, at our businesses, and in our homes, the first hour of response can determine the difference between life and death.

Trauma is the leading cause of death among Americans ages 1 through 34. With a fully functional trauma system in place, first responders can more easily ascertain where to deliver a critically injured patient to receive the best treatment.

We can pay for this entire health-care package, everything I've just outlined, with a 56 cent increase to Arkansas's cigarette tax and a reform of the smokeless tobacco tax.

By their nature, tobacco taxes are a dwindling revenue stream as higher prices, prevention, and cessation reduce the number of tobacco users. However, the savings that decreased smoking will bring to our health-care system will be a welcome offset to any revenue lost from decreased tobacco sales. Caring for tobacco users costs an estimated $620 million a year in Arkansas. By simultaneously reforming our tax on smokeless tobacco, we will prevent driving young people away from increased cigarette prices and directly to another harmful form of tobacco.

Improving our health-care system will increase productivity at our businesses and decrease the need for remediation in the classroom. It will make our citizens, and our bottom line, healthier.

These are the times that display our mettle as citizens and our capabilities as leaders. Arkansas's unique position in this economic climate means we can still push forward toward excellence in education. We can still attract new jobs and have an able workforce ready to succeed. We can continue to attack the most regressive tax on our people. We can better protect the health of our citizens. Arkansans, who are the victims of traumatic accidents or who have conditions that hamper their everyday lives, deserve a more accessible health-delivery system to help them lead better lives. We can foster research and development to bring alternative energies and fuels to power our economic engine and conserve our resources. We can graduate more college students while securing the jobs that will keep them home to prosper in Arkansas. We can reform protective services for children in the State's care. We can support and nourish the faith of those who have given us the task of responding to their needs through responsible leadership.

We can accomplish all of these goals, even while facing the toughest economic time in two generations. Finding success among prosperity is admirable, but if we can capture success and continue moving Arkansas forward during a national recession, it will be a landmark of true achievement. Join me, and we will show our people in Arkansas, that you can receive a better education, you can find a better job, and you can lead a healthier, better life. And most importantly, we can restore in their minds and in their hearts the understanding and the idea that the institutions which have held this country together for over 200 years - the republic form of government which elects people to look out for their interests and to exercise their will; the democratic process that says we never lose faith with the people that we represent, and that we do what we tell them we're going to do - can restore the faith in our leaders and in our government, and reduce that cynicism that is such a cancer and which must be combated. Together, the men and women of the Senate and the House of Representatives can chart the course that will impact so many future generations - so that you can put your head on your pillow, and you can say you did your duty, you made Arkansas a better place.

God bless you all. Thank you.

(j) When deoxyribonucleic acid (DNA) testing implicates a person previously identified through a search of the State DNA Data Base or National DNA Index System, no statute of limitation that would otherwise preclude prosecution of the offense precludes the prosecution until a period of time following the implication of the person by deoxyribonucleic acid (DNA) testing has elapsed that is equal to the otherwise applicable limitation period."

STATE OF ARKANSAS

House of Representatives

February 3, 2009

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this letter in regards to my nay - vote on HOUSE BILL NO. 1119. It was my intention to vote YES on this bill.

However I was called away from my seat during the vote on HOUSE BILL NO. 1119 for an emergency call. My voting machine was inadvertently voted "nay". Had I been in my seat, I would have voted "yes".

Please see that this matter is corrected and noted in the journal. Thank you.

Sincerely,

/s/ Eddie L. Cheatham
State Representative

Prologue

"AN ACT TO STRENGTHEN THE SYSTEM OF ARKANSAS EDUCATIONAL DEVELOPMENT"

This Act works to develop a systematic approach to address the findings of the General Assembly. The most effective way of developing leadership is to work within a system that includes policy, recruitment, pre-service, in-service, career professional development, and the relationship of these components to one another rather than examining the components as independent entities.

The attached documents provide a summary of some of the leadership development opportunities currently available to aspiring, new, and career principals, superintendents, teachers, and school board members in Arkansas public schools. The second page shows how this bill addressed the issues raised by the General Assembly.

As those setting policy and offering leadership development opportunities work together, align their programs, and continue to adapt and respond to the needs of the system, they will help make excellence in Arkansas education leadership a reality. This bill uses the systems approach to problem solving and meeting the needs specifically identified by the General Assembly as crucial to educational leadership development in Arkansas.

"SECTION 1. Arkansas Code Title 20, Chapter 16 is amended to add an additional subchapter to read as follows:

20-16-1201. Title.

This subchapter shall be known and may be cited as the "Partial-Birth Abortion Ban Act".

20-16-1202. Definitions.

As used in this subchapter:

(1) "Partial-birth abortion" means an abortion in which the person performing the abortion:

(A) Purposely vaginally delivers a living human fetus until, in the case of a head-first presentation, the entire fetal head is outside the body of the female or, in the case of breech presentation, any part of the fetal trunk past the navel is outside the body of the female, for the purpose of performing an overt act that the person knows will kill the partially delivered living human fetus; and

(B) Performs the overt act, other than completion of delivery of a living human fetus, that kills the partially delivered living human fetus; and

(2)(A) "Physician" means a doctor of medicine or osteopathy legally authorized to practice medicine and surgery in this state, or any other individual legally authorized by the state to perform abortions.

(B) However, any individual who is not a physician or not otherwise legally authorized by the state to perform abortions, but who nevertheless directly performs a partial-birth abortion, is subject to this subchapter.

20-16-1203. Partial-birth abortions prohibited — Penalty — Exception.

(a)(1) Any person who knowingly performs a partial-birth abortion and thereby kills a human fetus is guilty of a Class D felony.

(2) This subsection (a) does not apply to a partial-birth abortion that is necessary to save the life of a mother whose life is endangered by a physical disorder, physical illness, or physical injury, including a life-endangering physical condition caused by or arising from the pregnancy itself.

(b) A female upon whom a partial-birth abortion is performed shall not be prosecuted under this subchapter.

20-16-1204. License suspension or revocation and fines.

(a)(1) After proper notice and an opportunity to be heard, the Arkansas State Medical Board may assess a civil fine against a physician who violates this subchapter.

(2) The civil fine shall not exceed:

(A) Twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) for the first violation;

(B) Fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) for the second violation;

(C) One hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) for the third violation; and

(D) For each subsequent violation, any amount over one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) sufficient to deter future violations.

(b) The board may suspend or revoke the physician's license in accordance with procedures established under § 17-95-410.

(c)(1) All fines assessed and collected under this section shall be remitted into the Treasurer of State.

(2) The Treasurer of State shall deposit the entire amount of any fines collected under this section in the State Treasury as general revenues.

(d) The civil fine assessed under this section is in addition to the criminal penalty imposed under § 20-16-1203.

20-16-1205. Civil Liability.

(a) The father, if married to the mother at the time she receives a partial-birth abortion procedure, and if the mother has not attained the age of eighteen (18) years at the time of the abortion, the maternal grandparents of the fetus, may obtain appropriate relief in a civil action, unless the pregnancy resulted from the plaintiff's criminal conduct or the plaintiff consented to the abortion.

(b) Relief under subsection (a) of this section shall include:

(1) Money damages for all injuries, psychological and physical, occasioned by the violation of this section: and

(2) Statutory damages equal to three (3) times the cost of the partial-birth abortion.

(c) Damages shall not be assessed against the female upon whom a partial-birth abortion is performed.

20-16-1206. Hearings before the Arkansas State Medical Board.

(a) A physician accused of a violation of this subchapter may seek a hearing before the Arkansas State Medical Board to determine whether the physician's conduct was necessary to save the life of the female under § 20-16-1203.

(b) Findings from a hearing held under subsection (a) of this section are admissible at the trial of the physician on the issue of whether the physician's conduct was necessary to save the life of the female under § 20-16-1203.

(c) Upon a motion of the physician, the circuit court shall delay the beginning of the trial for not more than ninety (90) days to permit a hearing under subsection (a) of this section to take place.

20-16-1207. Provision for anonymity of female.

(a) In every proceeding or action under this subchapter, the circuit court shall rule whether the anonymity of any female upon whom a partial-birth abortion is performed should be preserved from public disclosure if the female does not give her consent to the disclosure.

(b)(1) Upon its own motion or upon motion by a party to the proceeding or action under this subchapter, the circuit court shall make a ruling concerning the anonymity of any female upon whom a partial-birth abortion is performed.

(2) Upon determining that the anonymity should be preserved, the circuit court shall issue orders to the parties, witnesses, and counsel and shall direct the sealing of the record and exclusion of individuals from courtrooms or hearing rooms to the extent necessary to safeguard the female's identity from public disclosure.

(3) Each order under subdivision (b)(2) of this section shall be accompanied by a specific written finding explaining:

(A) Why the anonymity of the female should be preserved from public disclosure;

(B) Why the order is essential to that end;

(C) How the order is narrowly tailored to serve that interest; and

(D) Why no reasonable, less restrictive alternative exists.

(c) In the absence of written consent of the female upon whom a partial-birth abortion has been performed, any person other than a public official who brings an action under this subchapter shall do so under a pseudonym.

(d) This section shall not be construed to conceal the identity of the plaintiff or of a witness from the defendant.

SECTION 2. Arkansas Code Title 5, Chapter 61, Subchapter 2 is repealed.

~~5-61-201. Title.~~

~~This subchapter may be cited as the "Partial-Birth Abortion Ban Act of 1997".~~

~~5-61-202. Definitions.~~

~~As used in this subchapter, "partial-birth abortion" means an abortion in which the person performing the abortion partially vaginally delivers a living fetus before taking the life of the fetus and completing the delivery or as defined by the United States Supreme Court.~~

~~5-61-203. Partial-birth abortions prohibited.~~

~~(a) Any person who knowingly performs a partial-birth abortion and thereby takes the life of a human fetus is guilty of a Class D felony.~~

~~(b) A woman upon whom a partial-birth abortion is performed may not be prosecuted under this section for conspiracy, solicitation, attempt, or complicity to violate this section.~~

~~(c) It is an affirmative defense to a prosecution under this section, which must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence, that the partial-birth abortion was performed by a physician who reasonably believed:~~

~~(1) The partial-birth abortion was necessary to save the life of the woman upon whom it was performed; and~~

~~(2) No other form of abortion would suffice for that purpose.~~

~~(d)(1) Prior to charging a person under this section, a prosecutor shall refer the investigation to the State Medical Board, which shall determine whether the procedure at issue in the investigation is a partial-birth abortion as defined by this subchapter.~~

~~(2) If the board determines that the procedure being investigated is not a partial-birth abortion as defined by this subchapter, the prosecutor shall not proceed with the case.~~

~~(e) This subchapter is operative and shall be enforced to the extent permitted~~ by the United States Constitution and laws.

~~5-61-204. Professional sanctions.~~

~~(a) Any person who knowingly performs a partial-birth abortion is subject to disciplinary action by the State Medical Board.~~

~~(b) Disciplinary action taken by the board against a physician who violates this subchapter shall include, as determined by the board:~~

~~(1) A fine not greater than ten thousand dollars ($10,000);~~

~~(2) Suspension of the physician's license for a period not greater than one (1) year; or~~

~~(3) Revocation of the physician's license.~~

SECTION 3. EMERGENCY CLAUSE. It is found and determined by the General Assembly of the State of Arkansas that partial-birth abortion poses serious risks to the health of a female undergoing the procedure; that those risks include, among other things: an increase in a female's risk of suffering from cervical incompetence, a result of cervical dilation making it difficult or impossible for a female to successfully carry a subsequent pregnancy to term; an increased risk of uterine rupture, abruption, amniotic fluid embolus, and trauma to the uterus as a result of converting the child to a footling breech position and a risk of lacerations and secondary hemorrhaging due to the physician blindly forcing a sharp instrument into the base of the unborn child's skull while he or she is lodged in the birth canal, an act which could result in severe bleeding, brings with it the threat of shock, and could ultimately result in maternal death. Therefore, an emergency is declared to exist and this act being immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health, and safety shall become effective on:

(1) The date of its approval by the Governor;

(2) If the bill is neither approved nor vetoed by the Governor, the expiration of the period of time during which the Governor may veto the bill; or

(3) If the bill is vetoed by the Governor and the veto is overridden, the date the last house overrides the veto."

AMENDMENT NO. 1 TO HOUSE BILL NO. 1459

Amend HOUSE BILL NO. 1459 as originally introduced:

Page 1, line 21, add a new Section 1 to read as follows and renumber subsequent sections accordingly:

"SECTION 1. Arkansas Code 5-65-104(a), concerning the lookback period for seizure, suspension, and revocation of a driver's license, is amended to read as follows:

(a)(1) At the time of arrest for operating or being in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while intoxicated or while there was an alcohol concentration of eight-hundredths (0.08) or more in the person's breath or blood, as provided in § 5-65-103, the arrested person shall immediately surrender his or her license, permit, or other evidence of driving privilege to the arresting law enforcement officer as provided in § 5-65-402.

(2) The Office of Driver Services or its designated official shall suspend or revoke the driving privilege of an arrested person or shall suspend any nonresident driving privilege of an arrested person, as provided in § 5-65-402. The suspension or revocation shall be based on the number of previous offenses as follows:

(A) Suspension for:

(i) One hundred twenty (120) days for the first offense of operating or being in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while intoxicated or

while there was an alcohol concentration of at least eight hundredths (0.08) but less than fifteen hundredths (0.15) by weight of alcohol in the person's blood or breath, § 5-65-103;

(ii) Suspension for six (6) months for the first offense of operating or being in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while intoxicated by the ingestion of or by the use of a controlled substance; and

(iii)(a) Suspension for one hundred eighty (180) days for the first offense of operating or being in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while intoxicated and while there was an alcohol concentration of fifteen hundredths (0.15) or more by weight of alcohol in the person's blood or breath.

(b) However, if the office allows the issuance of an ignition interlock restricted license under § 5-65-118, the ignition interlock restricted license shall be available immediately.

(c) The restricted driving permit provision of § 5-65-120 does not apply to this suspension;

(B)(i) Suspension for twenty-four (24) months for a second offense of operating or being in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while intoxicated or while there was an alcohol concentration of eight hundredths (0.08) or more by weight of alcohol in the person's blood or breath, § 5-65-103, within ~~five (5)~~ ten (10) years of the first offense.

(ii) However, if the office allows the issuance of an ignition interlock restricted license under § 5-65-118, the suspension period for which no restricted license is available is a minimum of one (1) year;

(C)(i) Suspension for thirty (30) months for the third offense of operating or being in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while intoxicated or while there was an alcohol concentration of eight hundredths (0.08) or more by weight of alcohol in the person's blood or breath, § 5-65-103, within ~~five (5)~~ ten (10) years of the first offense.

(ii) However, if the office allows the issuance of an ignition interlock restricted license under § 5-65-118, the suspension period for which no restricted license is available is a minimum of one (1) year; and

(D) Revocation for four (4) years, during which no restricted permits may be issued, for the fourth or subsequent offense of operating or being in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while intoxicated or while there was an alcohol concentration of eight hundredths (0.08) or more by weight of alcohol in the person's blood or breath, § 5-65-103, within ~~five (5)~~ ten (10) years of the first offense.

(3) If a person is a resident who is convicted of driving without a license or permit to operate a motor vehicle and the underlying basis for the suspension, revocation, or restriction of the license was for a violation of § 5-65-103, in addition to any other penalties provided for under law, the office may restrict the offender to only an ignition interlock restricted license for a period of one (1) year prior to the reinstatement or reissuance of a license or permit after the person would otherwise be eligible for reinstatement or reissuance of the person's license.

(4) In order to determine the number of previous offenses to consider when suspending or revoking the arrested person's driving privileges, the office shall consider as a previous offense any of the following that occurred within the ~~five (5)~~ ten (10) years immediately before the current offense:

(A) Any conviction for an offense of operating or being in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while intoxicated or while there was an alcohol concentration of eight-hundredths (0.08) or more in the person's breath or blood that occurred:

(i) In Arkansas; or

(ii) In another state;

(B) Any suspension or revocation of driving privileges for an arrest for operating or being in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while intoxicated or while there was an alcohol concentration of eight-hundredths (0.08) or more in the person's breath or blood under § 5-65-103 when the person was not subsequently acquitted of the criminal charges; or

(C) Any conviction under § 5-76-102 for an offense of operating a motorboat on the waters of this state while intoxicated or while there was an alcohol concentration in the person's breath or blood of eight-hundredths (0.08) or more based upon the definition of breath, blood, and urine concentration in § 5-65-204 or refusing to submit to a chemical test under § 5-76-104 occurring on or after July 31, 2007 when the person was not subsequently acquitted of the criminal charges."

AND

Page 2, delete lines 9 through 11 and substitute:

Page 4, line 17, add a new section to read as follows:

"SECTION 3. Arkansas Code 5-65-205(b) through (d), concerning the lookback period for refusal to submit, is amended to read as follows:

(b) The Office of Driver Services shall then proceed to suspend or revoke the driving privilege of the arrested person, as provided in § 5-65-402. The suspension shall be as follows:

(1)(A)(i) Suspension for one hundred eighty (180) days for the first offense of refusing to submit to a chemical test of blood, breath, or urine for the purpose of determining the alcohol or controlled substance content of the person's blood or breath.

(ii) However, if the office allows the issuance of an ignition interlock restricted license under § 5-65-118, the ignition interlock restricted license shall be available immediately.

(iii) The restricted driving permit provision of § 5-65-120 does not apply to this suspension.

(B) The office, in addition to any other penalty, shall deny to that person the issuance of an operator's license until that person has been issued an ignition interlock restricted license for a period of six (6) months;

(2) Suspension for two (2) years, during which no restricted permit may be issued, for a second offense of refusing to submit to a chemical test of blood, breath, or urine for the purposes of determining the alcohol or controlled substance content of the person's blood or breath within ~~five (5)~~ ten (10) years of the first offense;

(3) Revocation for three (3) years, during which no restricted permit may be issued, for the third offense of refusing to submit to a chemical test of blood, breath, or urine for the purpose of determining the alcohol or controlled substance content of the person's blood within ~~five (5)~~ ten (10) years of the first offense; and

(4) Lifetime revocation, during which no restricted permit may be issued, for the fourth or subsequent offense of refusing to submit to a chemical test of blood, breath, or urine for the purpose of determining the alcohol or controlled substance content of the person's blood or breath within ~~five (5)~~ ten (10) years of the first offense.

(c) For any arrest or offense occurring before July 30, 1999, but that has not reached a final disposition as to judgment in court:

(1) The offense shall be decided under the law in effect at the time the offense occurred; and

(2) Any defendant is subject to the penalty provisions in effect at that time and not under the provisions of this section.

(d) In order to determine the number of previous offenses to consider when suspending or revoking the arrested person's driving privileges, the office shall consider as a previous offense any of the following that occurred within the ~~five (5)~~ ten (10) years immediately before the current offense:
