(B)(2) Any proposed legislation affecting any publicly supported retirement system or pension plan to be considered by the General Assembly at a regular session shall be introduced in the General Assembly during the first fifteen (15) calendar days of a regular biennial session.

(C)(3) No such bill shall be introduced after the fifteenth (15th) day of a regular biennial session unless its introduction is first approved by a three-fourths (3/4) vote of the full membership of each house of the General Assembly.

(C)(1) No appropriation bill shall be filed for introduction in either the House of Representatives or the Senate later than the fifteenth (15th) day of a fiscal session except upon consent of two-thirds (2/3) of the members elected to each house.

(2) For a fiscal session, a non-appropriation bill shall not be filed for introduction until a concurrent resolution authorizing the introduction of the bill has been approved by a vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the members elected to each house and the concurrent resolution becomes effective.

(3) A concurrent resolution authorizing the introduction of a non-appropriation bill in a fiscal session shall not be filed for introduction in either the House of Representatives or the Senate later than the first (1st) day of a fiscal session.

(4) A non-appropriation bill shall not be filed for introduction in either the House of Representatives or the Senate later than the fifteenth (15th) day of a fiscal session.

(D) When the filing deadline for any bills or resolutions ends on Saturday or Sunday, the deadline is extended until the close of business the following Monday.

(D)(E) A bill affecting any publicly supported retirement system or systems shall not be introduced or considered at any special session of the General Assembly unless the introduction and consideration of the bill is first approved by a three-fourths (3/4) vote of the full membership of each house of the General Assembly. (Arkansas Code § 10-2-115).

SECTION 2. Section 18(E)(7) of the Joint Rules of the House of Representatives and the Senate is amended to read as follows:

(7) It shall be the duty of the Chairman of the Joint Budget Committee to have a schedule prepared which reflects the amounts approved by the Joint Budget Committee for each category for each fund within the Revenue Stabilization Law to provide funding for the biennial budget enacted by the General Assembly and a schedule reflecting the proposed distribution of General Improvement funds. The schedule reflecting the allocation of funds in the Revenue Stabilization Law and for the next fiscal year shall be submitted to each body of the Arkansas General Assembly at least three (3) days prior to the day at which the same is to be considered for final passage. The schedule reflecting the allocation of funds in the General Improvement Fund Distribution Law for the next biennium shall be submitted to each body of the Arkansas General Assembly at least three (3) days prior to the day at which the same is to be considered for final passage.

SECTION 3. Section 21 of the Joint Rules of the House of Representatives and Senate is amended to read as follows:

Joint Committee on Constitutional Amendments Section 21. The Joint Committee on Constitutional Amendments shall consist of the members of the Senate Committee on State Agencies and Governmental Affairs and the members of the House Committee on State Agencies and Governmental Affairs. No proposed constitutional amendment shall be recommended to either house of the General Assembly except upon the affirmative vote of a majority of the Senate members of the Joint Committee on Constitutional Amendments and an affirmative vote of a majority of the House members of the Joint Committee on Constitutional Amendments. No resolution proposing a constitutional amendment shall be filed in either the House of Representatives or the Senate after the thirty-first (31st) day of each regular session of the General Assembly. All resolutions proposing constitutional amendments shall be referred to the Joint Committee on Constitutional Amendments. Other resolutions proposing constitutional amendments shall not be reported to or considered by either house of the General Assembly until the original recommendations of the Joint Committee on Constitutional Amendments are disposed of by both Houses. A resolution proposing a constitutional amendment may be considered only during a regular session.

SECTION 4. That Section 25 of the Joint Rules of the House of Representatives and Senate is amended to read as follows:

Prefiling of Bills and Resolutions Section 25. (A) Beginning on November 15th of each year preceding a regular session of the General Assembly, each holdover member of the Senate who will be serving at the next following regular session of the General Assembly, and each member-elect of the General Assembly, as soon as the members-elect of the next General Assembly are certified to the Secretary of State, shall be permitted to prefile bills and resolutions for such regular session with the Chief Clerk of the House and the Secretary of the Senate. (Arkansas Code § 10-2-112).

(B)(1) Beginning on the second Monday of January of each year of a fiscal session of the General Assembly, each member of the House of Representatives and the Senate may prefile appropriation bills and resolutions for the fiscal session with the Chief Clerk of the House and the Secretary of the Senate.

(2) A non-appropriation bill may not be pre-filed prior to a fiscal session due to the requirement in Amendment 86 of the Constitution of Arkansas that a concurrent resolution be approved by a vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the members elected to each house before either body may consider a non-appropriation bill.

“WHEREAS, Attorney General Eric Holder recently remarked that the Obama administration will push for the reinstatement of the 1994 ban on "assault weapons" and ammunition magazines; and

SECTION 27. SPECIAL LANGUAGE. NOT TO BE INCORPORATED INTO THE ARKANSAS CODE NOR PUBLISHED SEPARATELY AS SPECIAL, LOCAL AND TEMPORARY LAW. COMMUNITY HEALTH CENTERS. Allocation of state funding to Community Health Centers shall be prioritized to ensure that uninsured, under-insured, and underserved Arkansans receive needed services in order to improve their health, with this funding to preserve and strengthen Community Health Centers and increase Arkansans access to quality primary and preventive health care. The Department of Health shall ensure that any Community Health Center that receives funding through this Act shall first seek to include, in accordance with federal rule and guidance, as many local providers of health care services as possible, such as dental, pharmacy, mental health, and other ancillary services, within each Community Health Center's service area, to participate in the provision of such services as a contractor at a fair, reasonable prevailing rate. Community Health Centers will seek local providers, community, city, county, and state partners to participate in the planning for the development, and, as an employee or contractor, in the implementation of a new Community Health Center in an area of documented unmet need. In addition to reasonable prices, the availability and service quality levels provided by the private provider must meet or exceed the level of service quality provided, as established by the respective governing board, at similarly situated Community Health Centers through the state and at all times meet professional standards of competence and quality. Annually, the Department of Health shall require from the Community Health Centers the submission of performance indicators, to be determined by the Department of Health, reflecting, at a minimum, a listing of all services provided, fee schedules based on local prevailing rates and actual costs, sliding fee scales, and uniform data sets which identify the number of uninsured, Medicaid and Medicare patients and those patients which are below and above 200% of the federal poverty level. Local private providers within the service area that may have been significantly impacted by these services will be determined by the Department of Health. The Department of Health shall institute a procurement process for the allocation of funding provided through this Act, detailing that these and other requirements are factored into the allocation of any funding provided to Community Health Centers. In the implementation of this special language, the Department of Health is permitted, at its discretion, to allow individual applicants an implementation period of up to 90 days from the effective date of individual agreements to satisfy the requirements for private provider collaboration as specified above.

NOTABLE GRACE

Saluting the Arkansas House Chamber's Scagliola Restoration

The House chamber today is the sum of the work of craftsmen old and new, as well as the vision of not one but two top-notch architects and the best efforts of other architects and engineers who have over the decades worked on this room and its antechambers to adapt the spaces to changing demands and developing technology.

One hundred years ago, the House chamber looked nothing like it does now. In November 1909 it was a mess of exposed brickwork walls, tarpaulins, faceted concrete columns, some half-finished plasterwork, an open skylight, boards and timber scraps. This was not what had been expected in early 1899, when the Legislative Assembly took the step of authorizing construction of a new home for Arkansas's government. The project began with big aspirations. A master architect, George Mann of St. Louis, proposed a design in keeping with other capitols built around the turn of the century: a symmetrical neoclassical structure, its faces ornamented with columns and triangular pediments, its inside a mix of handsome but utilitarian offices and stately public spaces richly finished and trimmed with marble, topped by a porthole-pierced, metal-clad dome.

The big hopes and aspirations met big obstacles, however, in the form of a governor dead-set against spending a million dollars on what he thought was an unneeded building. Other impediments included quarrels over material choices, contracts, shorted shipments, shortages of labor and, almost always, short funds. As the anticipated five-year project stretched out, costs and accusations rose, and the patience of its supporters and detractors alike wore thin. By late 1904, the walls of the basement and first floor were almost done, but quarry delays forced stone work on the site to stop well before Christmas. Even worse, a boodling (bribery) scandal broke in the spring of 1905. Work continued in fits and starts but, by the middle of 1907, work was stopped with no money appropriated by the legislature.

Not until the summer of 1909 did work begin again—under pressure from a new governor, George Donaghey, and made possible by a legislature open to the vision of seeing the Capitol completed.

As part of that rebirth of the project, George Mann resigned. His place was taken by Cass Gilbert of New York, a detail-conscious artist with a national reputation. Gilbert's challenge was to complete the building, joining his artistic sense and his firm's established expertise in managing big undertakings with Mann's handsome original design, all the while keeping costs moderate.

One choice that addressed all of these objectives was that of using a traditional decorative surface known as scagliola to clad columns throughout the building, including those in the House chamber. Scagliola is, in its simplest sense, an imitation stone made of gypsum plaster and an adhesive, with colored stone dust or chips set into the surface (scaglia is Latin for "chip."). It is colored with ground marble or granite or other pigments worked into the plaster, with the veins of highly figured marble simulated by pulling silken threads through the kneaded material. Sliced into sheets, it is applied, either with adhesive or mechanically, to a prepared surface, then honed smooth and either waxed or varnished. George Mann originally envisioned a capitol full of marble surfaces—walls, floors, stairs, columns and pilasters. As the project dragged on and money proved tight, he made the decision to substitute imitation or "plastic" marble—scagliola—for some of the building's marble elements. Mann was widely criticized for this, but Cass Gilbert accepted this substitution, and with good reasons: scagliola was a widely-used, durable and highly-admired ornamental surface...and it could be more economical than marble.

In the spring of 1910, the Artificial Marble Works of New York City were selected to supply scagliola for the Capitol. In a March 30 letter, they agreed to send three samples for Cass Gilbert's inspection: a plain white marble, for columns in the ground floor rotunda; pavonazzo (with irregular veins of dark red with bluish and yellowish tints) for the columns in the stair halls and the upper rotunda, and sienna (yellows and browns) for the bases and columns in the House chamber. The samples went first to Gilbert's New York office for approval, then by mid-September arrived at the Capitol construction site. By early December, photographs reveal that the scagliola was installed. The pilasters' flat panels and the column bases were molded, allowed to cure, then fastened in place. The rounded column veneers were created on flexible surfaces, most likely linoleum, hoisted vertical while still plastic and adhered to the masonry with fresh plaster or mortar. They were then polished smooth and then shellacked after curing in place. The distinctive plaster Corinthian column capitals were sourced from another New York concern, Donnelly & Ricci.

The names of the craftsmen who gilded the capitals and applied the scagliola surfaces are not known to us, nor do we know exactly when they started or finished. Many records of the Capitol's construction did not survive, and much of what did is in the Cass Gilbert collection at the New-York Historical Society, awaiting researchers' attention. What we do know is that the chamber was deemed ready for the joint session of January 9, 1911. The central chandelier was probably not in place, but ample light came through the frosted glass of the skylight. The chamber was not “done”—the next few years would bring stained glass, drapes, lighting, decorative painting and even a permanent heating system—but it was “done enough.” From that date, the Capitol was open for business and it has remained so, loved and cared for by those who work in it, now approaching its 100th birthday but wearing its decades with notable grace.

Almost a century of sessions have since passed since the Capitol opened for business. Though the House chamber has worn its decades with notable grace, the time had come by summer 2009 to restore the splendor that had been dimmed by age and wear. Evergreen Painting Studios, Inc., of New York worked nearly four months in a major project to repair damaged plaster and restore the scagliola surfaces of the Corinthian columns. In an unexpected turn, it was revealed that the columns' capitals were finished not with the familiar golden-hued paint, but with genuine gold leaf. Thus the ornate capitals are now re-gilded with a fresh layer of 28-karat leaf.

As the legislature embarks on a new tradition of annual sessions, may the restored surroundings be a fitting tribute to the wise leaders of yesterday and a symbol of hope for Arkansas' future.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 1034

BY REPRESENTATIVE MOORE

AS AMENDED # 1

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO.1034

State of Arkansas

House Caucus, 2009

HR 1034

By: Representative Moore

HOUSE RESOLUTION

TO AMEND THE RULES OF THE HOUSE OF
REPRESENTATIVES OF THE EIGHTY-SEVENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Subtitle

TO AMEND THE RULES OF THE HOUSE OF
REPRESENTATIVES OF THE EIGHTY-SEVENTH
GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE EIGHTY-SEVENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ARKANSAS:

SECTION 1. The Rules of the House of Representatives of the Eighty- Seventh
General Assembly of the State of Arkansas are amended to read as follows:

MEMBERS

1. Every representative shall be present within the House during the session of the House and every member shall be present at each committee meeting of which he/she is a member, unless excused or necessarily prevented. It is the policy of the Arkansas General Assembly, as a term-limited body, to encourage legislators to learn as much as possible by attending meetings of committees of which they are not a member. Prior signed and documented approval must be obtained from the chairperson of a committee for a visiting non-committee member to enjoy certain privileges offered to regular members.

2. For the purpose of seating in the House Chamber for an upcoming regular session of the General Assembly, the Speaker of the House shall, on the first Friday following the November General Election, declare all House Chamber seats vacant and representatives and representatives-elect must select in the order of their seniority any seat not occupied after notification by the Chief Clerk of available seats. Absence or failure to select a seat at the assigned selection time will automatically allow the Speaker to assign the member to his or her same seat if it is available or the member or member-elect to a seat selected by the Speaker.

Immediately following the selection of a seat by a member or member-elect or assignment of a seat by the Speaker, the member or member-elect's signature or Speaker's signature is required. Following all seat selections or assignments, member or member-elect's signatures or the Speaker's signature shall represent final movement. The Chief Clerk shall furnish voting machine and desk keys.

3. When it is necessary for seniority of incoming members to be determined by lot, the Speaker of the House and the Speaker-designate of the House shall conduct a drawing by lots upon receiving certification from the Secretary of State of the election of membership to each General Assembly. Qualified and certified persons to be seated and officially receive the oath of office may do so only at a time and place prescribed by the House. No person having resigned from public office as a provision to a plea agreement to avoid felony prosecution shall be seated or administered the oath of office. Incoming members with previous legislative tenure shall be placed highest in seniority among the incoming members based upon previous terms of service. Where an equivalence of terms of service exists, seniority for those with equal terms shall be asserted by drawing lots to determine their numerical standing.

4. A majority of all representatives elected to the House shall be necessary to transact business. When less than a quorum of House members shall assemble, those present shall be authorized to send for the absent representatives or adjourn. Penalties may be decided by a majority of the representatives present. (Art. 5, Sec. 11)

5. Each representative is expected to vote on each question put before the House unless he/she has an immediate personal interest.

6. Any representative shall have the right to explain his/her vote on any bill or other question before the House, in writing. Such explanation shall not be entered upon the Journal, but shall be filed with the Chief Clerk.

7. Every bill or resolution in the possession of the House or of any committee thereof shall be made available to any member for his/her examination.

8. No member at any time shall take from the House or any committee any bill or other paper belonging to the House, without consent of the Speaker, subject to the will of the House.

9. It shall be the duty of each representative to know, practice and preserve Parliamentary Law.

THE SPEAKER

10. Selection.

10.(a) As used in this rule, the term "Speaker-designate" shall mean the member of the House of Representatives selected by the House of Representatives of each General Assembly held preceding the convening of the next-following regular session of the General Assembly, in the following manner:

10.(a)(1) A caucus of the entire House of Representatives shall be held on the fourth Wednesday in March of each even numbered year at which time the members of the House shall select by secret ballot a member of the House to be known as the Speaker-designate. Each candidate for Speaker-designate shall be allowed fifteen (15) minutes to address the House before the ballot is taken. All members are required to be present for the addresses and for the election. In the event a member is unable to attend, absentee ballots may be requested by a member for himself/herself from the Speaker's Office no sooner than twenty (20) calendar days prior to the scheduled election and must be completed and returned to the Speaker's Office no later than two (2) hours before the scheduled election. Leave for absence shall be requested immediately before the time of the election. The Speaker shall announce the name and number of votes received by the candidate who received at least a majority of the votes of the membership of the House. Each candidate shall be entitled to verify the number of votes he or she received.

10.(a)(2) The candidate receiving a majority vote of the membership of the House of Representatives shall be declared the winner of such election for Speaker-designate of the House of Representatives of the next-following General Assembly.

10.(a)(3) If no candidate receives a majority vote of the membership of the House of Representatives, the names of the two (2) candidates receiving the highest number of votes cast shall be placed on a run-off ballot and distributed among the membership of the House of Representatives in the same manner provided above.

10.(a)(4) If it is determined that the Speaker-designate will not serve as a member of the House of Representatives of the next-following General Assembly due to death, resignation, failure to be a candidate for reelection in the party primary election, or failure to be reelected as a party candidate in the Primary Election, a vacancy in the position of Speaker-designate shall exist and be filled at the caucus of the entire House of Representatives-elect held on the Friday of the week designated for the biennial Institute of Legislative Procedure (House Legislative Orientation), and the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall be elected upon convening of the next regular session.

10.(a)(5) It is the intent of this subsection that the Speaker-designate be the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the next-following General Assembly, subject to selection by the membership of the House upon convening of the regular session.

10.(a)(6) Petitions seeking pledge signatures of members of the House of Representatives for a particular candidate seeking selection as Speaker- designate shall not be circulated among the members of the House of Representatives.

10.(b) At the beginning of each session the members of the House of Representatives shall choose from its own membership a presiding officer designated as the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

11. Duties. The duties of the Speaker of the House shall be to:

11.(a) Take the chair each day at the hour fixed on the preceding day at adjournment. After the opening prayer and pledge of allegiance, he/she shall immediately call the members to order, and on the appearance of a quorum, cause the Journal of the preceding day to be read;

11.(f) Appoint and confirm all representatives to certain committees and to appoint and confirm committee chairpersons and vice chairpersons in accordance with the House Rules and Statutes;

11.(g) Assign all bills to their appropriate committee;

11.(h) The Speaker shall not be required to vote, but may do so at his/her discretion. If the Speaker allows a substitute Speaker, neither the Speaker nor the substitute Speaker, if voting, shall be struck during the sounding of the ballot.

11.(i) State the question to the House before each vote is taken;

11.(j) Appoint, at the beginning of each session, a member of the House to serve as Speaker Pro Tempore. The Speaker Pro Tempore shall serve during the absences of the Speaker and shall perform the Speaker's duties. The Speaker Pro Tempore shall not serve more than ten (10) consecutive legislative days without the consent of the House, or beyond adjournment. The Speaker of the House may appoint Assistant Speakers Pro Tempore, one (1) from each House Caucus District;

- 11.(k) Supervise and direct the preparation of the daily House calendar (J.R. 12);

- 11.(n) Vacate the Speaker's premises by December 15 in the even-numbered years; and
- 11.(o) Keep a permanent register of the seniority of the members of the House of Representatives.
- 11.(p) When either body shall request a conference, and appoint a committee for that purpose, the other body shall also appoint a committee of equal number to confer, and such conference shall be held at any time and place agreed on by the chairpersons.

15. The duties of the Chief Clerk shall be to (A.C.A. 10-2-102):

15.(a) Have custody of all bills, papers and records of the House and not to permit them to be taken out of his/her custody except by the provisions established in House Rule #8. Staff must sign a receipt for all bills taken from the Clerk;

(J.R. 23)

PARLIAMENTARIAN

16. The duties of the Parliamentarian shall be to (Art. 5, Sec. 11):

16.(a) Convene the first session of the House at the time prescribed by law. The Parliamentarian shall call the members to order, call the roll, preserve order and decorum, and decide all questions of order subject to appeal by any representative pending the election of the Speaker. The Parliamentarian of the previous House shall serve as the official Parliamentarian until the appointment of a new Parliamentarian. In the absence of a Parliamentarian of the previous House, the Speaker of the House shall designate a temporary Parliamentarian to convene the first session of the House;

16.(b) Assist the Speaker in deciding all points of order;

16.(c) Advise the Speaker on the proprieties of motions and the numbers of votes necessary for passage;

16.(h) Prepare and distribute the House Rules and amendments thereto, under the supervision of the Speaker and the House Rules Committee; and 16.(i) Have an adequate knowledge of Parliamentary Law and the Rules of the Arkansas House of Representatives.

PARLIAMENTARY PRACTICE

17. When a question is under debate, motions shall have precedence in the following order (the request for a quorum call is always in order; the Chairperson is not compelled to accept any motion):

17.(a) To fix the time to which the House will adjourn (non-debatable) (majority of a quorum);

17.(a)(1) (A majority of a quorum is a majority of those voting when at least a majority of the members are present and voting;)

17.(b) To adjourn (non-debatable) (majority of a quorum);

17.(c) To take a recess (non-debatable) (majority of a quorum);

17.(d) Postpone temporarily; lay on the table (non-debatable) (majority of a quorum)

To take from the table (non-debatable) (majority of a quorum) (when the motion to take from the table is adopted, the proposition takes the same position it held when the motion to lay on the table was adopted);

17.(e) Immediate consideration (non-debatable) (2/3 of a quorum);

17.(f) Previous question (non-debatable) (5 seconds) (majority of a quorum);

17.(g) Limit or extend debate (non-debatable) (2/3 of a quorum);

17.(h) To expunge (debatable) (2/3 of membership) (67);

17.(i) Postpone to a day certain (debatable) (majority of a quorum);

17.(j) Committee of the Whole, go into (non-debatable) (majority of a quorum);

17.(k) Refer (debatable) (majority of a quorum);

17.(l) Amend (debatable) (majority of a quorum);

17.(m) Substitute motion (debatable) (majority of a quorum);

17.(n)(m) Postpone indefinitely (debatable) (majority of membership);

17.(o)(n) Take out of proper order (non-debatable) (2/3 of a quorum);

17.(p)(o) Special order of business (debatable) (2/3 of a quorum); and 17.(q)(p) To suspend the rules (non-debatable) (2/3 of a quorum).

18. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order, when the Floor can be obtained for that purpose, except when the previous question has been ordered.

19. The motion to recess, when the Floor can be obtained for that purpose, must specify the time which shall elapse and the time for reconvening. It may be amended to alter specific time.

20. Previous question:

20.(a) When any debatable question is before the House, any member may move the previous question. It shall be seconded by five (5) members whether the question shall be stated. When the previous question shall have been adopted, the proponents shall be allowed fifteen (15) minutes in which to debate it, and the opponents of the main question shall be allowed fifteen (15) minutes, after which time a vote upon the main question shall be taken.

20.(b) Pending a vote on the main question, one (1) motion to refer is permitted. A motion to refer under this rule applies to House resolutions as well as to House bills, to Senate bills and to Senate amendments to a House bill, and to a motion to amend the Journal. The motion to refer under this rule is non-debatable and may not be laid upon the table.

21. A motion to postpone to a day certain may not specify the hour; a special order is necessary to specify the hour; the motion may be amended and it is debatable within narrow limits only, confined to the merit of the motion itself.

22. The simple motion to refer is debatable within its narrow limits, but the merits of the proposition to which it is proposed to refer may not be brought into the debate.

The motion to refer with instructions is debatable (majority vote of a quorum). When a question is raised about the proper referral of a bill to committee, if the Speaker admits error in the referral of the bill to a committee, the bill may be re-referred by a majority vote of a quorum; however, if the Speaker does not admit error in the referral of the bill to committee, the bill may only be re-referred by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of a quorum. When a bill is re-referred to a committee, any previous committee recommendation is automatically stripped from the bill.

22.(a) When a motion is under consideration, only two (2) substitutes to that motion shall be in order. Only a motion applicable to the main motion and of a higher precedence upon recognition may be substituted for the motion under consideration. A substitute to the third degree shall not be in order. Unless specified otherwise by the presenter of the motion at the time the motion is made, a substitute motion shall apply to the main motion.

23. The motion to postpone indefinitely opens to debate all the merits of the proposition to which it is applied. It may not be applied to the motion to refer, or to suspend the rules, or to motions relating to the order of business.

23.(a) The motion for indefinite postponement and possible consideration by a joint interim committee shall be as follows: "Mr. Speaker, I move that consideration of _____ be postponed indefinitely and that consideration be given by the joint interim committee on _____ for a study of _____." (majority of membership).

24. The motion to limit or extend debate must specify time limitations. A substitute motion specifying a lesser time may be accepted.

25. Reconsideration:

25.(a) When a proposition has been made and carried or lost, it shall be in order for any member of the majority on the same or succeeding legislative day to move for the reconsideration thereof, or give notice of his/her intentions to do so and such motion shall take precedence over other questions except consideration of a conference report or a motion to adjourn: Provided, the motion or proposition shall only be considered during the period reserved for regular bills. The notice shall not be withdrawn after the said succeeding legislative day without the consent of the House, and thereafter any member may call it up for consideration: Provided, the notice to reconsider must be disposed of within three (3) legislative days following the day the vote was taken; provided, that such notice to reconsider cannot be given after the 57th day of a regular session or during a special session or fiscal session during which times a motion to reconsider must be disposed of immediately.

25.(b) The provisions of the rule that the motion may be made "by any member of the majority" is construed, in case of a tie, to mean the member of the prevailing side, and the same construction applies in the case of a two-thirds (2/3) vote. Where the yeas and nays have not been ordered recorded in the Journal, any member, irrespective of whether he/she voted with the majority or not, may make the motion to reconsider or give notice thereof; but a member who was absent or who was paired in favor of the majority contention and did not vote may not make a motion.

25.(c) A bill in the possession of the House is not considered passed or an amendment agreed to if a motion to reconsider is pending; the effect of the motion being to suspend the original proposition. A notice or motion to reconsider shall not be allowed unless the bill is in the House. A bill shall not leave the House once notice of reconsideration is given. When the motion to reconsider is decided in the affirmative, the question immediately recurs on the motion reconsidered. However, prior to consideration of the question at hand, the Speaker shall have the title, expressing the main contents of the proposition being reconsidered, read to the House. When the motion to reconsider is defeated, a second motion to reconsider may not be made.

25.(d) The motion to reconsider is agreed to by a majority of a quorum, even though the vote reconsidered requires a majority or more of the membership. Upon reconsideration when a proposition has been voted twice and either carried or lost it is considered "Clinched".

25.(e) A notice to reconsider is not debatable. A motion to reconsider is debatable when the item to which it applies is debatable.

25.(f) No bill, petition, memorial, or resolution referred to a committee or reported there-from for recommitment shall be brought back into the House on a motion to reconsider.

25.(g) The "Clincher" motion is two (2) motions in one (1); it is a motion to reconsider and to lay on the table. Having prevailed, the proposition shall not be again considered except by expunging the record. The "Clincher" motion is adopted by a majority of the membership. The Speaker shall accept a "Sound the Ballot" request after the "Clincher" has been adopted and before the next order of business is called.

25.(h) No "Clincher" motion shall be entertained on a bill passed during the morning hour or which has been represented to be non-controversial regardless of when passed. Prior to the 60th day of a session, no bill passed during the morning hour, or a bill appearing on the non-controversial bill calendar which has passed, shall be transmitted to the Senate until the expiration of the morning hour of the day next following its passage in which the House is in session.

26. No dilatory motion shall be entertained by the Speaker.

17(f) Previous question (non-debatable) (5 seconds) (majority of a quorum);

V, Sec. 13) and shall be scheduled at least eighteen (18) hours in advance; agendas of bills, resolutions, and other proposals to be considered at such meetings shall be posted in a designated place at least eighteen (18) hours in advance; but in case of an emergency, a two-thirds (2/3) majority of the membership of the committee may bring bills or resolutions up for consideration upon notice of not less than two (2) hours.

10) (House Rule 58(b)) Special meetings of a standing committee may be called by the chairperson of the committee or by a majority of the members of the committee for conducting any business of the committee; provided, a special meeting of the committee may not conflict with regularly scheduled meetings of any standing committee; provided further, special meetings shall be subject to the same procedures regarding the publishing of agendas and notices of meetings that apply to regular standing committee meetings. (J.R. 21 – Joint Committee)

11) (House Rule 59) All persons wishing to offer testimony to a committee hearing shall be given a reasonable opportunity to do so as determined by a majority of the committee. An oral or written statement shall not be a prerequisite to offer testimony before a committee.

12) (House Rule 61) No committee shall sit while the House is in session except the Committee on Rules or a Conference Committee, which shall notify the House.

13) (House Rule 64(a)) A bill, resolution or amendment in a House committee, having been rejected twice, shall not be placed on the committee calendar again or considered again during the same legislative session unless the vote is expunged (two-thirds of the membership of the committee). The motion to expunge shall be placed on the committee agenda, by a committee member, and placed at the bottom of the active list. A bill or resolution may be amended before a second consideration; but, unless expunged, even an amended bill having failed twice shall not be placed on the calendar or considered. Notice of reconsideration not permitted in committee.

14) (House Rule 45(a)) When a bill or resolution is under consideration, amendments shall be in order. Upon adoption, amendments shall become a part of the bill or resolution. Amendments to amendments may not be offered. All amendments offered before the House or one of its committees must be typewritten on an approved amendment form and signed by the sponsor. All amendments shall be attached to the original bill or resolution, numbered by the Bill Clerk, and shall be placed upon the members' desks before being acted upon by the House.

(House Rule 36(e)) All amendments shall be entered on a separate sheet of paper noting the line or lines to be changed and the words to be deleted or inserted.

15) (House Rule 66) No bill or resolution shall be introduced with a committee as the author of said bill or resolution unless that committee has voted unanimously to sponsor the bill or resolution.

16) (House Rule 67) Committee Records and Reports

67(a) The chairperson of each committee of the House shall keep or cause to be kept a separate record for each committee meeting in which there shall be entered:

67(a) 1. The time and place of each hearing and each meeting of the committee.

67(a) 2. The number and title of the bill or resolution with one of the following three recommendations: "do pass", "do pass as amended", or "do not pass". If a committee recommends a bill or resolution "do pass as amended" and any of the amendments recommended by the committee are not adopted on the floor, the bill or resolution shall be re-referred to the same committee for further consideration and recommendation.

67(a) 3. A summary of each bill or resolution's major provisions which may be several paragraphs in length in case of major bills or resolutions or simply the title of the bill or resolution in the case of minor bills or resolutions.

67(a) 4. The reason for the committee's action on the bill or resolution, including a brief minority report, if requested by any two (2) committee members.

67(a) 5. A record of how every member voted on each bill or resolution when action is taken by the committee, including votes on a motion to postpone consideration on the bill or resolution and a recorded vote on any other motion, if requested by any two (2) committee members.

67(a) 6. A list of all people testifying before a committee on each bill or resolution, the interest that they represent, and an indication of their position on the bill or resolution.

17) (House Rule 67(b)) Such records for each separate committee meeting shall be approved by the chairperson before the expiration of a seven (7) day period, with the exception of those records referred to in (a) 1. and 2., hereinabove which shall be filed immediately with the Clerk of the House.

18) (House Rule 22 part) When a question is raised about the proper referral of a bill or resolution to committee, if the Speaker admits error in the referral of the bill or resolution to a committee, the bill or resolution may be re-referred by a majority vote of a quorum; however, if the Speaker does not admit error in the referral of the bill or resolution to committee, the bill or resolution may only be re-referred by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of a quorum. When a bill or resolution is re-referred to a committee, any previous committee recommendation is automatically stripped from the bill or resolution. When a motion is under consideration, only two (2) substitutes to that motion shall be in order. Only a motion applicable to the main motion and of a higher precedence upon recognition may be substituted for the motion under consideration. A substitute to the third degree shall not be in order. Unless specified otherwise by the presenter of the motion at the time the motion is made, a substitute motion shall apply to the main motion.

19) (House Rule 53 (a)) House Committee Staff will automatically and without delay place all bills or resolutions referred to the committees on the committee agendas. Staff will notify the sponsor of bills or resolutions assigned to committee. Referred bills shall be placed on the committee's active agenda in the order they are read across the desk on the House Floor. When an active agenda is established in a committee and bills from that agenda are not placed on the deferred list and if they are passed over, they are placed at the bottom of the list of the day's active agenda. Bills read across the desk on the House Floor later that same day or on a later day are placed on the active agenda in the order they are read below bills already on the active agenda.

20) After a bill or resolution has appeared on the Committee agenda and has been called up for consideration by the Committee and the sponsor of the bill or resolution or a representative is not present to present the bill or resolution, the bill or resolution will be placed on the active agenda two (2) additional times, but will be placed at the bottom of the active agenda.

21) If the sponsor or a representative is not present to present the bill or resolution when called up after the bill or resolution has appeared on the active agenda when called up during the third meeting, the bill or resolution will be automatically dropped from the active agenda and placed on the deferred list unless the sponsor notifies staff to put the bill or resolution back on the active agenda before the agenda is prepared, for the next called meeting. Requests to move bills or resolutions from the deferred list to the active agenda must be made by 2:30 p.m. two (2) days prior to the scheduled committee meeting. Bills moved from the deferred list to the active agenda shall be listed at the bottom of the active agenda. Bills on the deferred list may be moved to the active calendar as provided by rule for a total of three (3) times only. A suspension of this rule by the Committee (two-thirds of a quorum) will be required for each transfer of any bill having been moved three (3) times previously.

22) Bills or resolutions suggested as non-controversial will be considered before consideration of controversial bills or resolutions on the agenda. The objection of one (1) committee member to the consideration of a bill or resolution as non-controversial will automatically keep the bill or resolution from being considered as being non-controversial. Even though a bill or resolution has been considered as non-controversial, it will be necessary after a "do pass" or "do pass as amended" recommendation that a motion be made and there be unanimous consent of no less than a quorum of the Committee for a bill or resolution to be eligible to be placed on the House Non-controversial Calendar.

23) If a bill or resolution is discussed by a committee at a meeting, but is not voted on because of time limitations or because the vote is deferred to the next meeting, the bill or resolution will not lose its order on the agenda and will not be counted as having been considered.

24) The author/sponsor of a bill or resolution may make a presentation for his/her bill or resolution and may elect at that time to respond to questions from the committee members. Following the initial presentation, non-legislative---non-committee members will be allowed to alternately speak against and for the bill or resolution. A procedural motion made by a member of the committee and adopted by the committee to limit or end debate will be allowed to govern non-legislative--non-committee members' discussions. At the conclusion of the non-legislative--non-committee member proponent and opponent presentations, the sponsor may return to the podium and may elect to field questions from the committee members. Those questions should be limited to requests for clarification or the securing of information. Questions that are rhetorically offered and are dilatory for the effect of debate are discouraged. At this point, the chair will entertain motions from committee members only. For disposition of a proposition in a House Committee, procedural motions (limit debate, immediate consideration, etc.) are allowed only following a main motion (do pass, do not pass, do pass as amended, etc.). Discussion from that point forward is limited to committee members for and against the motion, if debatable, in alternating fashion. If immediate consideration is not adopted and if debate has not been limited and time has not expired, the author/sponsor of the motion will be allowed to close for his/her motion bill or resolution. During the closing, the sponsor of the motion author may elect to field questions from committee members. At the conclusion of these presentations, a vote will be taken on the motion properly before the committee.

25) As determined by the presider courtesy may be extended to General Assembly members who are non-committee members who need to return to their own committee meetings.

26) (House Rule 64) Eleven (11) members of a standing committee constitute a committee quorum with the Speaker present if he/she is a member of the committee and ten (10) members when the Speaker is not present. A committee recommendation of a bill or resolution will require these same numbers.

27) Smoking is prohibited in the committee rooms and all adjoining rooms.

28) (House Rule 67(a)5) A roll call vote will be required if requested by any two (2) committee members, except for a quorum call which may be requested by one (1) member. The request for a quorum call is always in order.

29) When a roll call is required, the roll will be called by seniority with the vice chairperson being called next to last and the chairperson last. For a member's vote to be counted and recorded, he/she must vote "yes", "no" or "present".

30) During a roll call vote, when a member's name has been called twice and he/she does not respond, or when a member passes, they will not be allowed to vote at a later time on the current issue before the committee.

31) No seconds are required during the legislative process except those that are explicit in the rules, (roll call, previous question, sound the ballot, etc.)

32) (House Rule 36(p)1) When any House or Senate bill or resolution requiring an expenditure of public funds or otherwise imposing a new or increased cost obligation on any municipality or county is pending before any committee of the House of Representatives, any member of the committee may request that a fiscal impact statement for such bill or resolution be placed on the desk of each member of the committee before the bill or resolution is called up for final action in the committee. If such request is made, the chairperson of the committee shall refer the bill or resolution to the appropriate state agency or to the legislative staff for the preparation of a fiscal impact statement, to be returned to the committee in writing not later than five (5) days from the date of the request.

33) (House Rule 36(p)4) Failure of the sponsor of a bill or resolution to provide the fiscal impact statement required in this rule shall not prohibit the consideration of it in the committee to which referred or on the floor of the house in which the bill or resolution is called up for final passage, if no objection to it is made at the time such action is taken.

(House Rule 36(p)5) Nothing in this rule shall prohibit a committee to which a bill or resolution is referred or the house in which the bill or resolution is being considered from suspending the requirement of the filing of a fiscal impact statement on any such bill or resolution in the same manner as provided for the suspension of the rules in the house in which the bill or resolution is being considered.

34) Bills imposing new or additional costs on education.

(a)(1) As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires, "fiscal impact statement" means a realistic written statement of the purpose of a proposed law, or a regulation promulgated under a law, and the estimated financial cost to the state or any local school district of implementing or complying with the proposed law or regulation.

(2) The fiscal impact statement shall be developed by the Office of Economic and Tax Policy of the Bureau of Legislative Research with the assistance of the Department of Education within the guidelines adopted by the House Committee on Education and the Senate Committee on Education, as applicable.

(b) Any bill filed in the House of Representatives or Senate that will impose a new or increased cost obligation for education in grades kindergarten through twelve (K-12) on the State of Arkansas or any local school district shall have a fiscal impact statement attached to it prepared and filed with the chair of the committee to which the bill is referred:

(1) At least three (3) days before the bill may be called up for final action in the committee during a regular session or fiscal session of the General Assembly; and

(2) At least one (1) day before the bill may be called up for final action in the committee during a special session of the General Assembly.

(c)(1)(A) If any such House or Senate bill is called up for final passage in the House or Senate and a fiscal impact statement has not been provided by the author of the bill or by the committee to which the bill was referred, any member of the House or Senate may object to the bill's being called up for final passage until a fiscal impact statement is prepared and made available on the desk of each member of the House or Senate at least one (1) day prior to the bill's being called up for final passage.

(B) An affirmative vote of two-thirds (2/3) of a quorum present and voting shall override the objection.

(2) If an objection is made without override, the presiding officer of the House or Senate shall cause the bill to be referred to the office for the preparation of a fiscal impact statement which shall be filed with the presiding officer not later than five (5) days from the date of the request. (A.C.A. 10-2-127)

35) Bills imposing new or additional costs and restrictions on inmate population patterns or affecting programs or services of the Department of Corrections.

(a) Each of the following bills introduced in the General Assembly shall have a cost impact statement attached to the bill prior to the committee to which the bill is referred taking action in regard to the bill:

In accordance with the House Rules, the House Caucus is convened for the sole purpose of electing one of our members as Speaker-designate of the 87th General Assembly.

Ladies and gentlemen of the House, it is extremely important that we have the full attention and full cooperation of all the members of the House as we continue this process in accordance with the House Rules.

A meeting was held on Tuesday, January 19th to allow members of the House to file as candidates for the position of Speaker-designate. That meeting was attended by Representatives' Johnnie J. Roebuck and Robert S. Moore, Jr..

Upon closing of the filing, the two members that indicated their interest in seeking the position were allowed an opportunity to draw for ballot position. The results of the drawing was as follows:

Rep. Johnnie J. Roebuck, Position #1

Rep. Robert S. Moore, Jr., Position #2

At that time the pertinent rules were discussed with the candidates. The House Rules provide for each candidate to be allowed fifteen (15) minutes each to address the House before the ballot is taken.

The Rules pertaining to absentee balloting have been reviewed and absentee balloting has been completed, the deadline being two (2) hours before the convening of this Caucus for this scheduled election.

In accordance with the House rules, Representative Johnnie J. Roebuck was recognized to address the House.

Representative Johnnie Roebuck's Speaker-designate speech:

Mr. Speaker, My Distinguished Colleagues,

As we look around this historic Chamber, we see extra ordinary talents, skills and expertise -- 100 members who have truly earned the right to sit in these seats and represent their constituents.

When I walk in this Chamber, I am awed by the fact that I am one of 100 members chosen from 2.7 million Arkansans to do the work of the people. I am honored to be a part of this great team.

We all come from diverse backgrounds with different ideas and, at times, opposing philosophies. But one thing is made crystal clear each and every day! We all share a calling and commitment to serve our state.

This House belongs to every citizen of our great state. We are a citizen legislature and we cherish the honor and privilege. BUT - our time here is short and we must be diligent to seize every opportunity -- to make a positive difference in the lives of all Arkansans.

That is why the choice for Speaker is so critical – because it is job of the Speaker to ensure that our brief time here is efficient, effective and productive.

Our next session will be a challenge for all of us. At times we will feel we are facing the impossible. Let's remember politics with sound policy is the art of the possible through a clear vision!

We can accomplish this vision through perseverance much like I learned on that Delta cotton farm as my family struggled to survive. My husband and best friend, Tommy, who is in the gallery today, grew up in a similar environment in the Delta and through hard work and education became a dentist and military leader. Like you, we know about hard work and perseverance. We survived because of our strong beliefs in faith, family and friends. Our granddaughter, Hannah, is also in the Gallery, and was chosen to represent our family today. Our son, State Police Corporal Jeff Sheeler, is at the door today. Thank you for being here.

I ask you to vote for me to be your next Speaker of the House because I have the leadership skills and the passion to represent you with professionalism and dedication.

My strong belief in accountability, accessibility and productivity will guide me as I serve you. Respect for individuality while working as a team will be paramount to our success. We can be unified without being uniform.

Our good friend, Rep. Bruce Maloch reminded us last week to always, always respect and protect the integrity of this institution. Because of that respect, I want each of you to know that my commitment is --- and will be as Speaker --- to this HOUSE. While I have the utmost respect for our colleagues in the Senate and our Governor, and while I will work with the Senate and the Governor, my first obligation and responsibility will be to the House of Representatives.

A good leader respects equality, and treats each member the same in making decisions whether about leadership appointments or GIF distribution. A good leader is inclusive in utilizing the expertise and talents of all members as we work together on multiple issues.

The issue of education will continue to be on the front burner. It will not go away because we cannot improve economically without improving our literacy rate; we cannot improve our per capita income without raising the number of citizens with college degrees. Education permeates all policy decisions from health care to agriculture; from transportation to the judicial system; from city, county and local affairs to state agencies to human services. Education is economic development and economic development is education! You cannot have one without the other.

A good leader finds the resources needed to make sound policy decisions. A good leader values relationships and respects the rights of all members to find their voices in fair dialogue, debate and consensus. Ladies and Gentlemen of the House -- I am that leader!!

When our time here is over and we walk out those doors to return home and continue our service in our communities, we will forever remember our efforts toward making a positive difference. We will remember the opportunity to make history and to be a part of this historical moment.

That time is here; it is now. It is time to vote for inclusive leadership built on equity, transparency and reform.

You have one vote today – it is yours– it belongs to you and the 27,000 people you represent. It does not belong to anyone else and no one can take it from you. I ask for your vote today so that we may work together to give our people the very best of our talents, our knowledge and our resources.

God bless us all, God bless our great State and God bless our nation. Thank you.

In accordance with the House rules, Representative Robert Moore was recognized to address the House.

Representative Robert Moore's Speaker-designate speech:

Speaker, Members, Beverly, Family, Constituents

I'd like to begin by thanking my wife for her love, counsel, and being by my side throughout this extraordinary time. You'll always be my best friend. And to my family and friends...you've been there when I've needed you and I'm deeply appreciative.

As each of us knows very well, we've been on this campaign trail for a long time and today the road comes to an end. The journey has been characterized by a lot of hard work by many of you and, again, I thank you. It has also given me the opportunity to visit numerous times with most of you, my supporters, getting to know you, your backgrounds, your interests and your passions in representing your constituents...and most importantly, you've shared with me your ideas as to how together we can more effectively serve the citizens of our great state. You've helped me formulate specific things that I will institute as your speaker in the 88th General Assembly that will insure that we will do our job in the most efficient, effective and honorable way possible. Towards that goal, I will make additions to the freshman orientation process to give each incoming member more in depth information about the internal resources that are available to help us do our job. We also will institute ongoing continuing education workshops on the budget and finance process so that every member of the house will be availed of the opportunity to best understand what goes into the considerations regarding our most important job here...deciding how the state will derive its revenue and how that revenue is spent.

Your voice will always be heard in conducting the affairs of the house because it's the right thing to do in representative government and it's the only way we can genuinely come together, as we must, in solving the difficult problems that we undoubtedly will be facing. To that end, you may rest assured that leadership in the 88th General Assembly will be every bit as diverse as is our membership...and you may rest assured that if, after meeting our budget obligations, we have General Improvement Funds available, the decisions regarding distribution will be made fairly and equitably, with the advice and consent of this body, for the optimum benefit of our constituents who send us here to take care of their business.

My door will be open and my mind receptive to your concerns, your insights, and your solutions in our common effort to advance Arkansas in job creation, education, healthcare, transportation, agriculture, industry, security and the environment. As your speaker, I will always keep the needs of the people who give us the privilege of serving as our number one priority and our number one responsibility.

The successes that I have enjoyed in life have largely been tied to principles instilled in me when I was young...I learned honesty, hard work and respect for others from my mother and father growing up in Arkansas City , as a college basketball player on a championship team I learned from my coach and teammates the value of commitment, loyalty and teamwork, and as a 22 year old Company Commander in the 82nd Airborne Division, I was taught by a very tough 1st Sgt who served under me, the worth of real discipline and the strength that comes from the trust earned amongst your fellow soldiers. These principles, that guide me today, have served throughout my life ..as a pilot in Vietnam, a college instructor, attorney, farmer, state agency director and state legislator... to keep me on an honorable course. And I will continue to rely on these principles and my history of successful military, business and civic leadership in bringing to the table your talents, your experience and your knowledge for the benefit of our state and its citizens.

One of my favorite singer/songwriters, Billy Joe Shaver, has a little saying that I think of often in this business of politics "It's nice to be important but it's more important to be nice"... I've tried to lead our campaign being ever mindful of this humbling bit of wisdom. We have run this race without engaging in the politics of promises ...no commitment of support has been made to my candidacy by any of you in exchange for the expectation of a position or individual favoritism. This speaks loudly as to your integrity and I thank you for your confidence on this matter that I think reflects well on the honor of this institution.

The support base in our campaign has been strong from the beginning and has continued to grow, the commitments you've made I believe are solid because in conducting the business of the AR House of Representatives, we know that there is nothing, nothing more important than the truthfulness of your word, we've remained positive, we've stayed on the high road keeping our focus on our responsibility to the people that elected us, and in doing these things we've formed a unified team, coming together, not for individual gain, but for the common good of the people we serve...and the strength of that unity brings us here today.

To everyone of you who is a part of this team, I want to tell you one more time, thank you for the commitment of your support, thank you for your loyalty, and thank you for a job well done. Because of that support, loyalty, and hard work I am privileged to stand before this body and reaffirm my one promise that, if elected, I will serve each one of you and the people of the state of Arkansas whom collectively we represent, as your speaker, honorably, fairly, and to the very best of my ability.

And now, there's only one thing left to do.....I ask for your vote and let's count 'em up!

Both candidates for Speaker-designate have spoken, in accordance with the House Rules and in the time permitted. The staff presented the ballot to each House member and the election was conducted. The ballots were collected and the absentee ballots were opened and placed with the ballots from the Floor. There were nine (9) absentee ballots. The election results were as follows:

Representative Johnnie J. Roebuck	37 votes
Representative Robert S. Moore, Jr.	63 votes

Speaker Wills recognized Representative Robert S. Moore, Jr. as Speaker-designate for the 87th General Assembly.
