Presentation of the Speaker of the House, Robert S. Moore, Jr., by Parliamentarian Tim Massanelli.

REMARKS OF THE PARLIAMENTARIAN
TIM MASSANELLI

One hundred years ago, in January, 1911, the House of Representatives of the 38th General Assembly met for the very first time, here in this Chamber. The State Capitol was not completed, but the House and Senate Chambers were usable; and so the 38th General Assembly came to order. Among the group of 100 legislators was a newly-elected representative from Desha County named Isaac Norman Moore. One hundred years later, in 2011, we have a man named Robert S. Moore, Jr., who represents Desha County. Robert S. Moore, Jr., is the grandson of Isaac Norman Moore. So, with that said, it is a high honor and privilege for me to present to you , Robert S. Moore, Jr., the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the 88th General Assembly of the State of Arkansas. Speaker Moore, you are recognized.

REMARKS OF
SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE ROBERT S. MOORE, JR.
JANUARY 10, 2011

Thank you Mr. Parliamentarian. Thank you ladies and gentlemen of the House, dedicated staff and honored guests. I am genuinely humbled by your confidence and commit to each of you that I will serve honorably and to the best of my ability for the people of this Great State and for you, the members of the 88th General Assembly. I stand before you today to tell you that in accepting the challenges inherent in this office my work will be dedicated to assisting you in excelling in your duties to your constituents and to guide us as a legislative body to serve the best interests of the State of Arkansas.

Recognition of family

As Tim related, my grandfather was a freshman legislator in this chamber 100 years ago almost to the day. While knowing of his long service in the House and Senate, it was only recently that I learned of this uncanny bit of history.....I knew my grandfather as "Big Daddy" and you may rest assured that I feel the ghost of big daddy present here today! No doubt he's sitting comfortably next to one of you right now. Big Daddy loved this institution, loved the legislative process and loved being a part of democracy in action. I share that love as I know each of you returning members do also and that each of you new members will begin to embrace from this day forward. But I'm not the only member today to have family preceding their service in the House, Terry Rice your father and grandfather; Hank Wilkins, your mother and father, Johnnie Roebuck, your husband, and David Branscum, your father...and almost unbelievably, 11 more of our colleagues enjoy that distinct honor.

As we celebrate this historic day in our chamber it is to be noted the great strides for humanity that have occurred over these hundred years...the diversity in our membership as regards race, gender, religion, age, and political party that we enjoy today did not and could not have occurred in the society of 1911. Many of the great changes reflected in this diversity were brought about because of the vision over the years, of our forefathers in this Chamber, to see what needed to be done and more importantly, to have had the will and the courage to go against the often ill tempered protest of the status quo to accomplish the tough job at hand and make those just and necessary changes. As we begin the journey of the next 100 years as members of the 88th General Assembly, let us commit together to exemplify that courage in addressing the problems we face in 2011.

In JFK's book, "PROFILES IN COURAGE", Kennedy shares the stories of Republicans and Democrats, Federalists and Independents, who stepped up in tough times with acts of courage. Kennedy writes that "to be courageous requires no exceptional qualifications, no magic formula, no special combination of time, place, and circumstance. It is an opportunity that sooner or later is presented to us all. Politics merely furnishes one arena which imposes special tests of courage."

One hundred years ago, at the dawn of the automobile age, the legislature in this Chamber bravely tackled the issue of highways and roads..... our predecessors said that bold action was needed for Arkansas to meet the challenge of economic growth by providing the needed infrastructure. Today, we are called upon to meet that challenge again, to demonstrate the courage to act for the common good regardless of short term political ramifications. Now, so that the crisis in the highway funding issue doesn't create too much initial discomfort, let me make clear that the starting point on dealing with this serious problem is not simply raising taxes, because contrary to some opinion, democrats have no love for paying higher taxes either. Rather, the starting point is recognizing that we have a funding mechanism that is inadequate to meet current and future highway maintenance and construction needs and then having the courage to modify or change that funding structure so that future generations can safely travel our highways, so that industry will know that we have a viable plan that will insure their ability to move goods and services swiftly and economically, and so that tourists will be attracted in increasing numbers to enjoy the beauty of our scenic state. But rest assured, the old adage "there is no such thing as a free lunch" is applicable. If we are going to have a bright future for economic development in Arkansas we will find a way to pay for a highway system that is recognized nationally for its excellence.

Likewise, the 38th General Assembly was called upon to deal with matters of prison reform. The issues we face in this area today bare little similarity with those of 100 years ago, but the point is the same...changes have to be made...tough changes that will be successfully resolved only with the collective courage of this body.

We also owe it to all Arkansans that for the next 100 years our citizens will continue to enjoy our most precious natural resource...our ground and surface water supplies...in adequate quantity and with assured quality. Without a revision of our 22 year old State Water Plan, these fundamental and necessary goals will be in jeopardy. We must find the will to insure these guarantees are in place.

We will engage difficult issues that affect every district dealing with education, healthcare, security, and the environment. Our resolve in policy and funding solutions must be predicated on our commitment to work together for the benefit of all.

I believe that we will be judged by our constituents on whether we are willing to stand and answer these calls. And the test of our political character is the favorable judgment, not from our local newspaper at the end of the session, but of our children and grandchildren when they are standing in our shoes as adults 20 or 30 years from now. As expressed by my friend, Robert Dale, "what folks are saying a generation or two from now should be the measure of the worth of our efforts here as legislators"...Robert Dale is right and I like it. Harry Truman reminded us of our responsibility to govern with his admonition..."the buck stops here". The challenges regarding the future public good of our state that face the 88th General Assembly need to be resolved by the 88th General Assembly. We do a disservice to ourselves, the people we represent in our districts and to all of the citizens of Arkansas if we do otherwise.

As we begin our work remember that regardless of your political party, regardless of the rhetoric involved in your election, we are here, not as adversaries but as partners sharing the same privilege of representing the best interests of all Arkansans. We are not here as some remote battleground related to whatever misgivings are going on in Washington D. C., because if you don't yet know, please consider and learn that we have enormously more on our plate in taking care of the business of our citizens than we will ever have time to properly deal with. As Abraham Lincoln said, "the occasion is piled high with difficulty and we must rise with the occasion". So let us rise to the occasion and think anew in insuring the well being and safety of our citizens, in providing a quality education for our children while insuring that we have good job opportunities at home so that they can stay and become part of the future of our neighborhoods, our hometowns, our regions, enjoying quality of life in our Great State. The more time we spend wisely working on these matters that affect us all, the less time we will lose arguing on issues that impact only a few.

While the challenges of today may be more complex than those my Big Daddy and his colleagues faced 100 years ago, I believe the goals are generally the same. By successfully running for public office, regardless of the motivation, we have agreed to place ourselves on the line, to show leadership, to show courage, and to work for the common and greater good of all Arkansans. That is our job description. Ronald Reagan provided guidance for each of us when he said "there are no easy answers, but there are simple answers. We just have to have the courage to do what we know is right". In doing what's right, we each have a role to play and a contribution to make if we are to meet the expectations of those who have given us the privilege to be here today as members of the 88th General Assembly. In meeting our obligations to the people of Arkansas may we always be mindful of the words of the poet Alexander Pope when he wrote "Act well your part, there all the honor lies." Thank you. Now let's go to work!

State of the State Address
January 11, 2011

Mr. President, Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House and Senate, Constitutional Officers, Mr. Chief Justice, Members of the Court, and Distinguished Guests, Friends, and Fellow Arkansans:

Standing before you today, I recognize my good fortune, as a man and as your governor. A fortunate man because the voters of Arkansas have granted me a second term and allowed me to help continue our advancement as a state. A fortunate governor because I am able to give a speech today that is far different than those my fellow governors are giving throughout the country. In many states, the budget process has become one of triage, where leaders desperately are trying to save whatever services they can in the face of gaping deficits. Governors across this nation, both Democratic and Republican, have been forced to propose budgets that either raise taxes during tough economic times, or set thousands and thousands of children, families, and seniors adrift from programs they have depended upon for years. Education budgets are being slashed. Prisons are closing. Health-care programs are being stripped.

You have before you a list of these challenges facing other states. It's on your desks. It is only a sample of the unenviable dilemmas other state legislatures face this year. That we do not face such bleak crises here is a source of pride. Yet, it should not be a source of complacency or contentment. While our economy is recovering, we remain vigilant, because Arkansas could confront its own financial crisis in only a few short years. We have worked well together before, and that partnership must remain steady if we are to continue building measured and wise fiscal policies. Senator Bookout and I discussed this yesterday. All of us know that standing on solid ground today does not guarantee solid footing tomorrow.

Two of our three largest obligations for general revenue tax dollars are facing unsustainable growth in the next few years unless we take action. Both our Medicaid costs and our prison population are increasing, propelling us toward the unpalatable choice of raising taxes or cutting services. I have ideas to rein in these costs, ideas that I will detail in a minute. But I want you to keep these looming expenses in mind as I discuss our state budget.

My proposed budget for the coming fiscal year is generally flat. Nearly all agencies and services will remain funded at the same levels as this year. With our state economy recovering, we anticipate a small increase in revenue.

This additional revenue will allow us to further bolster public-education funding, keep pace with adequacy requirements, and continue our push toward excellence. Based on the study and recommendations of this legislature, my budget includes a two-percent increase in per-pupil funding. Our education system has come a long way in the past decade. And while we won't realize the full results of our work for many years, stronger standards and increased funding are already producing positive results. We've come from consistently settling among the bottom few states in the nation all the way up to number ten in the nation for K-12 education. And throughout the past year, I've sounded like a broken record at times celebrating that progress. Well, today, I'm done. I'm not talking about tenth in the nation anymore, because the new rankings have been announced for 2011 this morning, and Arkansas is no longer tenth. We're now sixth: the highest ranking our state has ever seen.

While this ranking is unprecedented and certainly praiseworthy, it does not signal an end to our work. Even as we see our education system rise in esteem and create impressive opportunities, we still lag behind much of the country in the results that system produces. We will tackle this issue through more than increased student funding. Money that comes into Arkansas meant to close achievement gaps is often stashed away instead of being spent efficiently on the very purpose for which it was intended. My office is working with the Department of Education on legislation to push more of that funding into active efforts to help our students, while still allowing districts to save some funding in reserve.

We have a much bigger hill to climb, however, when it comes to higher education. Our woefully low rates of degree completion must change if we are to truly claim educational success. With thousands more Arkansans now receiving academic scholarships, we have begun addressing the financial barriers that block some students from obtaining their degree. To counterbalance the sharp influx of new students on campus, I have requested a small one-percent increase in higher-education funding to help our institutions with their rising enrollment. It is likely that this funding alone will not cover growing operational costs for our colleges and universities, so I ask administrators to be measured and modest when looking at raising tuition.

With this increased enrollment and increased opportunity, I am committed to seeing increased responsibility for results. I want to tie funding for higher-education institutions more closely to coursework completion and graduation rates, not simply to enrollment. These tax dollars must produce college graduates, not just fill up seats. We can and must double the number of college graduates in Arkansas by 2025 if we are to stay competitive. This is a lofty goal aimed at the future, but we must begin implementing it today.

My proposed budget sets aside a relatively small amount of money for tax relief to continue attacking the sales tax on groceries. A half-cent cut is not much. I'd like to do more. But it is the most broad-based tax relief we can offer to our citizens at this time, and it shows our continued commitment and dedication to eliminating this regressive tax.

Beyond that, I don't see any room for additional tax cuts or significant increases in program funding. If we are to retain the enviable national position we now hold, we must remain cautious and conservative. If you make a proposal that seeks to cut revenue or increase spending, the only responsible approach is to state precisely where that money is coming from. If the proposal calls for a tax cut, then it is only fair to detail exactly which existing programs you will cut to offset that loss in funding. Abstract claims of hypothetical future growth don't change the immediate impact that a tax cut will have on state revenues and state services.

On the other hand, if the proposal boosts funding for an existing program, detail exactly how to pay for it. What other program will you reduce to find the money? What tax will you raise to generate the necessary revenue? To choose any other option, to pass changes without regard to consequences, sidesteps our responsibility as leaders, and recklessly endangers the stability we've brought to our economy during these tumultuous times.

Everybody likes tax cuts, and politically, everyone wants tax cuts. But tax cuts are suited for times when economic conditions provide confidence that those cuts can be sustained. Arkansas's present economy, while stronger than most other states', is still in the middle of a tenuous recovery. Added to that are those significant cost increases for major state services that loom in the near future. Any cuts to Medicaid or corrections now will only expand the potential future gap we could soon face.

There is, however, immediate action to be taken in both Medicaid and corrections to bend that curve of unsustainable growth, to rethink how we operate these programs to better serve our people, and to reduce the demand for new revenue. There are no quick solutions and real change will take time. But we can begin to contain costs now and avoid the risk of this tide swamping our state budget in the next few years.

Over the past year, we have been looking at ways to change how we pay for Medicaid services in Arkansas, moving from an unsustainable fee-for-service model toward one that rewards results and not just treatment. This model has shown successes in other states, and we need to develop pilot programs to begin trying that here.

We will also ask the Department of Human Services to explore with our Medicaid providers the possibility of a self-imposed tax, both to ensure that more funding will be available and to capture more Medicaid matching funds from the federal government. Similar steps, you will remember, a few decades ago, helped our nursing-home providers fend off a funding crisis. I admire those willing to stand up now and recognize the dangers that lie ahead if we continue down the same untenable track.

We will also continue exploring the savings we could realize through implementation of electronic health records. Our approach is cautious because of ongoing operations costs. But a stronger statewide system will help us improve care while reducing the need for repetitive and costly tests.

We spent our federal stimulus dollars wisely and saved much of our own Medicaid money, and that has bought us some time. Otherwise we would be facing a Medicaid-funding shortage right now. But, it is in Fiscal Year 2013 that we expect to see the heaviest impact of our cost demands for Medicaid services and that is why our actions must begin now, to slow growth and improve care.

In corrections, the costs will rise more gradually, but could be equally devastating to our future budgets. We warehouse too many people in our prisons, and at our current rate of incarceration, we will need a projected additional $1.1 billion just to supply enough beds for the next decade. The choice will be whether to raise taxes to pay for those beds, or release potentially dangerous criminals because we have nowhere else to hold them.

Conversations about our corrections system are too often dominated by fear and anxiety. Many discussions end in new laws with harsher sentences and longer prison terms. We can never fully predict what any person is going to do in the future. But to say that the only solution is to take no chances, to lock up non-violent offenders for longer and longer periods of time whatever the cost; to do this is to give up on trying to reform our corrections system and our society.

The steps we take in corrections reform will be rooted in common sense, informed by input from those who know the criminal-justice system best, and will always be undertaken with public safety foremost in our minds. We must appropriately punish lawbreakers, but, in some instances, non-violent offenders can repay that debt to society while remaining productive for their families and their communities. If they don't correct their ways, incarceration will always be an option.

Our drug statutes must put a stronger emphasis and heavier penalties on those involved with the drug trade, instead of giving equally harsh sentences to those merely arrested for mere possession or use. Previous legislatures have built a grid of sentencing guidelines, a grid that is often manipulated or ignored to put away offenders for even longer stretches of time. Those guidelines must be more closely followed, or perhaps, perhaps those jurisdictions that frequently exceed the grid should share in the cost of incarceration with our state.

Our Departments of Correction and Community Corrections will be instrumental in our reforms, and I will make sure they are functioning to the best of their abilities to provide confidence in their increased responsibilities. My proposed budget adds more than four-million dollars to the Department of Community Corrections, which will help accommodate the agency's anticipated larger role.

North Little Rock Police Chief Danny Bradley said it best at a news conference last week. He said: "We're not talking about being tough on crime, or soft on crime; we're talking about being smart on crime."

When it comes to criminal activity, we've got to make sure that the bad guys who will hurt you -- the violent criminals or the career criminals -- are the ones we lock away and save the beds for. We will protect our people and not use up a bed that some kid who, given a second chance, could turn his life around, but still needs to undergo the consequences of criminal behavior in a different way.

When it comes to our infrastructure, Arkansas's highway system faces ever-increasing repair and expansion needs with a declining source of revenue. We all recognize the problem, and that we must re-examine how we fund our roads. I've made clear my position that we cannot move existing general revenue to pay for highways, and that new funding sources must be found elsewhere. It is a tough issue to confront in lean economic times, but Speaker Robert Moore is a tough man, willing to stand and lead that discussion, and I salute his personal initiative to do so.

This will not be a session where good fortune presents us surpluses and opportunity, nor will it be a session where we are forced into terrible decisions over whom to care for and whom to cut from needed services. Compared to most of the country, Arkansas is a stable and productive state for us to oversee. Together, we cannot jeopardize that. The fiscally conservative actions we have taken together, the General Assembly and Executive Branch, have saved us from the worst of the recession, so far. You have provided me with tools, including the Quick-Action Closing Fund, which have brought more than 26,000 jobs to Arkansas, offsetting some of the thousands that the recession took from our workforce. And with your help, we will continue to bring more. Our foresight will help us ward off future financial hazards, instead of facing the dire consequences that confront other states.

Teddy Roosevelt often spoke of what he called the honor of those in the arena, the mettle of those willing to become engaged and involved. To quote Roosevelt: "It is the doer of deeds who actually counts in the battle for life, and not the man who looks on and says how the fight ought to be fought, without himself sharing the stress and the danger.” It’s you people, who are willing to put your reputation on the line, who willing to put your name on a ballot, who are willing to take slings and arrows, and sometimes accolades, from people across the state. You people in the arena, with your own blood, and your own sweat, and your own tears – the doers are the real champions. All of us, from time to time, have practiced Monday-Morning-quarterbacking. All of us, from time to time, have critiqued other people’s actions. But remember, in the final analysis, the people who are actually in the fray, willing to do the tough tasks, are the ones that deserve our gratitude and our respect.

We saw this past weekend, in Arizona, just how real that danger can be for those who serve our democracy. All of you here are the men and women of that arena Roosevelt spoke of, who have chosen to stand and serve, to guide our Ship of State with wise and measured debate and deliberation.

And in the final analysis, our efforts for Arkansas are actually bigger than the sum of their parts. We will continue building on a foundation of education and economic development. We will balance our budget and serve as a model for fiscal responsibility in difficult times. We will take the steps necessary to make our government more efficient and more cost-effective. In time, the biggest impact will not be one easily measured, but in my opinion, it will be the most rewarding. It will be the change in the way Arkansas is perceived.

Beyond the numbers and budgets and bills is the evolving sense of who we are as a people and where we stand as Arkansans. Ladies and gentlemen, we refuse to be the brunt of jokes, a small, also-ran state mired at the bottom of national rankings. Our surge forward is being recognized today, as we speak, throughout the United States, and we need to acknowledge it ourselves as Arkansans.

As I pointed out earlier, there are still statistical positions that put us at the bottom – the per capita number of Bachelors Degrees is one example, our health rankings and childhood obesity are another example. There are still many mountains for us to climb. We are still woefully inadequate in so many areas. But I told Boys State two years ago, and I’ve started using it ever since, I told them that if they hadn’t been guilty of it, certainly their parents were guilty of it, I have been guilty of it, and I’ll bet almost everybody in this room has been guilty of it – and that is, that old trite phrase that we used to say all the time, “Thank God for Mississippi.”

Have you said that before? Well, it's inappropriate anymore, people. You say you're irritated that Maryland is first in educational rankings, and we're only sixth. You say that you're irritated that we only created 26,000 jobs in the midst of the worst recession, instead of 36,000 jobs. Set your goal higher, understand who you are – the rest of the country knows. They're taking note of what's going on in Arkansas. Arnold Schwarzenegger, before he left office earlier this week, would have given anything to be in Arkansas's shoes fiscally, and so would 46 other states.

It is up to us to realize our own potential, to continue our momentum, and to carry our state's mantle. Let's position ourselves so that, long after we are all gone, Arkansas will still be advancing, still be rising, and will remain admired throughout the country and throughout the world for our progress and for our people.

I am a product of the General Assembly. We will have our fights and our disagreements and our discussions as we should. But, I am jealously respectful of who you are and what you represent. I spent 20 years in the General Assembly and loved it and still do. You are the first branch of government established by our Founding Fathers for a very good reason. You're in charge of the public policy and the money. All of us must work together. The judicial branch and the executive branch stand ready and willing to work with you, but as the first branch, you are the ones who our founding fathers thought of first, and I have tremendous respect for what you do and what you go through. I've sat where you've sat. I've taken the phone call and the letters. I've been misunderstood and, unfortunately, oftentimes been understood. Together, let's put our head on the pillow when all this is done and say we left it better than we found it. And if that's our charge, that's our responsibility. God bless you and God bless the State of Arkansas.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 1001

A RESOLUTION TO ADOPT THE RULES OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE EIGHTY-EIGHTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Subtitle

TO ADOPT THE RULES OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE EIGHTY-EIGHTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE EIGHTY-EIGHTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ARKANSAS:

SECTION 1. The Rules of the House of Representatives of the Eighty-Eighth General Assembly of the State of Arkansas are amended to read as follows:

MEMBERS

1. Every representative shall be present within the House during the session of the House and every member shall be present at each committee meeting of which he/she is a member, unless excused or necessarily prevented. It is the policy of the Arkansas General Assembly, as a term-limited body, to encourage legislators to learn as much as possible by attending meetings of committees of which they are not a member. Prior signed and documented approval must be obtained from the chairperson of a committee for a visiting non-committee member to enjoy certain privileges offered to regular members.
2. For the purpose of seating in the House Chamber for an upcoming regular session of the General Assembly, the Speaker of the House shall, on the first Friday following the November General Election, declare all House Chamber seats vacant and representatives and representatives-elect must select in the order of their seniority any seat not occupied after notification by the Chief Clerk of available seats. Absence or failure to select a seat at the assigned selection time will automatically allow the Speaker to assign the member to his or her same seat if it is available or the member or member-elect to a seat selected by the Speaker. Immediately following the selection of a seat by a member or member-elect or assignment of a seat by the Speaker, the member or member-elect's signature or Speaker's signature is required. Following all seat selections or assignments, member or member-elect's signatures or the Speaker's signature shall represent final movement. The Chief Clerk shall furnish voting machine and desk keys.

3. When it is necessary for seniority of incoming members to be determined by lot, the Speaker of the House and the Speaker-designate of the House shall conduct a drawing by lots upon receiving certification from the Secretary of State of the election of membership to each General Assembly. Qualified and certified persons to be seated and officially receive the oath of office may do so only at a time and place prescribed by the House. No person having resigned from public office as a provision to a plea agreement to avoid felony prosecution shall be seated or administered the oath of office. Incoming members with previous legislative tenure shall be placed highest in seniority among the incoming members based upon previous terms of service. Where an equivalence of terms of service exists, seniority for those with equal terms shall be asserted by drawing lots to determine their numerical standing.

4. A majority of all representatives elected to the House shall be necessary to transact business. When less than a quorum of House members shall assemble, those present shall be authorized to send for the absent representatives or adjourn. Penalties may be decided by a majority of the representatives present. (Art. 5, Sec. 11)

5. Each representative is expected to vote on each question put before the House unless he/she has an immediate personal interest.

6. Any representative shall have the right to explain his/her vote on any bill or other question before the House, in writing. Such explanation shall not be entered upon the Journal, but shall be filed with the Chief Clerk.

7. Every bill or resolution in the possession of the House or of any committee thereof shall be made available to any member for his/her examination.

8. No member at any time shall take from the House or any committee any bill or other paper belonging to the House, without consent of the Speaker, subject to the will of the House.

9. It shall be the duty of each representative to know, practice and preserve Parliamentary Law.

THE SPEAKER

10. Selection.

10.(a) As used in this rule, the term "Speaker-designate" shall mean the member of the House of Representatives selected by the House of Representatives of each General Assembly held preceding the convening of the next-following regular session of the General Assembly, in the following manner:

10.(a)(1) A caucus of the entire House of Representatives shall be held fifteen (15) minutes following sine die adjournment of the fiscal session held in each even-numbered year, at which time the members of the House shall select by secret ballot a member of the House to be known as the Speaker-designate. Each candidate for Speaker-designate shall be allowed fifteen (15) minutes to address the House before the ballot is taken. All members are required to be present for the addresses and for the election. In the event a member is unable to attend, absentee ballots may be requested by a member for himself/herself from the Speaker's Office no sooner than twenty (20) calendar days prior to the scheduled election and must be completed and returned to the Speaker's Office no later than two (2) hours before the scheduled election. Leave for absence shall be requested immediately before the time of the election. The Speaker shall announce the name and number of votes received by the candidate who received at least a majority of the votes of the membership of the House. Each candidate shall be entitled to verify the number of votes he or she received.

10.(a)(2) The candidate receiving a majority vote of the membership of the House of Representatives shall be declared the winner of such election for Speaker-designate of the House of Representatives of the next-following General Assembly.

10.(a)(3) If no candidate receives a majority vote of the membership of the House of Representatives, the names of the two (2) candidates receiving the highest number of votes cast shall be placed on a run-off ballot and distributed among the membership of the House of Representatives in the same manner provided above.

10.(a)(4) If it is determined that the Speaker-designate will not serve as a member of the House of Representatives of the next-following General Assembly due to death, resignation, failure to be a candidate for reelection in the party primary election, or failure to be reelected as a party candidate in the Primary Election, a vacancy in the position of Speaker-designate shall exist and be filled at the caucus of the entire House of Representatives-elect held on the Friday of the week designated for the biennial Institute of Legislative Procedure (House Legislative Orientation), and the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall be elected upon convening of the next regular session.

10.(a)(5) It is the intent of this subsection that the Speaker-designate be the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the next-following General Assembly, subject to selection by the membership of the House upon convening of the regular session.

10.(a)(6) Petitions seeking pledge signatures of members of the House of Representatives for a particular candidate seeking selection as Speaker-designate shall not be circulated among the members of the House of Representatives.

10.(b) At the beginning of each session the members of the House of Representatives shall choose from its own membership a presiding officer designated as the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

11.(i) State the question to the House before each vote is taken;

11.(j) Appoint, at the beginning of each session, a member of the House to serve as Speaker Pro Tempore. - 18.(i) Have an adequate knowledge of Parliamentary Law and the Rules of the Arkansas House of Representatives.

PARLIAMENTARY PRACTICE

- 19. When a question is under debate, motions shall have precedence in the following order (the request for a quorum call is always in order; the Chairperson is not compelled to accept any motion):
 - 19.(a) To fix the time to which the House will adjourn (non-debatable) (majority of a quorum);
 - 19.(a)(1) (A majority of a quorum is a majority of those voting when at least a majority of the members are present and voting;)
 - 19.(b) To adjourn (non-debatable) (majority of a quorum);
 - 19.(c) To take a recess (non-debatable) (majority of a quorum);
 - 19.(d) Postpone temporarily; lay on the table (non-debatable) (majority of a quorum)
To take from the table (non-debatable) (majority of a quorum) (when the motion to take from the table is adopted, the proposition takes the same position it held when the motion to lay on the table was adopted);
 - 19.(e) Immediate consideration (non-debatable) (2/3 of a quorum);
 - 19.(f) Previous question (non-debatable) (5 seconds) (majority of a quorum);
 - 19.(g) Limit or extend debate (non-debatable) (2/3 of a quorum);
 - 19.(h) To expunge (debatable) (2/3 of membership) (67);
 - 19.(i) Postpone to a day certain (debatable) (majority of a quorum);
 - 19.(j) Committee of the Whole, go into (non-debatable) (majority of a quorum);
 - 19.(k) Refer (debatable) (majority of a quorum);
 - 19.(l) Amend (debatable) (majority of a quorum);
 - 19.(m) Postpone indefinitely (debatable) (majority of membership);

- 19.(n) Take out of proper order (non-debatable) (2/3 of a quorum);
- 19.(o) Special order of business (debatable) (2/3 of a quorum); and
- 19.(p) To suspend the rules (non-debatable) (2/3 of a quorum).
20. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order, when the Floor can be obtained for that purpose, except when the previous question has been ordered.
21. The motion to recess, when the Floor can be obtained for that purpose, must specify the time which shall elapse and the time for reconvening. It may be amended to alter specific time.
22. Previous question:
- 22.(a) When any debatable question is before the House, any member may move the previous question. It shall be seconded by five (5) members whether the question shall be stated. When the previous question shall have been adopted, the proponents shall be allowed fifteen (15) minutes in which to debate it, and the opponents of the main question shall be allowed fifteen (15) minutes, after which time a vote upon the main question shall be taken.
- 22.(b) Pending a vote on the main question, one (1) motion to refer is permitted. A motion to refer under this rule applies to House resolutions as well as to House bills, to Senate bills and to Senate amendments to a House bill, and to a motion to amend the Journal. The motion to refer under this rule is non-debatable and may not be laid upon the table.
23. A motion to postpone to a day certain may not specify the hour; a special order is necessary to specify the hour; the motion may be amended and it is debatable within narrow limits only, confined to the merit of the motion itself.
24. The simple motion to refer is debatable within its narrow limits, but the merits of the proposition to which it is proposed to refer may not be brought into the debate. The motion to refer with instructions is debatable (majority vote of a quorum). When a question is raised about the proper referral of a bill to committee, if the Speaker admits error in the referral of the bill to a committee, the bill may be re-referred by a majority vote of a quorum; however, if the Speaker does not admit error in the referral of the bill to committee, the bill may only be re-referred by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of a quorum. When a bill is re-referred to a committee, any previous committee recommendation is automatically stripped from the bill.
- 24.(a) When a motion is under consideration, only two (2) substitutes to that motion shall be in order. Only a motion applicable to the main motion and of a higher precedence upon recognition may be substituted for the motion under consideration. A substitute to the third degree shall not be in order. Unless specified otherwise by the presenter of the motion at the time the motion is made, a substitute motion shall apply to the main motion.

25. The motion to postpone indefinitely opens to debate all the merits of the proposition to which it is applied. It may not be applied to the motion to refer, or to suspend the rules, or to motions relating to the order of business.

25.(a) The motion for indefinite postponement and possible consideration by a joint interim committee shall be as follows: "Mr. Speaker, I move that consideration of _____ be postponed indefinitely and that consideration be given by the joint interim committee on _____ for a study of _____." (majority of membership).

26. The motion to limit or extend debate must specify time limitations. A substitute motion specifying a lesser time may be accepted.

27. Reconsideration:

27.(a) When a proposition has been made and carried or lost, it shall be in order for any member of the majority on the same or succeeding legislative day to move for the reconsideration thereof, or give notice of his/her intentions to do so and such motion shall take precedence over other questions except consideration of a conference report or a motion to adjourn: Provided, the motion or proposition shall only be considered during the period reserved for regular bills. The notice shall not be withdrawn after the said succeeding legislative day without the consent of the House, and thereafter any member may call it up for consideration: Provided, the notice to reconsider must be disposed of within three (3) legislative days following the day the vote was taken; provided, that such notice to reconsider cannot be given after the 57th day of a regular session or during a special session or fiscal session during which times a motion to reconsider must be disposed of immediately.

27.(b) The provisions of the rule that the motion may be made "by any member of the majority" is construed, in case of a tie, to mean the member of the prevailing side, and the same construction applies in the case of a two-thirds (2/3) vote. Where the yeas and nays have not been ordered recorded in the Journal, any member, irrespective of whether he/she voted with the majority or not, may make the motion to reconsider or give notice thereof; but a member who was absent or who was paired in favor of the majority contention and did not vote may not make a motion.

27.(c) A bill in the possession of the House is not considered passed or an amendment agreed to if a motion to reconsider is pending; the effect of the motion being to suspend the original proposition. A notice or motion to reconsider shall not be allowed unless the bill is in the House. A bill shall not leave the House once notice of reconsideration is given. When the motion to reconsider is decided in the affirmative, the question immediately recurs on the motion reconsidered. However, prior to consideration of the question at hand, the Speaker shall have the title, expressing the main contents of the proposition being reconsidered, read to the House. When the motion to reconsider is defeated, a second motion to reconsider may not be made.

27.(d) The motion to reconsider is agreed to by a majority of a quorum, even though the vote reconsidered requires a majority or more of the membership. Upon reconsideration when a proposition has been voted twice and either carried or lost it is considered "Clinched".

27.(e) A notice to reconsider is not debatable. A motion to reconsider is debatable when the item to which it applies is debatable.

27.(f) No bill, petition, memorial, or resolution referred to a committee or reported there-from for recommitment shall be brought back into the House on a motion to reconsider.

27.(g) The "Clincher" motion is two (2) motions in one (1); it is a motion to reconsider and to lay on the table. Having prevailed, the proposition shall not be again considered except by expunging the record. The "Clincher" motion is adopted by a majority of the membership. The Speaker shall accept a "Sound the Ballot" request after the "Clincher" has been adopted and before the next order of business is called.

(A.C.A. 19-1-303)

1) The chairperson (or vice chairperson in his or her absence) shall call the committee to order at the appointed time.

2) The presider shall determine a quorum present either by declaration, without objection, or by calling the roll (for quorum purposes only a roll call will be required if there is one objection by a committee member to the declaration of the presence of a quorum).

3) The presider shall maintain order of the committee meeting.

4) The presider shall decide all questions of order subject to appeal to the Speaker of the House who may refer the question to the Rules Committee whose decision may be appealed to the full House.

5) The presider shall supervise and direct the staff of the committee.

6) The presider shall prepare, or supervise the preparation of, and sign all reports of the committee and submit them to the full House.

House Rule 55.(b)

55.(b) All committees shall consider the bills, resolutions, amendments, petitions, and memorials referred to them and make one of the following reports in writing to the House:

55.(b)(1) That a bill, resolution, petition or memorial “do pass”;

55.(b)(2) That a bill, resolution, petition or memorial “do not pass”, in which event the measure shall not be considered unless the vote is expunged;

55.(b)(3) That a bill, resolution, petition or memorial “do pass as amended”. No bill, resolution, petition or memorial shall be acted upon without a “do pass” or a “do pass as amended” recommendation. No bills shall be placed on the non-controversial calendar or deemed to be non-controversial in any way unless a motion is adopted in the committee to which the bill was referred. With a quorum present, the motion is considered adopted if there are no negative votes.

7) A quorum (one more than half the total membership of the committee) must be present to transact official House committee business.

(House Rule 66) No committee shall transact business without a quorum (a majority of the committee membership present). All final action on bills or resolutions, and on proposed amendments to bills or resolutions, shall be decided by a majority vote of the total membership of the committee. Provided, however, that the Speaker of the House shall not be included for the purpose of determining what is a majority of a standing committee, unless present at the time of the vote. A member of the committee must be present at the time of the vote for his/her vote to be counted on any matter considered by the committee (no pairs, no proxies).

8) (House Rule 54. (c)(2)) The rules or proceedings of the House of Representatives shall be observed in all select committees, standing committees, and subcommittees of the House so far as they may be applicable.

The precedence of motions so far as they are applicable shall be as listed in House Rule 19(a) – (q):

(House Rule 19) When a question is under debate, motions shall have precedence in the following order (the request for a quorum call is always in order; the chairperson is not compelled to accept any motion):

19(a) To fix the time to which the House will adjourn (non-debatable) (majority of a quorum);

19(a)(1) (A majority of a quorum is a majority of those voting when at least a majority of the members are present and voting);

19(b) To adjourn (non-debatable) (majority of a quorum);

19(c) To take a recess (non-debatable) (majority of a quorum);

19(d) Postpone temporarily; lay on the table (non-debatable) (majority of a quorum)
To take from the table (non-debatable) (majority of a quorum) (when the motion to take from the table is adopted, the proposition takes the same position it held when the motion to lay on the table was adopted);

19(e) Immediate consideration (non-debatable) (2/3 of a quorum);

19(f) Previous question (non-debatable) (5 seconds) (majority of a quorum);

19(g) Limit or extend debate (non-debatable) (2/3 of a quorum);

19(h) To expunge (debatable) (2/3 of membership) (67);

19(i) Postpone to a day certain (debatable) (majority of a quorum);

19(j) Committee of the Whole, go into (non-debatable) (majority of a quorum);

19(k) Refer (debatable) (majority of a quorum);

19(l) Amend (debatable) (majority of a quorum);

19.(m) Postpone indefinitely (debatable) (majority of membership);

19.(n) Take out of proper order (non-debatable) (2/3 of a quorum);

19.(o) Special order of business (debatable) (2/3 of a quorum); and

19.(p) To suspend the rules (non-debatable) (2/3 of a quorum).

9) (House Rule 60(a)) All committee and subcommittee meetings including but not limited to hearings at which public testimony is to be taken, (normally called “public hearings”) shall be open to the public (Art. V, Sec. 13) and shall be scheduled at least eighteen (18) hours in advance; agendas of bills, resolutions, and other proposals to be considered at such meetings shall be posted in a designated place at least eighteen (18) hours in advance; but in case of an emergency, a two-thirds (2/3) majority of the membership of the committee may bring bills or resolutions up for consideration upon notice of not less than two (2) hours.

10) (House Rule 60(b)) Special meetings of a standing committee may be called by the chairperson of the committee or by a majority of the members of the committee for conducting any business of the committee; provided, a special meeting of the committee may not conflict with regularly scheduled meetings of any standing committee; provided further, special meetings shall be subject to the same procedures regarding the publishing of agendas and notices of meetings that apply to regular standing committee meetings. (J.R. 21 – Joint Committee)

11) (House Rule 61(a)) All persons wishing to offer testimony to a committee hearing shall be given a reasonable opportunity to do so as determined by a majority of the committee. An oral or written statement shall not be a prerequisite to offer testimony before a committee.

12) (House Rule 63) No committee shall sit while the House is in session except the Committee on Rules or a Conference Committee, which shall notify the House.

13) (House Rule 66(a)) A bill, resolution or amendment in a House committee, having been rejected twice, shall not be placed on the committee calendar again or considered again during the same legislative session unless the vote is expunged (two-thirds of the membership of the committee). The motion to expunge shall be placed on the committee agenda, by a committee member, and placed at the bottom of the active list. A bill or resolution may be amended before a second consideration; but, unless expunged, even an amended bill having failed twice shall not be placed on the calendar or considered. Notice of reconsideration not permitted in committee.

14) (House Rule 47(a)) When a bill or resolution is under consideration, amendments shall be in order. Upon adoption, amendments shall become a part of the bill or resolution. Amendments to amendments may not be offered. All amendments offered before the House or one of its committees must be typewritten on an approved amendment form and signed by the sponsor. All amendments shall be attached to the original bill or resolution, numbered by the Bill Clerk, and shall be placed upon the members’ desks before being acted upon by the House.

(House Rule 38(e)) All amendments shall be entered on a separate sheet of paper noting the line or lines to be changed and the words to be deleted or inserted.

15) (House Rule 68) No bill or resolution shall be introduced with a committee as the author of said bill or resolution unless that committee has voted unanimously to sponsor the bill or resolution.

16) (House Rule 69) Committee Records and Reports

69(a) The chairperson of each committee of the House shall keep or cause to be kept a separate record for each committee meeting in which there shall be entered:

69(a) 1. The time and place of each hearing and each meeting of the committee.

69(a) 2. The number and title of the bill or resolution with one of the following three recommendations: "do pass", "do pass as amended", or "do not pass". If a committee recommends a bill or resolution "do pass as amended" and any of the amendments recommended by the committee are not adopted on the floor, the bill or resolution shall be re-referred to the same committee for further consideration and recommendation.

69(a) 3. A summary of each bill or resolution's major provisions which may be several paragraphs in length in case of major bills or resolutions or simply the title of the bill or resolution in the case of minor bills or resolutions.

69(a) 4. The reason for the committee's action on the bill or resolution, including a brief minority report, if requested by any two (2) committee members.

69(a) 5. A record of how every member voted on each bill or resolution when action is taken by the committee, including votes on a motion to postpone consideration on the bill or resolution and a recorded vote on any other motion, if requested by any two (2) committee members.

69(a) 6. A list of all people testifying before a committee on each bill or resolution, the interest that they represent, and an indication of their position on the bill or resolution.

17) (House Rule 69(b)) Such records for each separate committee meeting shall be approved by the chairperson before the expiration of a seven (7) day period, with the exception of those records referred to in (a) 1. and 2., hereinabove which shall be filed immediately with the Clerk of the House.

18) (House Rule 24 part) When a question is raised about the proper referral of a bill or resolution to committee, if the Speaker admits error in the referral of the bill or resolution to a committee, the bill or resolution may be re-referred by a majority vote of a quorum; however, if the Speaker does not admit error in the referral of the bill or resolution to committee, the bill or resolution may only be re-referred by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of a quorum. When a bill or resolution is re-referred to a committee, any previous committee recommendation is automatically stripped from the bill or resolution. When a motion is under consideration, only two (2) substitutes to that motion shall be in order. Only a motion applicable to the main motion and of a higher precedence upon recognition may be substituted for the motion under consideration. A substitute to the third degree shall not be in order. Unless specified otherwise by the presenter of the motion at the time the motion is made, a substitute motion shall apply to the main motion.

19) (House Rule 55 (a)) House Committee Staff will automatically and without delay place all bills or resolutions referred to the committees on the committee agendas. Staff will notify the sponsor of bills or resolutions assigned to committee. Referred bills shall be placed on the committee's active agenda in the order they are read across the desk on the House Floor. When an active agenda is established in a committee and bills from that agenda are not placed on the deferred list and if they are passed over, they are placed at the bottom of the list of the day's active agenda. Bills read across the desk on the House Floor later that same day or on a later day are placed on the active agenda in the order they are read below bills already on the active agenda.

20) After a bill or resolution has appeared on the Committee agenda and has been called up for consideration by the Committee and the sponsor of the bill or resolution or a representative is not present to present the bill or resolution, the bill or resolution will be placed on the active agenda two (2) additional times, but will be placed at the bottom of the active agenda.

21) If the sponsor or a representative is not present to present the bill or resolution when called up after the bill or resolution has appeared on the active agenda when called up during the third meeting, the bill or resolution will be automatically dropped from the active agenda and placed on the deferred list unless the sponsor notifies staff to put the bill or resolution back on the active agenda before the agenda is prepared, for the next called meeting. Requests to move bills or resolutions from the deferred list to the active agenda must be made by 2:30 p.m. two (2) days prior to the scheduled committee meeting. Bills moved from the deferred list to the active agenda shall be listed at the bottom of the active agenda. Bills on the deferred list may be moved to the active calendar as provided by rule for a total of three (3) times only. A suspension of this rule by the Committee (two-thirds of a quorum) will be required for each transfer of any bill having been moved three (3) times previously.

22) Bills or resolutions suggested as non-controversial will be considered before consideration of controversial bills or resolutions on the agenda. The objection of one (1) committee member to the consideration of a bill or resolution as non-controversial will automatically keep the bill or resolution from being considered as being non-controversial. Even though a bill or resolution has been considered as non-controversial, it will be necessary after a "do pass" or "do pass as amended" recommendation that a motion be made and there be unanimous consent of no less than a quorum of the Committee for a bill or resolution to be eligible to be placed on the House Non-controversial Calendar.

23) If a bill or resolution is discussed by a committee at a meeting, but is not voted on because of time limitations or because the vote is deferred to the next meeting, the bill or resolution will not lose its order on the agenda and will not be counted as having been considered.

24) The author/sponsor of a bill or resolution may make a presentation for his/her bill or resolution and may elect at that time to respond to questions from the committee members. Following the initial presentation, non-legislative---non-committee members will be allowed to alternately speak against and for the bill or resolution. A procedural motion made by a member of the committee and adopted by the committee to limit or end debate will be allowed to govern non-legislative--non-committee members' discussions. At the conclusion of the non-legislative--non-committee member proponent and opponent presentations, the sponsor may return to the podium and may elect to field questions from the committee members. Those questions should be limited to requests for clarification or the securing of information. Questions that are rhetorically offered and are dilatory for the effect of debate are discouraged. At this point, the chair will entertain motions from committee members only. For disposition of a proposition in a House Committee, procedural motions (limit debate, immediate consideration, etc.) are allowed only following a main motion (do pass, do not pass, do pass as amended, etc.). Discussion from that point forward is limited to committee members for and against the motion, if debatable, in alternating fashion. If immediate consideration is not adopted and if debate has not been limited and time has not expired, the sponsor of the motion will be allowed to close for his/her motion. During the closing, the sponsor of the motion may elect to field questions from committee members. At the conclusion of these presentations, a vote will be taken on the motion properly before the committee.

25) As determined by the presider courtesy may be extended to General Assembly members who are non-committee members who need to return to their own committee meetings.

26) (House Rule 66) Eleven (11) members of a standing committee constitute a committee quorum with the Speaker present if he/she is a member of the committee and ten (10) members when the Speaker is not present. A committee recommendation of a bill or resolution will require these same numbers.

27) Smoking is prohibited in the committee rooms and all adjoining rooms.

28) (House Rule 69(a)5) A roll call vote will be required if requested by any two (2) committee members, except for a quorum call which may be requested by one (1) member. The request for a quorum call is always in order.

29) When a roll call is required, the roll will be called by seniority with the vice chairperson being called next to last and the chairperson last. For a member's vote to be counted and recorded, he/she must vote "yes", "no" or "present".

30) During a roll call vote, when a member's name has been called twice and he/she does not respond, or when a member passes, they will not be allowed to vote at a later time on the current issue before the committee.

31) No seconds are required during the legislative process except those that are explicit in the rules, (roll call, previous question, sound the ballot, etc.)

32) (House Rule 38(p)1) When any House or Senate bill or resolution requiring an expenditure of public funds or otherwise imposing a new or increased cost obligation on any municipality or county is pending before any committee of the House of Representatives, any member of the committee may request that a fiscal impact statement for such bill or resolution be placed on the desk of each member of the committee before the bill or resolution is called up for final action in the committee. If such request is made, the chairperson of the committee shall refer the bill or resolution to the appropriate state agency or to the legislative staff for the preparation of a fiscal impact statement, to be returned to the committee in writing not later than five (5) days from the date of the request.

33) (House Rule 38(p)4) Failure of the sponsor of a bill or resolution to provide the fiscal impact statement required in this rule shall not prohibit the consideration of it in the committee to which referred or on the floor of the house in which the bill or resolution is called up for final passage, if no objection to it is made at the time such action is taken.

(House Rule 38(p)5) Nothing in this rule shall prohibit a committee to which a bill or resolution is referred or the house in which the bill or resolution is being considered from suspending the requirement of the filing of a fiscal impact statement on any such bill or resolution in the same manner as provided for the suspension of the rules in the house in which the bill or resolution is being considered.

36) Bills imposing new or additional costs on education.

(a)(1) As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires, "fiscal impact statement" means a realistic written statement of the purpose of a proposed law, or a regulation promulgated under a law, and the estimated financial cost to the state or any local school district of implementing or complying with the proposed law or regulation.

(2) The fiscal impact statement shall be developed by the Office of Economic and Tax Policy of the Bureau of Legislative Research with the assistance of the Department of Education within the guidelines adopted by the House Committee on Education and the Senate Committee on Education, as applicable.

(b) Any bill filed in the House of Representatives or Senate that will impose a new or increased cost obligation for education in grades kindergarten through twelve (K-12) on the State of Arkansas or any local school district shall have a fiscal impact statement attached to it prepared and filed with the chair of the committee to which the bill is referred:

(1) At least three (3) days before the bill may be called up for final action in the committee during a regular session or fiscal session of the General Assembly; and

(2) At least one (1) day before the bill may be called up for final action in the committee during a special session of the General Assembly.

(c)(1)(A) If any such House or Senate bill is called up for final passage in the House or Senate and a fiscal impact statement has not been provided by the author of the bill or by the committee to which the bill was referred, any member of the House or Senate may object to the bill's being called up for final passage until a fiscal impact statement is prepared and made available on the desk of each member of the House or Senate at least one (1) day prior to the bill's being called up for final passage.

(B) An affirmative vote of two-thirds (2/3) of a quorum present and voting shall override the objection.

(2) If an objection is made without override, the presiding officer of the House or Senate shall cause the bill to be referred to the office for the preparation of a fiscal impact statement which shall be filed with the presiding officer not later than five (5) days from the date of the request. (A.C.A. 10-2-127)

37) Bills imposing new or additional costs and restrictions on inmate population patterns or affecting programs or services of the Department of Corrections.

(a) Each of the following bills introduced in the General Assembly shall have a cost impact statement attached to the bill prior to the committee to which the bill is referred taking action in regard to the bill:

(1) Bills which affect inmate population patterns at facilities of the Department of Correction by imposing restrictions on inmate release, or by increased intake into the department of inmates based on felony convictions; and

(2) Bills which affect programs or services of the department.

(b) In addition, copies of the cost impact statement shall be furnished on the desk of each member of the Senate and of the House of Representatives at least one (1)

- The vice chairperson of the standing committee may be the chairperson of a permanent subcommittee of his/her choosing. Each permanent subcommittee consists of six members, plus the chair and vice chair of the standing committee.

The close of business today would normally have been the deadline for filing bills affecting any publicly supported retirement system or pension plan.

However, A. C. A. 10-2-115(b)(2) states:

“(b)(2) Additionally, if the General Assembly recesses for longer than three (3) consecutive days during the first fifteen (15) days of a regular session, the fifteen-day introduction deadline shall be extended for a time period equal to the recess.”

We recessed January 14th – January 17th for a period of four (4) days.

In keeping with that statute, the deadline for introduction of Retirement and Pension plan bills will be extended to the close of business on Friday, January 28th, 2011.

Upon motion of Representative Altes, HOUSE BILL NO. 1027 was placed back on second reading for the purpose of amendment.

AMENDMENT NO 1 TO HOUSE BILL NO. 1027

Amend HOUSE BILL NO. 1027 as originally introduced:

Delete SECTION 1 and substitute the following:

"SECTION 1. Arkansas Code Title 8 is amended to add a new chapter to read as follows:

CHAPTER 15 — ENERGY-EFFICIENT HOMES

8-15-101. Title.

This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "Property Assessed Energy-Efficient Home Improvement District Act".

8-15-102. Definitions.

As used in this chapter:

(1)(A) "Bond" means a revenue bond or note issued under this chapter.

(B) "Bond" includes any other financial obligation authorized by this chapter, the laws of this state, or the Arkansas Constitution;

(2) "Home" means the privately owned residence of a person;

(3) "Major home renovation" means a renovation of a home that costs more than fifty percent (50%) of the home's current appraised value;

(4) "New construction" means a new addition to a home or a complete new home;

(5) "Owner" means an individual who has a title or interest in his or her residential property;

(6) "Property assessed energy-efficient home improvement district" means a district established in this state by law for the express purpose of managing a property assessed energy-efficient home improvement program; and

(7) "Property assessed energy-efficient home improvement program" means a program under which a property owner can finance an energy-efficient improvement and a renewable energy project on his or her residential property.

8-15-103. Legislative findings.

The General Assembly finds that:

(1)(A) Homes can be constructed and renovated using energy-efficient designs and renewable energy projects that save money and reduce the negative environmental impact.

(B) The main objectives of energy-efficient designs and renewable energy projects are to:

(i) Avoid resource depletion of energy, water, and raw materials;

(ii) Prevent environmental degradation throughout the design's life cycle; and

(iii) Create homes that are livable, comfortable, safe, and energy efficient;

(2) Homes can be improved by establishing specific performance criteria and goals for energy-efficient improvements and renewable energy projects that are based on recognized, consensual standards with a scientifically proven basis and a history of successful performance;

(3) It is in the best interest of this state to authorize counties to create districts that make available to their citizens one (1) or more financing programs to fund energy-efficient improvements or designs and renewable energy projects on newly constructed or renovated residential properties at the request of the homeowner;

(4) These programs will benefit the citizens of this state by:

(A) Decreasing the cost of funds to participating citizens and lowering the aggregate issuance and servicing costs of these loans; and

(B) Making these funds available to rural communities throughout the state that might not otherwise create and finance these programs; and

(5) These programs will further the public purpose of:

(A) Creating jobs and stimulating the state's economy;

(B) Generating significant economic development through the investment of the proceeds of these loans in local communities, including increased sales tax revenue;

(C) Protecting participating citizens from the financial impact of the rising cost of electricity produced from nonrenewable fuels;

(D) Providing positive cash flow in many instances in which the costs of the construction, renovation, or improvements are lower than the energy savings on an average monthly basis;

(E) Providing the citizens of this state with informed choices and additional options for financing construction, renovation, or improvements that may not otherwise be available;

(F) Increasing the value of the newly constructed, renovated, or improved real property for participating citizens;

(G) Improving the state's air quality and conserving natural resources, including water; and

(H) Promoting energy independence and security for the state and the nation.

8-15-104. Immunity.

(a) The powers and duties of a property assessed energy-efficient home improvement district conferred by this chapter are public and governmental functions exercised for a public purpose and for matters of public necessity.

(b) The district and its personnel are immune from suit in tort for the performance of its duties under this chapter unless immunity is expressly waived in writing.

8-15-105. Authority to create.

A county may create a property assessed energy-efficient home improvement district by adoption of an ordinance.

8-15-106. Board of directors.

(a) A property assessed energy-efficient home improvement district created under this chapter shall be operated and controlled by a board of directors.

(b) A board of directors shall manage and control a district created under this chapter, including without limitation the following:

- (1) Operations;
- (2) Business; and
- (3) Affairs.

(c) The board of directors shall be solely responsible for selecting the chair of the board of directors and establishing procedures by which it shall operate.

(d) A director shall not receive compensation in any form for his or her services as a director.

(e) Each director shall be entitled to reimbursement by the district for any necessary expenditures incurred in connection with the performance of his or her general duties as a director.

8-15-107. Membership on the board of directors.

(a) Unless the structure of the board of directors is otherwise specified in the agreement establishing the property assessed energy-efficient home improvement district, the board of directors of a district shall consist of no fewer than five (5) directors as provided under this section.

(b)(1) The board of directors shall include the county judge or his or her designated representative and the mayor or his or her designated representative of each city of the first class that is within the county's boundaries.

(2) If the number of directors is fewer than five (5) after fulfilling the requirements of subdivision (b)(1) of this section, then mayors or designated representatives of the cities of the second class that are within the county's boundaries are appointed to the board of directors in descending order of population as determined by the last federal decennial census until five (5) directors have been appointed.

(c) The designated representative of a county judge or mayor under subsection (b) of this section shall be a qualified elector of the jurisdiction that the designated representative is appointed to represent.

(d) If a city of the second class becomes a city of the first class and is within the county's boundaries, the mayor of that city or his or her designated representative shall become a director.

(e) Membership of cities of the second class on the board of directors shall be adjusted after each federal decennial census.

8-15-108. Terms of directors.

8-15-109. District boards of directors -- Meetings.

(a) The board of directors of a property assessed energy-efficient home improvement district shall hold quarterly meetings and special meetings, as needed, in the courthouse or other location within the county as determined by the board of directors.

(b) The time and place of the quarterly meetings shall be on file in the office of the district board of directors.

8-15-110. District boards of directors -- Powers and duties.

(5) Apply for, receive, and spend grants for any purpose under this chapter;

(6) Enter into agreements and contracts;

(7) Receive property or funds by gift or donation for the finance and support of the district; and

(8) Do all things necessary or appropriate to carry out the powers expressly granted or duties expressly imposed under this chapter.

(b) The board of directors shall adopt rules consistent with this chapter or other law that in its judgment may be necessary for the proper enforcement of this chapter, provided such rules are approved by the district.

8-15-111. Property assessed energy-efficient home improvement programs.

(a) A property assessed energy-efficient home improvement district created under this chapter may establish a property assessed energy-efficient home improvement program to provide loans for the initial acquisition and installation of energy-efficient improvements or designs and renewable energy projects with free and willing privately owned residential property owners for both major home renovation to existing property and to new construction.

(b)(1) The district may, by resolution, authorize a revenue bond or contract with a governmental entity or a private entity to provide the loans under subsection (a).

(2) The resolution shall include without limitation the following:

(A) The kind of renewable energy project or energy- efficient improvement or design for which the loan may be offered;

(B) The proposed arrangement for the loans under the program, including:

(i) A statement concerning the source of funding that will be used to pay for work performed under the loan contract;

(ii) The interest rate and time period during which contracting residential property owners would repay the loan; and

(iii) The method of apportioning all or any portion of the costs incidental to financing, administration, and collection of the arrangement among the consenting residential property owners and the county;

(C) A minimum and maximum aggregate dollar amount that may be financed per property;

(D)(i) A method for setting requests from privately owned residential property owners for financing in priority order if the requests appear likely to exceed the authorization amount of the loans under the program.

(ii) Priority shall be given to those requests from privately owned residential property owners who meet established income or assessed property value eligibility requirements;

(E) Identification of a local official authorized to enter into loan contracts on behalf of the district; and

(F) A draft contract specifying the terms and conditions proposed by the district.

(c)(1) The district may combine the loan payment required by the loan contract with the billing for the real property tax assessment for the property where the renewable energy project or the energy-efficient improvement or design is installed.

(2) The district may establish the order in which a loan payment will be applied to the different charges.

(d) The district shall offer private lending institutions the opportunity to participate in a program established under this section.

(e)(1)(A) In order to secure a loan under a program authorized under this section, the district may place a lien equal in value to the loan against the property where the renewable energy project or the energy-efficient improvement or design is being installed.

(B) The lien shall attach to the property when it is filed in the recorder's office for record.

(2)(A) The priority of the lien created under this chapter is determined based on the date of filing of the lien.

(B) The lien is not entitled to any special or senior priority.

(C) A district shall discharge the lien created under this chapter upon full payment of the lien.

(3) If the property is sold, the lien will stay attached to the property and the loan created under this chapter will be owed by the new property owner.

(4) The district may bundle or package the loans for transfer to private lenders in a manner that would allow the liens to remain in full force to secure the loans.

(f)(1) Before the enactment of an ordinance under this section, a public hearing shall be held at which interested persons may object to or inquire about the proposed property assessed energy-efficient home improvement program or any of its particulars.

(2) The public hearing shall be advertised one (1) time a week for two (2) successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the district.

8-15-112. Program guidelines.

(4) The priority of property tax payments and the special assessments;

and

(5) Other matters necessary to implement and administer the program.

8-15-113. Payment by special assessments.

The credit and taxing power of the State of Arkansas will not be pledged for the debt evidenced by the bonds, which will be payable solely from the revenues received from the special assessments on the participants' properties.

8-15-114. Bonds.

(a) A property assessed energy-efficient home improvement district may:

(1) Issue revenue bonds in order to provide the property assessed energy-efficient home improvement program loans authorized by this chapter; and

(2) Create a debt reserve fund of legally available moneys from nonstate sources as partial security for the bonds.

(b) Bonds issued under this chapter and income from the bonds, including any profit made on the sale or transfer of the bonds, are exempt from taxation in this state.

(c) Bonds issued under this chapter shall be authorized by resolution of the board of directors.

(d) The bonds shall have all of the qualities of and shall be deemed to be negotiable instruments under the laws of the State of Arkansas.

(e) The authorizing bond resolution may contain any other terms, covenants, and conditions that the board of directors deems to be reasonable and desirable.

8-15-115. Sale.

The bonds may be sold in such a manner, either at public or private sale, and upon such terms as the board of directors shall determine to be reasonable and expedient for effectuating the purposes of this chapter.

8-15-116. Revolving fund.

(a) A property assessed energy-efficient home improvement district may maintain a revolving fund to be held in trust by a banking institution chosen by the board of directors separate from any other funds and administered by the board of directors.

(2) Of those who died, forty-four (44) individuals were passengers in the back seat and sixty-four percent (64%) were not wearing a seat belt;

(3) According to the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, in 2009 approximately eleven (11) lives were saved because of seat belt use by rear seat passengers;

(4) According to a 2007 study by the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, seat belt use is much higher among back seat passengers in states that require seat belt use in all seating positions, averaging eighty-eight percent (88%) in states that cover all seats and sixty-nine percent (69%) in states requiring only front seat use;

(5) Thirty-one (31) states, the District of Columbia, and five (5) territories have primary seat belt laws, and of those, twenty-four (24) cover all seating positions;

(6) Arkansas's seat belt use rate has increased from seventy and four-tenths percent (70.4%) before the primary seat belt law went into effect in 2009 to seventy-eight and three-tenths percent (78.3%) in 2010; however, we are still below the national average of eighty-five percent (85%);

(7) The Governors Highway Safety Association, the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, and the National Transportation Safety Board all support the policy that states should adopt seat belt laws that cover all seats; and

(8) By amending the mandatory seat belt law to cover back seat passengers, Arkansas can expect to increase overall seat belt use in the state and save additional lives, prevent serious injuries, and save additional economic costs each year.

(14) "Actuarial equivalent" means a benefit of equal reserve value when reserve is the present value of all payment to be made on account of any benefit based upon such reasonable rate of interest and table of experience as a plan shall adopt from time to time.

SECTION 2. Arkansas Code § 24-5-111 is repealed.

~~24-5-111. Credit for prior service with public employer.~~

~~(a) Any employee of the Arkansas State Highway and Transportation Department who became a member of the Arkansas State Highway Employees' Retirement System on or before July 1, 1967, upon application and submission of proper proof to the Board of Trustees of the Arkansas State Highway Employees' Retirement System, shall receive prior service credit for any service rendered to any public employer, as defined in § 24-4-101, prior to July 1, 1967.~~

~~(b) Before any member or employee is credited with such prior service, the member or employee shall pay into the system an amount equal to that which the member would have paid had the service to be credited been performed for the department, together with such interest as may be prescribed by the board.~~

~~(c) It is the purpose of § 24-5-110 and this section to protect employees and to provide that employees will not lose their status or retirement benefits by changing employment from one (1) state department to another state department and that employment by the Arkansas State Highway and Transportation Department and other departments shall be cumulative in calculating retirement benefits.~~

SECTION 3. Arkansas Code § 24-5-117, regarding benefits and withdrawal from service under the Arkansas State Highway Employees' Retirement System, is amended to add an additional subsection to read as follows:

(c) The payment of the cost of the refunded service shall be based on an actuarial equivalent as prescribed by the board if a member:

(1) Is reemployed by a state employer;

(2) Has received a refund from the Arkansas State Highway Employees' Retirement System; and

(3) Seeks to reinstate time withdrawn.

SECTION 4. Arkansas Code § 24-5-121 is repealed.

~~24-5-121. Life annuities for surviving spouse — Return of funds previously withdrawn.~~

~~(a)(1) The surviving spouse of any person who had twenty (20) or more years of creditable service under the Arkansas State Highway Employees' Retirement System and who died subsequent to July 1, 1969, but on or before April 1, 1971, while drawing benefits under the system shall be entitled to receive a life annuity equal to forty two and one half percent (42.5%) of the annuity which the deceased member was receiving at the time of death.~~

~~(2) The surviving spouse shall be entitled to receive the benefits provided for in this section from the date application therefor is made to the Board of Trustees of the Arkansas State Highway Employees' Retirement System.~~

~~(b) If any surviving spouse of a deceased member who is otherwise entitled to receive an annuity under the provisions of this section has withdrawn any portion of the employee contributions made to the system by the deceased member, the surviving spouse shall return the funds so withdrawn with interest at the rate of three percent (3%) from the date withdrawn to the date returned to the system.~~

SECTION 5. Arkansas Code § 24-5-123(a)(5), regarding credit for military service, is amended to read as follows:

(5) ~~Contributes to the members' deposit account a sum of money equal to the amount that would have been contributed during the term of military service allowable, based upon the biweekly earnings of the member at the time the member first reinstates membership in the system after completing the period of active military service times a rate equal to the sum of the contribution rates for both the member and the employer at the time the membership was first reinstated after completion of the active military service~~ an amount based on an actuarial equivalent as prescribed by the Board of Trustees of the Arkansas State Highway Employees' Retirement System.

SECTION 6. EMERGENCY CLAUSE. It is found and determined by the General Assembly of the State of Arkansas that certain provisions of the Arkansas State Highway Employees' Retirement System law are in urgent need of revision to bring them into conformance with sound public pension policy; that this revision is of great importance to members of the Arkansas State Highway Employees' Retirement System and to other citizens of the State of Arkansas; that a member's purchase of service credit currently provides that a member pay the system yesterday's dollars for the value of today's benefits; that such a valuation is unfair to the members as a whole and inconsistent with the prudent management of the system's funds and obligations; that the purchase of service credit in the system should be based upon actuarial equivalents; that the purchase of service credit should be paid in a lump sum to the system unless otherwise authorized; that current service purchase accounts remain unpaid and inactive for many years at a time and create an administrative burden and accounting difficulty on the system that can be remedied by the passage of this act; and that this act is necessary to maintain an orderly system of benefits for the members of the Arkansas State Highway Employees' Retirement System. Therefore, an emergency is declared to exist and this act being necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health, and safety shall become effective on July 1, 2011."

"SECTION 1. TEMPORARY LANGUAGE. DO NOT CODIFY.

Health insurance for individuals under nineteen years of age.

(a) As used in this act:

(1)(A) "Child-only plan" means renewable individual health insurance for a qualified individual other than excepted benefits as defined in § 23-86-310.

(B) "Child-only plan" does not include dependent health insurance for a qualified individual under another person's health insurance;

(2)(A) "Health insurance" means any hospital and medical expense-incurred policy, certificate, or contract provided by an insurer, hospital or medical service corporation, health maintenance organization, or any other health care plan or arrangement that pays for or furnishes medical or health care services whether by insurance or otherwise and includes any excess or stop-loss coverage.

(B) "Health insurance" does not include long-term care, disability income, short-term, accident, dental-only, vision-only, fixed indemnity, limited-benefit or credit insurance, coverage issued as a supplement to liability insurance, insurance arising out of workers' compensation or similar law, automobile medical-payment insurance, or insurance under which benefits are payable with or without regard to fault and that is statutorily required to be contained in any liability insurance policy or equivalent self-insurance;

(3) "Individual health insurance" means health insurance offered to individuals in the individual market but does not include short-term limited duration insurance;

(4)(A) "Insurer" means any entity that provides health insurance, including excess or stop-loss health insurance, in the State of Arkansas.

(B) "Insurer" includes an insurance company, medical services plans, hospital plans, hospital medical service corporations, health maintenance organizations, fraternal benefits society, or any other entity providing a plan of health insurance or health benefits subject to state insurance regulation;

(5) "Open enrollment period" means October 1 through October 31 annually, beginning October 1, 2011;

(6) "Qualifying event" means the loss of employer-sponsored health insurance or the involuntary loss of other existing health insurance for any reason other than fraud, misrepresentation, or failure to pay a premium if the applicant is a qualified individual when the qualifying event occurs; and

(7)(A) "Qualified individual" means a resident of this state under nineteen (19) years of age.

(B) "Qualified individual" does not include a person who is not a United States citizen or who is present in the United States illegally.

(b) During the open enrollment period and within thirty (30) days of a qualifying event, an insurer shall accept and grant an application to insure a qualified individual for a child-only plan on a guaranteed-issue basis without any limitations or exclusions of policy benefits based upon the applicant's health status.

(c)(1) Until the end of the initial open enrollment period, the Arkansas Comprehensive Health Insurance Pool shall provide health insurance to qualified individuals under policies and procedures established by the Board of Directors of the Arkansas Comprehensive Health Insurance Pool.

(2) At the end of the initial open enrollment period, the eligibility of a qualified individual for health insurance under the Arkansas Comprehensive Health Insurance Pool is determined under § 23-79-509.

(d) The Insurance Commissioner shall adopt rules to implement and administer this act.

(e) This act and the rules adopted by the commissioner to administer this act expire on January 1, 2014.

SECTION 2. EMERGENCY CLAUSE. It is found and determined by the General Assembly of the State of Arkansas that recent changes in federal law prohibit health insurers from imposing preexisting-condition exclusions on individuals under nineteen (19) years of age; that there exists a limited market in this state of health insurers voluntarily offering individual health insurance policies to individuals under nineteen (19) years of age; that children with preexisting conditions may be unable to obtain any health insurance coverage; and that this act is immediately necessary because the lack of health insurance coverage results in the children of this state receiving inadequate medical care, foregoing wellness treatment and medical procedures, and experiencing declining health, with potentially devastating consequences to the future health and welfare of our state. Therefore, an emergency is declared to exist, and this act being immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health, and safety shall become effective on:

(1) The date of its approval by the Governor;

(2) If the bill is neither approved nor vetoed by the Governor, the expiration of the period of time during which the Governor may veto the bill; or

(3) If the bill is vetoed by the Governor and the veto is overridden, the date the last house overrides the veto."

(i) Related to the district's direct involvement with the district's disposal or treatment; or

(ii) That support the district's management of the solid waste needs of the district.

(B) The board may fix, charge, and collect fees or charges under subdivision (a)(1)(A)(ii) of this section only if the board:

(i) Employs or otherwise makes available from another agency an enforcement officer to:

(B) Within the district but delivered to a location outside the district.

(3) The board may fix, charge, and collect penalties from entities that fail to timely remit rents, fees, and charges under this section.

(4) Solid waste generated within one district and delivered to another district for disposal may be assessed a fee as follows:

(A) Either the district in which the solid waste was generated or a district in which the same solid waste is transported, stored, managed, or disposed may assess the fee;

(3) Districts shall determine by interlocal agreement how the districts shall:

(A) Assess and administer the fee; and

(B) Divide the fees.

~~(b)(d)~~ The board may levy a service fee on each residence or business for which the board makes solid waste collection or disposal services available.

~~(e)(1)(A)~~(e)(1)(A) The board may, by majority vote, require fees or delinquent fees to be collected with the real and personal property taxes of any county within the district.

(B) If the board elects to collect such fees in this manner, it shall so notify the county tax collector, who shall enter such fees on tax notices to be collected with the real and personal property taxes of the county.

(C) No county tax collector shall accept payment of any property taxes where the taxpayer has been billed for solid waste collection services unless the service fee is also receipted.

(2) If a property owner fails to pay the service fee, it shall become a lien on the property.

(f) If the district that generates the solid waste cannot agree with the district where disposal is to take place on an equitable splitting of the waste assessment fee, either district may initiate binding arbitration of the dispute under § 16-7-203 before:

- 2) Which children will be eligible?
- 3) Should payments be limited to relatives with legal guardianship, unrelated foster parents, or unrelated individuals with close ties to the child or family?

"SECTION 1. STATEMENT OF PURPOSE. The people of the State of Arkansas find that wildlife management areas governed by the Arkansas State Game and Fish Commission provide a special attraction and commensurate economic development opportunity to the citizens of cities and towns located in close proximity to wildlife management areas, especially in rural areas. It is accordingly the policy of the people of the State of Arkansas that wildlife management areas governed by the Commission should be managed in a way that assures maximum public access and use that will benefit the people of Arkansas and visitors to the state and thereby maximize the growth of outdoor recreation and tourism-related jobs in those cities and towns.

SECTION 2. Section 8 of Amendment 35 of the Arkansas Constitution is amended to read as follows:

§ 8. Nepotism prohibited — Powers of arrest — Funds — Use — Purposes — Game Protection Fund — Audit of accounts — Resident hunting and fishing licenses — Powers of commission.

No person shall be employed by the Commission who shall be related to any of the Commissioners or any other State officers within the third degree of relationship by blood or marriage. All employed personnel may make arrests for violation of the game and fish laws.

The fees, monies, or funds arising from all sources by the operation and transaction of the said Commission and from the application and administration of the laws and regulations pertaining to birds, game, fish and wildlife resources of the State and the sale of property used for said purposes shall be expended by the Commission for the control, management, restoration, conservation and regulation of the birds, fish and wildlife resources of the State, including the purchases or other acquisitions of property for said purposes, the providing of access for passive recreational activities at all wildlife management areas governed by the Commission, with such passive recreational activities to include without limitation walking, hiking, bird watching, horseback riding, bicycling, canoeing, the use of electric all-terrain vehicles and other types of all-terrain vehicles deemed appropriate by the Commission, and other passive recreational activities that promote economic activity and that can be regulated and managed in such a manner as not to negatively impact or conflict with the duties of the Commission as set forth in Section 1 of Amendment 35 to the Constitution of the State of Arkansas, and for the administration of the laws pertaining thereto and for no other purposes. By law, the General Assembly may expand or further define passive recreational activities that will provide access at wildlife management areas governed by the Commission and promote economic development in the state. All monies shall be deposited in the Game Protection Fund with the State Treasurer and such monies as are necessary, including an emergency fund, shall be appropriated by the Legislature at each legislative session for the use of the Game and Fish Commission as hereto set forth. No monies other than those credited to the Game Protection Fund can be appropriated.

All money to the credit of or that should be credited to the present Game Protection Fund shall be credited to the new Game Protection Fund and any appropriation made by the Legislature out of the Game Protection Fund shall be construed to be for the use of the new Commission and out of the new Game Protection Fund.

The books, accounts and financial affairs of the Commission shall be audited by the State Comptroller as that department deems necessary, but at least once a year.

Resident hunting and fishing license, each, shall be One and 50/100 Dollars annually, and shall not exceed this amount unless a higher license fee is authorized by an Act of Legislature.

The Commission shall have the exclusive power and authority to issue licenses and permits, to regulate bag limits and the manner of taking game and fish and furbearing animals, and shall have the authority to divide the State into zones, and regulate seasons and manner of taking game, and fish and furbearing animals therein, and fix penalties for violations. No rule or regulations shall apply to less than a complete zone, except temporarily in case of extreme emergency.

Said Commission shall have the power to acquire by purchase, gifts, eminent domain, or otherwise, all property necessary, useful or convenient for the use of the Commission in the exercise of any of its duties, and in the event the right of eminent domain is exercised, it shall be exercised in the same manner as now or hereafter provided for the exercise of eminent domain by the State Highway Commission. All laws now in effect shall continue in force until changed by the Commission. All contracts and agreements now in effect shall remain in force until the date of their expiration.

This amendment shall not repeal, alter or modify the provisions of any existing special laws under the terms of which a County Game Commission has been created:

The Commission shall be empowered to spend such monies as are necessary to match Federal grants under the Pittman-Robertson or similar acts for the propagation, conservation and restoration of game and fish.

Therefore, an emergency is declared to exist and this act being immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health, and safety shall become effective on:
