REMARKS BY CHIEF JUSTICE KEMP
GENERAL ASSEMBLY
SWEARING IN CEREMONY

In just a few moments each of the elected officials will be taking their oath of office. In that oath, each person swears to support the Constitution of the United States of America and the Constitution of the State of Arkansas.

I would like to read the Preamble of each Constitution. The Preamble of the Constitution of the United States of America reads as follows:

We the people of the United States, in order to form a more perfect Union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity, do ordain and establish the Constitution for the United States of America.

The Preamble for the Arkansas Constitution reads as follows:

We the people of the State of Arkansas, grateful to Almighty God for the privilege of choosing our own form of government, for our civil and religious liberty, and desiring to perpetuate its blessings and secure the same to ourselves and posterity, do ordain and establish the Constitution.

In each of these preambles the Constitution is established by the people. We, the people are the government of the United States; we, the people are the government of the State of Arkansas. We should never forget this fact. More importantly, the elected and appointed officials on local, state and national levels should never forget this fact.

Our officials are serving in the government, but the people, us, we the people are the government of this great state.

The Parliamentarian recognized Representative Les Eaves for a motion relative to the adoption of the Rules of the 93rd General Assembly. The Rules of the House of Representatives for the 92nd General Assembly will be the temporary Rules of the House for the 93rd General Assembly.

REMARKS OF
SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
JANUARY 11, 2021

Let me just begin by remembering all those across our state who have been affected by the COVID-19 virus, those who have lost friends and family members, those who are fighting the virus currently and all those who are on the front lines and I think it would be appropriate for us to joining together in acknowledging all the sacrifices that have been made by all Arkansans and those to this very day who are taking all the steps necessary to try and turn the corner on this terrible virus, please join me.

I'd also like to thank my family for their love and support, would like to thank my wife Alie who right now is teaching Kindergarten in the El Dorado public schools, I'd like to thank my children Eli, Mary Kate and Libby, who despite the fact that it snowed in El Dorado this morning should be in school as of 10:00. They have made tremendous sacrifices and endured a great deal throughout my 10 years of public service. I will forever be in debt for their love and support.

I'd like to thank my parents, my father is with me here today and I'm sure my mother is watching online, for all of their love, support and encouragement through the years. They certainly have made me the person that I am today. There are many other friends and family that I would like to thank. Certainly my brother back home in El Dorado who hopefully is keeping the law practice going and my sister here in Little Rock who has always been supportive in my endeavors.

I want to begin by congratulating all of you on your election. If you are new, welcome to the House. If you are a returning member, welcome back.

I am humbled by the trust you have placed in me, and I graciously accept your nomination and vote to serve as your Speaker.

I'm certain that when many of you began your campaign last year, you did not envision serving in a time such as this.....a time when a disease demands our distance and poisoned politics pushes us further apart.

When Winthrop Rockefeller entered this very chamber 54 years ago, he did so as the first Republican to be elected Arkansas Governor in more than a century. Yet, he took the moment, upon his swearing in, not to dwell on his own role in history, but rather to deliver a vision for the future. He said quote “We come here committed, not to discord but to doing. Not to destroying but to discovery. Not to dividing but by solving old problems with new solutions.” I find these words as relevant today as they were in 1967.

We gather now in our state’s capitol, perhaps still wounded from our own political battles or deeply burdened by the weight of an increasing divide. So let us commit now to doing instead of discord and to discover rather than destroy. How we chose to conduct business in this chamber will set an example for Arkansans now and for generations to come.

House and Senate leadership have spent months planning for a session that keeps you, staff, and the public as healthy and safe as possible during this health crisis. I recognize being surrounded by glass, covered by a mask, and separated from loved ones who should be by your side on days like today is not an ideal situation. Make no mistake, this session will have its challenges.

There will be changes to agendas, new protocols for entering the building, and perhaps longer work days as we move through the session.

But as we proceed, I ask you to remember the challenges your constituents face at home. The teachers who are creating multiple lesson plans, the restaurant owners trying to keep their doors open, or the nurses who haven’t had a day off.

If we, as a state, have asked our essential workers to keep going, then it is incumbent upon us to do the same.

This pandemic has taught us many lessons. Perhaps it taught you that a smaller gathering is sometimes more fun, or maybe it showed you that Arkansas’s backyard is just as breathtaking of a destination as one half way across the world. I believe it has reminded many of us that an individual’s worth does not equate to their net worth. The Arkansans who we have relied on the most this year are the ones who have asked the least in return. And they live in every one of your districts.

Ask yourself as you begin create new legislation, how it makes life better for those who made your life easier.

As an aside you may notice there are 2 bibles here. It was not my intention to come to the well with 2 bibles, but as I was sitting in my office just a moment ago and monitoring what was going on I was noticing a reference made on the Senate end about the bible in their chamber. So I was asking staff about the house bible. We actually have a bible that was given to us by Col TH Martin. Of course, Col Martin is from my hometown of El Dorado. Col Martin was affiliated with Lion Oil and yesterday was the 100th anniversary of the discovery of oil in El Dorado. But in the front of this is actually an inscription written by TH Martin, "With sincere best wishes to this great House, follow these rules and you will be right" _TH Martin. Feb 25, 1943. You don't have to be from El Dorado to appreciate those words to consider that in 1943 we were of course in the midst of WWII.

But just a poignant reminder to us that we should do what is right History teaches us that Arkansans are resilient. But how our state emerges from this crisis hinges on months ahead. Your constituents placed their faith in you to lead during this time. Honor their faith by serving with integrity. In the end, we will be known only by the impact we've had on others. May our impact be one that makes Arkansas a better place.

God bless you, God bless the House, and God bless the great state of Arkansas.

Governor Asa Hutchinson State of the State Address
To the 93rd General Assembly
January 12, 2021

Arkansas House of Representatives Chamber
10:30 a.m.

Thank you, Speaker Shepherd, and to Senate Pro Tem, Jimmy Hickey, and to the honorable Members of the General Assembly.

Thank you for that warm greeting. Let me assure you that is gratefully received, and hopefully that signals a strong relationship as we enter this session.

I also welcome those members joining from the Senate chambers, and those that are joining from the public.

First, let me extend my congratulations to the new members. By my count, we have over 20 members newly elected in this session. And for some, it is a return in a new role and for many others, this will be your first regular session.

Well, as you will remember, when I was elected governor, we hit the ground running, and we did not intend to slow down. So buckle your seatbelt, because we've got a lot of work to do.

Now, this marks my seventh year as governor, and today will be the last time that I address the General Assembly in regular session. Thank you for not applauding on that last line.

Today, we begin this session with historic challenges besetting our nation.

We are beginning the 11th month of a global pandemic that has impacted every aspect of life, from losing friends and loved ones, to increased unemployment needs; to changes in education, health care community events, and even in this legislative session, our life is different today.

And then last week, we witnessed a violent mob assault our nation's capital. When they breached our Article 1 branch of government, they attacked the foundations of our democracy. And let me say clearly, that each person who breached the heart of our democracy must be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

A presidential election often divides the country along political and cultural lines. And I understand the passion. It is okay to be passionate. But we must not let passion cloud our common sense and our commitment to our state and nation. And when the election is over, then we need to come together, united to strengthen our democracy and heal our land.

As we enter this session, I ask you to take the long look through the perspective of time. How do we want history to remember this session?

Will it be one that brought people together? Or did we just add more fuel to the flames of division?

We all have our political principles and convictions. And we dare not abandon those. But we can still find solutions and ways to work together for the common good.

Some people look at the upcoming session and predict that it will be acrimonious and accomplish little. I wholeheartedly disagree with that assessment. I expect us to meet the challenge of the moment and to pass legislation that will give our health care workers and public the tools needed to defeat the Coronavirus.

I expect legislation that will boost our economy.

We need laws that will assure that our police officers have the highest standards, are fully trained, funded, and supported.

And yes ... And yes, we want laws to increase accountability and oversight as well.

And we must ... and we must take action to reward our teachers who make a difference every day for the next generation.

This session will also build on the accomplishments of the past.

In each regular session, we have lowered taxes on-hard working Arkansans, and this year the individual income tax rate has been reduced to 5.9%. In total, as a result of our all of our income tax cuts, we have moved $800 million from the government checkbook into the hands of individuals across our state.

And because of your efforts, we have raised the pay of our dedicated teachers in our public schools, and we have become a nationally recognized leader in computer science education.

We have, for the first time, devoted state resources to expand high speed internet in unreached areas of our state. $86.8 million has been invested in the Rural Connect Grant program. This has provided internet access to over 70,000 Arkansans, who previously lacked service. This is progress.

We equalized our sales tax collections, so that online transactions are treated the same as sales from our Main Streets small businesses, and those small businesses are the lifeblood of our communities.

The legislation that you passed allowed our cities and counties to survive through the pandemic. Thank you.

We have worked hard to make state government more efficient. And the result is that 1,700 fewer state employees are employed in state government than in 2015. This is estimated to be an annual savings of $77 million each year.

And so today, despite the cross winds of a national economy that is struggling, we are beginning this session in the best budget position in more than a decade. The state right now has an unallocated surplus of over $200 million. And after six months into our current budget year, we have exceeded our revenue forecasts by more than $300 million.

So the state of our state finances is strong. And our state budget reflects a resilient state economy in which the private sector continues to create jobs.

And I have never been more proud of Arkansans. We are still all determined to come through this health care crisis stronger and more hopeful than ever.

And while we have been focused on our health care emergency, my administration continues to do the work of job creation. Despite the limitations on travel, companies have moved or expanded in Arkansas over the last year creating more than 2,200 new jobs and invested over $800 million this last year. These jobs and investments are the result of incentives and signed agreements by our economic development teams. It has been exciting for me to help celebrate some of these job announcements.

From Synergy Cargo in Crossett, to Emerson Motors in Ash Flat. From Nice-Pak in Jonesboro, to Hytrol in Fort Smith, to name just a few. Thank you for supporting the economic incentives that have been critical to closing many of these investments.

Even with the challenges of the pandemic, we have over 53,000 more Arkansans employed today than in January of 2015.

Most importantly, we have supported our farmers and ranchers with reduced regulation and efforts to expand market opportunities.

And while our tourism and hospitality industry have struggled, they continue to be a foundational part of our economy. They might need more help; we will be there for them.

Now, let me address the upcoming session.

Our first responsibility is to act on the health care emergency that faces our state. The General Assembly has been an essential and effective partner during the last 11 months. Without your action, we would not have built a grant program for small businesses. Without your help, we would not have had, we would not have provided enhanced benefits to the unemployed, or additional funds for food assistance and rental assistance. And without your work, we would not have been successful in building the health care infrastructure to fight coronavirus today.

So on behalf of the people of Arkansas, I thank you for your work through the Legislative Council and through your own actions in meeting the needs of our citizens.

And now is not the time to withdraw from the battle. We must not be faint of heart, but we must keep fighting and not call for retreat as some would advocate. The current emergency rules are in place until February 27. And prior to that date, you need to act. I trust you will both affirm the emergency and continue the emergency rules that are proven necessary during this health care crisis.

These include our telemedicine rules, our educational waivers, our immunity liability for business and health care workers, and other important life-saving measures. If you do not act, these measures will end.

As part of our pandemic response. I'm asking the General Assembly to pass appropriations to allow federal COVID relief funds, which have been granted by Congress, sent to the states to be spent on getting the vaccines more quickly and into the arms of more Arkansans.

We need health department infrastructure to coordinate and administer the coronavirus vaccines. We need a continued investment in testing. We need stable funding for contact tracing and support for our K-12 education and higher education. All of these investments require major appropriations and actions on your part.

When it comes to our public schools, I support another round of increased pay for teachers. My goal is to raise average teacher salaries by $2,000 over the next two years. You have already signaled your support to raise teacher pay. You've paved the way, you've led the way, and we can work together to accomplish this goal.

Now, let me move to a more difficult subject. Let me read portions of a couple of letters I've received on a topic that has already generated some discussion, hate crimes legislation. My only request is that you listen and make your own judgment on the merits and fairness of the bill.

From Jimmy D. Warren of Conway, who writes in support of hate crime legislation in Arkansas:

“Arkansas has always been on the forefront of leading on important issues. With this being an important and an opportunity to take a stand against actors who clearly represent the worst of crimes that are against people for their identity. This legislation is important not just for economic development, but it demonstrates that Arkansas is no place for racism and discrimination.”

From Rabbi Barry Block of Congregation B'nai Israel in Little Rock:

“As a people historically targeted with horrific hate crimes, the Jewish Community well understands the importance of hate crime legislation. Arkansans would be safer if such hateful and heinous criminals faced sentence enhancement on the basis of their animus, motivated crimes.” He goes on to say “adopting this legislation will enhance Arkansas's reputation, much to the credit of the General Assembly.”

From IBM:

“IBM plans to engage Arkansas business and community leaders to ensure that all reasonable measures are considered to get Hate Crime legislation enacted on a bipartisan basis. The time to act is now. The swift passage of Georgia's hate crime law shows that the moment has come. The status quo is unacceptable. We look forward to working with the state legislature to pass a hate crime law in Arkansas.”

And from Fifty for the Future President Scott Copas, from here in Little Rock:

“Not only is hate crime legislation the right thing to do morally, failure to pass a bill will leave Arkansas as only one of three states without such a law. This would negatively impact our ability to recruit and retain employers and talent, as it will result in a black eye for Arkansas on a national scale that will cripple our economic development efforts for years to come.”

I could read scores of letters but let me make another point.

The main objection that I hear from my conservative friends, is that it gives some people more protection than others. Or it has been phrased, if you're going to do it for one group of people, why wouldn't you do it for another?

This legislation applies equally. If you are Hispanic, and you are targeted, it applies. If you're a Jewish, it applies. If you're a Caucasian, it applies. Or African American or any other race, it applies equally. It enhances the penalty for targeting regardless of the race that is targeted.

I've talked to a broad range of people across Arkansas about hate crimes, and they all expressed a sincere conviction, whether for or against it. And the only way we can come together on this issue is for us to listen to each other, and to step into others' shoes who live in a different world than ours. When we do this, then we can come together and find the best solution.

Many of you ask that I not have a special session of the legislature for hate crimes. I respected your request. And we are here today. And the time to act is now.

Polls show that a clear majority of Republicans, Democrats, and Independents support passage of this kind of legislation. Let's not be the last to enact it. But let's lead and do what is important for so many.

In each session, each general session while I have been governor, we have also supported children suffering from abuse, increased our support for foster children, and we have passed pro-life legislation. And now we're the number one pro-life state in the nation.

And I want to acknowledge the First Lady who is here. My wife, Susan, of 47 years, and she has worked hard to protect the children of our state. And I can't think of a greater responsibility than to protect our children. And I look forward to working with you to make sure we do all we can to take care of the most vulnerable among us.

Six years ago, when we started cutting the income tax rate in Arkansas, there were many who said we were going to become just like Kansas. They warned that it would be a financial catastrophe to cut taxes. And yet because of our measured approach and our emphasis upon private sector growth, we have lowered taxes, fully funded K-12 education, increased funding for higher education, and created not only a surplus, but the first Long-Term Reserve Fund in history. And now we are poised to do more.

I have set aside $100 million in my proposed budget for the Long-Term Reserve Fund increase. And we have set aside over $50 million for tax cuts for middle- and lower-income Arkansans. Let's work together to determine the best way to get this done.

But I have asked for two specific tax cuts proposals as part of the package. Let's reduce the sales tax on used cars that sell from $4,000 to $10,000. Currently, the sales tax rate is 6.5%. We can reduce that to 3.5% and give relief to thousands of Arkansans who depend upon used vehicles for getting to work and school. Let's do that together.

But to pay for tax cuts, we need to continue to grow our economy and bring people to Arkansas. If we can lower our tax rate for new residents to 4.9% for five years, then we will attract new Arkansans who will create jobs, spend money, and pay taxes.

You say, Well, how do you know this? I know it because we've done it. By just lowering our tax rate to 5.9%, we have seen people return to our state and invest in our future.

According to one study, Arkansas ranked number 10 in the nation for the number of people moving into our state.

And it sets a goal for us as well to lower our tax rate in a similar way for all citizens. And if we don't get there, the tax break for new residents will sunset. But we can get there together.

I'm also asking for support to expand high-speed internet into more rural areas of our state. We have to reduce the digital divide. We have to provide education fairly in all areas of our state. And it takes high-speed internet to do this and so much more from improving the quality of life to attracting businesses and entrepreneurs. I've set aside $30 million for this purpose in our proposed budget. If we can, let's do more, it is such a great need for our state.

And when it comes to our success in computer science education, I asked you to support legislation that will require a computer science course as a graduation credit. And yes, we will have to increase the training of our teachers even more, but we are ready to do it because it gives our young people even greater opportunities right here in Arkansas.

It is an honor to serve the people of this state. Usually during a legislative session, there is nothing else but the session on my mind. That consumes my time and energy. This year, it's a little different because of the need to get vaccinations out to the millions of Arkansans that are waiting. I'm intentionally devoting a great deal of my time to that effort. But my door is open to you. Anytime we can work together, anytime you want an audience, anytime you want to share an idea, let's visit.

And let me end with a story today.

When I was 17 years of age, on April 4, 1968, Senator Robert Kennedy was told of the news that Reverend Martin Luther King Jr. had been assassinated. He broke the earth-shattering news to the mostly black audience he was scheduled to address in Indianapolis.

He said these words:

"What we need in the United States is not division. What we need in the United States is not hatred. What we need in the United States is not violence, or lawlessness, but love and wisdom and compassion toward one another, and a feeling of justice towards those who still suffer within our country, whether they be white, or be black."

Those words ring true more than 50 years later, but our prayer is the same.

Let's pray for our nation, our leaders, and pray for understanding, wisdom, and let us pursue justice for all Americans.

May God bless the United States, the state of Arkansas, and your work in the coming days.

Thank you.

HOUSE RESOLUTION

A RESOLUTION TO ADOPT THE RULES OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE NINETY-SECOND GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Subtitle

TO ADOPT THE RULES OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE NINETY-SECOND GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE NINETY-SECOND GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ARKANSAS:

SECTION 1. The Rules of the House of Representatives of the Ninety-
Second General Assembly of the State of Arkansas are adopted to read as follows:

MEMBERS

1. Every representative shall be present within the House during the session of the House and every member shall be present at each committee meeting of which he/she is a member, unless excused or necessarily prevented. It is the policy of the Arkansas General Assembly, as a term-limited body, to encourage legislators to learn as much as possible by attending meetings of committees of which they are not a member. Prior signed and documented approval must be obtained from the chairperson of a committee for a visiting non-committee member to enjoy certain privileges offered to regular members.

2. For the purpose of seating in the House Chamber for an upcoming regular session of the General Assembly, the Speaker of the House shall, on the first Friday following the November General Election, declare all House Chamber seats vacant and representatives and representatives-elect must select in the order of their seniority any seat not occupied after notification by the Chief Clerk of available seats. Absence or failure to select a seat at the assigned selection time will automatically allow the Speaker to assign the member to his or her same seat if it is available or the member or member-elect to a seat selected by the Speaker. Immediately following the selection of a seat by a member or member-elect or assignment of a seat by the Speaker, the member or member-elect's signature or Speaker's signature is required. Following all seat selections or assignments, member or member-elect's signatures or the Speaker's signature shall represent final movement. The Chief Clerk shall furnish voting machine and desk keys.

3. PARLIAMENTARY PRACTICE

19. When a question is under debate, motions shall have precedence in the following order (the request for a quorum call is always in order; the Chairperson is not compelled to accept any motion):

19.(a) To fix the time to which the House will adjourn (non-debatable) (majority of a quorum);

19.(a)(1) (A majority of a quorum is a majority of those voting when at least a majority of the members are present and voting;)

19.(b) To adjourn (non-debatable) (majority of a quorum);

19.(c) To take a recess (non-debatable) (majority of a quorum);

19.(d) Postpone temporarily; lay on the table (non-debatable) (majority of a quorum) To take from the table (non-debatable) (majority of a quorum) (when the motion to take from the table is adopted, the proposition takes the same position it held when the motion to lay on the table was adopted);

19.(e) Immediate consideration (non-debatable) (2/3 of a quorum);

19.(f) Previous question (non-debatable) (5 seconds) (majority of a quorum);

19.(g) Limit or extend debate (non-debatable) (2/3 of a quorum);

19.(h) To expunge (debatable) (2/3 of membership) (67);

19.(i) Postpone to a day certain (debatable) (majority of a quorum);

19.(j) Committee of the Whole, go into (non-debatable) (majority of a quorum);

19.(n) Take out of proper order (non-debatable) (2/3 of a quorum);

19.(o) Special order of business (debatable) (2/3 of a quorum); and

19.(p) To suspend the rules (non-debatable) (2/3 of a quorum).

20. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order, when the Floor can be obtained for that purpose, except when the previous question has been ordered.

21. The motion to recess, when the Floor can be obtained for that purpose, must specify the time which shall elapse and the time for reconvening. It may be amended to alter specific time.

22. Previous question:

22.(a) When any debatable question is before the House, any member may move the previous question. It shall be seconded by five (5) members whether the question shall be stated. When the previous question shall have been adopted, the proponents shall be allowed fifteen (15) minutes in which to debate it, and the opponents of the main question shall be allowed fifteen (15) minutes, after which time a vote upon the main question shall be taken.

22.(b) Pending a vote on the main question, one (1) motion to refer is permitted. A motion to refer under this rule applies to House resolutions as well as to House bills, to Senate bills and to Senate amendments to a House bill, and to a motion to amend the Journal. The motion to refer under this rule is non-debatable and may not be laid upon the table.

23. A motion to postpone to a day certain may not specify the hour; a special order is necessary to specify the hour; the motion may be amended and it is debatable within narrow limits only, confined to the merit of the motion itself.

24. The simple motion to refer is debatable within its narrow limits, but the merits of the proposition to which it is proposed to refer may not be brought into the debate. The motion to refer with instructions is debatable (majority vote of a quorum). When a question is raised about the proper referral of a bill to committee, if the Speaker admits error in the referral of the bill to a committee, the bill may be re-referred by a majority vote of a quorum; however, if the Speaker does not admit error in the referral of the bill to committee, the bill may only be re-referred by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of a quorum. When a bill is re-referred to a committee, any previous committee recommendation is automatically stripped from the bill.

24.(a) When a motion is under consideration, only two (2) substitutes to that motion shall be in order. Only a motion applicable to the main motion and of a higher precedence upon recognition may be substituted for the motion under consideration. A substitute to the third degree shall not be in order. Unless specified otherwise by the presenter of the motion at the time the motion is made, a substitute motion shall apply to the main motion.

25. The motion to postpone indefinitely opens to debate all the merits of the proposition to which it is applied. It may not be applied to the motion to refer, or to suspend the rules, or to motions relating to the order of business.

25.(a) The motion for indefinite postponement and possible consideration by a joint interim committee shall be as follows: "Mr. Speaker, I move that consideration of _____ be postponed indefinitely and that consideration be given by the joint interim committee on _____ for a study of _____." (majority of membership).

26. The motion to limit or extend debate must specify time limitations. A substitute motion specifying a lesser time may be accepted.

27. Reconsideration:

27.(a) When a proposition has been made and carried or lost, it shall be in order for any member of the majority on the same or succeeding legislative day to move for the reconsideration thereof, or give notice of his/her intentions to do so and such motion shall take precedence over other questions except consideration of a conference report or a motion to adjourn: Provided, the motion or proposition shall only be considered during the period reserved for regular bills. The notice shall not be withdrawn after the said succeeding legislative day without the consent of the House, and thereafter any member may call it up for consideration: Provided, the notice to reconsider must be disposed of within three (3) legislative days following the day the vote was taken; provided, that such notice to reconsider cannot be given after the 57th day of a regular session or during a special session or fiscal session during which times a motion to reconsider must be disposed of immediately.

27.(b) The provisions of the rule that the motion may be made “by any member of the majority” is construed, in case of a tie, to mean the member of the prevailing side, and the same construction applies in the case of a two-thirds (2/3) vote. Where the yeas and nays have not been ordered recorded in the Journal, any member, irrespective of whether he/she voted with the majority or not, may make the motion to reconsider or give notice thereof; but a member who was absent or who was paired in favor of the majority contention and did not vote may not make a motion.

27.(c) A bill in the possession of the House is not considered passed or an amendment agreed to if a motion to reconsider is pending; the effect of the motion being to suspend the original proposition. A notice or motion to reconsider shall not be allowed unless the bill is in the House. A bill shall not leave the House once notice of reconsideration is given. When the motion to reconsider is decided in the affirmative, the question immediately recurs on the motion reconsidered. However, prior to consideration of the question at hand, the Speaker shall have the title, expressing the main contents of the proposition being reconsidered, read to the House. When the motion to reconsider is defeated, a second motion to reconsider may not be made.

27.(d) The motion to reconsider is agreed to by a majority of a quorum, even though the vote reconsidered requires a majority or more of the membership. Upon reconsideration when a proposition has been voted twice and either carried or lost it is considered "Clinched".

27.(e) A notice to reconsider is not debatable. A motion to reconsider is debatable when the item to which it applies is debatable.

27.(f) No bill, petition, memorial, or resolution referred to a committee or reported there-from for recommitment shall be brought back into the House on a motion to reconsider.

27.(g) The "Clincher" motion is two (2) motions in one (1); it is a motion to reconsider and to lay on the table. Having prevailed, the proposition shall not be again considered except by expunging the record. The "Clincher" motion is adopted by a majority of the membership. The Speaker shall accept a "Sound the Ballot" request after the "Clincher" has been adopted and before the next order of business is called.

27.(h) No “Clincher” motion shall be entertained on a bill passed during the morning hour or which has been represented to be non-controversial regardless of when passed. Prior to the 60th day of a session, no bill passed during the morning hour, or a bill appearing on the non-controversial bill calendar which has passed, shall be transmitted to the Senate until the expiration of the morning hour of the day next following its passage in which the House is in session.

28. No dilatory motion shall be entertained by the Speaker.

29. Two-thirds (2/3) of a quorum may suspend the rules, other than rules that require a two-thirds (2/3) or three-fourths (3/4) vote of the membership. (J.R. 12 - Suspending Joint Rules)

30. No standing rule or order shall be revised without one (1) day's notice being given thereof.

31. In every case not provided for in the House rules, the Speaker, the Parliamentarian, and the members shall be guided by Mason's Manual of Legislative Procedure. Each member of the Rules Committee may be furnished a copy of the current edition and of each new or revised edition of Mason's Manual of Legislative Procedure and additional copies may be available to other members from the Parliamentarian, upon approval of the Rules Committee.

19(l) Amend (debatable) (majority of a quorum);

19.(m) Postpone indefinitely (debatable) (majority of membership);

19.(n) Take out of proper order (non-debatable) (2/3 of a quorum);

19.(o) Special order of business (debatable) (2/3 of a quorum); and

19.(p) To suspend the rules (non-debatable) (2/3 of a quorum).

9) (House Rule 60(a)) All committee and subcommittee meetings including but not limited to hearings at which public testimony is to be taken, (normally called “public hearings”) shall be open to the public (Art. V, Sec. 13) and shall be scheduled at least eighteen (18) hours in advance; agendas of bills, resolutions, and other proposals to be considered at such meetings shall be posted in a designated place at least eighteen (18) hours in advance; but in case of an emergency, a two-thirds (2/3) majority of the membership of the committee may bring bills or resolutions up for consideration upon notice of not less than two (2) hours.

10) (House Rule 60(b)) Special meetings of a standing committee may be called by the chairperson of the committee or by a majority of the members of the committee for conducting any business of the committee; provided, a special meeting of the committee may not conflict with regularly scheduled meetings of any standing committee; provided further, special meetings shall be subject to the same procedures regarding the publishing of agendas and notices of meetings that apply to regular standing committee meetings.

11) (House Rule 61(a)) All persons wishing to offer testimony to a committee hearing shall be given a reasonable opportunity to do so as determined by a majority of the committee. An oral or written statement shall not be a prerequisite to offer testimony before a committee.

12) (House Rule 63) No committee shall sit while the House is in session except the Committee on Rules or a Conference Committee, which shall notify the House.

13) (House Rule 66(a)) A bill, resolution or amendment in a House committee, having been rejected twice, shall not be placed on the committee calendar again or considered again during the same legislative session unless the vote is expunged (two-thirds of the membership of the committee). The motion to expunge shall be placed on the committee agenda, by a committee member, and placed at the bottom of the active list. A bill or resolution may be amended before a second consideration; but, unless expunged, even an amended bill having failed twice shall not be placed on the calendar or considered. Notice of reconsideration not permitted in committee.

14) (House Rule 47(a)) When a bill or resolution is under consideration, amendments shall be in order. Upon adoption, amendments shall become a part of the bill or resolution. Amendments to amendments may not be offered. All amendments offered before the House or one of its committees must be typewritten on an approved amendment form and signed by the sponsor. All amendments shall be attached to the original bill or resolution, numbered by the Bill Clerk, and shall be placed upon the members' desks before being acted upon by the House.

(House Rule 38(e)) All amendments shall be entered on a separate sheet of paper noting the line or lines to be changed and the words to be deleted or inserted.

15) (House Rule 68) No bill or resolution shall be introduced with a committee as the author of said bill or resolution unless that committee has voted unanimously to sponsor the bill or resolution.

16) (House Rule 69) Committee Records and Reports

69(a) The chairperson of each committee of the House shall keep or cause to be kept a separate record for each committee meeting in which there shall be entered:

69(a) 1. The time and place of each hearing and each meeting of the committee.

69(a) 2. The number and title of the bill or resolution with one of the following three recommendations: "do pass", "do pass as amended", or "do not pass". If a committee recommends a bill or resolution "do pass as amended" and any of the amendments recommended by the committee are not adopted on the floor, the bill or resolution shall be re-referred to the same committee for further consideration and recommendation.

69(a) 3. A summary of each bill or resolution's major provisions which may be several paragraphs in length in case of major bills or resolutions or simply the title of the bill or resolution in the case of minor bills or resolutions.

69(a) 4. The reason for the committee's action on the bill or resolution, including a brief minority report, if requested by any two (2) committee members.

69(a) 5. A record of how every member voted on each bill or resolution when action is taken by the committee, including votes on a motion to postpone consideration on the bill or resolution and a recorded vote on any other motion, if requested by any two (2) committee members.

69(a) 6. A list of all people testifying before a committee on each bill or resolution, the interest that they represent, and an indication of their position on the bill or resolution.

17) (House Rule 69(b)) Such records for each separate committee meeting shall be approved by the chairperson before the expiration of a seven (7) day period, with the exception of those records referred to in (a) 1. and 2., hereinabove which shall be filed immediately with the Clerk of the House.

18) (House Rule 24 part) When a question is raised about the proper referral of a bill or resolution to committee, if the Speaker admits error in the referral of the bill or resolution to a committee, the bill or resolution may be re-referred by a majority vote of a quorum; however, if the Speaker does not admit error in the referral of the bill or resolution to committee, the bill or resolution may only be re-referred by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of a quorum. When a bill or resolution is re-referred to a committee, any previous committee recommendation is automatically stripped from the bill or resolution. When a motion is under consideration, only two (2) substitutes to that motion shall be in order. Only a motion applicable to the main motion and of a higher precedence upon recognition may be substituted for the motion under consideration. A substitute to the third degree shall not be in order. Unless specified otherwise by the presenter of the motion at the time the motion is made, a substitute motion shall apply to the main motion.

19) (House Rule 55 (a)) House Committee Staff will automatically and without delay place all bills or resolutions referred to the committees on the committee agendas. Staff will notify the sponsor of bills or resolutions assigned to committee. Referred bills shall be placed on the committee's active agenda in the order they are read across the desk on the House Floor. When an active agenda is established in a committee and bills from that agenda are not placed on the deferred list and if they are passed over, they are placed at the bottom of the list of the day's active agenda. Bills read across the desk on the House Floor later that same day or on a later day are placed on the active agenda in the order they are read below bills already on the active agenda.

20) After a bill or resolution has appeared on the Committee agenda and has been called up for consideration by the Committee and the sponsor of the bill or resolution or a representative is not present to present the bill or resolution, the bill or resolution will be placed on the active agenda two (2) additional times, but will be placed at the bottom of the active agenda.

21) If the sponsor or a representative is not present to present the bill or resolution when called up after the bill or resolution has appeared on the active agenda when called up during the third meeting, the bill or resolution will be automatically dropped from the active agenda and placed on the deferred list unless the sponsor notifies staff to put the bill or resolution back on the active agenda before the agenda is prepared, for the next called meeting. Requests to move bills or resolutions from the deferred list to the active agenda must be made by 2:30 p.m. two (2) days prior to the scheduled committee meeting. Bills moved from the deferred list to the active agenda shall be listed at the bottom of the active agenda. Bills on the deferred list may be moved to the active calendar as provided by rule for a total of three (3) times only. A suspension of this rule by the Committee (two-thirds of a quorum) will be required for each transfer of any bill having been moved three (3) times previously.

22) Bills or resolutions suggested as non-controversial will be considered before consideration of controversial bills or resolutions on the agenda. The objection of one (1) committee member to the consideration of a bill or resolution as non-controversial will automatically keep the bill or resolution from being considered as being non-controversial. Even though a bill or resolution has been considered as non-controversial, it will be necessary after a "do pass" or "do pass as amended" recommendation that a motion be made and there be unanimous consent of no less than a quorum of the Committee for a bill or resolution to be eligible to be placed on the House Non-controversial Calendar.

23) If a bill or resolution is discussed by a committee at a meeting, but is not voted on because of time limitations or because the vote is deferred to the next meeting, the bill or resolution will not lose its order on the agenda and will not be counted as having been considered.

24) The author/sponsor of a bill or resolution may make a presentation for his/her bill or resolution and may elect at that time to respond to questions from the committee members. Following the initial presentation, non-legislative---non-committee members will be allowed to alternately speak against and for the bill or resolution. A procedural motion made by a member of the committee and adopted by the committee to limit or end debate will be allowed to govern non-legislative--non-committee members' discussions. At the conclusion of the non-legislative--non-committee member proponent and opponent presentations, the sponsor may return to the podium and may elect to field questions from the committee members. Those questions should be limited to requests for clarification or the securing of information. Questions that are rhetorically offered and are dilatory for the effect of debate are discouraged. At this point, the chair will entertain motions from committee members only. For disposition of a proposition in a House Committee, procedural motions (limit debate, immediate consideration, etc.) are allowed only following a main motion (do pass, do not pass, do pass as amended, etc.). Discussion from that point forward is limited to committee members for and against the motion, if debatable, in alternating fashion. If immediate consideration is not adopted and if debate has not been limited and time has not expired, the sponsor of the motion will be allowed to close for his/her motion. During the closing, the sponsor of the motion may elect to field questions from committee members. At the conclusion of these presentations, a vote will be taken on the motion properly before the committee.

25) As determined by the presider courtesy may be extended to General Assembly members who are non-committee members who need to return to their own committee meetings.

26) (House Rule 66) Eleven (11) members of a standing committee constitute a committee quorum with the Speaker present if he/she is a member of the committee and ten (10) members when the Speaker is not present. A committee recommendation of a bill or resolution will require these same numbers.

27) Smoking is prohibited in the committee rooms and all adjoining rooms.

28) (House Rule 69(a)5) A roll call vote will be required if requested by any two (2) committee members, except for a quorum call which may be requested by one (1) member. The request for a quorum call is always in order.

29) When a roll call is required, the roll will be called by seniority with the vice chairperson being called next to last and the chairperson last. For a member's vote to be counted and recorded, he/she must vote "yes", "no" or "present".

30) During a roll call vote, when a member's name has been called twice and he/she does not respond, or when a member passes, they will not be allowed to vote at a later time on the current issue before the committee.

31) No seconds are required during the legislative process except those that are explicit in the rules, (roll call, previous question, sound the ballot, etc.)

32) (House Rule 38(p)) "Fiscal impact statement" means a realistic statement of the estimated financial cost of implementing or complying with a proposed law regarding:

(1) Municipalities;

(2) Counties;

(3) Education, as related to the State of Arkansas and local school districts grades kindergarten through twelve (K-12);

(4) Corrections, if imposing new or additional costs and restrictions on inmate population patterns or affecting programs or services of the Department of Correction; or

(5) Lottery, if amending Chapter 115 of Title 23 of the Arkansas Code or imposing a new or increased cost to the Arkansas Lottery Commission or a lottery.

33) (House Rule 38(q)) When any House or Senate bill or resolution requiring an expenditure of public funds or otherwise imposing a new or increased cost obligation is pending before any committee of the House of Representatives, any member of the committee may request that a fiscal impact statement for such bill or resolution be placed on the desk of each member of the committee before the bill or resolution is called up for final action in the committee. If such request is made, the chairperson of the committee shall refer the bill or resolution to the appropriate state agency or to the legislative staff for the preparation of a fiscal impact statement, to be returned to the committee in writing not later than five (5) days from the date of the request.

34) (House Rule 38(s)) Fiscal impact statements shall be made available to House Committees:

(1) At least three (3) days before the bill may be called up for final action in the House Committee during a regular legislative session or fiscal session of the General Assembly; and

(2) At least one (1) day before the bill may be called up for final action in the House Committee during a special session of the General Assembly.

Fiscal impact statements shall be made available to the full House of Representatives at least one (1) day before the bill may be called up for third reading and final action in the House of Representatives.

35) (House Rule 38(t)) Failure of the sponsor of a bill or resolution to provide the fiscal impact statement required in this rule shall not prohibit the consideration of it in the committee to which referred or on the floor of the House of Representatives, if no objection to it is made at the time such action is taken.

HOUSE BILL NO. 1006

BY: REPRESENTATIVE SHEPHERD

HOUSE RESOLUTION

A RESOLUTION TO ADOPT RULES OF PROCEDURE FOR COMMITTEES OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE NINETY-THIRD GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ARKANSAS.

Subtitle

TO ADOPT RULES OF PROCEDURE FOR COMMITTEES
OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE NINETY-THIRD GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ARKANSAS.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE NINETY-THIRD GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE
STATE OF ARKANSAS:

SECTION 1. The rules of procedure for committees of the House of Representatives of the Ninety-Third General Assembly of the State of Arkansas are adopted to read as follows:

2021 Regular Session House of Representatives
Rules for Committee Procedures

1. Purpose. In order to provide for continuity of government and the carrying out of its Constitutional responsibilities related to the regular legislative session, while also allowing for member, staff, and public participation in the legislative process in an environment that is as safe and healthy as possible, the House of Representatives of the Ninety-Third General Assembly of the State of Arkansas adopts these temporary emergency rules regarding the conduct of committee meetings for the 2021 Regular Session.

2. Duration. These rules shall continue until such time that the COVID-19 public health emergency for the State of Arkansas is terminated or allowed to expire. If the public health emergency is terminated or allowed to expire during the 2021 Regular Session, a majority of the members of the House of Representatives may vote to extend all provisions or specific provisions of these rules through sine die adjournment of the 2021 Regular Session.

3. Applicability. These rules shall apply to standing and select committees of the House of Representatives. In the event that the House of Representatives and the Senate adopt identical rules for committee procedures, these rules shall also apply to the following joint committees: Energy; and Public Retirement and Social Security Programs. If the rules adopted by the House of Representatives and the Senate are not identical, these rules will not apply to the joint committees and the joint committees may adopt rules of procedure that do not substantially diverge from the rules adopted by the House of Representatives and the Senate.

4. Conflict with Existing Rules. If the procedures set forth herein conflict with existing provisions of the Joint Rules or the Rules of the House of Representatives, these rules shall supersede those rules for the duration of these rules.

5. Meeting Schedule and Room Assignments. Committee meetings shall be held at the times and on the days indicated in the Committee Rooms/Meeting Assignments Table attached hereto as Attachment A. A committee chair may schedule a meeting at a time or in a meeting room other than what is listed on the schedule established in Attachment A, after consideration of availability of a committee room and corresponding public comment holding room and staff availability.

6. Committee Room Health and Safety Requirements. The following health and safety requirements shall be followed by all individuals, including members, staff, and members of the public in legislative committee meetings and public comment holding rooms. Failure of a member to abide by these health and safety requirements may cause him or her to not be recognized by the chair during a committee meeting. Continued violations of these requirements may result in discipline by the member's respective chamber. Other individuals violating these rules may be removed from the committee room or public comment holding room.

a. Assigned Seating. Committee member seating will be assigned for each committee. A legislator who is not a member of a committee shall not be seated at the committee table unless presenting a bill. Each committee room shall have a designated seating area for members waiting to present a bill to the committee. Member seating shall remain the same for the duration of the 2021 Regular Session.

b. Mask Requirement. A mask or other cloth face covering is required to be worn over the mouth and nose of every individual in committee rooms and public comment holding rooms at all times, except an individual who: is speaking directly into the microphone; is able to maintain physical distance of six (6) feet or more from other individuals; is consuming food or drink; or has a medical condition or disability that prevents wearing a face covering.

c. Physical Distancing. Every effort shall be made to maintain physical distancing of at least six (6) feet in the committee rooms and public comment holding rooms. Seating arranged to provide for this distance shall not be rearranged. Individuals are not permitted to enter the room once all available seating is filled.

d. Health Screening. All individuals shall have submitted to a temperature check and onsite health screening and been given an armband indicating admittance at the entrance to either the State Capitol Building or the MAC Building that calendar day prior to entering the House chamber, a committee room, or public comment holding room.

e. Removal of Trash. Committee members, staff, and members of the public shall remove and properly dispose of any trash he or she creates during the course of the committee meeting.

f. Security. The House shall place staff in all committee rooms and public comment holding rooms to ensure compliance by members of the public with room capacity limits, masking requirements, and physical distancing requirements.

7. Committee Agendas.

a. Referred Items List. As a bill or resolution is filed and assigned to a committee by each chamber, the bill or resolution shall be placed on the referred items list for the committee. The bills and resolutions on the referred items list are bills and resolutions that are referred to the committee but not currently on a committee agenda. In addition, a bill or resolution that has failed to pass one time in committee will revert to the referred items list. The committee chair will use the referred items list to create the regular agenda for each committee meeting.

b. Creation of Committee Agenda.

(1) Bills and resolutions pulled from the referred items list will be placed in one of the following three categories on the committee agenda:

(A) Regular Agenda – bills and resolutions to be considered by the committee on the date of the agenda;

(B) Consent Agenda – bills and resolutions on the committee agenda for which there is no known opposition or expected public testimony and that may be taken up at any time by the committee; or

(C) Deferred Bills – bills and resolutions for which committee consideration has been deferred either for failure of the sponsor to appear or at the request of the sponsor.

(2) It is the responsibility of a primary sponsor or the member who will be presenting the bill or resolution in committee to contact the committee chair to let the chair know that he or she is ready to have the bill or resolution placed on a committee agenda. The primary sponsor or the member who will be presenting the bill or resolution in committee shall advise the chair of:

(A) A specific date on which he or she is available to present his or her bill or resolution;

(B) Whether the bill or resolution is considered to be controversial;

(C) The number of witnesses he or she plans to bring with him or her to testify before the committee; and

(D) An estimate of the time the committee may need to consider the bill or resolution.

(3) The committee chair will provide committee staff with a list of bills and resolutions that will be considered at the next committee meeting and the order in which they will be taken up.

c. Consent Agenda.

(1) The chair may place a bill or resolution on the consent agenda if the sponsor has advised the chair that the bill or resolution has no known opposition and no public testimony to be given on the bill.

(2) Prior to including a bill or resolution on the consent agenda, the chair shall ask that the committee members review the list of bills and resolutions being added to the consent agenda, and the chair shall state that without objection the bills and resolutions will be placed on the consent agenda.

(3) If any member objects, the bill or resolution shall be moved to the referred items list.

(4) A bill or resolution that has been placed on the consent agenda may at any time be moved to the referred items list if the chair learns of opposition to the bill or resolution or at the request of the sponsor.

(5) A bill or resolution on the consent agenda may remain on the agenda for multiple meetings before being taken up by the committee, and its sponsor is not subject to the provisions of subsection 7.e. of this rule, regarding failure to appear to present the bill or resolution.

d. Posting Committee Agenda.

(1) The committee agenda shall be posted at least eighteen (18) hours prior to the committee meeting.

(2) The committee agenda shall state the room number for the public comment holding room to which members of the public should report to wait to be called to provide testimony on a bill or resolution.

e. Failure of Sponsor to Appear at Committee Meeting.

(1) The first time a bill or resolution appears on the regular agenda and the sponsor or his or her designee does not appear at the committee meeting to present his or her bill or resolution, the member's bill or resolution will be moved back to the referred items list. It is within the discretion of the chair to place the bill or resolution on the regular agenda for the next scheduled meeting of the committee.

(2) If a bill or resolution appears on a regular agenda three (3) times without the member or his or her designee appearing to present the bill or resolution, the bill or resolution will be moved to the deferred list.

f. Consideration of Bills and Resolutions. Only those items listed on the day's regular agenda or consent agenda shall be considered by the committee. Bills or resolutions shall not be called up from the referred items list with less than eighteen (18) hours' notice. This rule may be suspended by a vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the membership of the committee in order to allow the committee chair to create the agenda in a more expedient manner.

8. Public Participation. Due to restraints on space and physical distancing required in committee rooms and public comment holding rooms, only a member of the public who is present to testify on a bill or resolution that is listed on a committee agenda will be allowed in a committee room or public comment holding room. In order to allow for public participation in the legislative process during the public health emergency in a manner that provides for the health and safety of legislators, staff, and members of the public, public comment regarding bills and resolutions being considered by a committee shall be allowed in any of the following ways:

a. Committee Rooms.

(1) Agency Personnel. Each committee room shall have a designated seating area for state agency personnel that need to be present in the committee meeting to answer questions regarding various bills or resolutions related to their agency.

(2) Media. Each committee room shall have a designated seating area for members of the media.

(3) Other members of the public. Each committee room shall have a number of designated seating for members of the public who are present to testify on a specific bill or resolution for which testimony is currently being taken.

b. Public Comment Holding Rooms. Members of the public present in the State Capitol Building to present testimony on a bill or resolution listed on a committee agenda that is not currently being discussed in the committee will be sent to the public comment holding room or bullpen assigned to the specific committee. Each public comment holding room will have limited capacity with physically distanced seating. There will be no standing allowed in the public comment holding rooms. Once all available seating is full, no other individuals will be permitted in the room. Members of the public will wait in these designated areas until the bill or resolution on which they plan to testify is called. They will then be directed by House staff posted in the public comment holding room to the appropriate committee room to give testimony. Following presentation of his or her testimony, the individual will exit the committee room.

c. Public Comment Sign-In Sheets. Public comment sign-in sheets for each committee meeting will be posted electronically with the agenda on the General Assembly website and physically at each public comment holding room. An individual's name appearing on a public comment sign-in sheet is not a guarantee that the individual will have an opportunity to speak during the committee meeting.

d. Lobbyists. For purposes of these rules, a lobbyist is considered to be a member of the public and shall adhere to the rules regarding public participation and presence in committee rooms.

e. Additional Public Seating. Additional socially distanced seating areas will be designated throughout the State Capitol Building for use by members of the public.

9. Remote Participation.

a. Members.

(1) A member of a legislative committee who is either unwilling or unable to physically attend a meeting of a committee of which he or she is a member due to one of the following reasons shall be allowed to participate remotely via the electronic means designated by the House of Representatives for remote participation:

(2) The following shall apply regarding the deadline for submitting a request to participate remotely in committee:

(A) A committee member who wishes to participate remotely may submit a request to the Chief of Staff of the House of Representatives, who will submit that request to the Speaker of the House of Representatives for approval. The request shall be submitted no later than 4:00 p.m. on the day prior to the meeting at which the member wishes to participate remotely.

(B) If a member planning to be physically present is unable to attend a committee meeting due to a failed health screening or another reason listed under subsection 9.a.(1), he or she may be allowed to participate remotely under the provisions of these rules, and the 4:00 p.m. previous day requirement shall be waived.

(3) The Chief of Staff of the House of Representatives shall notify the requesting member and the chair of each committee on which the requesting member sits of the approval for the member to participate remotely in the committee proceedings.

(4) A member participating remotely shall be considered present and in attendance at the committee meeting, including for purposes of determining a quorum.

(5) A member participating remotely shall be able to be seen and heard while making any comments during debate, asking any questions of other members or of those testifying, and when submitting his or her vote.

(6)(A) If a member's remote connection is unintentionally disconnected or lost, the member will no longer count toward the quorum for the meeting and will not be able to vote on any motion before the committee until he or she is connected again and can be seen and heard in the committee room.

(B) If a member is unable to reconnect through remote technology that allows him or her to be seen and heard by the committee, a majority of the committee members may vote to allow the member to participate by phone for the purpose of voting, and that allowance shall only apply to the committee meeting at which that vote is taken.

(7) Committee staff shall record the names of all committee members that participated remotely on the committee report for each day.

SECTION 1. The Joint Rules of the House of Representatives and the Senate of the Ninety-Third General Assembly of the State of Arkansas are adopted to read as follows:

JOINT RULES
OF THE
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
AND THE SENATE

Joint Session - How Convened

Section 1. When, by the Constitution or laws of the state, a joint meeting of the Senate and House of Representatives is required, they shall assemble with their clerks on the day and at the hour previously agreed on for that purpose in the hall of the House of Representatives.

Officers of Joint Session

Section 2. When the meeting is assembled, the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House shall preside in conjunction, and the meeting shall be governed by such standing rules as shall have been adopted for that purpose by the concurrence of both houses. They shall have power to punish any person, other than a member, for disorderly or contemptuous behavior in their presence, by fine and imprisonment, in the same manner and to the same extent as either house may do, for like conduct before it, by the Constitution and laws of this state.

(A) Any member of either house who shall be guilty of disorderly behavior in the presence of the meeting may be punished by the house of which he or she is a member, in the same manner as if the offense had been committed in the presence of that house.

(B) The Secretary of the Senate and the Clerk of the House shall both keep records of the proceedings, to be entered on the Journal of their respective houses.

Manner of Presenting Bills, Etc.

Section 3. All bills, resolutions, votes and amendments by either house, to which the concurrence of both is necessary, as well as messages, shall be presented to the other by the Clerk or Secretary of the house from which they are sent or by the assistant secretary or assistant clerk.

Section 4. No bill or resolution shall be passed by either house containing more than one subject, which shall be expressed in the title. House bills and resolutions shall have at least one House sponsor, and Senate bills and resolutions shall have at least one Senate Sponsor. House bills, House concurrent resolutions, and House joint resolutions may have Senate sponsors, and Senate bills, Senate concurrent resolutions, and Senate joint resolutions may have House sponsors.

Notice of Bill Rejection

Section 5. When a bill or resolution which has passed one house shall be rejected by the other, notice thereof shall be given to the house in which the same shall have passed.

Engrossment of Bills

Section 6. After adoption of an amendment on the floor of the Senate, regardless whether the bill or resolution originated in the House or the Senate, the Senate shall engross the bill or resolution as amended. After the adoption of the amendment on the floor of the House of Representatives, regardless whether the bill or resolution originated in the House or the Senate, the House of Representatives shall engross the bill or resolution as amended.

Section 12. No joint rules shall be dispensed with but by a concurrent vote of two-thirds (2/3) of each house, and if either house shall violate a joint rule, the question of order may be raised in the other house, and decided in the same manner as in case of a violation of the rules of such house.

Page 8, Delete the EMERGENCY CLAUSE in its entirety and substitute the following:

" SECTION 18. EMERGENCY CLAUSE. It is found and determined by the General Assembly, that the Constitution of the State of Arkansas prohibits the appropriation of funds for more than a one (1) year period; that the effectiveness of this Act on July 1, 2021 is essential to the operation of the agency for which the appropriations in this Act are provided; with the exception that Section 13 in this Act shall be in full force and effect from and after the date of its passage and approval; and that in the event of an extension of the Session, the delay in the effective date of this Act beyond July 1, 2021, with the exception that Section 13 in this Act shall be in full force and effect from and after the date of its passage and approval, could work irreparable harm upon the proper administration and provision of essential governmental programs. Therefore, an emergency is hereby declared to exist and this Act being necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety shall be in full force and effect from and after July 1, 2021; with the exception that Section 13 in this Act shall be in full force and effect from and after the date of its passage and approval."

STATE OF ARKANSAS

ASA HUTCHINSON

GOVERNOR

February 10, 2021

TO THE SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE

Dear Mr. Speaker:

This is to inform you that I am not signing HOUSE BILL NO. 1211 into law; rather, it will go into effect without my signature.

Throughout the ongoing pandemic, it has been necessary for the executive branch to implement restrictions that limit the activity of Arkansas citizens and businesses in order to slow the spread and mitigate the damage of COVID-19.

Ensuring Arkansans' religious liberty and right to worship has been paramount in every decision made regarding these restrictions. Great care has been taken by the executive branch to avoid infringing on these sacred rights. Churches and religious institutions are specifically excluded from any directives that could be interpreted as applicable to them.

The language of this bill, particularly the emergency clause, suggests the response of the executive branch to COVID-19 "highlighted the need to address the constitutional rights of the citizens of Arkansas, particularly the right to free exercise of religion." This statement could not be more inaccurate.

In addition, I have concerns with the definition of "Governor" set forth in the bill. The definition includes a state or local governmental entity or official. This is contrary to the definition of Governor as set forth in the Arkansas Constitution.

For all the reasons set forth above, I will not sign HOUSE BILL NO. 1211.

Sincerely,

/s/ Asa Hutchinson

(B) The certificate of indigency shall be in a form approved by the Arkansas Public Defender Commission and shall be provided by the court in which the person is charged.

(C) The certificate of indigency shall be executed under oath by the person charged with the offense and shall state in bold print that a false statement is punishable as a Class D felony.

(D) Upon execution, the certificate of indigency shall be made a permanent part of the indigent person's records.

(E)(i) The certificate of indigency also shall function as a legally binding contractual agreement in which the person charged agrees that in exchange for legal representation provided by the state, he or she shall pay the amount ordered by the court, both upon the initial appointment of an attorney under subdivision (a)(2)(A) of this section and for any amount ordered by the court after the case has concluded.

(ii) The certificate of indigency shall contain a notice that reads, "Your state income tax refund, legal settlements or favorable verdicts, lottery winnings, or any moneys or property forfeited by the state shall be intercepted to satisfy this debt under Ark. Code Ann. § 16-87-217."

(2)(A) If the court in which the person is charged determines that the person qualifies for the appointment of an attorney by being indigent or partially indigent under standards set by the commission, the court, except as otherwise provided by this subchapter, shall appoint the trial public defender to represent the person before the court.

(B) The court shall not appoint an attorney prior to review of the submitted affidavit.

(b)(1) Notwithstanding subsection (a) of this section and under the limited circumstance that the mental incapacity of a defendant prevents the defendant from comprehending questioning by the court concerning his or her indigency and for the purpose of expediting the criminal proceeding, the court may summarily appoint an attorney for a defendant in a criminal proceeding that carries the possibility of incarceration.

(2) If an appointed attorney subsequently questions the indigency of the defendant, the appointed attorney may seek to be relieved as attorney of record.

~~(b)(1)(c)(1)~~ At the time of appointment of an attorney, the court immediately shall assess a fee of not less than ten dollars ($10.00) nor more than four hundred dollars ($400) to be paid to the commission in order to defray the costs of the public defender system.

(2) The fee under subdivision ~~(b)(1)(c)(1)~~ of this section may be waived if the court finds such an assessment to be too burdensome.

(3) The fee under subdivision ~~(b)(1)(c)(1)~~ of this section shall be collected at the beginning of the proceeding and is separate from any additional attorney's fee that might be assessed by the court.

(4)(A) The commission shall deposit the money collected under subdivision ~~(b)(1)(c)(1)~~ of this section into a separate account within the State Central Services Fund entitled "Public Defender User Fees" to which access shall only be available to the commission.

(B) The commission may carry over any funds remaining in the separate account under subdivision ~~(b)(4)(A)(c)(4)(A)~~ of this section at the end of the fiscal year to the subsequent year.

~~(e)(d)~~ All fees under this subchapter shall be collected by the county or city official, agency, or department designated under § 16-13-709 as primarily responsible for the collection of fines assessed in the circuit courts and district courts of this state, and the collecting county or city official, agency, or department shall remit to the commission by the tenth day of each month all of the fees collected on forms provided by the commission.

~~(d)(e)~~ The appointing court may at any time review and redetermine whether or not a person is an indigent person who qualifies for the appointment of an attorney pursuant to this subchapter.

~~(e)(f)~~ This section does not bar a prosecution for perjury or other offenses based on misrepresentation of financial status."

MEMORANDUM

TO: Whom It May Concern
FROM: House Committee on the Journal; Engrossed and Enrolled Bills
DATE: February 22, 2021
SUBJECT: Amendment #2 to HOUSE BILL NO. 1361

The House Committee on the Journal; Engrossed and Enrolled Bills, by this letter, approves the correction of an error in Amendment #2 to HB1361 that was read and adopted on February 10, 2021. Amendment #2 was a duplicate amendment to #1 that was read and adopted on February 8, 2021.

The two amendments had different drafting codes; however, the language was identical. Therefore, it is not necessary to incorporate #2 into the current version of the bill.

The Committee authorizes the Chief Clerk to carry out the intent of the amendment by correctly engrossing HB1361.

"SECTION 1. Arkansas Code Title 20, Chapter 6, is amended to add an additional subchapter to read as follows:

Subchapter 4 — No Patient Left Alone Act

20-6-401. Title.

This subchapter shall be known and may be cited as the "No Patient Left Alone Act".

20-6-402. Legislative findings.

The General Assembly finds that:

(1) The coronavirus 2019 (COVID-19) pandemic has caused great uncertainty and anxiety across the state and has significantly affected the medical community, including hospitals;

(2) Healthcare facilities have made many efforts to maintain a safe environment for patients and employees and have worked to minimize, to the extent possible, the risk of spread of coronavirus 2019 (COVID-19);

(3) There have been unintended consequences of these preventative measures for patients who have not been diagnosed with coronavirus 2019 (COVID-19);

(4) Across the state, patients who have not been diagnosed with coronavirus 2019 (COVID-19) have been prohibited from having any visitors;

(5) As a result, many patients who were not diagnosed with coronavirus 2019 (COVID-19) have been required to be alone during their treatment for serious conditions, traumas, illnesses, and routine and emergency surgeries;

(6) Some of these patients have been required to be alone for the entire course of their treatment and in some cases have died alone;

(7) Many families have been unable to be physically present with their loved ones who are being treated in a healthcare facility and have been limited to electronic video communications, if any, with their loved ones; and

(8) It is in the interest of the state and its citizens that a patient be allowed at least one (1) support person who is permitted to be physically present with the patient on a daily basis at reasonable times throughout his or her hospitalization, visit to the office of a healthcare professional, or institutionalization.

20-6-403. Definitions.

(1) Execute an advance directive or a physician order for life-sustaining treatment as a condition of receiving treatment or visitation; or

(2) Agree to a do-not-resuscitate or similar order as a condition of receiving treatment or visitation.

(c) This section does not affect any obligation of a healthcare professional or healthcare facility to:

(1) Provide patients with effective communication supports or other reasonable accommodations in accordance with federal and state laws; or

(2) Make exceptions to the visitor policy of a healthcare facility as a reasonable accommodation under the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, 42 U.S.C. § 12101 et seq., as existing on January 1, 2021.

20-6-405. Hospital or office of healthcare professional visitation.

(a)(1) A child has the right to have a parent, legal guardian, or person standing in loco parentis physically present with the child while the child receives care in a hospital or an office of a healthcare professional.

(2) An adult patient has the right to have a spouse, support person, or legal guardian physically present with the adult patient while the adult receives care in a hospital or an office of a healthcare professional.

(3) A person with a right to be physically present under subdivisions (a)(1) and (2) of this section may leave and return to the hospital or office of a healthcare professional that is caring for the patient.

(b) A hospital or an office of a healthcare professional shall not:

(1) Require a patient to waive the rights specified in subdivisions (a)(1) and (2) of this section;

(2) Prevent a parent, legal guardian, or person standing in loco parentis of a child receiving care in a hospital or an office of a healthcare professional from having daily physical access to the child at reasonable times; or

(3) Separate the parent, legal guardian, or person standing in loco parentis of a child receiving care in a hospital or an office of a healthcare professional from the child except in cases of suspected abuse or threats of violence or to prevent disruption to the care of the child.

(c) A hospital or an office of a healthcare professional may restrict access of any person to a patient:

(1) At the request of the patient or a law enforcement agency;

(2) Due to a court order;

(3) To prevent disruption to the care of the patient;

(4)(A) If the person has signs and symptoms of a transmissible infection.

(B) However, the hospital or office of a healthcare professional shall allow access through telephone, telecommunication means, or other means that ensure the protection of the patient.

(C) The person shall follow respiratory hygiene and cough etiquette as well as other infection prevention and control practices such as appropriate hand hygiene;

(5) If the person is determined to be a danger to the patient or to be contrary to the welfare of the patient; or

(6) According to visitation policies established under § 20-6-411.

20-6-406. Hospice facility visitation.

A patient who is receiving hospice care or the guardian, spouse, or support person of a patient who is receiving hospice care may designate additional family members and friends who may be physically present with the patient at reasonable times.

20-6-407. Long-term care facility visitation.

(a)(1) A long-term care facility shall allow compassionate care visitation as needed by the resident to alleviate physical or mental distress.

(2) Personal contact in person with a resident is permitted during a compassionate care visitation if the long-term care facility protocol is followed.

(3) A long-term care facility shall adopt a protocol for personal contact in person that adheres to appropriate infection prevention guidelines disseminated by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention or the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services.

(b) A long-term care facility shall work with residents, families, caregivers, resident representatives, and medical providers, and may include the ombudsman program under § 20-10-602 to identify the need for compassionate care visitation, using a person-centered approach that takes the residents requests into account.

(c)(1) A long-term care facility shall ensure that decisions regarding end-of-life care are made by a resident with capacity or by the representative of a resident without capacity, as provided in the Arkansas Healthcare Decisions Act, § 20-6-101 et seq.

(2) Within the scope of visitation provided by this section, a long-term care facility shall permit a resident making decisions regarding end-of-life care to be accompanied by a family member, guardian, or support person designated by the resident, unless the resident declines or requests to have the discussion outside of the presence of a family member, guardian, or support person.

(d)(1) Compassionate care visitation shall continue even if the infection rate in the county in which the long-term care facility is located is high.

(2) However, a long-term care facility shall identify one (1) or more ways to allow a compassionate care visitation, including personal contact, that minimize the risk of infection to the resident and other residents in the long-term care facility.

(3)(A) In a long-term care facility with no new onset of coronavirus 2019 (COVID-19) in the last fourteen (14) days and in counties with coronavirus 2019 (COVID-19) positivity rates that are less than ten percent (10%), a long-term care facility shall accommodate and support indoor visitation for reasons beyond compassionate care visitation.

(B) A long-term care facility may limit:

(i) The number of visitors per resident at one (1) time based on the size of the building and physical space; and

(ii) Movement in the long-term care facility, such as requiring the visitor to go directly to the resident's room or designated visitation area.

(C) Visits for residents who share a room shall not be conducted in a resident's room, unless the health status of the resident prevents leaving the room

(e) Healthcare workers who are not employees of the long-term care facility but provide direct care to a resident in the long-term care facility, such as hospice workers, emergency medical services personnel, dialysis technicians, laboratory technicians, radiology technicians, and social workers, shall be permitted into the long-term care facility if proper infection control protocols are followed.

(f) A long-term care facility that fails to facilitate compassionate care visitation without adequate justification related to clinical necessity or resident safety may be in violation of 42 C.F.R. 483.10(f)(4), as it existed on January 1, 2021.

(g) To the extent permitted by state and federal law, the appropriate state agency or licensing board shall investigate and may penalize a long-term care facility's failure to comply with this section.

20-6-408. Clergy member or lay person offering religious or spiritual support visitation.

A clergy member or lay person offering religious or spiritual support may be physically present with a patient to pray with or offer spiritual support for the patient while the patient receives care in a healthcare facility.

20-6-409. Informational materials.

(a)(1) Within thirty (30) days of the effective date of this act, the Department of Health and the Department of Human Services shall develop informational materials regarding this subchapter.

(2) The Department of Health and the Department of Human Services shall present informational materials regarding this subchapter to the:

- (A) Senate Committee on Public Health, Welfare, and Labor;

(b) A healthcare facility shall make the informational materials regarding this subchapter accessible:

- (1) Upon admission or registration; and
- (2) On the website of the healthcare facility.

(c) Every sixty (60) days or upon the release of relevant federal guidelines, the Department of Health, with input from the long-term care industry and the hospital industry, shall reevaluate and update the directives where needed to allow for the maximum visitation possible under federal guidelines.

(d) Information and directives produced by this state that provide guidance about visitation shall take into consideration and include the highest amount possible of privacy and dignity for interaction between patients and visitors.

20-6-410. Complaints.

(a) An individual may file a complaint against a healthcare professional or healthcare facility for failing to comply with this subchapter with the appropriate state agency or licensing board, including the Department of Health and the Department of Human Services.

(b) The appropriate state agency or licensing board shall investigate the complaint.

20-6-411. Visitation limits or restrictions.

A healthcare facility may establish visitation policies that limit or restrict visitation when:

- (1) The presence of visitors would be medically or therapeutically contraindicated;
- (2) The presence of visitors would interfere with the care of or rights of any patient;
- (3) Visitors are engaging in disruptive, threatening, or violent behavior toward any staff member, patient, or other visitor; or
- (4) Visitors are noncompliant with healthcare facility policy.

20-6-412. Liability of healthcare facilities.

(b) This subchapter does not:

(1) Affect the rights of a legal guardian or holder of a power of attorney; or

(2) Waive or change the long-term care facility residents' rights under § 20-10-1204.

(c) The requirements under this subchapter shall be established as a minimum for visitation in a healthcare facility but does not limit visitation at a healthcare facility to only visitation outlined in this subchapter.

HOUSE BILL NO. 1488

BY: REPRESENTATIVE GONZALES

For An Act To Be Entitled

AN ACT TO AMEND CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF ARKANSAS CODE THAT RESULTED FROM INITIATED ACT 4 OF 1948; TO CLARIFY THE INTENTIONAL TORT EXCEPTION TO THE EXCLUSIVE REMEDY DOCTRINE UNDER THE WORKERS' COMPENSATION LAW WITH REGARD TO CORONAVIRUS 2019 (COVID-19); TO DECLARE AN EMERGENCY; AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES.

Subtitle

TO AMEND CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF ARKANSAS CODE THAT RESULTED FROM INITIATED ACT 4 OF 1948; TO CLARIFY THE WORKERS' COMPENSATION LAW; AND TO DECLARE AN EMERGENCY.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ARKANSAS:

SECTION 1. TEMPORARY LANGUAGE. DO NOT CODIFY. Legislative intent.

(a) It is the intent of the General Assembly to clarify and provide sufficient recourse under the Workers' Compensation Law, § 11-9-101 et seq., for employees to receive workers' compensation benefits during the coronavirus 2019 (COVID-19) outbreak.

(b) This act is intended to be retroactive to March 11, 2020, and to remain in effect for claims filed until May 1, 2023, for the purposes of providing coverage to employees for illness or injury sustained as a result of the coronavirus 2019 (COVID-19) outbreak.

SECTION 2. Arkansas Code § 11-9-105(a), concerning exclusivity of rights and remedies under the Workers' Compensation Law and resulting from Initiated Act 4 of 1948, is amended to read as follows:

(a)(1) The rights and remedies granted to an employee subject to the provisions of this chapter, on account of injury or death, shall be exclusive of all other rights and remedies of the employee, his or her legal representative, dependents, next of kin, or anyone otherwise entitled to recover damages from the employer, or any principal, officer, director, stockholder, or partner acting in his or her capacity as an employer, or prime contractor of the employer, on account of the injury or death, and the negligent acts of a coemployee shall not be imputed to the employer.

(2) ~~No~~ A role, capacity, or persona of any employer, principal, officer, director, or stockholder other than that existing in the role of employer of the employee shall not be relevant for consideration for purposes of this chapter, and the remedies and rights provided by this chapter shall in fact be exclusive regardless of the multiple roles, capacities, or personas the employer may be deemed to have.

(3) Requiring an employee to perform work when the employer has knowledge that, within the normal course and scope of the employee's job performance, exposure to coronavirus 2019 (COVID-19) or severe acute respiratory syndrome coronavirus 2 (SARS-CoV-2) or any of its mutations is possible, likely, or certain is not intentional conduct that would remove the employer from the protections of this chapter.

SECTION 3. Arkansas Code § 11-9-601(e), concerning the definition of "occupational disease" as used in the Workers' Compensation Law, is amended to read as follows:

(e)(1)(A) "Occupational disease", as used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires, means ~~any~~ a disease that results in disability or death and arises out of and in the course of the occupation or employment of the employee or naturally follows or unavoidably results from an injury as that term is defined in this chapter.

(B) However, a causal connection between the occupation or employment and the occupational disease ~~must~~ shall be established by a preponderance of the evidence.

(2) ~~No compensation~~ Compensation shall not be payable for any contagious or infectious disease unless contracted in the course of employment in or immediate connection with a hospital or sanitorium in which persons suffering from that disease are cared for or treated.

(3)(A) ~~No compensation~~ Except as applicable to coronavirus 2019 (COVID-19) or severe acute respiratory syndrome coronavirus 2 (SARS-CoV-2) or any of its mutations, compensation shall not be payable for any ordinary disease of life to which the general public is exposed.

(B) Coronavirus 2019 (COVID-19) or severe acute respiratory syndrome coronavirus 2 (SARS-CoV-2) or any of its mutations may be established as an occupational disease if all requirements for occupational diseases provided by law are established by the claimant, including the requirements stated in subdivisions (e)(1)(A) and (B) of this section, for the exception provided under subdivision (e)(3)(A) of this section to apply.

SECTION 4. DO NOT CODIFY. RETROACTIVITY. Sections 2 and 3 of this act apply to workers' compensation claims accruing on or filed on and after March 11, 2020.

SECTION 5. DO NOT CODIFY. Temporary legislation.

This act expires on May 1, 2023, unless extended by the General Assembly.

SECTION 6. EMERGENCY CLAUSE. It is found and determined by the General Assembly of the State of Arkansas that the risk of exposure to coronavirus 2019 (COVID-19) or to severe acute respiratory syndrome coronavirus 2 (SARS-CoV-2) or any of its mutations creates uncertainty for employees and employers in Arkansas, causing businesses to remain closed and unemployment for Arkansans to increase causing financial concerns for both employees and employers; that protecting employees and employers in Arkansas from the threat of coronavirus 2019 (COVID-19) or of severe acute respiratory syndrome coronavirus 2 (SARS-CoV-2) or any of its mutations and from the impact on employment can encourage businesses to stay open, provide protection for employees returning to work, and thereby reduce unemployment for Arkansans; and that this act is immediately necessary because employees and employers need protection from the threat of exposure to coronavirus 2019 (COVID-19) or to severe acute respiratory syndrome coronavirus 2 (SARS-CoV-2) or any of its mutations and from the impact felt on businesses in Arkansas in order to remain open, return to work, and be able to conduct business in Arkansas. Therefore, an emergency is declared to exist, and this act being immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health, and safety shall become effective on:

(1) The date of its approval by the Governor;

(2) If the bill is neither approved nor vetoed by the Governor, the expiration of the period of time during which the Governor may veto the bill; or

(3) If the bill is vetoed by the Governor and the veto is overridden, the date the last house overrides the veto.

Was read the third time and placed on final passage, the question being shall the Bill pass and shall the Emergency Clause be adopted. The vote was as follows:

AFFIRMATIVE: Barker, Beaty, M. Berry, S.
