ACT 959 OF 1993
HOUSE BILL 1982

For An Act To Be Entitled

8 "THE ARKANSAS RESIDENTIAL INTERIOR DESIGNERS TITLE
9 REGISTRATION ACT."

Subtitle

12 "THE ARKANSAS RESIDENTIAL INTERIOR DESIGNERS TITLE
13 REGISTRATION ACT."

15 BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ARKANSAS:

17 SECTION 1. Short Title. This act may be cited as the Arkansas
18 Residential Interior Designers Title Registration Act.

20 SECTION 2. Purpose. The purpose of this act is to register and 21 regulate persons known as registered residential interior designers, in the 22 public interest, and to prohibit the use of the title "Registered Residential 23 Interior Designer" by persons who are not registered.

25 SECTION 3. Definitions. In this act:

26 (a) "Board" means the State Board of Residential Interior Design.

27 (b) "Registered Residential Interior Designer" means a person
28 registered under this act. The Registered Residential Interior Designer is a 29 design professional who is qualified by education, experience and examination
30 as authorized by an authority. In general, a registered residential interior 31 designer performs services including preparation of working drawings and 32 documents relative to non-load bearing interior construction, materials, 33 finishes, space planning, furnishings, fixtures, and equipment. Except as 34 provided herein, residential interior design services do not include services
35 that constitute the practice of architecture as defined in Arkansas
36 Architectural Act; Arkansas Code Annotated 17-14-101 or the practice of

1 engineering as defined in Arkansas Engineering Act; Arkansas Code Annotated
2 17-27-101.

3

4 SECTION 4. State Board of Registered Residential Interior Designers.

5 (a) There is created the Board of Registered Residential Interior
6 Designers. The board shall consist of seven (7) members. Of the seven (7)
7 members of the board, five (5) shall be registered residential interior
8 designers (one (1) may be a professional full-time design educator, registered 9 or unregistered); one (1) shall be an architect licensed by the State Board of 10 Architects who provides design services; and one (1) shall be a consumer. In 11 lieu of registration, the initial residential interior design members (other 12 than the design educator) must have been offering residential interior design
13 services for at least six (6) years, be otherwise eligible to be registered,
14 and become registered within one (1) year of the effective date of this act.

15 (b) The initial members of the board shall be appointed by the Governor
16 for such staggered terms as will result in one member_s term of office
17 expiring after one year; two member_s terms of office expiring after two 18 years; one member_s term of office expiring after three years; two member_s
19 terms of office expiring after four years; and one member_s term of office
20 expiring after five years. Thereafter, members shall be appointed for terms
21 of five years in such a manner that the terms of not more than two members
22 expire in one year. Vacancies shall be filled by appointment by the Governor
23 for the unexpired term. No board member shall serve consecutive terms.

24 (c) A majority of the members on the board shall constitute a quorum.
25 Decisions of the board shall be made by a majority vote of a quorum.

26 (d) The board shall hold a meeting within thirty (30) days after its 27 members are first appointed, and thereafter shall hold at least two (2)
28 regular meetings each year and such other meetings as deemed necessary.

29 (e) The board shall elect annually from its members: a chairman and 30 vice chairman to hold office for one (1) year and an executive secretary who 31 may or may not be a member of the board. The executive secretary shall hold 32 such office at the pleasure of the board and may receive a salary determined 33 by the board.

34

35 SECTION 5. Powers and Duties of the Board. The board:

1 (a) shall administer, coordinate and enforce the provisions of this 2 act;

3 (b) may investigate allegations of misconduct and suspend registrations
4 concerning the provisions of this act;

5 (c) shall adopt regulations in the manner prescribed by the 6 Administrative Procedure Act to carry out the purposes and policies of this 7 act, including regulations relating to professional conduct, standards of 8 performance and professional examination and registration, registration 9 renewal requirements, application, renewal and late fees, suspension and 10 revocation of registrations, and the establishment of a code of ethics for 11 persons registered under this act;

12 (d) shall set fees for registration, registration renewals,
13 examinations, and all other administrative expenses;

14 (e) may require a registrant, as a condition of the renewal of his/her 15 registration, to satisfy continuing education requirements;

16 (f) shall maintain an official roster showing the name, address and 17 registration number of each interior designer registered under this act;

18 (g) shall require registrants to display their registration number on 19 all business and advertising instruments, including business cards, stationery
20 and contracts;

21 (h) shall conduct hearings and keep records and minutes necessary to 22 carry out its functions;

23 (i) may, to the extent monies are appropriated therefor, employ an 24 executive secretary and other employees and fix their compensation; and

25 (j) shall do all things reasonable and necessary to carry out the 26 purposes of this act.

27

28 SECTION 6. Penalties. Effective January 1, 1994, it shall be a Class A 29 misdemeanor for any person to:

30 (a) use the title Registered Residential Interior Designer, unless 31 registered under this act;

32 (b) present as his own the registration of another;

33 (c) give false or forged evidence to the board or any member thereof in 34 obtaining a registration;

35 (d) falsely impersonate any other practitioner, of like or different

1 name;

2 (e) use or attempt to use a registration that has been revoked; or

3 (f) otherwise violate any of the provisions of this act.

4

5 SECTION 7. Compensation and Expenses.

6 (a) Board members shall serve without compensation but may, to the 7 extent monies are appropriated therefor, be entitled to reimbursement for

8 expenses as determined by the board under the standard state travel

9 regulations.

10 (b) The board shall fix the compensation of its employees by resolution

11 adopted at a regular meeting of the board.

12

13 SECTION 8. Requirements for Registration.

14 (1) Each applicant for registration shall provide substantial evidence

15 to the board that the applicant has taken and passed the Council for

16 Qualification of Residential Interior Designers (CQRID) examination; and 17 (2) is a graduate of a five-year interior design program from an 18 accredited institution and has completed at least one year of diversified and

19 appropriate residential interior design experience; or

20 (3) is a graduate of a four-year interior design program or a masters

21 degree program in interior design from an accredited institution and has

22 completed at least two years of diversified and appropriate residential

23 interior design experience; or

24 (4) has completed at least three (3) years of an interior design

25 curriculum from an accredited institution and has completed three (3) years of 26 diversified and appropriate residential interior design experience; or

27 (5) is a graduate of a two-year interior design program from an

28 accredited institution and has completed four years of diversified and

29 appropriate residential interior design experience; or

30 (6) is a licensed architect certified by the Arkansas State Board of

31 Architects;

32 (7) all interior design programs must be an interior design program of 33 an institution accredited by the North Central Association of Colleges and

34 Schools, or a program determined by the board to be substantially equivalent

35 to such accredited program.

1 (8) Four (4) years from date of passage, paragraphs (4) and (5) of this
2 section shall become null and void.

3 (9) Six (6) years from date of passage, completion of a monitored
4 internship development program may be required as part or all of the 5 residential interior design experience requirement.

6

7 SECTION 9. Registration of Interior Designers.

8 (a) It is unlawful for any person who, after January 1, 1994, is not 9 registered under this act as a residential interior designer to advertise as a
10 Registered Residential Interior Designer, to use the title "Registered 11 Residential Interior Designer" or any other words, letters, figures or other 12 devices for the purpose of implying, directly or indirectly that the person is 13 registered under this act.

14 (b) It is unlawful for any company, partnership, association,
15 corporation, or other similar organization, after January 1, 1994, to 16 advertise that it is in the position to provide the services of a registered 17 residential interior designer unless the persons providing such services are 18 in the responsible charge of a registered residential interior designer.

19 (c) An applicant for registration as a residential interior designer
20 shall establish to the satisfaction of the board that the applicant:

21 (1) is at least twenty-one years of age;

22 (2) has not been convicted of an offense that bears directly on the 23 fitness of the applicant to be registered;

24 (3) has passed or supplied proof of passage of the examination required 25 by this act; and

26 (4) meets any other requirements established by the board.

27

28 SECTION 10. Existing Interior Designers. Any person who applies for 29 registration and remits the application and initial registration fees no later
30 than December 31, 1994 shall be registered by the board without taking any 31 further written examination, provided that:

32 (a) The applicant has satisfactory evidence of having used or been 33 identified by the title "interior designer" and has a combination of interior
34 design education and diversified and appropriate interior design experience
35 totaling at least two (2) years and has taken and passed the Council for

1 Qualification of Residential Interior Designer's (CQRID) examination.

2 (b) A person shall be deemed to have used or been identified by the 3 title "interior designer" within the meaning of this section if such person 4 demonstrated to the satisfaction of the board that such person was, either on 5 his own account, which means self-employed, or in the course of regular 6 employment, rendering or offering to render to another person interior design
7 services as defined in Section 3(a) of this act.

8

9 SECTION 11. Reciprocal Registration. The board shall waive
10 examination requirements for an individual who provides proof of passage of 11 the Council for Qualification of Residential Interior Designers examination 12 and who is registered, licensed, or certified as an interior designer in 13 another state, the District of Columbia, or a foreign country providing that 14 jurisdiction_s requirements for registration are substantially equivalent to 15 those required for registration in this state.

16

17 SECTION 12. Exemptions - Use of the Title.

18 (a) This act shall not apply to persons holding themselves out as 19 "interior decorators" or offering "interior decorating services", such as 20 selection or assistance in selecting surface materials, window treatments,
21 wallcoverings, paint, floor coverings, surface mounted lighting or loose
22 furnishings not subject to regulation under applicable building codes.

23 (b) Nothing contained in this act shall prevent any person from 24 rendering residential interior design services, provided such person does not 25 use the title "Registered Residential Interior Designer" unless registered
26 under this act. This act shall not apply to architects licensed by the State
27 Board of Architects providing that such architects not refer to themselves as 28 "registered residential interior designers" unless registered by this act.

29

30 SECTION 13. Registration Renewal.

31 (a) Every registered residential interior designer shall annually renew
32 his or her registration, submit proof of completion of continuing education 33 units as required by the board, and pay the renewal fee established by the 34 board. It is unlawful for any residential interior designer who fails to 35 renew his or her registration to continue to use the title "Registered

1 Residential Interior Designer".

2 (b) Every registration shall expire annually on a day designated by the 3 board.

4

5 SECTION 14. All monies collected by the board under this act shall be 6 deposited into a financial institution in this state designated by the board.
7 No general revenues of this state shall be appropriated to the board.

8

9 SECTION 15. All provisions of this act of a general and permanent
10 nature are amendatory to the Arkansas Code of 1987 Annotated and the Arkansas
11 Code Revision Commission shall incorporate the same in the Code.

12

13 SECTION 16. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to 14 any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect 15 other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without 16 the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this 17 act are declared to be severable.

18

19 SECTION 17. All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this act are 20 hereby repealed.
