(2) Catastrophic leave for maternity purposes may be granted to a female employee after:

(A) The birth of the employee’s biological child; or

(B) The placement of an adoptive child in the home of the employee.

(2)(A) At the onset of the illness or injury the employee had to his or her credit at least eighty (80) hours of combined sick and annual leave and has exhausted all such leave, unless the combined sick and annual leave requirement is waived under subdivision (d)(2)(B) of this section.

(B) A state agency director or a president of an institution of higher education may waive the minimum eighty-hour requirement for combined sick and annual leave if the agency director determines that the employee warrants eligibility because of extraordinary circumstances under the standards and guidelines promulgated under subdivision (f)(2) of this section;

(C)(i) An employee on catastrophic leave for maternity purposes is not required to exhaust sick or annual leave before being granted catastrophic leave.

(ii) An employee on catastrophic leave for maternity purposes does not accrue any leave.

(3)(A) An acceptable medical certificate from a physician supporting the continued absence is on file; and

(4)(5) The employee has not been disciplined for any leave abuse during the past two (2) years one (1) year from the time of application.

(e)(1) Up to four (4) consecutive weeks of catastrophic leave with full pay may be granted to an employee for maternity purposes.
(2) The employee shall be eligible for the leave only within the first twelve (12) weeks after the birth or adoption of a child.

(3) After the expiration of the four (4) weeks of leave under subdivision (e)(1) of this section, maternity leave shall be treated as any other leave for sickness or disability under to § 21-4-209.

(f) If the illness or injury is that of an employee and is covered by workers’ compensation, the compensation based on catastrophic leave when combined with the weekly workers’ compensation benefit received by the employee shall not exceed the compensation being received by the employee at the onset of the illness or injury.

(g) The Director of the Department of Finance and Administration, or the director’s designee, shall promulgate rules and regulations establishing policies and procedures:

(1) As deemed necessary to carry out the provisions of this section; and

(2) To prescribe the standards and guidelines of the extraordinary circumstances that the state agency director or the president of an institution of higher education may use to waive the minimum requirement for combined sick and annual leave.

SECTION 5. Arkansas Code § 21-4-217 is repealed.

21-4-217. Shared leave—Definition.

(a) As used in this section, “employee” means a person regularly appointed or employed in a position of state service by a governmental entity listed in subdivision (b)(1) of this section for which he or she is compensated on a full-time basis.

(b) An employee is eligible to obtain shared leave if the employee has:

(l) Been continuously employed for more than one (1) year by

   (3) An employee donating shared leave may donate only the amount of earned sick leave or earned annual leave that will not cause the donating employee’s cumulative earned sick leave and earned annual leave to be less than eighty (80) hours.

   (4) An employee may receive a maximum of two thousand eighty (2,080) hours of combined shared leave and catastrophic leave in a calendar year.

   (e) An employee who is granted shared leave shall provide his or her employer:

       (1) An acceptable medical certificate from a healthcare provider documenting the severe illness or the birth of the employee’s biological
(2) A final decree of adoption issued by a court of competent jurisdiction approving the adoption of a child by an employee; or

(3) Documentation provided by the Division of Children and Family Services of the Department of Human Services approving the placement of a foster child in the foster home of the employee.

(f) Shared leave that is donated to an employee and is not used by the employee shall be converted to the catastrophic leave program as described under § 21-4-214.

(g) The Office of Personnel Management of the Division of Management Services of the Department of Finance and Administration shall establish procedures and guidelines to implement this section.

SECTION 6. EMERGENCY CLAUSE. It is found and determined by the General Assembly of the State of Arkansas that it is in the best interest of the state to provide paid maternity leave to state employees; that this act is necessary because it provides a state employee the option to participate in a paid maternity leave program; and that this act is immediately necessary so that current public employees may utilize the paid maternity leave program as soon as possible. Therefore, an emergency is declared to exist, and this act being immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health, and safety shall become effective on:

(1) The date of its approval by the Governor;

(2) If the bill is neither approved nor vetoed by the Governor, the expiration of the period of time during which the Governor may veto the bill; or

(3) If the bill is vetoed by the Governor and the veto is overridden, the date the last house overrides the veto.
