Subtitle
TO AMEND ARKANSAS ELECTION LAW; TO AMEND THE LAW CONCERNING SPECIAL ELECTIONS; AND TO ESTABLISH UNIFORM DATES FOR HOLDING SPECIAL ELECTIONS.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ARKANSAS:

SECTION 1. Arkansas Code § 6-14-102(a)(1)(A)(ii)(a) and (b), concerning the annual school election date and special school elections, are amended to read as follows:

(a) First Second Tuesday following the first Monday in November; or

(b) Third Second Tuesday in May.

SECTION 2. Arkansas Code § 6-14-102(b), concerning the annual school election date and special school elections, is amended to read as follows:

(b) The board of directors of any school district shall have the authority to hold a special school election concerning the tax rate or debt issues on a date other than that fixed by law under § 7-11-205 provided that:

(1) All constitutional and statutory requirements for the annual school election are met, notwithstanding subsection (a) of this section;

(2)  The election is held before the date of the annual school election; and

(3)  The Commissioner of Elementary and Secondary Education approves the date of the election; and

(3)  The board of directors of a school district files a document calling for the special school election with the district’s domiciled county clerk not less than seventy (70) days before the date of the special school election.

SECTION 3.  Arkansas Code § 6-14-111(k), concerning candidate filing procedures, is amended to read as follows:

(k)  The order in which the names of the respective candidates are to appear on the ballot shall be determined by lot at the public meeting of the county board of election commissioners held not later than seventy-two (72) days before the annual school election.

(1)  The deadline to conduct the ballot draw for the preferential primary or general election for an annual school election held in even-numbered years;

(2)  The seventh day of March for an annual school election held on the second Tuesday in May of an odd-numbered year; and

(3)  Seventy-two (72) days before an annual school election held on the second Tuesday of November of an odd-numbered year.

SECTION 4.  Arkansas Code § 6-14-122(b), concerning the consolidation, annexation, or merger of school districts, is amended to read as follows:

(b)  The boards of directors of the school districts may, by resolution duly adopted and with the approval of the Commissioner of Elementary and Secondary Education, set a date for the annual school election in that year for the school districts involved on a date other than the date set in § 6-14-102 for all school districts under § 7-11-205, provided only one (1) annual school election may be held in any school district in one (1) calendar year.

SECTION 5.  Arkansas Code § 6-53-602(b)(2), concerning the formation of a proposed technical college district, is amended to read as follows:
(2)(A) The local board or acting local board shall issue a proclamation and set a date for the election under § 7-11-201 et seq., but the date set for the election shall not be later than ninety (90) days after the publication of the proclamation.

(B) The local board or acting local board shall publish the proclamation at least ninety (90) days before the election date.

SECTION 6. Arkansas Code § 6-53-603(a)(2), concerning a tax levy for a technical college district, is amended to read as follows:

(2) A tax levy may be reduced or repealed, with the exception of the amount of tax required to service any outstanding bonds, or the tax may be increased upon approval thereof by a majority of the qualified electors of the district voting on the issue at the next election called by the local board or acting local board to be held at least thirty (30) calendar days after the local board or acting local board notifies the county boards of election commissioners under § 7-11-205.

SECTION 7. Arkansas Code § 6-53-604(b), concerning the dissolution of a technical college district and reduction of millage tax, is amended to read as follows:

(b) The petitions shall be filed with the Secretary of State, who, within ten (10) days of the receipt and verification by the Secretary of State of the sufficiency of the petitions, shall notify the county boards of election commissioners in each county in the district that an election shall be held at a time not less than thirty (30) days nor more than one hundred eighty (180) days from the date of notification on the next special election date under § 7-11-205.

SECTION 8. Arkansas Code § 7-11-105 is amended to read as follows:

7-11-105. Special elections to be held on the second Tuesday of a month – Exceptions – Separate ballots.

(a)(1) Except as provided in this chapter, all special elections to fill vacancies in office and associated special primary elections shall be held on the second Tuesday of any month:

(A) March, May, August, or November in a year when a presidential election is held; and
(B) February, May, August, or November of all other years.

(2) Elections called by proclamation of the Governor may be called in any month.

(b) A special election scheduled to occur in a month in which the second Tuesday of the month is a legal holiday shall be held on the third Tuesday of the month.

(c)(1) Special elections held in months in which a preferential primary election, general primary election, or general election is scheduled to occur shall be held on the date of the general primary election, preferential primary election, or general election.

(2) If a special election to fill a vacancy in office is held on the date of the preferential primary election or general primary election, the names of the candidates in the special election shall be included on the ballot of each political party, and the portion of the ballot on which the special election appears shall be labeled with a heading stating “SPECIAL ELECTION FOR _________” with the name of the office set out in the heading.

(3) Separate ballots containing the names of the candidates to be voted on at the special election or nonpartisan election and any other measures or questions that may be presented for a vote shall be prepared and made available to voters requesting a separate ballot.

(4)(A) A voter shall not be required to vote in a political party's preferential primary election or general primary election in order to be able to vote in the special election.

(B)(i) If the special election is held at the same time as the general election, the names of the candidates in the special election shall be included on the general election ballot, and the portion of the ballot on which the special election appears shall be labeled with a heading stating “SPECIAL ELECTION FOR _________” with the name of the office set out in the heading.

(ii) The county board of election commissioners may include the special election on a separate ballot if the special election is held at the same time as the general election and the county board of election commissioners determines that a separate ballot is necessary to avoid voter confusion.

(d) A special election to fill a vacancy in office shall be held not less than seventy (70) days following the date established in the proclamation, ordinance, resolution, order, or other authorized document for drawing for a ballot position when the special election is to be held on the date of the preferential primary election, general primary election, or general election.

(2) If a special election to fill a vacancy in office is not held at the same time as a preferential primary election, general primary election, or general election, the special election shall be held not less than sixty (60) days following the date established in the proclamation, ordinance, resolution, order, or other authorized document for drawing for ballot position.

SECTION 9. Arkansas Code § 7-11-201 is amended to read as follows:
7-11-201. Calling special elections on measures or questions.

Except for special school elections, all special elections on measures or questions referred to the voters by governmental entities as authorized by law shall be called by proclamation, ordinance, statute, resolution, order, or other authorized document of the properly constituted authority as required by law.

SECTION 10. Arkansas Code § 7-11-205 is amended to read as follows:
7-11-205. Dates of special elections on measures and questions —
Exceptions — Separate ballots.

(a)(1)(A) Except as provided in subdivision (a)(1)(B)(a)(2) of this section, all special elections on measures or questions referred to the voters by governmental entities as authorized by law shall be held on the second Tuesday of any month, except special elections held under this section in a month in which a preferential primary election, general primary election, or general election is scheduled to occur, which shall be held on the date of the preferential primary election, general primary election, or general election:

(A) March, May, August, or November in a year when a presidential election is held; and

(B) February, May, August, or November of all other years.

(B)(2)(A) Special elections scheduled to occur in a month in which the second Tuesday is a legal holiday shall be held on the third Tuesday of the month.

(B) Special elections held in months in which a preferential primary election or general election is scheduled to occur shall be held on the date of the preferential primary election or general election.

(C) A special election on a measure or question may be scheduled on the second Tuesday of a month, other than the months provided in subdivision (a)(1) of this section, if necessary to comply with the requirements of Arkansas Constitution, Article 5 § 1.

(D) An emergency special election may be held on the second Tuesday of any month, other than the month following a preferential primary election or general election, when two-thirds (2/3) of all the members elected to the governing entity have determined that:

(i) An event has occurred that constitutes a substantial change in circumstances; and

(ii) A delay of the emergency special election until the next date under this section, would cause a substantial and undue hardship to the governing entity or a threat to the public peace, health, and safety.

(E)(i) A qualified elector for an emergency special election may file an action in the circuit court of the county in which the document calling for the special election is filed to ask the court to determine if circumstances exist that permit the governing entity to call an emergency special election under subdivision (a)(1)(D) of this section.

(ii) If the court determines circumstances do not exist that permit the governing entity to call an emergency special election:

(a) The emergency special election shall not occur; or

(b) If the emergency special election has already occurred, any measure approved in the emergency special election shall be void.

(iii) A challenge filed under subdivision (a)(1)(E)(i) of this section may not be filed more than thirty (30) days from the date the document calling for the special election being challenged is filed with the county clerk.

(2)(A)(3)(A) If a special election is held on the date of the preferential primary election, the issue or issues to be voted upon at the special election shall be included on the ballot of each political party.

(B) The portion of the ballot containing the special election shall be labeled with a heading stating “SPECIAL ELECTION ON ” with a brief description of the measure or question to be decided in the election.

(3)(4) Separate ballots containing the issue or issues to be voted on at the special election and candidates for nonpartisan judicial office shall be prepared and made available to voters requesting a separate ballot.

(4)(5) A voter shall not be required to vote in a political party’s preferential primary in order to be able to vote in the special election.

(b)(1) A special election shall be held not less than seventy (70) days following the date that the proclamation, ordinance, resolution, order, or other authorized document is filed with the county clerk when the special election is to be held on the date of the preferential primary election or general election.

(2) If the special election is not held at the same time as a preferential primary election or general election, the special election shall be held not less than sixty (60) days following the date that the proclamation, ordinance, resolution, order, or other authorized document is filed with the county clerk.

SECTION 11. Arkansas Code § 11-10-1006(a)(2), concerning elections under the Unemployment Trust Fund Financing Act of 2011, is amended to read as follows:

(2)(A) An election under this section may be in conjunction with a general election, or it may be a special election.

(B) A special election held under this section shall occur on the second Tuesday of any month, except as otherwise provided for in this subsection.

(C) A special election that is held in months in which a presidential preferential primary election, preferential primary election, general primary election, or general election is scheduled to occur shall be held on the date of the presidential preferential primary election, preferential primary election, general primary election, or general election held on a date under § 7-11-205.

(D)(i)(B)(i) If a special election is held on the date of the presidential preferential primary election, preferential primary election, or general primary election, the issue or issues to be voted upon at the special election shall be included on the ballot of each political party.

(ii) However, separate ballots containing only the issue or issues to be voted upon at the special election shall be prepared and made available to voters requesting a separate ballot.

(iii) A voter shall not be required to vote in a political party’s presidential preferential primary election, preferential primary election, or general primary election in order to be able to vote in the special election.

(E) Special elections scheduled to occur in a month in which the second Tuesday is a legal holiday shall be held on the third Tuesday of the month.

SECTION 12. Arkansas Code § 14-14-917(a)(2), concerning initiative and referendum elections, is amended to read as follows:

(2) Referendum. Referendum petition measures may be submitted to the electors during a regular general election and shall be submitted if the adequacy of the petition is determined within the time limitation prescribed in this section. A referendum measure may also be referred to the electors at a special election called for the expressed purpose proposed by petition. However, no referendum petition certified within the time limitations established for initiative measures shall be referred to a special election, but shall be voted upon at the next regular election. No referendum election shall be held less than sixty (60) days after the certification of adequacy of the petition by the county clerk on a date under § 7-11-205.

SECTION 13. Arkansas Code § 14-40-303(a)(3), concerning annexation ordinance elections and procedures, is amended to read as follows:

(3) Fix the date for the annexation election under this section at the next special election date under § 7-11-205 after the ordinance is filed; and
