12 SECTION 3. Arkansas Code Title 9, Chapter 27, Subchapter 3, is amended
13 to add additional sections to read as follows:

14 9-27-369. Resumption of services.

15 (a) The Department of Human Services or an attorney ad litem may file
16 a motion to resume services for a parent whose parental rights were 17 previously terminated under this subchapter if:

18 (1) The child:

19 (A) Does not have a legal parent;

20 (B) Is not in an adoptive placement, a pre-adoptive
21 placement, or under another permanent placement and there is some evidence
22 that the juvenile is not likely to achieve permanency within a reasonable 23 period of time as viewed from the child's perspective; or

24 (C) Was previously adopted, appointed a permanent guardian, or 25 placed in the permanent custody of another individual and the adoption,
26 guardianship, or custodial placement was disrupted or otherwise dissolved;
27 and

28 (2) The order terminating the parental rights of the parent who 29 is the subject of a motion filed under this section was entered at least 30 three (3) years before the date on which the motion to resume services was 31 filed.

32 (b)(1) A motion filed under this section shall identify the parent for 33 whom services would resume.

34 (2) A parent shall not be named as a party to a motion filed
35 under this section.

36 (3) The petitioner shall serve the parent who is the subject of

1 a motion filed under this section with the motion.

2 (4) A parent who is the subject of a motion filed under this
3 section shall have the right to be heard at a hearing on the motion.

4 (c) When determining whether to grant or deny a motion filed under 5 this section, the court shall consider the:

6 (1) Efforts made by the department to achieve adoption or other
7 permanent placement for the child, including without limitation any barriers
8 preventing permanency from being achieved;

9 (2) Current status of the parent who is the subject of the 10 motion, including without limitation the extent to which the parent has 11 remedied any conditions that led to the termination of his or her parental 12 rights;

13 (3) Willingness of the parent who is the subject of the motion
14 to participate with the services offered; and

15 (4) Child's wishes regarding a resumption of contact,
16 visitation, or placement with the parent who is the subject of the motion.

17 (d)(1) A court may grant a motion filed under this section if it finds 18 by a preponderance of the evidence that it is in the best interest of the 19 child to resume services and establish appropriate contact or visitation
20 between the child and the parent or placement of the child with the parent.

21 (2) If the court grants a motion filed under this section, the 22 court:

23 (A)(i) May order family services for the purposes of 24 assisting reunification between the child and a fit parent who is the subject
25 of the motion.

26 (ii) The court may order the parent to pay for some 27 or all of the costs associated with court-ordered family services;

28 (B)(i) May order studies, evaluations, home studies, or 29 postdisposition reports.

30 (ii) A written home study on the parent who is the 31 subject of the motion shall be submitted to the court before the court may 32 order unsupervised visitation or placement of the juvenile with the parent.

33 (iii) If a study, evaluation, or home study is 34 performed before a hearing on a motion filed under subsection (a) of this 35 section, the results of the study, evaluation, or home study shall be served 36 on the parent, attorney ad litem, court-appointed special advocate, and any

1 other party to the motion at least two (2) business days before the hearing;
2 and

3 (C) Shall schedule a review hearing every ninety (90) days
4 until the court:

5 (i) Finds that it is not in the best interest of the 6 child to have contact, visitation, or placement with the parent;

7 (ii) Enters an order reinstating the rights of the 8 parent under § 9-27-370; or

9 (iii) No longer has jurisdiction over the case.

10 (3) A staffing shall be held and a case plan developed within 11 thirty (30) days of the date on which the order granting a motion for 12 resumption of services under this section is entered.

13 (e) A court may deny a motion filed under this section if the court
14 finds by a preponderance of the evidence that the parent who is the subject 15 of the motion engaged in conduct that interfered with the child's ability to 16 achieve permanency.

17 (f) The written order of the court shall be filed by the court, a
18 party, or the attorney of a party as designated by the court and distributed 19 to the parties within thirty (30) days of the date of the hearing on the 20 motion to resume services or before the next hearing, whichever is sooner.

21
22 9-27-370. Reinstatement of parental rights.

23 (a) The Department of Human Services or an attorney ad litem may file
24 a petition to reinstate the parental rights of a parent whose parental rights 25 have been terminated under this subchapter if the:

26 (1) Court has granted a motion to resume services under § 9-27-
27 369;

28 (2) Services have continued for at least one hundred eighty
29 (180) days following the date on which the court entered the order granting a 30 motion to resume services under § 9-27-369; and

31 (3) Parent for whom reinstatement of parental rights is sought
32 has substantially complied with the orders of the court and with the case
33 plan developed under § 9-27-369.

34 (b) A petition to reinstate parental rights shall be filed in the 35 circuit court that had jurisdiction over the petition to terminate the 36 parental rights of the parent who is the subject of the petition to reinstate

1 parental rights.

2 (c) A petition filed under this section shall be served on the:

3 (1) Attorney ad litem;

4 (2) Department;

5 (3) Parent who is the subject of the petition;

6 (4) Court Appointed Special Advocate Program Director, if 7 applicable and

8 (5) Child's tribe, if applicable.

9 (d) At least seven (7) business days before a hearing on a petition
10 filed under this section, the department shall provide the parent, parent's 11 counsel, attorney ad litem, court-appointed special advocate, and any other 12 party to the petition with a written report that includes information on:

13 (1) The efforts made by the department to achieve adoption or 14 another permanent placement for the child, including without limitation any 15 barriers to the adoption or permanent placement of the child;

16 (2) The extent to which the parent who is the subject of the 17 petition has complied with the case plan and orders of the court as of the 18 date on which services were ordered to be resumed under § 9-27-369;

19 (3) The impact of the resumed services on the parent and on the 20 health, safety, and well-being of the child; and

21 (4) Any recommendations of the department.

22 (e) Parental rights may be reinstated under this section if the court 23 finds by clear and convincing evidence that:

24 (1) Reinstatement of parental rights is in the best interest of 25 the child; and

26 (2) There has been a material change in circumstances as to the 27 parent who is the subject of the petition since the date on which the order 28 terminating the parental rights of the parent was entered.

29 (f) The court shall consider the following factors when determining 30 whether a reinstatement of parental rights is in the best interest of the 31 child:

32 (1) The likelihood of the child achieving permanency through 33 adoption or another permanent placement;

34 (2) The age, maturity, and preference of the child concerning
35 the reinstatement of parental rights;

36 (3) The parent's fitness and whether the parent has remedied the

1 conditions that existed at the time of the termination of his or parental 2 rights; and

3 (4) The effect that the reinstatement of parental rights would 4 have on the health, safety, and well-being of the child.

5 (g) A court may deny a petition filed under this section if the court
6 finds by a preponderance of the evidence that the parent engaged in conduct
7 that interfered with the child's ability to achieve permanency.

8 (h) An order reinstating the parental rights of the parent who is the 9 subject of a petition filed under this section restores all rights, powers, 10 privileges, immunities, duties, and obligations of the parent as to the 11 child, including without limitation custody, control, and support of the 12 child.

13 (i) If the child is placed with a parent whose parental rights are 14 reinstated under this section, the court shall not close the case until the 15 child has resided with the parent for no less than six (6) months.

16 (j) A written order shall be filed by the court, a party, or the 17 attorney of a party as designated by the court within thirty (30) days of the 18 date of the hearing on the motion to reinstate parental rights or before the 19 next hearing, whichever is sooner.

20 (k) An order reinstating parental rights under this section does not:

21 (1) Vacate or affect the validity of a previous order
22 terminating the parental rights of the parent who is the subject of the 23 petition; and

24 (2) Restore or impact the rights of a parent who is not the 25 subject of a petition filed under this section.

26 (l) This section is retroactive and applies to a child who is under 27 the jurisdiction of a court at the time of a hearing on a petition to 28 terminate parental rights, regardless of the date on which parental rights 29 were terminated by court order.
