(3) An exclusion permitted under subdivision (c)(2) of this section shall apply notwithstanding any requirement under § 27-22-101 et seq.

(4) An automobile insurer that excludes the coverage described in subsection (a) a shall have no duty to defend or indemnify any claim expressly excluded thereunder.

(5) Nothing in this subchapter shall be deemed to invalidate or limit an exclusion contained in a policy including any policy in use or approved for use in Arkansas prior to the enactment of this subchapter that excludes coverage for vehicles used to carry persons or property for a charge or available for hire by the public.

(6) This section does not imply or require that a personal automobile insurance policy provide coverage while a transportation network company driver is logged on to the transportation network company's digital network, while the transportation network company driver is engaged in a prearranged ride, or while the transportation network company driver otherwise uses a motor vehicle to provide transportation network services.

(7) This section does not preclude an insurer from providing coverage for the transportation network company driver's motor vehicle, if it so chose to do so by contract or endorsement.

(8)(A) An automobile insurer that excludes the coverage described in subdivision (c)(2) of this section shall have no duty to defend or indemnify any claim expressly excluded thereunder.

(B) This section does not invalidate or limit an exclusion contained in an insurance policy including any policy in use or approved for use in this state before the effective date of this subchapter that excludes coverage for a vehicle used to carry a person or property for a charge or available for hire by the public.

(9) An automobile insurer that defends or indemnifies a claim against a transportation network company driver that is excluded under the terms of its policy shall have a right of contribution against other insurers that provide automobile insurance to the same transportation network company driver in satisfaction of the coverage requirements of subsection (a) of this section at the time of loss.

(d) If the motor vehicle liability insurance coverage maintained by a transportation network company driver to fulfill the insurance requirements of this section has lapsed, is denied, is nonexistent, or the transportation network company driver has failed to provide the required coverage, the motor vehicle liability insurance coverage maintained by the transportation network company shall provide the coverage required by this section, beginning with the first dollar of a claim. In a claims coverage investigation, a transportation network company and any insurer potentially providing coverage under subsection (a) of this section shall cooperate to facilitate the exchange of relevant information with directly involved parties and any insurer of the transportation network company driver, if applicable, including the precise times that a transportation network company driver logged on and off of the transportation network company’s digital network in the twelve-hour period immediately preceding and in the twelve-hour period immediately following the accident and disclose to each other a clear description of the coverage, exclusions, and limits provided under any automobile insurance policy maintained under subsection (a) of this section.

(e) The motor vehicle liability insurance coverage required by this section may be placed with an insurer authorized to do business in this state or with a surplus lines insurer eligible under § 23-65-305.

(f) Compliance with the motor vehicle liability insurance coverage required by this section satisfies all financial responsibility requirements for a motor vehicle under § 27-22-101 et seq.
