23 WHEREAS, February 26, 2013, marks the 21st anniversary of the Khojaly
24 Massacre in Azerbaijan, and the observance of this somber date inspires 25 reflection by individuals across the globe; and

26
27 WHEREAS, on February 25 and 26, 1992, Armenian armed forces, 28 accompanied by Russian military troops, occupied the town of Khojaly as part 29 of the bitter warfare that had been taking place in the Nagorno-Karabakh 30 region since 1988; and

31
32 WHEREAS, when a large group of Azerbaijani civilians attempted to 33 evacuate the area, they were fired on by the Armenian and Russian soldiers, 34 resulting in the largest massacre of that bloody conflict; estimates of the 35 exact number of people killed vary from 160 to as many as 1,000, with many 36 women and children among the dead; and

WHEREAS, the massacre was reported by major news organizations and has been viewed by the Human Rights Watch as a violation of customary law regarding the treatment of civilians in war zones, and numerous governments around the world have condemned the attack; and

WHEREAS, this tragic event is a sobering reminder of the terrible carnage that can be inflicted in wartime and the enduring need for greater understanding, communication, and tolerance among people the world over; and

WHEREAS, the Republic of Azerbaijan and the United States of America are long-standing allies, both dearly cherishing the universal values of freedom, democracy, and human rights; and

WHEREAS, the State of Arkansas and the Republic of Azerbaijan enjoy a strong, vibrant, and mutually beneficial economic relationship with the prospect of further growth; and

WHEREAS, it is the custom of the State of Arkansas to welcome all who come to our state, especially those who come in the interest of friendship and commerce; and

WHEREAS, it is the policy of the Senate to recognize the contributions of our allies and the value of maintaining beneficial relationships with the allies of the State of Arkansas, such as the contributions made by the Republic of Azerbaijan and the value of our positive relationship with this ally,

NOW THEREFORE,
BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE EIGHTY-NINTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ARKANSAS:

THAT the Senate recognizes the many contributions made by the citizens of the Republic of Azerbaijan and that it is in the best interest of the State of Arkansas to promote relationships with Azerbaijan.

1 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that upon its adoption a copy of this resolution be 2 sent to the United States Speaker of the House of Representatives, the 3 President of the United States Senate, the Secretary of State of the United 4 States Department of State, the Arkansas Congressional Delegation, and 5 Richard L. Morningstar, the United States Ambassador to the Republic of 6 Azerbaijan.
