      (vii) Any devise or inheritance.
   (c) As used in this section:
      (1) “Lobbying” means communicating directly or soliciting others to communicate with a person elected to an office under subsection (a) of this section with the purpose of influencing governmental action or legislative action;
      (2) “Lobbyist” means a person who:
         (A) Receives income or reimbursement in a combined amount of four hundred dollars ($400) or more in a calendar quarter for lobbying a person elected to an office under subsection (a) of this section;
         (B) Expects four hundred dollars ($400) or more in a calendar quarter for lobbying one (1) or more persons elected to an office under subsection (a) of this section, excluding the cost of personal travel, lodging, meals, or dues; or
         (C) Expects four hundred dollars ($400) or more in a calendar quarter, including postage, for the express purpose of soliciting others to communicate with a person elected to an office under subsection (a) of this section to influence any governmental action or legislative action unless the communication has been filed with the Secretary of State or the communication has been published in the news media. If the communication is filed with the Secretary of State, the filing shall include the approximate number of recipients.

§ 31. Citizens commission.
   (a) Members of the General Assembly shall have no authority to set salaries for their positions.
   (b)(1) The General Assembly shall provide by law for the creation and implementation of an independent citizens commission for the purposes of setting salaries of elected officials of the executive department, members of the General Assembly, and Justices of the Supreme Court as provided in this section.

(2) Each member of the citizens commission shall serve a term of four (4) years.

(3) The citizens commission shall consist of nine (9) members as follows:

(e)(1) The salaries of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Attorney General, Secretary of State, Treasurer of State, Auditor of State, Commissioner of State Lands, members of the General Assembly, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, and Justice of the Supreme Court:

(A) Shall not be subject to appropriation by the General Assembly; and

(B) Shall be paid from the Constitutional Officers Fund or its successor fund or fund accounts in the amount determined by the commission.

(2) If the commission elects to amend a salary for a position under subsection (d) of this section, the citizens commission shall file the amended salary with the Treasurer of State.

(3) An amendment to a salary shall be effective thirty (30) days after it is filed with the Treasurer of State.

(f)(1) After the General Assembly has created and implemented the citizens commission as provided in subsection (b) of this section, an amendment to the laws creating and implementing the commission shall not be valid unless the amendment is enacted by a vote of two-thirds (2/3) of each house of the General Assembly.

(2) The General Assembly may, by a vote of two-thirds (2/3) of each house of the General Assembly, provide for the payment of salaries for the positions under subsection (d) of this section from a fund other than the Constitutional Officers Fund or its successor fund or fund accounts.

(g)(1) The citizens commission may, by a majority vote of the total membership of the board cast during its first regularly scheduled meeting of each calendar year, authorize payment to its members of a stipend not to exceed eighty-five dollars ($85.00) per day for each meeting attended or for any day while performing any proper business of the commission.

(2) Members of the commission shall receive no other compensation, expense reimbursement, or in-lieu-of payments.

(h)(1) Members of the commission shall be appointed within thirty (30) days of the effective date of this section.

(2) The President Pro Tempore of the Senate shall call the first meeting of the commission, which shall occur within forty-five (45) days of the effective date of this section.

(3) After the initial appointments are completed, the commission shall review the salaries for the positions under subsection (d) of this section and shall file any amendments in salary with the Treasurer of State no later than ninety (90) days after the effective date of this section.

(4)(A) After completing the review under subdivision (h)(3) of this section, the commission shall meet at least annually to review the salaries of the positions under subsection (d) of this section.

(B) The commission may amend the salaries of the positions under subsection (d) of this section as provided under subsection (e) of this section.

(i) Salaries for the positions under subsection (d) of this section shall continue as existing on the effective date of this section until increased or diminished by the commission.

(j) The commission may increase or diminish the salaries for the positions under subsection (d) of this section.
SECTION 3. Section 30 of Article 5 to the Arkansas Constitution is amended to read as follows:

§ 30. General and special appropriations.

The Except as provided in Article 19, Section 31, the general appropriation bill shall embrace nothing but appropriations for the ordinary expenses of the executive, legislative and judicial departments of the State; all other appropriations shall be made by separate bills, each embracing but one subject.

SECTION 4. Section 4 of Article 16 to the Arkansas Constitution is amended to read as follows:

§ 4. Salaries and fees of state officers.

The Except as provided in Article 19, Section 31, the General Assembly shall fix the salaries and fees of all officers in the State; and no greater salary or fee than that fixed by law shall be paid to any officer, employee, or other person, or at any rate other than par value; and the number and salaries of the clerks and employees of the different departments of the State shall be fixed by law.

SECTION 5. Section 2 of Amendment 73 to the Constitution of Arkansas is amended to read as follows:

§ 2. Legislative Branch.

(a) The Arkansas House of Representatives shall consist of members to be chosen every second year by the qualified electors of the several counties. No member of the Arkansas House of Representatives may serve more than three such two year terms.

(b) The Arkansas Senate shall consist of members to be chosen every four years by the qualified electors of the several districts. No member of the Arkansas Senate may serve more than two such four year terms.

(c)(1) A member of the General Assembly shall serve no more than sixteen (16) years, whether consecutive or nonconsecutive.

(2) A member who completes his or her sixteenth year of service during a term of office for which he or she has been elected may serve until the completion of that term of office.

(3) The years of service in both the Senate and the House of Representatives shall be added together and included to determine the total number of years in office.

(4) A partial legislative term served as a result of a special election under Article 5, § 6, or a two-year term served as a result of apportionment of the Senate shall not be included in calculating the total number of years served by a member of the General Assembly.

SECTION 6. Article 19, Section 11 of the Arkansas Constitution is repealed.

§ 11. Salaries of state officers—Increase or decrease during term prohibited—Fees.

The Governor, Secretary of State, Auditor, Treasurer, Attorney General, Judges of the Supreme Court, Judges of the Circuit Court, Commissioner of State Lands, and Prosecuting Attorneys, shall each receive a salary to be established by law, which shall not be increased or diminished during their respective terms, nor shall any of them, except the Prosecuting Attorneys, after the adoption of this Constitution, receive to his own use any fees, costs, perquisites of office, or other compensation; and all fees that may hereafter be payable by law, for any service performed by any officer mentioned in this section, except Prosecuting Attorneys, shall be paid in advance into the State Treasury; Provided, That the salaries of the respective officers herein mentioned shall never exceed per annum:

SECTION 9. Amendment 43 to the Arkansas Constitution is repealed.
Salaries and expenses of judges.
The General Assembly shall by law determine the amount and method of payment of salaries and expenses of the judges of the Supreme Court, Circuit Courts, Chancery Courts, and Municipal Courts of Arkansas; provided such salaries and expenses may be increased but not diminished during the term for which such judges are elected; provided further that the salaries of Circuit and Chancery Judges shall be uniform throughout the state.

SECTION 10. Section 1 to Amendment 70 of the Arkansas Constitution is amended to read as follows:

§ 1. Executive Department and General Assembly — Salaries —
Restrictions on reimbursements.

(a) No official of the Executive Department shall be reimbursed by the State of Arkansas for any expenses except those reasonably connected to their official duties and only if such reimbursement is made for documented expenses actually incurred and from the regular budget appropriated for the official’s office. Such restrictions on expense reimbursement are of a general application and also are intended specifically to prohibit the appropriation and use of public relations funds. The annual salaries of the Executive Department, which shall be paid in monthly installments, shall be as follows: the Governor, the sum of $60,000; the Lieutenant Governor, the sum of $29,000; the Secretary of State, the sum of $37,500; the Treasurer of State, the sum of $37,000; the Attorney General, the sum of $50,000; the Commissioner of State Lands, the sum of $37,500; and the Auditor of State, the sum of $37,500. Except as provided herein in this Constitution, such officials of the Executive Department shall not receive any other income from the State of Arkansas, whether in the form of salaries or expenses.

(b) The members of the General Assembly shall receive as their annual salary the sum of $12,500, except the President Pro Tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives, who shall each receive the sum of $14,000 annually, with such salaries to be payable in equal monthly installments. Except as provided herein in this Constitution, no member of the General Assembly shall receive any other income for service in the General Assembly, whether in the form of salaries or expenses, including, but not limited to, public relations funds. Provided further, that no member of the General Assembly shall be entitled to per diem unless authorized by law, or to reimbursement for expenses or mileage unless authorized by law, documented, and reasonably related to their official duties.

SECTION 11. Section 3 of Amendment 70 to the Arkansas Constitution is repealed.

§ 3. Salary adjustments.
The salaries of the Executive Department officials and members of the General Assembly provided for in Section 1 or 2 of this amendment or adjusted pursuant to this section may be increased annually through subsequent appropriations by the General Assembly by an amount not to exceed the average percentage increase in the Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers or its successor, as published by the United States Department of Labor, for the two years immediately preceding the year of the salary appropriation.

SECTION 12. Subsection (E) of Section 16 of Amendment 80 to the Arkansas Constitution is amended to read as follows:

(E)(1) The Except as provided in subdivision (E)(2) of this section, the General Assembly shall by law determine the amount and method of payment of Justices and Judges. Such salaries and expenses may be increased, but not diminished, during the term for which such Justices or Judges are selected or elected. Salaries of Circuit Judges shall be uniform throughout the state.
(2) Salaries for the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court and Justices of the Supreme Court:

(A) Shall be set by an independent citizens commission as provided in Article 19, § 31 of this Constitution; and

(B) May be increased or diminished by the independent citizens commission.

SECTION 13. Severability.
The provisions of this Amendment are severable, and if any should be held invalid, the remainder shall stand.

SECTION 14. Effective date.
This amendment shall be effective on November 5, 2014."
