Governor Asa Hutchinson remarks to Joint Session:

Lt. Governor Griffin; President Dismang; Speaker Gillam, Members of the Arkansas General Assembly. Good afternoon to you. Thank you for answering my call for this Special Session. And thank you for answering the call of your constituents and the people of Arkansas for your service in the Arkansas general assembly.

Before I start with the session, let me make a couple of personal comments. First, over the past weeks, I have worked to faithfully carry out the laws and the jury verdicts in multiple cases involving the death penalty. I want to personally thank you for your messages in support and your confidence in me and our effort to uphold the law of Arkansas.

I also want to mention the heavy winds and rain that raked Arkansas on Saturday night and took the lives of six individuals across this state. I want to particularly applaud our first responders in Arkansas for their quick action that saved lives and property, and also for putting their own lives at risk. I want to mention, out of great respect, Cove Creek Fire Chief Doug Deckard, who lost his life while doing his duty in Cleburne County. Our prayers are with his family and those who continue to serve.

As a result of these storms, yesterday I declared a state of emergency in order to release state money and resources to support our local response efforts. Today I have given the order to pre-position some of our National Guard resources in Jonesboro, in Pocahontas and northeast Arkansas. Tomorrow I will miss your early session of the legislature because I will be in that area to survey the damage and to make sure that our resources are positioned properly and that we are providing the support that is needed.

And now to the business of this session. The list of items on the Call is short but they are significant and very necessary. Let me address three major items during my time this afternoon.

First we want to continue our Medicaid reform efforts with new authorizations for Arkansas Works. Secondly, a bill to provide more legislative oversight of Arkansas Health Insurance Marketplace (AHIM). Thirdly, a transfer of funds into the Long Term Reserve Fund.

Last year, when I called you into Special Session to create Arkansas Works, we focused on four areas of reform:

- Work opportunities for those on the Arkansas Works program.
- More personal investment in their health care for those above the poverty level.
- Increasing opportunity for employer-based insurance.
- And finally, saving some money: cost-saving measures.

Those four themes are at the heart of the legislation we are introducing this year. But we are now taking a more bold approach to each of these guiding principles. This is possible because President Trump has demonstrated a commitment to give states the authority to emphasize more work opportunities and to promote personal responsibility.

There is another reason this session is timely. We have had more experience with Arkansas Works. During that time, we have eliminated the backlog of applications, and we have a more accurate picture of those that are qualifying for Arkansas Works. We know far more about the people that are enrolled than ever before.

Even with just a few months of the referral process for those in Arkansas Works, where recipients are referred from the Department of Human Services to Workforce Services, we've learned a great deal. In the packet before you, there is a series of slides, and I wanted to make a couple of points from these.

On your first slide, you'll see the work-referral program statistics for the first quarter of 2017. In the first column is the month, the second column is the work referrals to Workforce Services. Third are the services that are accessed after referral, and then fourthly, those who have actually been hired and gained employment.

If you look at the total figures, 106,000 have been referred to workforce services during those three months. Of those 3,700 have accessed services, and this is rather exciting to me actually, that almost 3,000 are new hires after they've been referred from DHS to workforce services. That tells me we are going the right direction in terms of work referrals

If you look at the percentages, about 2.8 percent of the total of 106,000 referrals during those three months resulted in new hires; 3.4 percent of those referrals accessed some level of services. The fact that 3,000 are new hires shows that there are people who want to work, that they need assistance in training so that they are ready to move into the workforce. But it also shows that we need to implement a mandatory program because 97 percent are not accessing those services; 97 percent of those that should be going to workforce services are not doing that. I propose we request a new requirement to mandate that people who are healthy, younger than 50 years of age, and don't have dependent children should be required to either hold a job, be in worker training, finish their education, complete community service or seek treatment to addictions to alcohol or drugs.

I understand that some have concerns about moving this voluntary work/training policy into a mandatory policy. The concept of requirements for participation in public-assistance programs is not new or novel. Under federal law, one of the core purposes of Medicaid is to help individuals achieve or attain independence.

The expectation of work is part of the social compact between those who receive services and the taxpayers who pay for them. We are not punishing people by requiring them to find a job, or access services or finish their education, or to seek treatment of an addiction. To the contrary, success in any or all of these areas will open the door to new opportunities. I believe that the path out of poverty is through the halls of schools and the walls of the workplace.

The good news is that Arkansans want to work, and worker training and work assistance provide a pathway to that. True Medicaid reform is certainly about improved access to health care. But we don't want the entitlement to become an entanglement. That is why we must provide the opportunity for work.

The second part of our waiver request to CMS is that beginning January 1, 2018, we will limit eligibility for Arkansas Works to adults whose income is at or below the federal poverty level. This is a fundamental change to entitlement policy. To make Medicaid available only to adults in poverty is common sense and consistent with the original design of Medicaid.

If you look at Arkansas Works, there are approximately 320,000 individuals who are enrolled. With this income limitation, about 60,000 will move from the Medicaid portion to the support on the marketplace. This doesn't mean that those 60,000 who are moving off of Arkansas Works will have no healthcare. It simply means that they move to the marketplace with the same level of financial support that they have now. The difference is that this saves money for the state - $66 million over four years - and it saves money for the federal government as well.

I know some of you are concerned that this is just a cost shift. While the federal government does absorb some cost in a different way, it's going to be covered by the marketplace for that insurance, less the 2 percent that the individuals pay. But those that move off of Arkansas Works, some of those will be moving into employer-sponsored insurance, which is an objective of ours. And when that happens, then it will be saving the federal taxpayers, money as well. But it also helps preserve Arkansas Works coverage for those who need it the most. Let me emphasize, once again, that Arkansans whose income falls between the poverty level and the 138 percent level will not lose access to coverage.

So how will this transition work? Health-insurance providers have a lot of incentives to make sure that those who might come off of Arkansas Works are seamlessly transitioned into the marketplace. They have a lot at stake in this, and so does my administration. So we'll both be working to make sure there is a smooth transition, but ultimately, the carriers are marketing a product, and consumers must value that product and say "that's what we want".

As we pursue these reforms, we will also keep a close eye on the effects and the impact that it has throughout our health-care system. We will carefully monitor and evaluate how these changes might affect premiums and uncompensated care. We will pay special attention to our rural hospitals and health-care providers. Let me assure you that I understand the importance of rural hospitals in our system of healthcare and the important role they play as the lifeblood of our rural communities. We will pay close attention to those, and you have my commitment to monitor that very closely.

These fair and common-sense approaches will ultimately help more Arkansans achieve economic independence and will allow our state to be more competitive, and I believe more prosperous. I ask for your support in passing this important legislation.

Another matter of urgency for which I need your support is the strengthening of our Long Term Reserve Fund. There are three reasons I believe that this is important:

- The state's financial strength and its resilience;
- Improved credit rating;
- And economic development.

If you look at the handout, you'll see a map of the United States with the different states, and it points out that Arkansas stands out for its lack of a budget reserve. It is measured by the median of all the states is that we could survive almost 18 days if we had a recession or a downturn in the economy, and your revenues were at fault, and how long would your rainy day or your reserve funds last.

Arkansas is really not measureable because we do not have a reserve fund that has any significant money in it. And as noted on the second sheet, how prepared is Arkansas for the next recession? Arkansas ties for being the least prepared, according to a report by one economic study. It identifies that states that are least prepared, and all of this is tied to the preparation and the availability of the reserve funds in the event of a recession or a downturn.

It emphasizes the benefit of a long-term reserve fund. Fiscal strength, whether you can weather future revenue volatility. Secondly the credit rating. And let me talk about that for just a second.

In its review of our bond rating - last year I was working and pushing them to give us a higher bond rating - S&P cited a deficit of reserve funds in our state as hampering our ability to get a better bond rating.

I believe if you will support the creation and strengthening of these funds, over time our bond rating will improve. This will allow the state to issue bonds for future projects at less cost, at a lower interest rate. I am proposing that you authorize the transfer of about $105 million from the Healthy Century Trust Fund to the Long-Term Reserve Fund.

Now the Healthy Century Trust Fund, let me emphasize - and there are legislators in here who helped create it, and they can speak to it with great expertise - But that reserve fund does not fund any current program. So you're not cutting programs.

The Healthy Century Trust Fund is a chunk of money that is accumulating interest. But it is not giving our state any benefit in terms of our bond rating because it is sitting there tied to the obligation of the trust fund and cannot be counted toward our own reserve fund. I am asking you to let us transfer that to a long-term reserve fund so that we actually get a benefit from our bonding standpoint. It could only be used for educational adequacy, Amendment 82 bonds, and if revenue growth is less than three percent. But it could never be used for any purpose that is not in the revenue stabilization act. So you have already approved it. It is just if there is an economic downturn and you can't meet educational adequacy, you can't meet a bond payment, you've got a reserve fund. And when you can show that, that helps your bond rating, but it also helps those that I'm trying to recruit to Arkansas by showing that we're a good place to [live] because we've got a stabilization in our budgeting process.

I would also emphasize that this not only applies to general revenue spending, it cannot be utilized as long-term reserve fund for general improvement funding, and those projects that are concerned. Now you can make an argument, we ought to have money for that as well, but this is about the long-term reserve fund. I will confess, I was tempted to put some of that money into a rainy-day fund, but the wisdom of others said, "Let's put it all into the reserve fund," and I am good with that, because we can accomplish those purposes.

It cannot be touched unless it meets the requirements of the RSA and of those unique opportunities if the revenue growth is not as anticipated – less than three percent. And secondly, it would have to be approved by legislative counsel. And so there are restrictions on it. It allows us to use our reserve for a good purpose that will benefit our state. I hope you can support that legislation.

Lastly, I am asking you to pass legislation that requires the Legislative Council to oversee the Arkansas Health Insurance Marketplace. The legislation would also prohibit the development of technology for a state-based exchange. As governor, I've already asked them to not develop a state-based exchange. This would put it into legislation.

On motion of Senator Teague, Senate Bill No. 5 was placed back on second reading for purpose of Amendment No. 1.

ARKANSAS SENATE
NINETY-FIRST GENERAL ASSEMBLY
FIRST EXTRAORDINARY SESSION
Amendment No. 1 to SENATE BILL NO. 5

Amend Senate Bill No. 5 as originally introduced:

Delete SECTION 2 of the bill in its entirety, and substitute the following:

"SECTION 2. Arkansas Code § 19-6-486 is amended to read as follows:
 19-6-486. Long Term Reserve Fund.

(a) There is created on the books of the Treasurer of State, the Auditor of State, and the Chief Fiscal Officer of the State a special revenue fund to be known as the "Long Term Reserve Fund".

(b) The Long Term Reserve Fund shall consist of such funds as may be provided by the General Assembly.

(c) The Long Term Reserve Fund shall be used to distribute moneys to one (1) or more funds or fund accounts in the Revenue Stabilization Law, § 19-5-101 et seq.

(d)(1) After determining the estimated amount of general revenue that will be available for allocation to the state agencies under the Revenue Stabilization Law, § 19-5-101 et seq., and after making the determination required by § 19-5-1227(c) and prior to making any transfers deemed necessary by the Chief Fiscal Officer of the State in § 19-5-1227(d), the Chief Fiscal Officer of the State may transfer funds from the Long Term Reserve Fund in the event a "revenue shortfall" exists to meet the state's financial obligation to provide an adequate educational system for the state and to provide for the effective operation of state government. In the event the Chief Fiscal Officer of the State determines that a "revenue shortfall" exists as defined as a circumstance when the official forecast of gross general revenue certified by the Chief Fiscal Officer of the State is projected to increase less than three percent (3%) over and above the gross general revenue collections of the previous fiscal year due to changes in economic conditions, he or she may then transfer funds from the Long Term Reserve Fund, as approved by a vote of at least two-thirds (2/3) of the members of the Legislative Council or at least two-thirds (2/3) of the members of the Joint Budget Committee, to various funds and fund accounts, as deemed necessary, in the Revenue Stabilization Law, § 19-5-101 et seq., for the purpose of meeting unanticipated shortfalls in state general revenue.

(2) Or the Chief Fiscal Officer of the State may transfer funds from the Long Term Reserve Fund to the Economic Development Superprojects Project Fund for projects authorized under Arkansas Constitution, Amendment 82, as approved by the Governor and at least two-thirds (2/3) of the members of the Legislative Council or at least two-thirds (2/3) of the members of the Joint Budget Committee.

(e)(1) Upon recommendation by the Chief Fiscal Officer of the State, the Governor may determine that circumstances exist that meet the requirements for the utilization of the Long Term Reserve Fund as set out in this section, and the procedures set out herein shall apply.

(2) When the Governor determines there is a need requiring transfer from the Long Term Reserve Fund, he or she shall instruct the Chief Fiscal Officer of the State to prepare and submit written documentation to the Legislative Council or the Joint Budget Committee. Such documentation shall include:

(A) Sufficient financial data that will enable the verification of the existence of an emergency and the amount necessary to address the need for long term reserve funds;

(B) A proposed distribution of moneys from the Long Term Reserve Fund to one (1) or more funds or fund accounts in the Revenue Stabilization Law, § 19-5-101 et seq., or to the Economic Development Superprojects Project Fund, or both; and

(C) A statement certifying that no other funds are available that could be transferred in lieu of the funds in the Long Term Reserve Fund.

(3) Such documentation shall be submitted to the Legislative Council or Joint Budget Committee for approval prior to the implementation of the proposed distribution. The Chief Fiscal Officer of the State, after having sought and received prior approval of at least two-thirds (2/3) of the members of the Legislative Council or at least two-thirds (2/3) of the members of the Joint Budget Committee, shall cause the required transfers to be made on his or her books and on the books of the Treasurer of State and the Auditor of State from the Long Term Reserve Fund to the appropriate funds and fund accounts in the Revenue Stabilization Law, § 19-5-101 et seq., or to the Economic Development Superprojects Project Fund, or both. In no event shall the amounts transferred in any fiscal year to the funds and fund accounts in the Revenue Stabilization Law, § 19-5-101 et seq., by this section cause the general revenues to exceed the maximum allocations authorized in the Revenue Stabilization Law, § 19-5-101 et seq.

(f) Determining the maximum amount of appropriation and general revenue funding for a state agency each fiscal year is the prerogative of the General Assembly. This is usually accomplished by delineating such maximums in the appropriation acts for a state agency and the general revenue allocations authorized for each fund and fund account by amendment to the Revenue Stabilization Law, § 19-5-101 et seq. Further, the General Assembly has determined that creating the Long Term Reserve Fund and establishing the procedures for the transfer of funds to various funds and fund accounts in the Revenue Stabilization Law, § 19-5-101 et seq., or to the Economic Development Superprojects Project Fund, or both, provides for the efficient and effective operation of state government if a revenue shortfall is determined to exist. Therefore, it is both necessary and appropriate that the General Assembly maintain oversight by requiring prior approval of the Legislative Council or Joint Budget Committee as provided by this section. The requirement of approval by the Legislative Council or Joint Budget Committee is not a severable part of this section. If the requirement of approval by the Legislative Council or Joint Budget Committee is ruled unconstitutional by a court of competent jurisdiction, this entire section is void.

(g) During each fiscal year, after the provisions of § 19-5-1004(b)(2) are complied with, the Chief Fiscal Officer of the State ~~may~~ shall replenish the Long Term Reserve Fund by transferring no more than fifty percent (50%) of the balance in the General Revenue Allotment Reserve Fund or an amount equal to all transfers made under this section during the fiscal year immediately preceding the fiscal year in which such replenishment is made under this section, whichever is less, to the Long Term Reserve Fund. ~~In no event shall the balance of the Long Term Reserve Fund exceed one hundred twenty five million dollars ($125,000,000) at any time."~~
