- 1) To provide for the payment of expenses and per diem of the House of Representatives and the Senate for this Extraordinary Session.
- 2) To make technical corrections to Ark. Further, the deductible contributions that are rolled over into a tuition savings account shall not exceed $7,500 per taxpayer in the tax year in which they were rolled over. The aforementioned deductions are to be made available to tuition being paid to both institutions of higher education as well as primary and secondary educational institutions.

RE: CODE OF ETHICS
DISCLOSURE

Secretary Cornwell:

Sam Ledbetter, a partner of mine at the law firm McMath Woods P.A., represents the Ozark Society. The Ozark Society has been granted intervenor status in a matter involving C&H Hog Farm's permit at ADEQ.

It has been reported that the bill involving ADEQ filed in this Special Session of the Legislature beginning today, March 13, 2018 will not effect and does not involve ADEQ actions concerning C&H, its permit, and the Buffalo River Watershed. It is out of an abundance of caution that I file this notice pursuant to our Senate Rules.

Please note Mr. Ledbetter's representation of the Ozark Society and that portions of any payments made to him for compensation for representation go the benefit of the law firm McMath Woods P.A. in which I am currently a 1/6 partner.

Please call with any questions or if you need additional information.

Thank you for your incredible service to the Senate and Arkansas.
