Delete everything after the enacting clause and substitute the following:

"SECTION 1. Arkansas Code § 5-2-606 is amended to read as follows:

5-2-606. Use of physical force in defense of a person.

(a)(1) A person is justified in using physical force upon another person to defend himself or herself or a third person from what the person reasonably believes to be the use or imminent use of unlawful physical force by that other person, and the person may use a degree of physical force that he or she reasonably believes to be necessary.

(2) However, the person may not use deadly physical force except as provided in § 5-2-607.

(3) A person who uses or threatens to use physical force in accordance with this section does not have a duty to retreat before using or threatening to use the physical force.

(b) A person is not justified in using physical force upon another person if:

(1) With purpose to cause physical injury or death to the other person, the person provokes the use of unlawful physical force by the other person;

(2)(A) The person is the initial aggressor.

(B) However, the initial aggressor's use of physical force upon another person is justifiable if:

(i) The initial aggressor in good faith withdraws from the encounter and effectively communicates to the other person his or her purpose to withdraw from the encounter; and

(ii) The other person continues or threatens to continue the use of unlawful physical force; or

(3) The physical force involved is the product of a combat by agreement not authorized by law.

SECTION 2. Arkansas Code § 5-2-607 is amended to read as follows:

5-2-607. Use of deadly physical force in defense of a person.

(a) A person is justified in using deadly physical force upon another person if the person reasonably believes that the other person is:

- (3) Imminently endangering the person's life or imminently about to victimize the person as described in § 9-15-103 from the continuation of a pattern of domestic abuse.

~~(b) A person may not use deadly physical force in self-defense if the person knows that he or she can avoid the necessity of using deadly physical force.~~

~~(1)(A) By retreating.~~

~~(B) However, a person is not required to retreat if the person is:~~

- ~~(i) Unable to retreat with complete safety;~~
- ~~(ii) In the person's dwelling or on the curtilage surrounding the person's dwelling and was not the original aggressor; or~~
- ~~(iii) A law enforcement officer or a person assisting at the direction of a law enforcement officer; or~~
- ~~(2) With complete safety by surrendering possession of property to a person claiming a lawful right to possession of the property.~~

(b)(1) The defense available under this section is an affirmative defense.

(2) If, at the trial of a person who is accused of an offense that involved the person's use of deadly physical force against another person, there is evidence presented that tends to support that the accused person used the deadly physical force in self-defense, defense of another person, or defense of that person's residence, the state must prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the accused person did not use the deadly physical force in self-defense, defense of another person, or defense of that person's residence.

(c) A person is not required to retreat before using deadly physical force if the person:

(1) Is lawfully present at the location where deadly physical force is used;

(6) Is not engaged in any activity in furtherance of a criminal gang, organization, or enterprise as defined in § 5-74-103.

~~(e)(d) As used in this section,~~
