A COMPACT WITH THE PEOPLE of ARKANSAS Handout-BLR

UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS

University of Central Arkansas

UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS SYSTEM

The Presidents and Chancellors of the state's baccalaureate, master's, and doctoral degree granting institutions hereby pledge the following 16 points to the People of Arkansas, our Boards of Trustees, the Arkansas Department of Higher Education Coordinating Board, the General Assembly, the Governor, and other Constitutional Officers:

1. Transparency: To be transparent and accountable in decision making. As college costs continue to rise, the importance of disclosure of information about programs, finances, and performance to the citizenry becomes an increasingly important factor for the public.
2. Careful Fiscal Management: To spend the state's resources, as appropriated by the General Assembly, carefully, prudently, and appropriately with a strong commitment to cost savings and cost containment.
3. Performance Measures: To hold ourselves to public accountability on performance measures and key indicators that demonstrate to all citizens that progress is being made continuously toward the quality of our programs and efforts.
4. Governor's Challenge: To meet the Governor's challenge of doubling the number of degrees produced by our institutions of higher learning by 2025.
5. Increasing Baccalaureates: To increase dramatically the number of our citizens with a baccalaureate degree.
6. Tuition and Fees Low: To keep tuition and fee costs for students as low as possible while recognizing the need for increased state support and the importance of maintaining academic quality and upkeep of our sizeable physical facilities.
7. Seamless Transfers: To work collectively on academic collaboration and unique partnerships between and among two-year and four-year institutions to make student transfer as seamless and efficient as possible.
8. Lower Remediation Rates: To work collectively with primary and secondary schools to lower remediation rates and help better prepare students for the rigors of college life and work so that they are able to access the American opportunity system through a baccalaureate degree and beyond.
9. Sustainability: To protect the environment and invest in energy efficiencies and sustainable business practices.
10. Expand Diversity: To continue our collective commitment to expand the diversity of our student bodies and significantly increase the number of faculty and staff with persons of color and from underrepresented groups.
11. Assist Veterans: To reach out to current and future student veterans helping them to navigate the processes of enrollment, coordinate access to services, and reduce barriers to their full participation in campus life.
12. Student Goals and Aspirations: To work with all students to help them realize their goals and aspirations and to succeed in producing graduates with the ability to think globally, act locally, and value learning for a lifetime.
13. Affordability: To assist students with financial aid and scholarship support so that no student in Arkansas is denied a four-year degree because of his or her inability to pay.
14. Non-Traditional Students: To bolster our efforts to accommodate non-traditional and transfer students who are equally important to the goals of increasing the percentage of the Arkansas population holding a bachelor's degree or higher and helping to bring higher wage jobs to the state.
15. Entrepreneurial: To be entrepreneurial in seeking additional sources of revenue for key initiatives and student support. While public funding will continue to comprise the crucial backbone of our operating budgets, we pledge to seek other revenue sources including private gifts, external grants, and contracts. Spillovers of knowledge from research often translate into new products and services and new jobs for Arkansas. Our institutions are enhancing the success and competitiveness of a growing number of emerging technology companies that can sustain economic prosperity in Arkansas.
16. Economic Development: To engage more fully in contributing to economic development in the state by fostering conditions to create, attract, and retain businesses and industries that will benefit by the expanding number of well-educated and prepared students graduating from colleges and universities in Arkansas.

Our baccalaureate, master's, and doctoral degree granting public universities in Arkansas cannot achieve the ambitious compact outlined above without the concerted efforts and support of the legislative and executive branches of state government. We pledge to do our part in growing the economic base of Arkansas and improving the lives of our citizens.

The prosperity of our state and nation, not to mention individual citizens, depends on the acquisition of higher education. Our ability to move forward productively in all areas of society depends on an educated workforce and informed citizenry.

We pledge collectively and cooperatively as the presidents and chancellors of our state's public universities to work as hard as humanly possible toward the achievement of the 16 points above.

Questions Posed by Sept. 14, 2011
Members

1. What are dates included in the data? 10 years? When did we start the program? We need data from beginning.

Arkansas partnered with Southern Regional Education Board (SREB) State Doctoral Scholars Program in August 1996 (15 years ago).

2. How much money has Arkansas spent on this program? Break out by institution since beginning. How much is SREB money and how much is from Arkansas institutions?

Arkansas has spent approximately $4 million since 1996 to support 82 Arkansas scholars. See table below for breakdown of support by institution. Over the past 15 years, Arkansas' share of the cost to administer the SREB-State Doctoral Scholars Program has been approximately $700,000 (about $50,000 per year) of its $4 million dollar investment. SREB provides in-kind contributions to support the operational administration of the program (e.g., office space, accounting, HR services, etc.). Institutional contributions include up to five years of tuition and fee support per scholar plus two years of stipend support, typically through assistantships.

Institutional Name	Total by Inst
Arkansas State University	$300,000.00
Jackson State University	$171,000.00
Mississippi State University	$102,000.00
Oklahoma State University	$17,000.00
Southern Illinois University Carbondale	$60,000.00
Texas Christian University	$17,000.00
University of Alabama at Birmingham	$20,000.00
University of Arkansas	$2,235,000.00
University of Arkansas at Little Rock	$85,000.00
University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff	$60,000.00
University of Arkansas for Medical Sciences	$80,000.00
University of Georgia	$50,000.00
University of Iowa	$51,000.00
University of Kentucky	$51,000.00
University of Maryland-Baltimore County	$20,000.00
University of Mississippi	$222,000.00
University of Missouri-Kansas City	$51,000.00
University of New Mexico	$51,000.00
University of New Orleans	$51,000.00
University of Northern Colorado	$51,000.00
University of South Carolina	$51,000.00
University of Tennessee Health Science Center	$51,000.00

Wichita State University	$51,000.00
	$3,949,000.00

3. Who are the Arkansas recipients from the beginning of the program and where are they now?

Arkansas has supported 82 scholars; 60 attending Arkansas institutions and 22 attending out-of-state institutions. A table listing the scholars and institutions is attached.

4. What doctoral areas are eligible? Is there any preference to STEM?

All campus-based Ph.D. programs are eligible to participant in this program. The SREB-State Doctoral Scholars Program only supports the Ph.D. The program does not support professional degrees and programs (Ed.D., J.D., D.B.A., M.D., D.D.S., Psy.D., etc.).

The SREB-State Doctoral Scholars Program set as its goal to have 50 percent of its awards in the STEM (science, technology, engineering and mathematics) disciplines. Currently, 36 percent of all awards are in the STEM disciplines. Over the history of the program, representation in STEM has been as high as 47 percent of all awards. In Arkansas, 31 percent of all awards have been to scholars in the STEM disciplines. The SREB-State Doctoral Scholars Program makes a special effort to encourage applicants who seek Ph.D.s in those STEM disciplines which have a particularly low minority representation.

5. Are the universities paying for this or SREB? Are the universities currently telling prospects that they have no money for this program?

The state of Arkansas set a goal of supporting 15 scholars per year. This support includes the stipend given to the scholars while in the program, plus the fee paid to SREB to administer the program. In addition, universities are required to waive the tuition and fees for scholars.

The current cost for Arkansas to participate in the SREB-State Doctoral Scholars Program, based on a goal of 15 scholars per year, is $375,000/year. Until the 2011-12 academic year, Arkansas was able to meet this goal using annual payments of $200,000 plus unallocated Arkansas funds on account at SREB. Beginning in 2011-12, annual support of $200,000 will effectively cut the number of Arkansas scholars able to participate annually from 15 to 8. Based on a three-year cycle of support for each scholar, Arkansas will go from supporting five new scholars per year to supporting two new scholars per year. For Arkansas to maintain support for 15 scholars per year as it has in the past, funding would need to rise to $375,000 per year.

It is unclear what Arkansas institutions might be telling prospective scholars. SREB operates under the premise that even with reductions, as many scholars as possible should be encouraged to apply, especially those pursuing Ph.D.s in the STEM disciplines.

6. Is tuition remission a part of this program so that the 25k award is for other purposes?

Institutions contribute up to five years of tuition and fee support. The $25,000 covers stipend ($20,000), attendance at annual Institute on Teaching and Mentoring for scholar and mentor ($1,500), and regional program services from SREB ($3,500).

7. How is a doctoral granting institution chosen for the program and why are some not eligible?

All Ph.D. granting institutions in Arkansas are eligible to participate in the SREB-State Doctoral Scholars Program. The SREB program does not support scholars pursuing degrees considered to be professional doctorates (Ed.D., J.D., D.B.A., M.D., Psy.D., etc.). All Ph.D. scholars who express a serious interest in a career in academe—teaching—are encouraged to apply.

8. How can we justify the disparity between the amount of money (25k a year for up to 4 years, right?) and those applying for a UA Walton award, for example, and the amount given for doctoral assistantships, which require WORK?

SREB-State Doctoral Scholars Program awards are based on a three-year cycle of support at $25,000 per year ($20,000 stipend; $1,500 annual meeting for scholar and mentor; and $3,500 for regional program services). Stipend support for doctoral scholars varies widely in the academy. The funds SREB scholars receive is typically more than a scholar would receive in the humanities, but less than what a scholar would receive in engineering. What distinguishes the SREB program, like its motto says, “More than a Check and a Hand Shake,” is providing the other/additional kinds of support that lead to the desired outcomes and success.

SREB-State Doctoral Scholars Program prides itself on being a good steward of the state funds provided to support the program. The goal, design, and function of the Doctoral Scholars Program are to ensure support, success, and placement of minority Ph.D. scholars. The nearly 90 percent retention/graduation rate and 80 percent of graduates employed in education are clear evidence of this success. Further, these percentages far exceed the national numbers for minority Ph.D. scholar success and academic hiring.

9. Are references or recommendations required?

Application packages must include letters of recommendation, a personal statement, transcripts, GPA and GRE scores. This additional information is a valuable factor in the selection process when applications out-number the slots allocated. By definition, all program applicants are qualified (they have applied and been admitted to graduate school on their own merit); therefore reference letters and personal statement take on added significance in the selection process.

10. What about entry GPA? Continuing GPA requirement?

The SREB-State Doctoral Scholars Program does not have an explicit entry GPA requirement. Scholars who apply to the SREB must already be admitted to a graduate program before they are eligible to apply for the SREB Award. Thus, the de facto GPA is whatever the requirement is for particular departments/graduate schools — typically, above a 3.0 GPA and 1100/1200 on the GRE. Also, SREB abides by university/departmental rules and guidelines for being in “good academic standing” or making satisfactory academic progress. SREB staff is in regular contact with scholars and departments to confirm satisfactory progress.

11. Says all coursework must be completed before entry but how would that be possible? How can they get the work done before they get in? Does this mean the payment can be retroactive?

The only part of the SREB-State Doctoral Scholars Program guidelines that refers to scholars having completed all coursework refers to the Dissertation Scholar Award. This award is given to scholars who have completed all coursework, exams, and successfully defended their dissertation prospectus. The Dissertation award is a one-year award given to scholars who have reached “candidacy”— and are ready to write and then defend the dissertation.

12. Who makes decision as to continuance of $$? What are the determining factors? What are the standards?

The Arkansas legislature ultimately determines whether program funding is continued. Funding for the SREB-State Doctoral Scholars Program is provided through the Arkansas Department of Higher Education. ADHE maintains fiduciary and performance oversight. SREB annually (January) meets with all state participants in the program to report on expenditures and scholar performance data. Program performance data may be found on the SREB-State Doctoral Scholars Program web site (click on Statistical Profile). Scholars may continue in the program from year-to-year as long as they remain in good academic standing in their doctoral programs.

13. Are recipients required to work in Arkansas? If so, for how long?

Scholars are not required to work in Arkansas, but they are strongly encouraged to seek employment (apply first) in the state that provides their support. Hiring practices in higher education discourage hiring “your own or your state’s” graduates. The idea is to bring new and fresh ideas and research to the institution. As a consequence, it is unlikely that a UA graduate will find employment in Arkansas without first getting experience elsewhere.

14. Are recipients required to be Arkansas citizens? If so, for how long?

In the application process for the SREB-State Doctoral Scholars Program award, a preference is given to but not limited to Arkansas residents in the application process. It is also preferred that Arkansas applicants pursue the Ph.D. at an Arkansas institution, but guidelines do not limit degree pursuit to Arkansas institutions. All Arkansas applicants must be U.S. citizens or have resident alien status.

15. What are the requirements of SREB for this program in terms of advertisement, recruitment, funding, and maintenance of records including follow up of those receiving funds and graduates? What is SREB administration cost of this program?

The SREB-State Doctoral Scholars Program provides member states with the opportunity to share costs and efficiencies for services that individual states would find difficult to fund on their own. Now in its 18th year, the Doctoral Scholars Program has built the reputation as one of the nation’s best and most productive producers of minority Ph.D. scholars. The program has been recognized as such by the Chronicle of Higher Education, Diverse Issues in Higher Education, Inside Higher Education, Woodrow Wilson Foundation, Council Graduate Schools, and National Institutes of Health BEST Commission. The program has also received several prestigious national recognitions including the John Hope Franklin Award and the Presidential Award for Excellence in Science, Mathematics, and Engineering Mentoring. The point is the SREB-State Doctoral Scholars Program has built a reputation that is known by scholars, departments, and institutions for its successful model of support and outcomes — graduating minority Ph.D.s.

In addition to the occasional bulletin board flyer sent to four-year and graduate schools, the program’s best advertisement and recruiters are its own graduates — 70 percent of whom are teaching, administering, or conducting postdoctoral research on campuses.

The SREB-State Doctoral Scholars Program model was designed and staffed from its inception to be able to record, track, and provide credible data to states and institutions concerning the academic and employment progress of each scholar.

The administrative cost for the Doctoral Scholars program is $3,500/scholar/year (based on a three-year cycle of support). It currently takes 134 fully funded scholars per year to pay for minimum program operations.

16. What are the responsibilities of ADHE for this program? How much money are we spending on administration?

The Arkansas Department of Higher Education (ADHE) serves as “pass through agent” for the SREB-State Doctoral Scholars Program. ADHE oversees funds distributed to SREB.

ADHE has no budget for administrative costs.

17. What are the responsibilities of the institutions for this program? How much money are they spending on administration?

Institutions do not have responsibilities or administration costs for the SREB-State Doctoral Scholars Program. SREB provides all day-to-day fiduciary and operational management.

18. Do we currently have a shortage of minority doctorates in our institutions? What is data to support?

African American students are underrepresented in the number of doctoral degrees awarded; the situation is even worse for Hispanics and Native Americans. Further, the representation of African American and Hispanic faculty in science, technology, engineering, and mathematics disciplines shows even greater deficit.

Percent African American	*Graduate Enrollment (07)	Doc. Degrees(07)	Faculty (08)
United States	13.1	8.6	5.4
SREB States	18.5	13.2	8.6
Arkansas	13.5	6.2	7.7

These data are taken from the SREB Fact Book on Higher Education 2009.

*These data represent all graduate enrollments (Master's and Ph.D.).

On-third of African American faculty in U.S. teach at PBI/HBI; one-half of African American faculty in SREB states teach at PBI/HBI; Two-fifths of African American faculty in Arkansas teach at PBI/HBI.

19. Who is considered a minority for purposes of this award?

Scholars are considered underrepresented minority if they are members of a racial or ethnic minority (including African American, Asian American, Hispanic/Latin American, or Native American).

20. Did the students who rec'd the awards actually graduate? And how did their graduation rate compared to other students'. Also, did the UA (or other schools) recruit for these students? If so, where? I believe that we have cooperative agreements with a couple of historically black schools. What were the GRE scores and GPA of these students? (If the scores weren't so good, was there a special mentoring program?)

In Arkansas, of the 82 scholars supported, 76 are either graduated (43) or still enrolled (33), representing a 93 percent retention/graduation rate. The overall SREB-State Doctoral Scholars Program retention/graduation rate is 88.7 percent. Of the 32 Arkansas graduates for whom there is employment data, 41 percent work in Arkansas; 80 percent are employed in education — 77 percent as faculty members. Currently, 19 Arkansas graduates are working outside the state and four graduates from other SREB states are working in Arkansas.

Clinton School

-The one tuition rate at the Clinton School was part of the original design of the program.

- The actual annual state appropriation for the school is $2,295,575.

-Current Enrollment:

70 total students

- Also, here is a more detailed breakdown of our enrollment in regards to in-state and out-of-state students:

49% are from out-of-state

36% are from Arkansas

15% are international

Of the 49% out-of-state students, several have attended Arkansas undergraduate institutions

SREB Minority Doctoral Program Criteria

- Applying to or enrolled in a Ph.D. program. Scholars in all other doctoral degree programs, including D.B.A., D.D.S., D.N.P., D.P.T., D.V.M., Ed.D., J.D., M.D., Pharm.D., etc. are ineligible to apply.
- Expecting admission into a Ph.D. program before the academic year begins or is within a first year of a Ph.D. program.
- Completed all course work and comprehensive/preliminary exams and have defended the prospectus successfully before the academic year begins.
- Accepted into or enrolled in a full-time, campus-based Ph.D. program (not online or distance learning) at a participating institution in a participating state by August, the start of the academic year.
- Hold or are scheduled to receive a bachelor's or master's degree from a regionally accredited college or university by the beginning of the fall semester. The program particularly encourages applicants who seek Ph.D.s in the STEM disciplines (science, technology, engineering and math), which have a particularly low minority representation.
- U.S. citizen or have legal permanent resident status.
- A member of a racial or ethnic minority (including African-American, Asian American, Hispanic/Latin American, Native American or others).
- Not employed outside your department or discipline.
- Plan to become a full-time college or university faculty member after earning your Ph.D.

Additional factors may be considered in the selection process:

- Letter of Recommendation
- Personal Statement
- High need area in Arkansas within STEM field
- GPA
- GRE Score

Western Governors University

Arkansans enrolled at WGU from 2005- Present
Type of College	Number of Enrolled
Business College	71
Information College	29
Health Information College	19
Teacher's College	134
Total Number of Enrolled	253

*Western Governors University does not hold ICAC certification from ADHECB

WGU has NCATE accreditation for its professional education unit, but WGU education degrees do not meet Arkansas teacher licensure requirements. Therefore, Arkansans completing teacher education degrees at WGU must obtain Arkansas teacher licensure through reciprocity.

Western Governors University

WGU charges tuition at a flat rate every term.

A WGU term is six months in length and can begin on the first of any month. Unlike other schools, you aren't charged per course or per credit.

Tuition Rates and Fees:

As of September 1, 2011

Nursing Programs (MSN and BSN):	$3,250 per term
B.S. Nursing (Prelicensure):	$4,250 per term
MBA Programs:	$3,250 per term
Business Bachelor's Programs:	$2,890 per term
Information Technology Degrees:	$2,890 per term
All Teachers College Programs:	$2,890 per term
Library Fee:	$45 per term
Application Fee:	$65

NOTE: WGU does not "profit" from application fees, as they help offset only a small portion of enrollment and admissions costs.

Resource Fee Announcement: Beginning December 1, 2011 the $45 per-term library fee will be replaced with a $145 Resource Fee. This new fee will cover your use of the library, plus e-textbooks and other learning resources. On average, our recent implementation of e-textbooks is saving students around $200 a term, and for many students it saves over $500 a term. WGU has not raised tuition or fees since September 2008, and we intend to keep the cost of your education as affordable as possible.

Special Fees:

(apply to select programs)

- Science Lab Fee: $350 (one time)
Individuals pursuing either of the science bachelor's degrees or science master's degrees that require a home science lab will be assessed this one-time charge (billed separately along with the first term's tuition).
- Consolidated Nursing Program Fee: $350 (one time)
Individuals pursuing a nursing degree will be assessed a one-time charge (billed separately along with the first term's tuition).
- Demonstration Teaching (standard): $1,000
Individuals in a Teachers College program that includes student teaching must pay a $100 application fee, plus a $900 demonstration teaching fee prior to their in-classroom teaching practicum.

- Internship Teaching Model: $1,900 (one time)
Individuals in a Teachers College program that includes student teaching will be assessed a one-time charge for the Demonstration Teaching fee, either the standard fee or the Internship Model fee. The Internship Model fee applies only to those individuals who will student teach under the internship model for an entire school year.
- Educational Leadership Practicum: $1,000 (one time)
Individuals pursuing the M.S. in Educational Leadership will be assessed this one-time fee in their last term as they complete their practicum experience.

How Tuition Works

WGU treats all students as "full-time" and charges tuition at a flat rate regardless of the number of competency units (credit equivalents) attempted or completed by the student. The "standard term" is based upon a full-time enrollment of at least 12 competency units for undergraduate (bachelor's) students and 8 competency units for graduate (master's) students. Students who complete more or fewer units are charged the same tuition rates (see above).

Tuition covers:

- All coursework attempted and completed, as well as learning resources, excluding textbooks, which are scheduled in the student's personalized Degree Plan.
- All assessments (subject to guidelines for individual assessments and the number of "re-takes" allowed).
- An in-depth introduction to distance and competency-based learning: WGU's introductory assessment called Education Without Boundaries (EWB).
- Ongoing advising from a dedicated mentor.

Note: Tuition does not cover the cost of textbooks or select other materials required for courses.

Notes:

SREB defines mandatory fees as those fees assessed each full-time undergraduate or graduate student regardless of student level or program study. For example, fees charged only to students in music, lab, or nursing or other fees unique to a given situation such as late registration and parking decals should NOT be reported as mandatory fees. Further, SREB defines full-time for purposes of tuition calculation as 15 credit hours for undergraduate and 12 credit hours for graduate/professional. If mandatory fees were in a structure such as technology fees by discipline, then the discipline was used that would reflect the typical student.

Cost Containment Input
What input are you using from faculty, staff, students, and public in working to contain costs?
A committee was formed to evaluate potential savings for the reduction academic schedule and summer operations. Administration and all budgeting departments are included in decisions for cost savings during that budget process.
Do you have a Committee on Cost Containment?
None other than budgeting departments and administration.
Do you offer incentives and/or recognition to faculty/staff/students for suggestions on how to cut costs?
No

Cost Saving Efforts	Y or N	Estimated Annual Savings	Notes
Utilities			East Arkansas Community College has constructed a new Fine Arts Center that opened in April of 2010. All construction was based on energy efficient products and services. HVAC systems, windows, insulation, lighting, etc. were designed to minimize energy costs. The College has also had several renovation projects, all done with consideration given to energy efficient products and processes when designed. One of the projects, the renovation of Classroom Building 2, was done specifically with energy efficient processes in mind. New walls allowing better insulation, new HVAC systems, etc. were installed to help lower cost of energy usage for the future. Based on the fact that these projects have been completed recently and very little information exists to quantify savings it is hard to put a dollar value savings on this at this time. We can say that other than the new square footage of the Fine Arts Center (33,000 sq. ft.) costs have remained constant elsewhere on campus, even with the rising cost of energy in today's economy. East Arkansas Community College recently had an energy audit performed on the entire campus by Ameresco and at this time we are contemplating further action. Although areas of potential savings were identified, the institutions budget does not have funding available to carry out projects of this nature although potential savings could allow the projects to pay for themselves in the future.

Cost Containment Input

What input are you using from faculty, staff, students, and public in working to contain costs?

All MSCC employees are involved in operational planning, and cost containment has been a priority for the college since inception and particularly since 2005. All expenditures must have management approval before costs are incurred.

Do you have a Committee on Cost Containment?

The President's Council is charged with cost containment as part of our annual planning and budgeting cycle

Do you offer incentives and/or recognition to faculty/staff/students for suggestions on how to cut costs?

No

Cost Saving Efforts	Y or N	Estimated Annual Savings	Notes
Utilities
Retrofitting with energy-efficient lighting, timers, etc.	Y		Will retro fit lighting in Reynolds Center hallway with energy efficient fixtures this year. Annual savings will be minimum since we haven't used the lights due theirhigh energy usage and safety. Outdoor lights are on timers.
Retooling HVAC controls	N		All buildings have computerized HVAC controls that shut off when no one is in the rooms. Thermostats are electronically set at a reasonable temperature that can only changed by a few degrees.
Replacing windows	N		All building on campus have either been built in the last 15 years or remodeled. No replacements needed at this time.
Other describe: Replace HVAC System	Y		Replaced science building HVAC system in 2011, unsure of savings at this time.
Other describe: Implement Act 1494	Y		Worked with Cadmus to implement Act 1494 documenting past 3 years of utility cost to monitor and help manage future utility usage.

Personnel
Consolidating departments	Y	0	We eliminated one academic program coordinator position in 2010 and consolidated 2 departments under the VP for Learning and Instruction who is serving as program coordinator for 5 departments in addition to her regular duties
Staff reductions or reorganizations	N
Temporary saving by keeping vacancies open	Y	36,435	We have held a maintenance position open and used part time employees to temporarily fill the position. Due to small staff we are unable to leave most positions open and complete work as required.
Hiring of temporary or adjunct faculty	Y	0	We are heavily dependent upon adjunct faculty. The percentage of SSCH taught by adjuncts has increased from 49.3% in F2005 to 51.1% in F2010. Of particular relevance to our population is the fact that in F2005 44.6% of developmental communication and developmental math SSCH were taught by adjuncts, and in F2010 50.1% of developmental SSCH were taught by adjuncts
Hiring of temporary or part-time staff in lieu of fulltime staff	Y	0	Most employees in maintenance department are part time.
Reduction in Student Support staff	N		9 of 13 (69%) Student Service staff members are grant-funded
Reduction in maintenance staff	Y	45,916	We have reduced our FT maintenance staff by 1 position over the past year filling in with part time help.
Reduction in campus security	N		Despite substantial enrollment increases since 2005, we have one Director of Campus Safety and one FT security guard. We depend upon PT personnel for the balance of our need
Defer salary increases	Y		COLAs were not given for the 2011-2012 fiscal year.
Reduce employee benefit packages	N
Early retirement incentives for long-term employees	Y	23,939	One employee has taken early retirement
Closing academic programs with low enrollments	N
Other describe: Increasing class sizes	Y		We have increased class sizes significantly. In F2005, the average class size was 14.7 students. For F2010, the average was 29 students, too many for a population of which 80% or more need developmental education at entry.

Reduce Travel budget	N
Revised travel policy	N		We use the state travel regulations for our travel policy.
Reduction in office and teaching supplies	N		Supply budgets are minimal, and budgets are monitored to help ensure supplies are used efficiently.
Reduce printing of materials	Y		We strongly recommend duplexing be used when printing. Copying and printing can be monitored by person if needed. Most faculty post class materials on our LMS to reduce printing costs.
Reduce library holdings or subscriptions	N
Change computer replacement policy	N		We have extended our 3 year recycle plan to a 5 year plan moving older computers to programs that do not require the latest in technology.
Changed academic schedule to create efficiencies	N	0	We have added classes in the 2:00 to 5:00 time period to increase usage of facilities and to accommodate our growing enrollment since we have insufficient classroom space.
Centralization of printing	N		Multifunctional devices are located in central locations for use by all employees verses individual printers at each desk. Software controls are in place to limit color prints/copies.
4 day work week in summer for employees	N		Implemented 4 day workweek for June and July several years ago.

Cost Containment Input

What input are you using from faculty, staff, students, and public in working to contain costs?
 Department heads monitor their respective budgets on an ongoing basis. Additionally, monthly financial performance to budget reports are reviewed by department heads, directors, deans, administration and the Board of Trustees. In addition to the annual budget preparation, the college conducts a mid-year operating budget review process where current budget and expenditure activity is compared to past operational data and adjusted where needed for future operations.

Do you have a Committee on Cost Containment?
 No formal cost containment committee has been appointed. All faculty and staff are charged with containing or curtailing operational costs.

Do you offer incentives and/or recognition to faculty/staff/students for suggestions on how to cut costs?
 There is no formal process or procedure to award or recognize faculty and staff for suggesting cost cutting measures.

Cost Containment Input

What input are you using from faculty, staff, students, and public in working to contain costs?
 We have many suggestions from faculty/staff/students and public about cost containment. Each suggestion is evaluated and, if feasible, worked into our overall plan of cost containment. For example, our Grounds Supervisor suggested a different plant for our flower beds switching from annuals to perennials.. His suggestion saved money and did not detract from the appearance of the campus. Other suggestions that have been implemented include using a Buckeye Sytem for premeasured products for cleaning eliminating overuse of supplies, mail run reduced to once a day, synchronized outside lighting on timers, and changed treatment of lawn care.

Do you have a Committee on Cost Containment?
 Yes. The committee is composed of the Vice Chancellor for Finance and Administration, Controller, Physical Plant Supervisor, Faculty Division Chair of Arts and Humanities, Associate Director for Enrollment Management, and a student.

Do you offer incentives and/or recognition to faculty/staff/students for suggestions on how to cut costs?
 There are no incentives but employees are recognized for any accomplishments by the Chancellor at campus meetings and the Board of Visitors' meetings. Employees are also recognized in the campus newsletter.

Cost Containment Input

What input are you using from faculty, staff, students, and public in working to contain costs?

Not a formalized process, but faculty/staff/students asked to turn off lights, computers, turn down thermostats as part of ongoing efforts at utilities savings.
Most of the input is at the department level where cutting or containing costs is discussed in relation to optional use of the funds.

Do you have a Committee on Cost Containment?

Our Chancellor's Council serves in that capacity. That council consists of administrators who report directly to the chancellor and who discuss cost containment with their respective staffs

Do you offer incentives and/or recognition to faculty/staff/students for suggestions on how to cut costs?

Not at this point. Emphasis in all discussions is that money not spent on utilities, etc. can be shifted to those things deemed most critical in each dept.

We have collected information on all the units and the consultants are reviewing the data. They are also reviewing information on our lighting in each building to determine if they should be replaced. Cost savings not available yet.

Although our enrollment has increased over 60% the last six years the increase in staff needed for academic/student/business services accommodations has been minimal.
Other describe:	N		Although we have full-time positions in the Student Success lab, we have used part-time people for the past two years at various times so the extra salary could be used somewhere else. For example, one of our full-time staff will be retiring this year and we will supplement for a semester with part-time, with the extra salary being used for an additional part-time position. We have been using the Perkins Grant to pay for a teacher for two years in the Petroleum area. We also have a part-time person being paid out of Perkins to help with the articulations.

Operating Budget Cuts
Reduce Travel budget	Y		Travel budgets reviewed and cut in many cases--emphasis on bringing training to campus where more people could benefit--funds used to cover other expenses in same area
Revised travel policy	N		Our travel costs have been reduced simply by our staff not attending conferences and workshops they normally attend and by holding down costs on trips they do attend (such as sharing rooms). Last year, Academic Services used part of their travel budget to purchase equipment for the classrooms. This year they took part of the budget to pay for speakers to come in house in order for more faculty to hear the information. Also, anyone faculty who travel this year, are expected to present as a professional development session for other faculty what they learned. Since we only budget $24,000 for academic services, we are being very conservative there. We have provided other local workshops (such as with customer service) and have set up future workshops in areas dealing with topics such as computer software. We even had one staff person pay for their own travel out of state to attend a conference.
Reduction in office and teaching supplies	N
Reduce printing of materials	Y	8,668	This year, we cut back the quantity of catalogs we ordered from 4,000 to 500. This resulted in a cost savings of $8,668. We are becoming more dependent on our web site and other social media to interact with students and parents.
Reduce library holdings or subscriptions	N
Change computer replacement policy	N
Changed academic schedule to create efficiencies	N	0
Centralization of printing	Y	2,180	We started printing our own business cards. In 2010, we printed 35 different sets of business cards. Overall, the business cards printed in-house in 2010 included 2180 pieces of card stock (21,800 individual cards – 10 to a page), which had an in-house printing cost of $2,180.
4 day work week in summer for employees	Y
Other describe: reduction in scholarships by 2013	Y	50,000	review of current scholarships and renewals--anticipated cost reduction of $50,000 by 2013. We have spent the last year reviewing our scholarship budget, method of awarding scholarships, scholarship offerings, and scholarship criteria. To contain costs we will be implementing a new scholarship application process. The new process, along with changes to offerings and criteria, will significantly help us reduce our institutional scholarship spending. We have eliminated the tuition discount for concurrently enrolled high school students, which was considered an institutional scholarship.
Other describe: finance staff savings based on credit card use	Y	10,000	An area of cost containment we are just embarking on is a contract we've recently entered into with PE Systems. Effective July 1, 2010 PE Systems re-negotiated our terms with our Merchant Services Provider Elavon Inc. An approximate annual net savings of $10,000 is expected for just UACCM ($1,000,000 annual volume) in this area.

This committee provides the avenue for discussions related to all facets of the university's budget. This committee meets regularly beginning in late fall and continuing through the spring semester until the operating budget is finalized.

The Academic Budget Committee is a shared governance committee consisting of representatives from all areas of the academic unit. Faculty senate, student government association, graduate student council, deans and chairs have representation on the committee. The Committee is utilized for budget development as well as assessing strategies to evaluate current operations related to budgetary efficiency and effectiveness.

Do you have a Committee on Cost Containment?

The University Planning Committee, the Academic Budget Committee and the Executive Council are all utilized to continually review operations and make recommendations for efficiencies and cost containment measures

Do you offer incentives and/or recognition to faculty/staff/students for suggestions on how to cut costs?

Cost Containment Input

What input are you using from faculty, staff, students, and public in working to contain costs?
 There is constant dialogue in the formal budget process of SAU to control costs and work more efficiently. Each unit presents their budget and makes and is encouraged to make suggestions for improvements.

Do you have a Committee on Cost Containment?
 The committee is the presidents and the vice presidents. Each vice president works in their area and brings ideas and proposals forward.

Do you offer incentives and/or recognition to faculty/staff/students for suggestions on how to cut costs?
 There is not a formal recognition process at this time. Good suggestions and results have resulted from the existing process and this was not considered needed.

Completed By: Don Pederson, Vice Chancellor for Finance and Administration

Phone Number: 479-575-5828

Cost Containment Input

What input are you using from faculty, staff, students, and public in working to contain costs?
 Cost containment at the University of Arkansas is a decentralized process with all units responsible for containing costs and retaining the savings to use for different higher priority needs.

Do you have a Committee on Cost Containment?
 There is a central committee that will be reviewing reported cost containment to see if there are opportunities that are being missed.

Do you offer Incentives and/or recognition to faculty/staff/students for suggestions on how to cut costs?
 The incentives are for units to have funds for activities that would not be possible otherwise and are a powerful incentive. There are no separate incentives for individuals for suggestions on how to cut costs as that is part of everyone's responsibility. Suggestions and actual implementation of cost containment may be considered part of the merit process in determining salary increases. Employees would have to report such activities to their supervisors to have them considered in the merit process.

Cost Containment Input

What input are you using from faculty, staff, students, and public in working to contain costs?

All good ideas for cost avoidance/savings are given consideration.

Do you have a Committee on Cost Containment?

UAFS does not have a stand-alone committee on cost containment, but rather uses the existing committee structure (University Support Council, Faculty Senate, Student Senate, etc.) to bring ideas forward for evaluation/consideration by the administration. Chancellor has formed several ad hoc committees to study specific resource/cost issues (e.g., the Parking Task Force)

Do you offer incentives and/or recognition to faculty/staff/students for suggestions on how to cut costs?

We do not offer individual monetary incentives for cost cutting ideas. We do, however, make every reasonable effort to publicly recognize and celebrate cost containment suggestions that have been successfully implemented. The forums for such recognition are the fall and spring faculty in-service meetings and the University Support Council fall and spring campus update meetings.

Cost Containment Input

What input are you using from faculty, staff, students, and public in working to contain costs?
 Open budget hearings are conducted with presentations from each vice chancellor. The budget director and vice chancellor for finance and administration meet regularly with the faculty senate planning and finance committee to review budget issues and cost containment suggestions. Bimonthly meetings are held with the UALR Board of Visitors whose membership is comprised of community business leaders who contribute valuable advice on finances and operational efficiencies.

Do you have a Committee on Cost Containment?
 The planning and finance committee of the faculty senate participates in the annual budget hearings and makes recommendations to the Chancellor on cost containment. Members of this committee have surveyed other universities similar to UALR in other states and have offered recommendations based on the experiences of the other campuses facing budget shortfalls.

Do you offer incentives and/or recognition to faculty/staff/students for suggestions on how to cut costs?
 There are not formal incentives. However, due to limited operating budgets, all departments are continually seeking ways to contain costs in order to stretch their budget dollars further.
