36 (ii) As defined under § 18-27-204;

1
2 SECTION 2. Arkansas Code § 18-27-302, concerning definitions as they 3 pertain to the Dealer in Secondhand Goods Reform and Disclosure Act, is 4 amended to add additional subdivisions to read as follows:

5 (5) "Fair market value" means the price a willing buyer would 6 pay a willing seller after considering all factors in the marketplace that 7 influence the price of property; and

8 (6) "Full restitution" means the higher of the following:

9 (A) The fair market value of the identifiable stolen 10 property; or

11 (B) The amount for which the identifiable stolen property
12 was sold.

13
14 SECTION 3. Arkansas Code § 18-27-303 is amended to read as follows:

15 18-27-303. Recovery of personal property and identifiable stolen
16 personal property – Liability.

17 (a)(1) An owner of stolen personal property may request that a dealer 18 return the stolen property without charge to the owner or provide full 19 restitution by signing and following the terms of the affidavit in favor of 20 the dealer as described in § 18-27-304(b).

21 (2)(A) An affidavit described under § 18-27-304(b) shall be 22 filed with the local law enforcement agency having jurisdiction along with 23 reporting to the law enforcement agency and filing any required documents 24 proving that the owner has located his or her stolen property in the 25 possession of the dealer.

26 (B) The report to law enforcement described under 27 subdivision (a)(2)(A) of this section is not a presumption that the dealer 28 received the stolen property in an unlawful manner.

29 (3) An owner who knowingly files a false affidavit or false
30 police report is subject to prosecution.

31 (b) Unless reasonable cause exists, within seven (7) days after the 32 later of the receipt of an affidavit described in § 18-27-304(b) and the 33 written release, either conditional or outright, of any property hold issued 34 by any law enforcement agency with respect to the identifiable stolen 35 property, a dealer shall:

36 (1) Deliver the identifiable stolen property to the owner or, if

1 the identifiable stolen property was sold to a third party before the dealer
2 received the affidavit described in § 18-27-304(b) and the written release, 3 pay the owner of the stolen personal property full restitution; or

4 (2) File a legal action in a court of competent jurisdiction to 5 determine ownership.

6 (c) If the dealer refuses to make an election under subsection (b) of 7 this section, the owner may file a replevin action to recover the property 8 and the court may award and apportion costs and attorney's fees as 9 appropriate under the facts of the case.
