SPEAKER SHEPHERD'S REMARKS

In many ways, the make-up of the House has been a great snapshot of our state. We come from a variety of backgrounds from the four corners of the state to do the people's business.

And today, as we gather it can't go unnoticed that we also represent the impact this pandemic has had on our state. Three of our own members, 3% of this body, have fallen ill to this virus in recent days. We have seen first-hand how fast it hits and how slow it leaves, and we wish our members as well as all Arkansans effected by this virus well and for a speedy recovery.

In what felt like just one night last month, parents became teachers, diners became drive-thrus, and doctors, nurses, and many others became soldiers engaged in a life and death struggle. And we once again thank all of those engaged in battle to defeat the virus and supply the necessities of life during the interim.

Some Arkansans have lost their loved ones, some their health, some their only source of income, and maybe some their sense of belonging and community.

Some of you may have learned how to make masks, somehow to cut your own hair, or maybe now have a meeting on zoom. Whatever it is, we all share one common trait right now. The ability to adapt. In times like these, we may make exceptions, but we don't make excuses. We may improvise, but we always strive to improve. We look to solve problems, not make new ones. This is how we've approached life in recent days and how I ask you now to approach this session.

I would ask that you be willing to adapt to all of the many variables that we will be faced with in this fiscal session. You can do this while you still ask questions, vote your conscious, and represent your districts. No one is asking for your silence, but this crisis pleads for our diligence and our teamwork. And I thank you in advance for yours.

Governor Asa Hutchinson
State of the State Address 12:30 p.m., April 8, 2020
Senate Chambers | Arkansas State Capitol

Mr. Lieutenant Governor, President Pro Tem Hendren; Speaker Shepherd, and Members of the Arkansas General Assembly:

As I stand here today for the first time giving a State of the State address in the Senate chamber, I reflect on the extraordinary times in which we live.

We are here today for regular business, at a time in our world when everything seems irregular.

This is reflected in your Members being in the Stephens Center, miles away; and everyone here appropriately socially distanced.

These are difficult days because all that we enjoy about normal is suspended. So much of our nation is in free fall, and we don't know when the safety harness will jolt us back to a soft landing.

These are days we come together. We unite our arms together, and partner together, so all Arkansans will have confidence in our steadiness, in our determination, and in our unity.

While I was undersecretary at Homeland Security, I worked to protect our country after the 9-11 attack from the next terrorist event. But this fight is different. There is not one attack but an attack on all 50 states, and our borders will not stop this virus.

This virus is deadly. It is highly contagious, and there is no proven cure. The best doctors in the world are working on an answer or a way to control this invisible killer that invades our land.

And so, these are difficult times.

As you know, I come from the Hill country of Arkansas and yet I have fallen in love with the beauty of the Delta and the timberland of South Arkansas.

Speaker Shepherd recognized Representative Capp. Representative Capp moved we rise and report progress. Motion carried.

SECTION 40. SPECIAL LANGUAGE. NOT TO BE INCORPORATED INTO THE ARKANSAS CODE NOR PUBLISHED SEPARATELY AS SPECIAL, LOCAL AND TEMPORARY LAW. TRANSFER PROCEDURES - APPROPRIATION – C.A.R.E.S.. (i) In the event that sufficient appropriation is not provided by the General Assembly, any state agency, constitutional office, or institution may request a transfer of appropriation, as provided in the C.A.R.E.S. Appropriation Section of this Act, from the Chief Fiscal Officer of the State, stating clearly the amount requested, purpose and any additional information requested by the Chief Fiscal Officer of the State. (ii) After reviewing a request, the Chief Fiscal Officer of the State may deny, modify or approve the request based on the estimated amount of appropriation needed and currently available, purpose, estimated funding available and preferred spending priority. Upon approval or modification of a request by the Chief Fiscal Officer of the State and after meeting the requirements of subsection (iii) herein, the Department of Finance and Administration shall establish the transfer of appropriation on the books of the Department of Finance and Administration and the State Auditor, in compliance with the applicable classifications of appropriations as enumerated in Arkansas Code 19-4-521 through 19-4-525.

(iii) Any request approved as authorized in subsection (ii) herein, including requests that establish a new commitment item or new appropriation shall require prior approval by the Arkansas Legislative Council or if meeting in Regular or Fiscal Session the Joint Budget Committee.

(iv) Determining the maximum amount of appropriation each fiscal year is the prerogative of the General Assembly. This is usually accomplished by delineating such maximums in the appropriation act(s). Further, the General Assembly has determined that a state agency, constitutional office, or institution may operate more efficiently if some flexibility is provided to the state agency, constitutional office, or institution authorizing broad powers under this section. Therefore, it is both necessary and appropriate that the General Assembly maintain oversight by requiring prior approval of the Legislative Council or Joint Budget Committee as provided by this section. The requirement of approval by the Legislative Council or Joint Budget Committee is not a severable part of this section. If the requirement or approval by the Legislative Council or Joint Budget Committee is ruled unconstitutional by a court of competent jurisdiction, this entire section is void.

The provisions of this section shall be in effect from the date of passage through June 30, 2021."

SECTION 41. SPECIAL LANGUAGE. NOT TO BE INCORPORATED INTO THE ARKANSAS CODE NOR PUBLISHED SEPARATELY AS SPECIAL, LOCAL AND TEMPORARY LAW. TRANSFER -PANDEMIC UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION PROGRAM. Should it be determined by the Governor that this program should be administered by a department other than the Department of Finance and Administration, the Chief Fiscal Officer of the State shall transfer any remaining Appropriation and fund balances to that Department.

The provisions of this section shall be in effect from the date of passage through June 30, 2021."

SECTION 42. SPECIAL LANGUAGE – CODE AMENDMENT. Arkansas Code § 25-19-106, concerning open public meetings under the Freedom of Information Act of 1967, is amended to add an additional subsection to read as follows:
