Governor Asa Hutchinson
State of the State Address |10:30 a.m., January 15, 2019
House Chambers | Arkansas State Capitol

Lt. Gov. Griffin; Speaker Shepherd; President Hendren; Mr. Chief Justice; and honored Members of the General Assembly.

This is truly an occasion to celebrate. You are celebrating. We are celebrating. It is exciting. But it is also a time to reflect and to set a determined course for the future.

As part of the celebration, I have my family here today. My wife, Susan; my son Asa III; Sarah and Dave, my daughter and son-in-law; John Paul and Nubia; and Young Seth and Julia. Thank you for being here and a part of this.

I have four grandchildren here today: Ella Beth, Malcolm, Isabella, and John Pablo. Maybe John Pablo took a leave of absence because he's young.

It is a special privilege to have my family here who have been along this journey with me, and it's important for them to share in this important occasion.

As we convene today to begin a new term in office, we can rejoice that the election is over. The seasons have changed, and we are now entering the winter of hard work. As we do so, we are reminded that the true purpose of political victory is service.

A simple but profound phrase: We serve the public. Not a party; not personal interests. We serve the public.

Some of you may not be aware. You've been in my office; maybe you've come directly to visit with me. But if you go in the door of my office, and you look left, you will see a box. It is a shoeshine kit. It is in my office, and there's a plaque on there that says, "This is to remind you of your youth in Gravette." In Gravette I shined shoes at Johnny's Barbershop as my first job. I shined shoes for 25 cents and boots for 50 cents, because they were muddy.

I have that in my office because it reminds me of my roots, and it reminds me of the dignity of work.

So, members of the General Assembly, during the session, come on by the Governor's office and get your shoes shined.

As we consider the upcoming session, we also realize very quickly that there is nothing we can do alone. It takes all of us working together for the people of Arkansas.

And if we toil well and together, then this spring we will be able to see the first fruits of our labor, and in due time, we will enjoy the full harvest when good policy strengthens public confidence; when good policy builds hope; and when good policy serves the cause of justice.

Today, as is our custom, we began our new leadership with a prayer service at the Mosaic Templars Cultural Center. And justice was one of the themes of that ceremony. Later, we will go out to the public ceremony, and we will have our poet laureate, Jo McDougall, read a poem that I commissioned, on the theme of hope in Arkansas.

I believe that we will all agree today that Arkansas is an amazing place to live, raise a family, and build our own special future.

It hasn't always been easy. Arkansans have had our share of challenge and difficulty. The most challenging time was during the Great Depression. During that time, we were poor. But we did not lose population. Our population did not decline. People stayed here because poverty was all over the nation. That was the 1930s.

But when the economy boomed again after the war, the jobs out of state offered better pay. Between 1940 and 1960, over 150,000 people left our state. Some of our best left for Michigan, California, and Chicago.

But now that trend is reversed. People are moving to Arkansas from California, Michigan, and Illinois, and we are retaining our homegrown talent. Our population is now over 3 million people and growing every day.

The lesson is that if people follow opportunity and pursue quality of life, they are going to come to Arkansas. We have it all.

That is why we work so hard to be competitive in our tax rates; to compete for industry and businesses locating in this state; to build a technology sector; to expand tourism; and to improve access to the arts and to education.

As evidence of these new opportunities, we have moved more than 65,000 Arkansans over the last four years out of poverty and into work. They have jobs and are making more money. Fewer Arkansans are on Medicaid, and fewer are having to rely upon the important safety net of SNAP and other benefits because they have more opportunity.

We have also proven that we can lead in entrepreneurship, agriculture, global retail trade, and technology education.

Before we forge into the future today, it is important to note what we have accomplished together.

Together, we have reformed our child welfare system. Three years ago, you approved $24 million additional funding for our child welfare programs, and the result is a 30 percent increase in foster beds; the result is 22 percent increase in caseworkers; and the result is nearly 1,000 fewer children in foster care. We initiated the Restore Hope Summit where our faith-based leaders and government partners figured out ways to work together.

Thank you for making a difference for our children.

Together, we have reformed our criminal justice system, and as a result, the growth of our prison population has been reduced. Four years ago, we were growing at the rate of 3 percent per year in our prison population. The growth rate has been reduced to 1 percent per year.

We have invested more in reentry centers to give people a second chance in life. More than 1,200 inmates have graduated through our reentry facilities, and this results in a lower incarceration rate, more people working, and a reduced burden on taxpayers.

We want to give people a second chance in life after they have paid the penalty for any wrongdoing, and I am proud of our employers who give them a chance!

One illustration is Steven Edwards. He is an example of a person who got a second chance and is succeeding. Steven was convicted of first-degree murder at the age of 16. He spent nearly 20 years in prison. During that time, he got his GED; he earned a diploma from Ozarka College; and he earned a bachelor's degree through correspondence from Ohio University. Steven became the first inmate in our correction system to accomplish those educational goals while incarcerated.

The Parole Board gave Steven a second chance and reduced his sentence. He moved to Marion, where his first job out of prison was at an eye-care clinic. A patient heard his story and hired him to teach GED classes at the juvenile center in West Memphis.

Then he started a lawn-care company with two push mowers from Wal-Mart. Now, he has 80 clients, owns his own home, pays taxes, and tells his story at teen summits.

Steven Edwards got a second chance. We need to give everyone who is willing to change and contribute that second chance in life.

Four years ago, we had a scholarship lottery that was declining each year in the amount of scholarships for our students. We transformed the lottery from an independent agency into part of the Department of Finance. The result is that we have cut administrative costs and lottery student scholarships have grown by 26 percent. They have increased from $72 million in 2015 to over $91 million this last year. That's effective government work that we did together.

We had an off-course, behind-schedule, and discredited effort to put high-speed internet in our schools. We didn't let it ride; we changed course and built the Arkansas Public School Computer Network. At that time, we became one of only six states in the country to fully deploy the highest broadband internet to every school in our state.

Together, we have lowered taxes for everyone making less than $75,000 in this state; and we have recruited industry to this state from Sig Sauer in Jacksonville to EnviroTech in Helena/West Helena to Glatfelter in Fort Smith to Conifex in El Dorado and Glenwood, with hundreds more businesses moving here or expanding in our state.

Together, we have invested in technology education, and as a result, we lead the nation in computer science education of our students. It started with an idea; a modest investment; and legislative support. It now sets an example for states from California to North Carolina.

Together, we have invested in pre-K education. Our budget for pre-K has increased from $111 million to $114 million in recent years. We rank 17th nationally in spending on pre-K and Number 18 in four-year-old pre-K access; and we rank Number 5 in the nation in terms of three-year-old access to early education.

Together, we have cut the size and inefficiency of government. We have worked with you to cut the red tape. We repealed over 800 outdated and unnecessary regulations, which makes state government less burdensome to taxpayers and businesses.

We have reduced the size of the executive branch of state government by more than 1,400 employees. That is a reduction of over 5 percent. This is through improved management practices and attrition, but we can do more.

Together, we have transformed a wasteful healthcare system to make sure our health care assistance is available to those who need it most. Think about the abuse of Preferred Family Healthcare, which sucked millions of dollars out of Medicaid into the hands of executives. All at the cost of our behavioral-health population.

It has not been easy, but together, we have changed the rules to reduce waste and the potential for abuse in Medicaid payments.

And when it comes to the disability waiting list, we did something about it, and for the first time in decades, we provided help to these families and created a way to reduce the waiting list further. This helps families and maximizes the lives of those with disabilities.

One year ago, I stood in this chamber, and I reported to you on the story of Wendie and Wade Reaves and their daughter, Regan. Today, I want to give you an update. As you remember, Regan was one of the more than 3,000 on the disability waiting list hoping for services to improve their lives. She had been on the list for eight years.

Then we together allowed $8.5 million every year for those in need of services, Regan was off the list and got the help she needed. Now Regan's, mom, Wendie, reports she has been able to get a full-time job for the first time since Regan was born. Regan is learning new skills with the help of her waiver worker. Wendy reports that, "The first time Regan learned to wash her hair by herself was a big day."

What we do in these chambers and in public service makes a difference in the lives of people.

Together, we have changed our state budget from one that spends it all to one that creates savings for more difficult times. We now have the Long-Term Reserve Fund. The current balance is over $125 million.

So when it comes to the future, we have an understanding from history that our future is brightest when we embrace the new, and we create growth. Remember, the voters supported us and gave us approval for a growth agenda. We cannot let them down.

Let's not let this moment in history pass us by, but let us work together for success.

Let's work together and make history by reversing the trend of high taxes in Arkansas; let's make history by transforming state government; let's make history by raising teacher pay to historic levels in our state; and let's make history by focusing on a growth agenda that allows Arkansans to prosper.

I have submitted my balanced budget to you, and it includes additional funding for public safety with 30 additional probation and parole officers. It also includes $2.3 million for an increase of 24 new troopers over the next two years.

The Arkansas State Police is our top law-enforcement agency, and we must support our law enforcement. And Arkansas does.

Recently, Corporal Clayton McWilliams was severely injured in the line of duty. The citizens of Ashdown had a fundraiser to support Corporal McWilliams, and more than 500 attended and raised over $50,000. Well done, Ashdown!

The budget includes $60 million allocated for raising the minimum teacher pay by $4,000 over the next four years.

And recognizing that agriculture is our state's number one industry, my budget includes a much-needed increase in funding of $1.1 million for the Division of Agriculture. It includes $1.5 million increase in budget for University of Arkansas Medical Sciences, as well.

Our proposed budget includes sufficient funding for programs that provide a critical safety net for our citizens, and that is why it is important to continue funding at $2.5 million per year of our Crisis Stabilization Units. The CSUs. The CSU's provide a treatment option for those suffering from mental illness rather than incarceration or just simply ignoring their needs.

As you know, we have dramatically increased our numbers in computer science courses in Arkansas. Last school year, we were at about 6,000, and this year we have more than 8,000 students in high school taking computer coding. That is a 30 percent increase.

One of the key results of this initiative is that more technology companies are locating in Arkansas or are being created here. One of my goals for Arkansas is to be a hub of technology companies that will provide new opportunity and diversity to our economy.

For that reason, I am calling for the creation of a private sector Technology and Innovation Council. This Innovation Council will bring industry leaders and technology entrepreneurs together to create new energy and support for tomorrow's problem solvers and thought leaders in software design, cyber security, data analytics, blockchain technology, and all those other things that you're expert in.

When it comes to our goals for the future, to me it comes down to a growth agenda. I know I talk about that a lot. But it's a plan for Arkansas that includes more and better paying jobs; increased attainment levels in higher education; a strong diversified economy; and competitive tax rates.

That is why the third phase of tax cuts is planned for this session. Four years ago, I signed into law the tax cut for the middle-income category. This reduced tax rates for those making between $20,000 and $75,000 per year.

In 2017, we came together and passed the second phase of our overall tax-cut plan with a $50 million reduction for lower income Arkansans. This includes those making less than $20,000 per year.

At this point, 90 percent of all Arkansas taxpayers have received a tax cut, but we have more to accomplish. I applaud the work and recommendations of the Legislative Task Force that worked for two years in analyzing and making recommendations. While I wanted to flatten the rate for all taxpayers to 5.9 percent over the next 4 years, the task force wisely said we should also simplify the rate structure and to raise the standard deduction for all taxpayers.

The result is a plan that we call the 2-4-5.9 plan. It will set Arkansas on a path to be competitive with our surrounding states; to attract new investments and talent in our state; and to continue our vigorous economic growth. We will work with you to make sure that this plan reduces taxes, and that we will hold everyone harmless so that no taxpayer will see any tax increase.

For those who think we need to do more, I remind you that the 2-4-5.9 plan reduces revenue by $47.4 million in the first year; but everyone should also note that in the same year, we will be reducing the grocery tax by $61.1 million, and then the low-income goes into effect, that's $50 million. So the total tax reductions will be around $158 million.

For those who are concerned about the tax cuts and meeting the other needs of our state, please note that in the last four years, we have cut taxes carefully. And we have continued to invest in education, in prisons, public safety, and even funding expanded Medicaid in this state. And we have set aside, during that same time, over $125 million in savings. Those commitments remain.

Carefulness. Commitment. Meeting our obligations in education and services. But let's not take our eye off the ball of competitive tax rates in this state.

Today, we have a budget that allows for tax cuts while investing in the future. We have demonstrated we can get this done. And we will do it again.

As we think about the last four years and look forward to what the future holds, it is more than fitting that we recognize those who serve our state and nation in the Arkansas National Guard and our military branches. Without their leadership and service, we could not get the job done in terms of security and services in times of natural disaster in our state. Thank you, men and women, for your service.

Thirty-two years ago, I had the opportunity to meet with President Ronald Reagan in the Oval Office. It was my first time in the White House, so I was trying to memorize everything about it.

As I was in the oval office, I noticed on the president's desk two mottos. They caught my attention. One was, "It is amazing what can be accomplished when you don't care who gets the credit." The other motto was a simple phrase: "It can be done."

When I think about how hard it is to transform government, we need to remind ourselves: "It can be done."

When I worry about reaching an agreement on a new highway-funding plan: let's remind ourselves, "It can be done."

When we ponder the requirement of a three-fourths vote for lowering and simplifying our income tax rates in Arkansas, let's remind ourselves: "It can be done."

When I look at the need to raise minimum teacher pay in Arkansas, we know: "It can be done," and it must be done.

Let me add one phrase as I conclude today's remarks—one phrase to the president's desk motto: That is. "Together, it can be done."

Thank you, and may God bless this General Assembly, the work ahead, and the people of this Great State.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION APPLYING TO THE UNITED STATES CONGRESS TO CALL A CONVENTION FOR PROPOSING AMENDMENTS PURSUANT TO ARTICLE V OF THE UNITED STATES CONSTITUTION, LIMITED TO PROPOSING AMENDMENTS THAT IMPOSE FISCAL RESTRAINTS ON THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT, LIMIT THE POWER AND JURISDICTION OF THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT, AND LIMIT THE TERMS OF OFFICE FOR ITS OFFICIALS AND FOR MEMBERS OF THE UNITED STATES CONGRESS.

Subtitle

APPLYING TO THE UNITED STATES CONGRESS TO CALL A CONVENTION FOR PROPOSING AMENDMENTS PURSUANT TO ARTICLE V OF THE UNITED STATES CONSTITUTION.

WHEREAS, the founders of the United States Constitution empowered state legislators to be guardians of liberty against excessive use of power by the federal government; and

WHEREAS, the federal government has created a crushing national debt through improper and imprudent spending; and

WHEREAS, the federal government has ceased to operate under a proper interpretation of the United States Constitution; and

WHEREAS, the federal government has invaded the legitimate roles of the states through the manipulative process of federal mandates, most of which are unfunded to a great extent; and

WHEREAS, it is the solemn duty of the states to protect the liberty of our people, particularly for the generations to come, by proposing amendments to the United States Constitution through a convention of the states under Article V of the United States Constitution for the purpose of restraining these and related abuses of power,

NOW THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE NINETY-SECOND GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ARKANSAS AND BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, A MAJORITY OF ALL MEMBERS ELECTED TO EACH HOUSE AGREEING THERETO:

THAT the General Assembly hereby applies to the United States Congress, under the provisions of Article V of the United States Constitution, for the calling of a convention of the states limited to proposing amendments to the United States Constitution that impose fiscal restraints on the federal government, limit the power and jurisdiction of the federal government, and limit the terms of office for its officials and for members of the United States Congress.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED THAT the Secretary of the Senate is hereby directed to transmit copies of this application to the President of the United States Senate, the Secretary of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, the Clerk of the United States House of Representatives, the members of the Arkansas congressional delegation, and the presiding officers of each house of the legislatures in the several states, requesting their cooperation.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED THAT this application constitutes a continuing application in accordance with Article V of the United States Constitution until the legislatures of at least two-thirds (2/3) of the several states have made applications on the same subject.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED THAT the General Assembly adopts this application expressly subject to the following reservations, understandings, and declarations:

(1) An application to the United States Congress to call an amendment convention of the states pursuant to Article V of the United States Constitution confers no power to the United States Congress other than the power to call such a convention. The power of the United States Congress to exercise this ministerial duty consists solely of the authority to name a reasonable time and place for the initial meeting of a convention;

(2) The United States Congress shall perform its ministerial duty of calling an amendment convention of the states only upon the receipt of applications for an amendment convention for the substantially same purpose as this application from two-thirds (2/3) of the legislatures of the several states;

(3) The United States Congress does not have the power or authority to determine any rules for the governing of a convention for proposing amendments called pursuant to Article V of the United States Constitution. The United States Congress does not have the power to set the number of delegates to be sent by any state to such a convention, nor does it have the power to name delegates to such a convention. The power to name delegates remains exclusively within the authority of the legislatures of the several states;

(4) By definition, an amendment convention of the states means that states shall vote on the basis of one (1) state, one (1) vote;

(5) A convention for proposing amendments convened pursuant to this application shall be limited to consideration of the topics specified herein and no other. This application is made with the express understanding that an amendment that in any way seeks to amend, modify, or repeal any provision of the Bill of Rights of the United States Constitution shall not be authorized for consideration at any stage. This application shall be void ab initio if ever used at any stage to consider any change to any provision of the Bill of Rights of the United States Constitution;

(6) Pursuant to Article V of the United States Constitution, the United States Congress may determine whether proposed amendments shall be ratified by the legislatures of the several states or by special state ratification conventions. The General Assembly recommends that the United States Congress select ratification by the legislatures of the several states; and

(7) The General Assembly may provide further instructions to its delegates and may recall its delegates at any time for a breach of a duty or a violation of the instructions provided.

Senator Garner moved the Senate adopt the following rule change:

THE RULES OF THE SENATE WHEN SITTING FOR THE PURPOSE OF AN IMPEACHMENT TRIAL

Section 1. Authority. Arkansas Constitution, Article 15, § 2, states that “The House of Representatives shall have the sole power of impeachment. All impeachments shall be tried by the Senate.”

Section 2. Definitions. For purposes of these rules:

(1) “Articles of impeachment” means the written accusation of the officer, drawn up and approved by the House of Representatives. The articles of impeachment shall state with reasonable certainty the high crimes and misdemeanors or gross misconduct for which the officer is impeached, and, if there is more than one (1), the high crimes and misdemeanors or gross misconduct shall be stated separately and distinctly;

(2) “House Prosecutor” means the person selected to represent the House Prosecution Committee in all appearances before the Senate related to the impeachment trial. The House Prosecutor may be a member of the House of Representatives or the legal counsel for the House Prosecution Committee;

(3) “Impeachment” means the prosecution by the House of Representatives before the Senate of the Governor, a State officer, or a judge for high crimes and misdemeanors or gross misconduct in office;

(4) “Presiding officer” means the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. If the Chief Justice is impeached or otherwise disqualified, the Senate shall select the presiding officer; and

(5) “Respondent” means a person against whom the House of Representatives has adopted and presented articles of impeachment to the Senate, and shall include reference to his or her legal counsel, if any.

Section 3. Receiving the Articles of Impeachment from the House of Representatives.

(a) The President Pro Tempore of the Senate shall set a date for a business meeting of the Senate to occur within five (5) calendar days of receiving notice from the Speaker of the House of Representatives that articles of impeachment have been approved by the House of Representatives and a House Prosecution Committee has been appointed to present the articles of impeachment to the Senate.

(b) The purpose of the business meeting of the Senate is to:

(1) Hear the presentation of the articles of impeachment by the House Prosecutor;

(2) Hear the answer of the Respondent to the articles of impeachment;

(3) Adopt a calendar for pre-trial proceedings and the date of commencement of the impeachment trial; and

(4) Issue the oath provided for in Section 6 of these rules as required by Arkansas Constitution Article 15, section 2 to all members of the Senate and to the Presiding Officer.

(c) The House Prosecution Committee shall be introduced to the Senate and then the House Prosecutor shall proceed to present the articles of impeachment approved by the House of Representatives.

(d) The House Prosecution Committee shall provide the articles of impeachment and the entire record of impeachment proceedings in the House of Representatives to the Secretary of the Senate. Upon acceptance by the Secretary of the Senate the articles of impeachment and the impeachment record will be considered filed of record with the Senate.

(e) Upon conclusion of the presentation of the articles of impeachment to the Senate by the House Prosecutor, the Respondent shall verbally enter a plea to each article of impeachment.

(f) Following the entry of the Respondent's plea, the Senate shall adjourn until a date and time set by the President Pro Tempore of the Senate for the trial.

(g) If the House Prosecution Committee presents articles of impeachment for more than one (1) person, the Senate shall conduct a separate trial of each Respondent individually.

Section 4. Entry of Plea or Pleas; Answer of Respondent.

(a) The Respondent shall have the right to appear at the initial business meeting of the Senate and hear the presentation of the articles of impeachment. Following presentation of the articles of impeachment, the Respondent shall enter on the record his or her plea on each article.

(1) If the Respondent appears and pleads not guilty to each article, the pre-trial schedule and trial shall proceed.

(2) If the Respondent appears and pleads guilty to one (1) or more articles, the Senate shall immediately proceed to a vote regarding judgment and removal from office. A vote regarding disqualification from holding further office shall take place at a later date and time set by the President Pro Tempore of the Senate.

(b) If the Respondent fails to appear after being notified, or appears but fails to answer the articles of impeachment, the Senate shall proceed ex parte.

(c) The Respondent shall submit a written answer and brief detailing his or her response to the articles of impeachment. Respondent may attach any evidence deemed relevant to the matter, including affidavits and depositions of witnesses. The brief shall include all arguments that Respondent plans to present at the trial.

(d) A date shall be set by the President Pro Tempore of the Senate for submission of the Respondent's written answer to the articles of impeachment, which once received shall be filed of record with the Secretary of the Senate.

Section 5. Summons.

(a) When the date of the business meeting of the Senate for receipt of the articles of impeachment is set, the Respondent shall be summoned by a precept issued by the Secretary of State to appear before the Senate on that day.

(b) The precept shall be served by delivering a copy of the precept and of the articles of impeachment to the Respondent in person, if found, or by leaving the copy of the precept and of the articles of impeachment at his or her residence with a member of his or her family over sixteen (16) years of age.

(c) If the Respondent fails to appear, the Senate shall proceed ex parte.

Section 6. Oaths.

(a) Senators.

(1) At the business meeting set for the purpose of receiving the articles of impeachment from the House Prosecution Committee, each Senator shall take the following oath: "I do solemnly swear or affirm that I will faithfully and impartially try the impeachment against [impeached party], and give my decision according to the law and evidence."

(2) Any Senator not present at the business meeting, shall be administered the oath upon entering the Senate chambers during the trial. The Secretary of the Senate shall maintain a record of the Senators who have been administered the oath.

(3) An allegation of violation of the oath set out in subdivision (a)(1) of this section, may be brought to the Select Committee on Senate Ethics, under that committee's procedures set out in Senate Rule 24.

(b) Presiding Officer. At the commencement of the business meeting set for the purpose of receiving the articles of impeachment, the Presiding Officer shall be issued the following oath: "I do solemnly swear or affirm that I will support the Constitution of the United States and of the State of Arkansas and will faithfully discharge the duties of Presiding Officer in all matters that come before the Senate regarding the trial of impeachment to the best of my skill and judgment.”

(c) Witnesses. The following oath shall be taken and subscribed by every witness prior to providing testimony: “Do you solemnly swear or affirm that the testimony you are about to give shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth?” The witness shall answer “I do”. The Presiding Officer shall administer the oath to each witness.

Section 7. Pre-Trial Proceedings.

(a) Discovery. Respondent may request and the House Prosecutor shall disclose and make available to Respondent for inspection and copying the following:

(1) Any evidence the House Prosecutor intends to introduce in the trial, whether held in writing, recording, photographic format, electronic format, or other format;

(2) A listing of all persons the House Prosecutor intends to call as witnesses in the trial, including a summary of their expected testimony, and a listing of any witnesses who may require a subpoena to appear; and

(3) A written summary of any expert testimony the House Prosecutor intends to use during the trial. The written summary shall describe the expert witness’s opinions, the bases and reasons for the opinions, and the witness’s qualifications.

(b) A date for discovery deadlines shall be set in the pre-trial calendar.

(c) Depositions of Witnesses.

(1) Upon the request of the Respondent or the House Prosecutor, the President Pro Tempore of the Senate shall establish a time frame for taking depositions of witnesses who are unable to attend the impeachment trial.

(2) Depositions shall only be taken when the witness certifies that he or she is unable to attend the impeachment trial due to sickness or other infirmity or due to the distance and expense of travel to attend the trial in person.

(3) Depositions shall be taken in the same manner, and the same notice shall be given, as is required under Rule 30 of the Arkansas Rules of Civil Procedure as it existed on January 1, 2019.

(4) Any individual who is deposed shall be identified on the respective party’s witness list.

Section 8. Subpoenas.

(a) Requests for subpoenas for witnesses, documents, or other materials may be made by the House Prosecutor or the Respondent in the form of a written motion submitted to the Presiding Officer, with a copy submitted to the Secretary of the Senate. The motion shall include a showing that the subpoena is reasonably required to obtain information that cannot be obtained through voluntary requests for information.

(b) A motion for a subpoena for witness testimony shall contain the name, address, and telephone number of the witness, a description of the subject matter of the testimony, an explanation of why the testimony is relevant, material, and not redundant, and shall indicate when the party seeks to have the witness testify before the Senate.

(c) A motion for subpoena duces tecum shall specify the documents or other materials to be produced and the material or relevant facts to be proved by them.

(d) The Presiding Officer shall submit all motions for a subpoena to the full Senate for its decision. Passage of the motion and issuance of the subpoena requested requires an affirmative vote of a majority of the membership of the Senate, or at least eighteen (18) members.

(e) If a motion for a subpoena is granted, the subpoena shall be issued by the President Pro Tempore of the Senate.

(f) Any subpoenas issued by the Senate shall be served by the State Capitol Police.

Section 9. Rules of Evidence.

(a) Evidence may be admitted that is relevant, material, and not redundant. Formal rules of evidence used in Arkansas state and federal courts do not apply to impeachment trials before the Senate.

(b) The House Prosecutor or the Respondent may object to the admission or exclusion of evidence. Any objection shall be addressed to the Presiding Officer. No objection, however, shall be made against all or any part of the House of Representatives' impeachment record filed by the House Prosecution Committee with the Secretary of the Senate.

(c) The Presiding Officer may rule on an objection, and his or her ruling shall stand unless a Senator asks that the Senate override the ruling of the Presiding Officer, at which time an affirmative vote of a majority of the membership of the Senate may override the ruling.

(d) The Presiding Officer may decide to submit an objection to the Senate for its determination.

(e) Consideration of an objection or an override of a ruling on an objection by the Senate is not debatable and may be taken by voice vote.

(f) The House Prosecution Committee shall have the burden of proof as to all factual allegations in the articles of impeachment.

Section 11. Attendance of Senators.

(a) Every senator shall attend all impeachment proceedings unless excused by the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, if the senator is a member of the majority caucus, or the Minority Leader, if the senator is a member of the minority caucus.

(b) A Senator's absence shall not be excused for more than two (2) days of the impeachment proceedings. Absences in excess of two (2) days will result in the Senator being barred from voting on any final decisions of the impeachment trial.

(c) A Senator who is out for an excused absence shall be provided the opportunity to review all evidence and witness statements entered into the record of the impeachment trial for any date on which the Senator was absent.

Section 12. Court Reporter; Transcripts. All proceedings of the Senate related to impeachment shall be recorded by an official court reporter. The recordings of the court reporter shall be provided in an official transcript and filed with the Secretary of the Senate to be entered in the Senate Journal as a part of the record of the impeachment trial.

Section 13. Party Statements and Presentation of Evidence.

(a) At the date and time set for the commencement of the impeachment trial, the Presiding Officer shall call the Senate to order and then hear any preliminary matters or motions.

(b) Upon the conclusion of preliminary matters, the House Prosecutor may make an opening statement not to exceed thirty (30) minutes. The Respondent may then make an opening statement not to exceed thirty (30) minutes.

(c) The House Prosecutor shall proceed to present the case for impeachment. The Respondent shall then be provided the opportunity to present evidence relevant to the allegations against him or her as they appear in the articles of impeachment. The House Prosecutor shall have an opportunity to present any rebuttal upon conclusion of Respondent's case.

(d) Closing arguments shall follow the presentation of all evidence to the Senate. The House Prosecutor shall have sixty (60) minutes to present a closing argument. The Respondent shall have ninety (90) minutes to present a closing argument. The House Prosecutor shall then have thirty (30) minutes to present a rebuttal argument.

(e) The trial may be recessed or adjourned and continued from day to day, or to specific dates and times.

Section 14. Witnesses.

(a) Questioning by Parties. Each witness shall be examined by one (1) person on behalf of the party producing that witness and then cross-examined by one (1) person on the other side. The Presiding Officer shall permit redirect examination and may permit re-cross examination.

(b) Questioning by Senators.

(1) Upon completion of questioning of a witness by the parties, any Senator desiring to question a witness shall reduce his or her question to writing and present it to the Secretary of the Senate.

(2) Questions submitted by Senators shall be posed to the witness by the Presiding Officer without indicating the name of the Senator presenting the question.

(3) If an objection to the Senator's question is raised by a party, the objection shall be decided in the manner provided for in Section 9 of these rules.

(4) It shall never be in order for a Senator to directly question a witness or to interrupt the questioning of a witness by one of the parties.

Section 15. Public Access to Proceedings.

(a) The business meeting of the Senate to receive the articles of impeachment and the trial of impeachment shall be open meetings of the Senate, posted on the General Assembly website and made accessible to members of the public to attend in person or to view or hear online.

(b)(1) Upon conclusion of closing arguments, the Senators shall proceed into a closed meeting, pursuant to Arkansas Constitution, Article 5, § 13, to conduct Senate deliberations and debate on the evidence presented to them.

(2) Upon conclusion of their deliberations, the Senate shall convene in a public meeting, the date and time of which shall be announced and made accessible to the public, in order to conduct its vote and announce its verdict and judgment.

Section 16. Verdict and Judgment.

(2) The Presiding Officer shall state the question on each article of impeachment, as follows: "Shall the Senate sustain the [first, second, third] article of impeachment against Respondent, alleging [insert allegation language from particular article], and remove Respondent from the office of [insert Respondent's title]?"

(3) As the Secretary of the Senate calls each Senator's name, the Senator shall rise and answer "Yes" or "No".

(b) If two-thirds (2/3) of the senators elected, or at least twenty-four (24) Senators, vote to sustain one (1) or more article of impeachment against Respondent, a judgment of conviction and removal from office shall be pronounced and entered upon the Senate Journal.

(c) If Respondent is acquitted of any article of impeachment, a judgment of acquittal as to that article or articles shall be pronounced and entered upon the Senate Journal.

(d) If Respondent is convicted, a vote shall then be taken on the question of whether the Respondent shall also be disqualified to hold any office of honor, trust, or profit under the State of Arkansas. If two-thirds (2/3) of the Senators elected vote to disqualify, a judgment of disqualification shall be pronounced and entered upon the Senate Journal.

(e) A motion to reconsider the vote by which any article of impeachment is sustained or rejected is never in order.

REGULAR SESSION

BY: SENATORS G. STUBBLEFIELD, CALDWELL, HICKEY, HILL, RICE, FLIPPO, A. CLARK, HESTER, B. BALLINGER, RAPERT, D. WALLACE, BLEDSOE, K. HAMMER, J. COOPER, T. GARNER, IRVIN, B. DAVIS, M. JOHNSON

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION APPLYING TO THE UNITED STATES CONGRESS TO CALL A CONVENTION FOR PROPOSING AMENDMENTS PURSUANT TO ARTICLE V OF THE UNITED STATES CONSTITUTION, LIMITED TO PROPOSING AMENDMENTS THAT IMPOSE FISCAL RESTRAINTS ON THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT, LIMIT THE POWER AND JURISDICTION OF THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT, AND LIMIT THE TERMS OF OFFICE FOR ITS OFFICIALS AND FOR MEMBERS OF THE UNITED STATES CONGRESS.

Subtitle

APPLYING TO THE UNITED STATES CONGRESS TO CALL A CONVENTION FOR PROPOSING AMENDMENTS PURSUANT TO ARTICLE V OF THE UNITED STATES CONSTITUTION.

WHEREAS, the founders of the United States Constitution empowered state legislators to be guardians of liberty against excessive use of power by the federal government; and

WHEREAS, the federal government has created a crushing national debt through improper and imprudent spending; and

WHEREAS, the federal government has ceased to operate under a proper interpretation of the United States Constitution; and

WHEREAS, the federal government has invaded the legitimate roles of the states through the manipulative process of federal mandates, most of which are unfunded to a great extent; and

WHEREAS, it is the solemn duty of the states to protect the liberty of our people, particularly for the generations to come, by proposing amendments to the United States Constitution through a convention of the states under Article V of the United States Constitution for the purpose of restraining these and related abuses of power,

NOW THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE NINETY-SECOND GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ARKANSAS AND BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, A MAJORITY OF ALL MEMBERS ELECTED TO EACH HOUSE AGREEING THERETO:

THAT the General Assembly hereby applies to the United States Congress, under the provisions of Article V of the United States Constitution, for the calling of a convention of the states limited to proposing amendments to the United States Constitution that impose fiscal restraints on the federal government, limit the power and jurisdiction of the federal government, and limit the terms of office for its officials and for members of the United States Congress.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED THAT the Secretary of the Senate is hereby directed to transmit copies of this application to the President of the United States Senate, the Secretary of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, the Clerk of the United States House of Representatives, the members of the Arkansas congressional delegation, and the presiding officers of each house of the legislatures in the several states, requesting their cooperation.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED THAT this application constitutes a continuing application in accordance with Article V of the United States Constitution until the legislatures of at least two-thirds (2/3) of the several states have made applications on the same subject.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED THAT the General Assembly adopts this application expressly subject to the following reservations, understandings, and declarations:

(1) An application to the United States Congress to call an amendment convention of the states pursuant to Article V of the United States Constitution confers no power to the United States Congress other than the power to call such a convention. The power of the United States Congress to exercise this ministerial duty consists solely of the authority to name a reasonable time and place for the initial meeting of a convention;

(2) The United States Congress shall perform its ministerial duty of calling an amendment convention of the states only upon the receipt of applications for an amendment convention for the substantially same purpose as this application from two-thirds (2/3) of the legislatures of the several states;

(3) The United States Congress does not have the power or authority to determine any rules for the governing of a convention for proposing amendments called pursuant to Article V of the United States Constitution. The United States Congress does not have the power to set the number of delegates to be sent by any state to such a convention, nor does it have the power to name delegates to such a convention. The power to name delegates remains exclusively within the authority of the legislatures of the several states;

(4) By definition, an amendment convention of the states means that states shall vote on the basis of one (1) state, one (1) vote;

(5) A convention for proposing amendments convened pursuant to this application shall be limited to consideration of the topics specified herein and no other. This application is made with the express understanding that an amendment that in any way seeks to amend, modify, or repeal any provision of the Bill of Rights of the United States Constitution shall not be authorized for consideration at any stage. This application shall be void ab initio if ever used at any stage to consider any change to any provision of the Bill of Rights of the United States Constitution;

(6) Pursuant to Article V of the United States Constitution, the United States Congress may determine whether proposed amendments shall be ratified by the legislatures of the several states or by special state ratification conventions. The General Assembly recommends that the United States Congress select ratification by the legislatures of the several states;

(7) The General Assembly may provide further instructions to its delegates and may recall its delegates at any time for a breach of a duty or a violation of the instructions provided; and

(8) Delegates are bound to the instructions provided by the General Assembly and a failure to follow the instructions provided constitutes a breach of the delegate's duty and subjects them to recall and replacement.

6-60-1002. Legislative intent.

The General Assembly finds that:

(1) The First Amendment of the United States Constitution and the Arkansas Constitution protect the rights of free speech, freedom of the press, freedom of religion, and freedom of association for all citizens;

(2) The United States Supreme Court has called public universities "peculiarly the marketplace of ideas," Healy v. James, 408 U.S. 169, 180 (1972), where young adults learn to exercise these constitutional rights necessary to participate in our system of government and to tolerate the exercise of those rights by others, and there is "no room for the view that . . . First Amendment protections should apply with less force on college campuses than in the community at large," Healy, 408 U.S. at 180;

(3) The exercise of First Amendment rights on the campuses of state-supported institutions of higher education in this state is a critical component of the education experience for students and requires that each state-supported institution of higher education in this state ensure free, robust, and uninhibited debate and deliberation by students, whether on or off campus;

(4) State-supported institutions of higher education in this state and elsewhere should provide adequate safeguards for the First Amendment rights of their students to avoid a stifling of expression on campus;

(5) The United States Supreme Court has warned that if state-supported institutions of higher education stifle student speech and prevent the open exchange of ideas on campus, "our civilization will stagnate and die", Sweezy vs. New Hampshire, 354 U.S. 234, 250 (1957);

(6) A significant amount of taxpayer dollars is appropriated to state-supported institutions of higher education each year, and the General Assembly must ensure that all state-supported institutions of higher education receiving state funds recognize freedom of speech as a fundamental right for all; and

(7) State-supported institutions of higher education should strive to ensure the fullest degree of intellectual and academic freedom and free expression, and it is not the proper role of state-supported institutions of higher education to shield individuals from speech that is protected by the First Amendment to the United States Constitution, including without limitation ideas and opinions the individuals may find unwelcome, uncollegial, disagreeable, or even deeply offensive."

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION AN AMENDMENT TO THE ARKANSAS CONSTITUTION CONCERNING THE REQUIREMENTS GOVERNING CIRCULATION, SUBMISSION, AND CHALLENGES TO THE SUFFICIENCY OF INITIATED MEASURES PROPOSED UNDER ARKANSAS CONSTITUTION, ARTICLE 5, § 1, AND CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS PROPOSED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Subtitle

TO AMEND THE ARKANSAS CONSTITUTION CONCERNING THE REQUIREMENTS GOVERNING CIRCULATION, SUBMISSION, AND CHALLENGES TO THE SUFFICIENCY OF INITIATIVES AND CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS PROPOSED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE NINETY-SECOND GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ARKANSAS, AND BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, A MAJORITY OF ALL MEMBERS ELECTED TO EACH HOUSE AGREEING THERETO:

THAT the following is proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Arkansas, and upon being submitted to the electors of the state for approval or rejection at the next general election for Representatives and Senators, if a majority of the electors voting thereon at the election adopt the amendment, the amendment shall become a part of the Constitution of the State of Arkansas, to wit:

SECTION 1. The subsection of Arkansas Constitution, Article 5, § 1, titled "Initiative", is amended to read as follows:

Initiative. The first power reserved by the people is the initiative. Eight ~~per cent~~ percent (8%) of the legal voters may propose any law and ten ~~per cent~~ percent (10%) may propose a constitutional amendment by initiative petition and every such petition shall include the full text of the measure so proposed. Initiative petitions for state-wide measures shall be filed with the Secretary of State ~~not less~~ no later than four months January 15 before of the year of the election at which they are to be voted upon; provided, that at least thirty (30) days before the aforementioned filing, the proposed measure shall have been published once, at the expense of the petitioners, in some paper of general circulation.

SECTION 2. The subsection of Arkansas Constitution, Article 5, § 1, titled "Referendum", is amended to read as follows:

Referendum. The second power reserved by the people is the referendum, and any number not less than six ~~per cent~~ percent (6%) of the legal voters may, by petition, order the referendum against any general Act, or any item of an appropriation bill, or measure passed by the General Assembly, but the filing of a referendum petition against one (1) or more items, sections or parts of any such act or measure shall not delay the remainder from becoming operative. Such petition shall be filed with the Secretary of State not later than ninety (90) days after the final adjournment of the session at which such Act was passed, except when a recess or adjournment shall be taken temporarily for a longer period than ninety (90) days, in which case such petition shall be filed not later than ninety (90) days after such recess or temporary adjournment. Any measure referred to the people by referendum petition shall remain in abeyance until such vote is taken. The total number of votes cast for the office of Governor in the last preceding general election shall be the basis upon which the number of signatures of legal voters upon state-wide initiative and referendum petitions shall be computed.

Upon all initiative or referendum petitions provided for in any of the sections of this article, it shall be necessary to file ~~from at least fifteen of the counties of the State,~~ petitions bearing the signature of not less than one-half (1/2) of the designated percentage of the electors of such county at least one-fourth (1/4) of the counties in each congressional district. In calculating the number of counties representing one-fourth (1/4) of the counties within a congressional district, the number shall be rounded up to the nearest whole number.

SECTION 3. The subsection of Arkansas Constitution, Article 5, § 1, titled "Verification", is amended to read as follows:

Verification. Initiative petitions shall not be circulated more than two (2) years before the election at which they are to be voted upon.

Only legal votes shall be counted upon petitions. Petitions may be circulated and presented in parts, but each part of any petition shall have attached thereto the affidavit of the person circulating the same, that all signatures thereon were made in the presence of the affiant, and that to the best of the affiant's knowledge and belief each signature is genuine, and that the person signing is a legal voter and no other affidavit or verification shall be required to establish the genuineness of such signatures.

SECTION 4. The subsection of Arkansas Constitution, Article 5, § 1, titled "Court Decisions", is amended to read as follows:

Court Decisions. SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION - AN AMENDMENT TO THE ARKANSAS CONSTITUTION TO REVISE THE PROCESS FOR SUBMITTING INITIATIVES, REFERENDA, AND CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS TO THE VOTERS FOR APPROVAL.

Subtitle

AN AMENDMENT TO THE ARKANSAS CONSTITUTION TO REVISE THE PROCESS FOR SUBMITTING INITIATIVES, REFERENDA, AND CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS TO THE VOTERS FOR APPROVAL.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE NINETY-SECOND GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ARKANSAS, AND BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, A MAJORITY OF ALL MEMBERS ELECTED TO EACH HOUSE AGREEING THERETO:

THAT the following is proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Arkansas, and upon being submitted to the electors of the state for approval or rejection at the next general election for Representatives and Senators, if a majority of the electors voting thereon at the election adopt the amendment, the amendment shall become a part of the Constitution of the State of Arkansas, to wit:

SECTION 1. Arkansas Constitution, Article 5, § 1, is amended to read as follows:

§ 1. Initiative and Referendum.

The legislative power of the people of this State shall be vested in a General Assembly, which shall consist of the Senate and House of Representatives, but the people reserve to themselves the power to propose legislative measures, laws and amendments to the Constitution, and to enact or reject the same at the polls independent of the General Assembly; and also reserve the power, at their own option to approve or reject at the polls any entire act or any item of an appropriation bill.

Initiative. The first power reserved by the people is the initiative. Eight ~~per-cent~~ percent (8%) of the legal voters may propose any law and ten ~~per-cent~~ percent (10%) may propose a constitutional amendment by initiative petition and every such petition shall include the full text of the measure so proposed. Initiative petitions for ~~state-wide~~ statewide measures shall be filed with the Secretary of State not less than ~~four months before~~ March 1 of the year of the election at which they are to be voted upon; provided, that at least thirty (30) days before the aforementioned filing, the proposed measure shall have been published once, at the expense of the petitioners, in some paper of general circulation.

The General Assembly shall enact laws establishing a process for the approval or certification of the title of a statewide initiative petition prior to circulation. The title of a statewide initiative petition shall not be submitted for approval or certification more than two (2) years or less than one (1) year before the general election at which the initiative would be voted upon. This section does not require the General Assembly to require a process for determining the sufficiency of the title of a statewide initiative petition prior to circulation.

After obtaining approval or certification of the title of the statewide initiative petition, the petitioner shall notify the Secretary of State of the date that petitions will first be circulated. The notification to the Secretary of State shall be at least five (5) days before the circulation of a petition. Signatures on a initiative petition that was circulated prior to approval of the title under this section are invalid.

Referendum. The second power reserved by the people is the referendum, and any number not less than six ~~per-cent~~ percent (6%) of the legal voters may, by petition, order the referendum against any general Act, or any item of an appropriation bill, or measure passed by the General Assembly, but the filing of a referendum petition against one (1) or more items, sections or parts of any such act or measure shall not delay the remainder from becoming operative. Such petition shall be filed with the Secretary of State not later than ninety (90) days after the final adjournment of the session at which such Act was passed, except when a recess or adjournment shall be taken temporarily for a longer period than ninety days, in which case such petition shall be filed not later than ninety (90) days after such recess or temporary adjournment. Any measure referred to the people by referendum petition shall remain in abeyance until such vote is taken. The total number of votes cast for the office of Governor in the last preceding general election shall be the basis upon which the number of signatures of legal voters upon ~~state-wide~~ statewide initiative and referendum petitions shall be computed.

The General Assembly shall enact laws establishing a process for the approval or certification of the title of a statewide referendum petition before circulation. After obtaining approval or certification of the title, the petitioner shall notify the Secretary of State of the date that petitions will first be circulated. The notification to the Secretary of State shall be at least five (5) days before the circulation of a petition. This section does not require the General Assembly to require a process for determining the sufficiency of the title of a statewide referendum petition prior to circulation.

Upon all initiative or referendum petitions provided for in any of the sections of this article, it shall be necessary to file from ~~at least fifteen~~ a majority of the counties of the State, petitions bearing the signature of not less than one-half (1/2) of the designated percentage of the electors of such county.

Emergency. If it shall be necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety that a measure shall become effective without delay, such necessity shall be stated in one (1) section, and if upon a yea and nay vote two-thirds (2/3) of all the members elected to each house, or two-thirds (2/3) of all the members elected to city or town councils, shall vote upon separate roll call in favor of the measure going into immediate operation, such emergency measure shall become effective without delay. It shall be necessary, however, to state the fact which constitutes such emergency. Provided, however, that an emergency shall not be declared on any franchise or special privilege or act creating any vested right or interest or alienating any property of the State. If a referendum is filed against any emergency measure such measure shall be a law until it is voted upon by the people, and if it is then rejected by a majority of the electors voting thereon, it shall be thereby repealed. The provision of this ~~sub-section~~ subsection shall apply to city or town councils.

Local for Municipalities and Counties. The initiative and referendum powers of the people are hereby further reserved to the legal voters of each municipality and county as to all local, special and municipal legislation of every character in and for their respective municipalities and counties, but no local legislation shall be enacted contrary to the Constitution or any general law of the State, and any general law shall have the effect of repealing any local legislation which is in conflict therewith.

Municipalities may provide for the exercise of the initiative and referendum as to their local legislation. General laws shall be enacted providing for the exercise of the initiative and referendum as to counties. ~~Fifteen per cent~~ percent (15%) of the legal voters of any municipality or county may order the referendum, or invoke the initiative upon any local measure. In municipalities the number of signatures required upon any petition shall be computed upon the total vote cast for the office of mayor at the last preceding general election; in counties upon the office of circuit clerk. In municipalities and counties the time for filing an initiative petition shall not be fixed at less than sixty (60) days nor more than ninety (90) days before the election at which it is to be voted upon; for a referendum petition at not less than thirty (30) days nor more than ninety (90) days after the passage of such measure by a municipal council; nor less than ninety (90) days when filed against a local or special measure passed by the General Assembly.

Every extension, enlargement, grant, or conveyance of a franchise or any rights, property, easement, lease, or occupation of or in any road, street, alley or any part thereof in real property or interest in real property owned by municipalities, exceeding in value three hundred dollars ($300), whether the same be by statute, ordinance, resolution, or otherwise, shall be subject to referendum and shall not be subject to emergency legislation.

(3)(C) The years of service in both the Senate and the House of Representatives shall be added together and included to determine the total number of years in office of a member of the General Assembly first elected as a member of the General Assembly prior to January 1, 2021.

(4)(D) A partial legislative term served as a result of a special election under Article 5, § 6, or a two-year term served as a result of apportionment of the Senate shall not be included in calculating the total number of years served by a member of the General Assembly first elected as a member of the General Assembly prior to January 1, 2021.

§ 7. Authority to propose amendments.

(a) The citizens of the State of Arkansas find that:

(3) The ability to amend legislative term limits in the future should be limited to a referral to the qualified electors of the state by the General Assembly to ensure that the legislative branch provides the citizens of the state with experienced representation and is immune from outside forces revising term limits in a manner that is not in the best interests of the state.

(b)(1) The power to propose an amendment to this Constitution amending or repealing term limits for members of the House of Representatives or Senate is reserved to the General Assembly under Arkansas Constitution, Article 19, § 22.

(2) The people of the State of Arkansas do not have authority under Arkansas Constitution, Article 5, § 1, to propose an amendment to this Constitution amending or repealing term limits for members of the House of Representatives or Senate.

(2)(a)(i) A person first elected as a District Judge on or after January 1, 2021, shall not serve more than twelve (12) consecutive years as a District Judge.

(ii) A District Judge under this subdivision (C)(2) who serves twelve (12) or more consecutive years shall not be eligible for subsequent service as a District Judge until four (4) years after the expiration of the last term of office for which he or she was elected.

(b) A District Judge under this subdivision (C)(2) who completes his or her twelfth year of service during a term of office for which he or she has been elected may serve until the completion of that term of office.

(c) Service as an appointed District Judge to fill a vacancy shall be considered toward the twelve-year limitation under this subdivision (C)(2).

(d) Service as a Special Judge under § 13 of this amendment shall not be considered toward the twelve-year limitation under this subdivision (C)(2).

(e) This subdivision (C)(2) does not apply to a person first elected as a District Judge prior to January 1, 2021.

(D) All Justices and Judges shall be qualified electors within the geographical area from which they are chosen, and Circuit and District Judges shall reside within that geographical area at the time of election and during their period of service. A geographical area may include any county contiguous to the county to be served when there are no qualified candidates available in the county to be served.

(E) The General Assembly shall by law determine the amount and method of payment of expenses of Justices and Judges. Such expenses may be increased, but not diminished, during the term for which such Justices or Judges are selected or elected.

(F) Circuit, District, and Appellate Court Judges and Justices shall not be allowed any fees or perquisites of office, nor hold any other office of trust or profit under this state or the United States, except as authorized by law.

SECTION 6. Arkansas Constitution, Amendment 80, is amended to add an additional section to read as follows:

§ 23. Authority to propose amendments.

(a) The citizens of the State of Arkansas find that:

(1) The term limits for Justices of the Supreme Court, Judges of the Court of Appeals, Circuit Judges, and District Judges established under this amendment should be balanced by the need to maintain an experienced judicial branch that can serve as an effective check on the executive and legislative branches;

(2) Frequent amendments to judicial term limits initiated by special interests and others outside of the General Assembly would serve to weaken the judicial branch and impair the representation of Arkansas citizens; and

(3) The ability to amend judicial term limits in the future should be limited to a referral to the qualified electors of the state by the General Assembly to ensure that the judicial branch provides the citizens of the state with experienced representation and is immune from outside forces revising term limits in a manner that is not in the best interests of the state.

(b)(1) The power to propose an amendment to this Constitution amending or repealing the term limits for Justices of the Supreme Court, Judges of the Court of Appeals, Circuit Judges, and District Judges established under this amendment is reserved to the General Assembly under Arkansas Constitution, Article 19, § 22.

(2) The people of the State of Arkansas do not have authority under Arkansas Constitution, Article 5, § 1, to propose an amendment to this Constitution amending or repealing the term limits for Justices of the Supreme Court, Judges of the Court of Appeals, Circuit Judges, and District Judges established under this amendment.

SECTION 7. This amendment shall be effective on and after January 1, 2021.

SECTION 8. BALLOT TITLE AND POPULAR NAME. When this proposed amendment is submitted to the electors of this state on the general election ballot:

(1) The title of this joint resolution shall be the ballot title; and

(2) The popular name shall be "An Amendment to the Arkansas Constitution Addressing Arkansas Term Limits by Reducing Term Limits for Members of the General Assembly, Establishing Term Limits for Justices of the Supreme Court, Judges of the Court of Appeals, Circuit Judges, and District Judges, and Providing that Future Revisions to Term Limits for the General Assembly and the Judiciary Be Proposed by the General Assembly".

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION -- APPLYING TO THE UNITED STATES CONGRESS TO CALL A CONVENTION FOR PROPOSING AMENDMENTS PURSUANT TO ARTICLE V OF THE UNITED STATES CONSTITUTION, LIMITED TO PROPOSING AMENDMENTS THAT IMPOSE FISCAL RESTRAINTS ON THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT, LIMIT THE POWER AND JURISDICTION OF THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT, AND LIMIT THE TERMS OF OFFICE FOR ITS OFFICIALS AND FOR MEMBERS OF THE UNITED STATES CONGRESS.

Subtitle

APPLYING TO THE UNITED STATES CONGRESS TO CALL A CONVENTION FOR PROPOSING AMENDMENTS PURSUANT TO ARTICLE V OF THE UNITED STATES CONSTITUTION.

WHEREAS, the founders of the United States Constitution empowered state legislators to be guardians of liberty against excessive use of power by the federal government; and

WHEREAS, the federal government has created a crushing national debt through improper and imprudent spending; and

WHEREAS, the federal government has ceased to operate under a proper interpretation of the United States Constitution; and

WHEREAS, the federal government has invaded the legitimate roles of the states through the manipulative process of federal mandates, most of which are unfunded to a great extent; and

WHEREAS, it is the solemn duty of the states to protect the liberty of our people, particularly for the generations to come, by proposing amendments to the United States Constitution through a convention of the states under Article V of the United States Constitution for the purpose of restraining these and related abuses of power,

NOW THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE NINETY-SECOND GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ARKANSAS AND BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, A MAJORITY OF ALL MEMBERS ELECTED TO EACH HOUSE AGREEING THERETO:

THAT the General Assembly hereby applies to the United States Congress, under the provisions of Article V of the United States Constitution, for the calling of a convention of the states limited to proposing amendments to the United States Constitution that impose fiscal restraints on the federal government, limit the power and jurisdiction of the federal government, and limit the terms of office for its officials and for members of the United States Congress.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED THAT the Secretary of the Senate is hereby directed to transmit copies of this application to the President of the United States Senate, the Secretary of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, the Clerk of the United States House of Representatives, the members of the Arkansas congressional delegation, and the presiding officers of each house of the legislatures in the several states, requesting their cooperation.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED THAT this application constitutes a continuing application in accordance with Article V of the United States Constitution until the legislatures of at least two-thirds (2/3) of the several states have made applications on the same subject.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED THAT the General Assembly adopts this application expressly subject to the following reservations, understandings, and declarations:

(1) An application to the United States Congress to call an amendment convention of the states pursuant to Article V of the United States Constitution confers no power to the United States Congress other than the power to call such a convention. The power of the United States Congress to exercise this ministerial duty consists solely of the authority to name a reasonable time and place for the initial meeting of a convention;

(2) The United States Congress shall perform its ministerial duty of calling an amendment convention of the states only upon the receipt of applications for an amendment convention for the substantially same purpose as this application from two-thirds (2/3) of the legislatures of the several states;

(3) The United States Congress does not have the power or authority to determine any rules for the governing of a convention for proposing amendments called pursuant to Article V of the United States Constitution. The United States Congress does not have the power to set the number of delegates to be sent by any state to such a convention, nor does it have the power to name delegates to such a convention. The power to name delegates remains exclusively within the authority of the legislatures of the several states;

(4) By definition, an amendment convention of the states means that states shall vote on the basis of one (1) state, one (1) vote;

(5) A convention for proposing amendments convened pursuant to this application shall be limited to consideration of the topics specified herein and no other. This application is made with the express understanding that an amendment that in any way seeks to amend, modify, or repeal any provision of the Bill of Rights of the United States Constitution shall not be authorized for consideration at any stage. This application shall be void ab initio if ever used at any stage to consider any change to any provision of the Bill of Rights of the United States Constitution;

(6) Pursuant to Article V of the United States Constitution, the United States Congress may determine whether proposed amendments shall be ratified by the legislatures of the several states or by special state ratification conventions. The General Assembly recommends that the United States Congress select ratification by the legislatures of the several states;

(7) The General Assembly may provide further instructions to its delegates and may recall its delegates at any time for a breach of a duty or a violation of the instructions provided; and

(8) Delegates are bound to the instructions provided by the General Assembly and a failure to follow the instructions provided constitutes a breach of the delegate's duty and subjects them to recall and replacement.

(e) The amounts under § 24-11-217 shall be reduced proportionately so that the remainder portion for general revenue does not fall below four million dollars ($4,000,000).

(A) The general revenue portion resulting from this subsection does not fall below four million dollars ($4,000,000); and

(B) If the amount resulting from the application of the percentages under subdivision (f)(1) (e)(1) of this section, and the amounts in subsections (b)-(d) (b) and (c) of this section, and the amounts described in § 24-11-217 in total reduce the general revenue portion of the allocation below four million dollars ($4,000,000), the amounts resulting from the percentages in this subsection take precedence.

SECTION 5. Arkansas Code § 24-11-217(a) and (b), concerning additional allocations for certain underfunded plans, are amended to read as follows:

~~(a)(1)(a)~~ Beginning with the allocation in fiscal year 2012, an additional allocation for certain underfunded plans as described in this section is created.

SECTION 6. Arkansas Code § 24-11-217(d) and (e), concerning additional allocations for certain underfunded plans, are amended to read as follows:

(d) ~~For the allocations in fiscal years 2012 through 2015, the amount of the additional allocation to a policemen's pension and relief fund or a firemen's relief and pension fund shall not be less than would have been provided by the Arkansas Fire and Police Pension Guarantee Fund under § 24-11-209 [repealed]~~ An amount that is not distributed due to a policemen's pension and relief fund or firemen's relief and pension fund not meeting the requirements of subsection (c) of this section shall be retained and used to supplement the amounts needed for future years when the reductions under subsection (e) of this section apply.

(e) The amounts provided under this ~~additional~~ allocation are subject to the limits under § 24-11-215.

SECTION 7. EMERGENCY CLAUSE. It is found and determined by the General Assembly of the State of Arkansas that this act includes provisions that will impact premium tax distributions that will occur in June of 2019; and that this act is necessary because it will ensure that the operations of the Arkansas Local Police and Fire Retirement System and the Arkansas Fire and Police Pension Review

(1) Shall establish appropriate rates, terms, and conditions for ~~net-metering~~ net metering contracts, including:

~~(A)(i) A requirement that the rates charged to each net-metering customer recover the electric utility's entire cost of providing service to each net-metering customer within each of the electric utility's class of customers.~~

~~(ii) The electric utility's entire cost of providing service to each net-metering customer within each of the electric utility's class of customers under subdivision (b)(1)(A)(i) of this section:~~

~~(a) Includes without limitation any quantifiable additional cost associated with the net-metering customer's use of the electric utility's capacity, distribution system, or transmission system and any effect on the electric utility's reliability; and~~

~~(b) Is net of any quantifiable benefits associated with the interconnection with and providing service to the net-metering customer, including without limitation benefits to the electric utility's capacity, reliability, distribution system, or transmission system;~~ and

(2) For net metering customers who receive service under a rate that does not include a demand component, may:

(A) Take the following action:

(i) Approve a retail rate that shall be applied to all kilowatt hours that are supplied to a net metering customer by the electric utility during the period determined by a commission;

(ii) Apply the avoided cost of the electric utility plus any additional sum determined under this section to generation supplied to the electric utility by a net metering customer, during the period determined by a commission, and credited to the total bill of the net metering customer in a dollar value; and

(iii)(a) For the purposes provided in this subdivision (b)(2), authorize an additional sum to the avoided cost of the electric utility to be applied to the generation supplied to the electric utility by a net metering customer after the demonstration of quantifiable benefits.

(b) The additional sum to the avoided cost of the electric utility shall not be more than forty percent (40%) of the avoided cost of the electric utility; or

(B) Authorize an electric utility to assess a net metering customer that is being charged a rate that does not include a demand component a per-kilowatt-hour fee or charge to recover the quantifiable direct demand-related distribution cost of the electric utility for providing electricity to the net-metering customer that is not:

~~(2)(4)~~ May authorize an electric utility to assess a net-metering customer a greater fee or charge of any type, if the electric utility's direct costs of interconnection and administration of net metering outweigh the distribution system, environmental, and public policy benefits of allocating the costs among the electric utility's entire customer base;

~~(6)(9)~~ Shall provide that:

(A)(i) The amount of the net excess generation credit as measured in kilowatt hours or kilowatt hours multiplied by the applicable rate remaining in a net-metering customer's account at the close of a billing cycle shall not expire and shall be carried forward to subsequent billing cycles indefinitely.

(ii) However, for net excess generation credits older than twenty-four (24) months, a net-metering customer may elect to have the electric utility purchase the net excess generation credits in the net-metering customer's account at the electric utility's ~~estimated annual average~~ avoided cost, ~~rate for wholesale energy plus any additional sum determined under this section~~, if the sum to be paid to the net-metering customer is at least one hundred dollars ($100).

(iii) An electric utility shall purchase at the electric utility's ~~estimated annual average~~ avoided cost, ~~rate for wholesale energy plus any~~ additional sum determined under this section, any net excess generation credit remaining in a net-metering customer's account when the net-metering customer:

- (b) Ceases to operate the net-metering facility; or
- (c) Transfers the net-metering facility to another person; and

(B) A renewable energy credit created as the result of electricity supplied by a net-metering customer is the property of the net-metering customer that generated the renewable energy credit; and

(c)(1) ~~As used in this section, "avoided costs":~~

~~(A) For the Arkansas Public Service Commission, means the same as defined in § 23-3-702; and~~

(2)(A)(i) At the net-metering customer's discretion, an electric utility may apply net-metering credits from a net-metering facility to the bill for another meter location if the net-metering facility and the separate meter location are under common ownership within a single electric utility's service area.

(ii) Subdivision (c)(2)(A)(i) of this section does not apply if more than two (2) customers that are governmental entities or other entities that are exempt from state and federal income tax defined under § 23-18-603(7)(C) co-locate at a site hosting the net-metering facility.

(B) Net excess generation shall be credited first to the net-metering customer's meter to which the net-metering facility is physically attached.

(C) After applying net excess generation under subdivision ~~(d)(2)(B)(c)(2)(B)~~ of this section and upon request of the net-metering customer under subdivision ~~(d)(2)(A)(c)(2)(A)~~ of this section, any remaining net excess generation shall be credited to one (1) or more of the net-metering customer's meters in the rank order provided by the net-metering customer.

(d) A person who acts as a lessor or service provider as described in § 23-18-603(7)(B) or (C) shall not be considered a public utility as defined in § 23-1-101(9).

(c) The governing body of a municipal utility may adopt ordinances, rules or regulations establishing the rates, terms and conditions allowing the interconnection of net-metering facilities, including generation facilities and energy storage devices whether owned or leased by a customer or operated by a third-party on behalf of a customer.

(d) The governing body of a municipal utility may limit the generating capacity of a net-metering facility to less than twenty-five kilowatts (25 kW) for residential customers or three hundred kilowatts (300 kW) for nonresidential customers only after the governing body finds that the capacity limit is necessary for reliable utility operations or the public health, safety, or welfare.

(e) The governing body of a municipal utility shall not establish a rate or fee that reduces the value of electric energy from a net-metering facility to below the avoided cost of the municipal utility.

(f) For customers who receive service under a rate that includes a demand component, the governing body of the municipal utility shall require an electric utility to credit a net-metering customer with any accumulated net excess generation in the next applicable billing period and base the bill of the customer on the net amount of electricity that the net-metering customer has received from or fed back to the electric utility during the billing period."
