c. Crediting of Contributions. The Program Manager generally shall credit Ccontributions to an Account as of the same Business Day as received in good order as determined by the Program Manager, provided such Ccontributions are delivered to and accepted by the Program Manager by 4:00 p.m. Eastern time on such Business Day, or upon such other Business Day as may be set forth in the then current ~~Program Description Plan Disclosure Documents~~. The Program Manager generally shall credit Ccontributions made by electronic fund transfer to an Account generally the next Business Day after the transfer is received in good order as determined by the Program Manager, provided such Ccontributions are delivered to and accepted by the Program Manager by 10:00 p.m. Eastern Time on such Business Day, or upon such Business Day, or upon such other Business Day as may be set forth in the then current ~~Program Description Plan Disclosure Documents~~.

d. Accounting of Contributions. On the Business Day of the investment of a €contribution by the Program Manager, units (or additional units) of the applicable Portfolio(s) will generally be reflected in the records of ~~tehthe~~ Program for the applicable Account. Contributions made by check, which are received in good order, will generally be considered received by the Program in a given year if received on or before December 31st of the same year, provided the checks are subsequently paid. Contributions made pursuant to an electronic funds transfer will generally be considered received by the Program in a given year if initiated by the Account owner on or before 10:00 p.m. Eastern Time on December 31st of such year, provided the funds are subsequently withdrawn from an Account owner's checking or savings account at another financial institution. Contributions made pursuant to an automatic investment plan will generally be considered received by the Program in the year the automatic investment debit has been deducted from an Account owner's checking or savings account at another financial institution.

e. Investment of Contributions. A €contribution to an Account is generally invested in units of the Portfolio(s) designated by the Account owner or assigned by the Program Manager and/or the Committee on the same Business Day as the crediting of the €contribution to an Account, or upon such other Business Day as may be set forth in the then current ~~Program Description Plan Disclosure Documents~~.

f. Accounting for Contribution. On the Business Day following the investment of a €contribution by the Program Manager, units (or additional units) of the applicable Portfolio(s) will generally be reflected in the records of the Program for the applicable Account.

g. Overfunding an Account. Any €contribution ~~made by an Account owner~~ will generally be returned ~~to the Account owner~~ in the event the €contribution exceeds the Contribution Maximum for the Designated ~~bBeneficiary~~. ~~All Accounts within the Program for the same Designated beneficiary will be aggregated for purposes of determining whether the Contribution Maximum has been exceeded.~~ At the Program Manager's discretion, a penalty may be imposed on €contributions which exceed the Contribution Maximum. The Program Manager may refuse €contributions, which it determines, in its sole discretion, appear to constitute an abuse of the Program.

h. Rollover Contributions. Rollover Contributions to an Account must be accompanied by an incoming rollover form (or such other form as approved by the Committee) executed by the Account owner and submitted in good order as determined by the Program Manager. An incoming rollover form (or other approved form) must include all information the Program Manager and/or Committee may require in order to process the Rollover Contribution in accordance with all requirements of the Program, including those specified in these rules ~~and regulations~~, the ~~Program Description Plan Disclosure Documents~~, and applicable federal and state law or ~~rule regulation~~. The Program Manager has the right, but not the obligation to reject an applicable form that does not contain all information requested. The Program Manager may record the entire amount of the ~~€~~contribution as earnings unless the incoming rollover form (or other approved form) is accompanied by a statement from the administrator or manager of the ~~Section 529 Q~~qualified ABLE program from which the Rollover Contribution is made detailing the amount of the Rollover Contribution that constitutes principal and the amount of the Rollover Contribution that constitutes earnings, together with such other information as the Committee and/or Program Manager may require. Rollover Contributions to an Account may be subject to federal income tax and/or penalties as required by then current federal law or ~~regulation rule~~. Reporting and payment of any such federal or state taxes or penalties shall be the obligation of the Account owner.

5. Changes to an Account.

a. Change in Designated Beneficiary. To change the Designated ~~b~~Beneficiary of an Account, the Account owner must complete a Designated Beneficiary Change Form or such other form as the Committee shall approve (and any additional required documentation) and submit it in good order as determined by the Program Manager in accordance with all requirements of the Program, including those specified in these rules ~~and regulations~~, the ~~Program Description Plan Disclosure Documents~~, and applicable federal or state law or ~~regulation rule~~. The Program Manager has the right, but not the obligation to reject an applicable form that does not contain all information requested. If the Account owner's request is in good order (as determined by the Program Manager), the Designated ~~b~~Beneficiary on the Account will be changed to the new Designated ~~b~~Beneficiary on the records of the Program.

b. Partial Transfer of Account Assets to New Designated Beneficiary. To transfer some, but not all, assets from one Account to another Account, the Account owner must provide such information as is necessary for the Program Manager to process such transaction in accordance with all requirements of the Program, including those specified in these rules ~~and regulations~~, the ~~Program Description Plan Disclosure Documents~~, and applicable federal law or ~~rule regulation~~. If the Account owner's request is in good order as determined by the Program Manager the amount specified by the Account owner for transfer from the Account will be transferred to on the records of the Program to an Account for the benefit of the new Designated ~~b~~Beneficiary.

c. Successor Account owner. An Account owner may name a successor Account owner if permitted by the applicable form, and to the extent permissible in accordance with the Program Description Plan Disclosure Documents and applicable law. On notification to the Program Manager of the death of the Account owner, accompanied by a death certificate or other proof of death recognized under applicable law and such other information as the Program Manager requires, the Program Manager will change the Account owner for the Account on the records of the Program. In the event a qualified successor Account owner is not named on the Account Application Form or the named successor Account owner does not qualify for or accept the Account, and the Account owner has not disposed of the Account otherwise in a will, trust or other testamentary disposition, the Account will become part of the Account owner's estate surviving spouse of the Account owner will become the Account owner for the Account. In the event there is no surviving spouse and the Designated beneficiary is not a minor, the Designated beneficiary will become the Account owner for the Account. If the Designated beneficiary is a minor, the Designated beneficiary's custodial parent will become the Account owner for the Account. If the Designated beneficiary has more than one custodial parent the custodial parent whose birthday is earlier in the calendar year will become the Account owner for the Account. If a court of competent jurisdiction declares an Account owner legally incompetent and appoints a successor Account owner, the Program Manager will change the Account owner for the Account on the records of the Program.

d. Change in Account Owner. The Account owner may transfer ownership of an Account to another Eligible Participant Individual, if the transfer is made without consideration. The Account owner will be responsible for any adverse federal and state tax consequences arising from such a change. A change of Account owner must be accompanied by an account information change form or such other form as approved by the Committee and submitted in good order as determined by the Program Manager.

e. Account Owner Direction of the Investment of Contributions. Account owners cannot direct the investment of Ccontributions (or the earnings on Ccontributions) once they have been used to purchase units of the designated Portfolio(s). Account owners may change how investments are allocated up to two (2) times per year among the available Portfolio options in accordance with the then current Program Description Plan Disclosure Documents and applicable law or ruleregulation.

f. General. The ability of Account owners to affect changes in an Account and the consequences to Account owners may be affected by subsequent changes in federal and state legislation.

6. Penalties for Misrepresentations. In the event an Account owner makes any material misrepresentation in any oral or written communication with the Committee or the Program Manager, the Program Manager may terminate an Account owner's Account and may charge a penalty of up to fifteen percent (15%) on the investment earnings of the Account, and may seek to recover any losses incurred by the Program, the Committee, or the Program Manager as a result of such misrepresentation.

Section 56. Federal Reporting Requirements
