

Thoroughbred Rule 1255 Amendment Summary

This amendment is to allow imposition of fines in the amount currently authorized by Arkansas law.

Thoroughbred Rule 1255 Mark Up

1255. No racing official other than the Stewards and the Commission shall have the authority to impose a fine or suspension for violation of the Rules or state law. In instances where the individual rule does not specify the amount of the fine, the Stewards may impose a fine in the amount of $2,500, and the Commission may impose fines in the amount authorized by Arkansas law.

RECEIVED

NOV 23 2018

BUREAU OF
LEGISLATIVE RESEARCH