Yes, she is listed under Kristina Cates, ADC712198. She had some probation sentences from Miller and Hempstead County.

Miller County, 2002-530, forgery, 36 month probation
Miller County, 2011-637, forgery, 10 year probation
Hempstead County, 2012-18, Poss., furnishing Proh. Articles, B & E, Poss., Obstruct Gov. Op., 6 years probation
Miller County, 2012-62, Res. Burg, 10 year probation

She came to ADC on the below cases from Hempstead and Miller County:
2013-63 from Hempstead County 72 month sentence
2012-52(revo) from Miller County 72 month sentence

If she gets convicted of a residential burglary now, she would not have to serve 100%, at least looking at her Arkansas information. Remind them, that for the charge of residential burglary, to considered for 100% it has be committed after 04/01/2015. I am not able to run a background to check for any out of state charges. But keep in mind, that residential burglary, committed after 01/01/2018 serves 1/3, not 1/3.

Hope this helps.

Is there any way you can tell me if she has been in the ADC in the past? She has pending charges in Howard County, and the prosecutor tells me she has an extensive history, but I don't see anything online.

Also, she is now facing a res. Burg charge, and according to the prosecutor, she has 4 priors for res burg. Would a conviction for another res. Burg now be 100%? I hate they made this a violent crime because it really messes up what we have to tell our clients.

Hope you are staying safe as well as your loved ones. Take care of yourself.

Good afternoon Mr. Harrelson,

I have been asked to respond to your email below. ADC is not counting prior residential burglaries if they occurred before residential burglary was added to the list (4/1/2015) for serving 100%. If your clients prior residential burglary conviction was in 2012, he/she will not be required to serve 100% of the sentence.

Thank you.

Subject: Parole question re: second residential burglary conviction

Ms. Cryer: In the past, I had contacted Mr. DePriest regarding ADC parole issues, but I understand he has retired and I was directed to your office. If someone else at ADC handles these issues, please notify me or just forward this message to them and copy me so I can try to get some direction with my issue.

I have a client in Arkansas state court with a prior Arkansas residential burglary conviction from 2012. Client is now facing a new Arkansas residential burglary charge. If convicted a second time of residential burglary, I understood the statute requires them to serve 100% (no parole) of any sentence for residential burglary, BUT I recall from past cases that ADC may not be counting prior residential burglary convictions before the 2015 enactment of the statute as predicates for serving 100%. I'm trying to properly advise my client (and the prosecuting attorney). If you can help, I'd appreciate it. I'm working from home a lot, so if a call is better, my cell number is 903-293-3497. Thanks.
