

SENATE AMENDMENT 1 TO hb1459.

deleting lines 23 through 30 of page 1 and substituting the following:

"No bargain or contract made by any married person, in respect to his or her sole and separate property or any property which may come to him or her by descent, devise, bequest, purchase, or gift or grant of any person, and no bargain or contract entered into by any married person, in or about the carrying on of any trade or business, under any statute of the state, shall be binding upon his or her spouse, or render his or her person or property in any way liable therefor, except contracts for hospital and medical services which may include the services of physicians and hospitals, medicine and other similar and related expenses."