AND

by deleting lines 5 through 12 on page 4 and substituting the following:

~~"(3) (A) After reaching the verdict of guilty on a serious felony involving violence, the same jury or the same judge sitting without a jury shall sit again in order to hear additional evidence determined pursuant to the procedures outlined in § 5-4-502, and if it is then determined beyond a reasonable doubt that in fact the defendant has previously pleaded guilty or nolo contendere to, or been found guilty of, a prior serious felony involving violence, then the defendant shall be sentenced in accordance with the provisions of subdivision (c)(1) of this section."~~

(3) (A) The following procedure shall govern trials at which a sentence to an extended term of imprisonment is sought pursuant to 5-4-501(c):

(1) The jury shall first hear all evidence relevant to the serious felony involving violence with which defendant is currently charged and shall retire to reach a verdict of guilt or innocence on this charge.

(2) If the defendant is found guilty of the serious felony involving violence, the trial court, out of the hearing of the jury, shall hear evidence of whether the defendant has pleaded guilty, nolo contendere, or been found guilty of, a prior serious felony involving violence and shall determine the number of such prior felony convictions, if any. Defendant shall have the right to hear and controvert this evidence and to offer evidence in his support.

(3) The trial court shall then instruct the jury as to the number of previous convictions for serious felonies involving violence and the statutory sentencing range. The jury may be advised as to the nature of the previous convictions and the date and place thereof.

(4) The jury shall retire again and then determine a sentence within the statutory range."
