Amendment No. 1 to House Bill No. 1780.

Amend House Bill No. 1780 as originally introduced:

Page 1, line 31 add

"SECTION 2. EMERGENCY. It is found and determined by the General Assembly of the State of Arkansas that the Arkansas State Police is presently without a director; that without an emergency clause this act would not be effective until ninety (90) days after the adjournment sine die of the General Assembly; that a new director should be appointed before this act would take effect without an emergency clause; and that the members of the Arkansas State Police Commission should be consulted prior to that appointment. Therefore, an emergency is declared to exist and this act being immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety shall become effective on the date of its approval by the Governor. If the bill is neither approved nor vetoed by the Governor, it shall become effective on the expiration of the period of time during which the Governor may veto the bill. If the bill is vetoed by the Governor and the veto is overridden, it shall become effective on the date the last house overrides the veto.
