ARKANSAS SENATE

88th General Assembly - Regular Session, 2011 Amendment Form

Subtitle of Senate Bill No. 214 TO ESTABLISH THE CRIME OF CYBERBULLYING. ***********************************
Amendment No. 1 to Senate Bill No. 214 Amend Senate Bill No. 214 as originally introduced: Page 1, delete lines 26 through 29 and substitute: "(2) "Electronic means" means any textual, visual, written, or oral communication of any kind made through the use of a computer online service, Internet service, telephone, or any other means of electronic communication, including without limitation to a local bulletin board service, an Internet chat room, electronic mail, a social networking site, or an online messaging service." AND Page 1, delete lines 31 through 36 and substitute: "(1) He or she transmits, sends, or posts a communication by electonic means with the purpose to frighten, coerce, intimidate, threaten, abuse, harass, or alarm another person; and (2) The transmission was in furtherance of severe, repeated, or hostile behavior toward the other person. (c) The offense of cyberbullying may be prosecuted in the county where the defendant was located when he or she transmitted, sent, or posted a communication by electronic means, in the county where the communication by electronic means was received by the person, or in the county where the person targeted by the electronic communications resides. (d) Cyberbullying is a Class B misdemeanor." The Amendment was read the first time, rules suspended and read the second time and	************
Amend Senate Bill No. 214 as originally introduced: Page 1, delete lines 26 through 29 and substitute: "(2) "Electronic means" means any textual, visual, written, or oral communication of any kind made through the use of a computer online service, Internet service, telephone, or any other means of electronic communication, including without limitation to a local bulletin board service, an Internet chat room, electronic mail, a social networking site, or an online messaging service." AND Page 1, delete lines 31 through 36 and substitute: "(1) He or she transmits, sends, or posts a communication by electonic means with the purpose to frighten, coerce, intimidate, threaten, abuse, harass, or alarm another person; and (2) The transmission was in furtherance of severe, repeated, or hostile behavior toward the other person. (c) The offense of cyberbullying may be prosecuted in the county where the defendant was located when he or she transmitted, sent, or posted a communication by electronic means was received by the person, or in the county where the person targeted by the electronic communications resides. (d) Cyberbullying is a Class B misdemeanor." The Amendment was read the first time, rules suspended and read the second time and	Subtitle of Senate Bill No. 214
Amend Senate Bill No. 214 as originally introduced: Page 1, delete lines 26 through 29 and substitute: "(2) "Electronic means" means any textual, visual, written, or oral communication of any kind made through the use of a computer online service, Internet service, telephone, or any other means of electronic communication, including without limitation to a local bulletin board service, an Internet chat room, electronic mail, a social networking site, or an online messaging service." AND Page 1, delete lines 31 through 36 and substitute: "(1) He or she transmits, sends, or posts a communication by electonic means with the purpose to frighten, coerce, intimidate, threaten, abuse, harass, or alarm another person; and (2) The transmission was in furtherance of severe, repeated, or hostile behavior toward the other person. (c) The offense of cyberbullying may be prosecuted in the county where the defendant was located when he or she transmitted, sent, or posted a communication by electronic means was received by the person, or in the county where the person targeted by the electronic communications resides. (d) Cyberbullying is a Class B misdemeanor." The Amendment was read the first time, rules suspended and read the second time and	TO ESTABLISH THE CRIME OF CYBERBULLYING.
Amend Senate Bill No. 214 as originally introduced: Page 1, delete lines 26 through 29 and substitute: "(2) "Electronic means" means any textual, visual, written, or oral communication of any kind made through the use of a computer online service, Internet service, telephone, or any other means of electronic communication, including without limitation to a local bulletin board service, an Internet chat room, electronic mail, a social networking site, or an online messaging service." AND Page 1, delete lines 31 through 36 and substitute: "(1) He or she transmits, sends, or posts a communication by electonic means with the purpose to frighten, coerce, intimidate, threaten, abuse, harass, or alarm another person; and (2) The transmission was in furtherance of severe, repeated, or hostile behavior toward the other person. (c) The offense of cyberbullying may be prosecuted in the county where the defendant was located when he or she transmitted, sent, or posted a communication by electronic means, in the county where the communication by electronic means was received by the person, or in the county where the person targeted by the electronic communications resides. (d) Cyberbullying is a Class B misdemeanor." The Amendment was read the first time, rules suspended and read the second time and	************
Page 1, delete lines 26 through 29 and substitute: "(2) "Electronic means" means any textual, visual, written, or oral communication of any kind made through the use of a computer online service, Internet service, telephone, or any other means of electronic communication, including without limitation to a local bulletin board service, an Internet chat room, electronic mail, a social networking site, or an online messaging service." AND Page 1, delete lines 31 through 36 and substitute: "(1) He or she transmits, sends, or posts a communication by electonic means with the purpose to frighten, coerce, intimidate, threaten, abuse, harass, or alarm another person; and (2) The transmission was in furtherance of severe, repeated, or hostile behavior toward the other person. (c) The offense of cyberbullying may be prosecuted in the county where the defendant was located when he or she transmitted, sent, or posted a communication by electronic means, in the county where the communication by electronic means was received by the person, or in the county where the person targeted by the electronic communications resides. (d) Cyberbullying is a Class B misdemeanor." The Amendment was read the first time, rules suspended and read the second time and	Amendment No. 1 to Senate Bill No. 214
"(2) "Electronic means" means any textual, visual, written, or oral communication of any kind made through the use of a computer online service, Internet service, telephone, or any other means of electronic communication, including without limitation to a local bulletin board service, an Internet chat room, electronic mail, a social networking site, or an online messaging service." AND Page 1, delete lines 31 through 36 and substitute: "(1) He or she transmits, sends, or posts a communication by electonic means with the purpose to frighten, coerce, intimidate, threaten, abuse, harass, or alarm another person; and (2) The transmission was in furtherance of severe, repeated, or hostile behavior toward the other person. (c) The offense of cyberbullying may be prosecuted in the county where the defendant was located when he or she transmitted, sent, or posted a communication by electronic means, in the county where the communication by electronic means was received by the person, or in the county where the person targeted by the electronic communications resides. (d) Cyberbullying is a Class B misdemeanor." The Amendment was read the first time, rules suspended and read the second time and	Amend Senate Bill No. 214 as originally introduced:
Page 1, delete lines 31 through 36 and substitute: "(1) He or she transmits, sends, or posts a communication by electonic means with the purpose to frighten, coerce, intimidate, threaten, abuse, harass, or alarm another person; and (2) The transmission was in furtherance of severe, repeated, or hostile behavior toward the other person. (c) The offense of cyberbullying may be prosecuted in the county where the defendant was located when he or she transmitted, sent, or posted a communication by electronic means, in the county where the communication by electronic means was received by the person, or in the county where the person targeted by the electronic communications resides. (d) Cyberbullying is a Class B misdemeanor." The Amendment was read the first time, rules suspended and read the second time and	"(2) "Electronic means" means any textual, visual, written, or oral communication of any kind made through the use of a computer online service, Internet service, telephone, or any other means of electronic communication, including without limitation to a local bulletin board service, an Internet chat room, electronic mail, a social networking site, or an online messaging
"(1) He or she transmits, sends, or posts a communication by electonic means with the purpose to frighten, coerce, intimidate, threaten, abuse, harass, or alarm another person; and (2) The transmission was in furtherance of severe, repeated, or hostile behavior toward the other person. (c) The offense of cyberbullying may be prosecuted in the county where the defendant was located when he or she transmitted, sent, or posted a communication by electronic means, in the county where the communication by electronic means was received by the person, or in the county where the person targeted by the electronic communications resides. (d) Cyberbullying is a Class B misdemeanor." The Amendment was read the first time, rules suspended and read the second time and	AND
The Amendment was read the first time, rules suspended and read the second time and	"(1) He or she transmits, sends, or posts a communication by electonic means with the purpose to frighten, coerce, intimidate, threaten, abuse, harass, or alarm another person; and (2) The transmission was in furtherance of severe, repeated, or hostile behavior toward the other person. (c) The offense of cyberbullying may be prosecuted in the county where the defendant was located when he or she transmitted, sent, or posted a communication by electronic means, in the county where the communication by electronic means was received by the person, or in the county where the person targeted by the electronic communications resides.
Ry. Senator I. Chesterfield	The Amendment was read the first time, rules suspended and read the second time and

Secretary

BPG/LNS - 03/10/11 02:38

BPG386