RE: Summary of Proposed Revisions to the Rules of the Legislative Council

Attached is a copy of the proposed revisions to the Rules of the Arkansas Legislative Council, as approved by the Executive Subcommittee of the Legislative Council at its meeting on June 20, 2013. All of the revisions to the rules are shown by mark up of underlining and strikethrough and are in red. Below is a summary of the proposed revisions for your consideration.

The proposed revisions will be presented to the Legislative Council at its next meeting scheduled for Friday, July 19, 2013. Please review the proposed revisions and feel free to contact either Jillian Thayer, Legal Counsel to the Director, or Marty Garrity, Director, with any questions that you may have.

- Rule 5.(a), p.1: The stricken through language was moved to Rule 5.(d).
- Rule 5.(d)(1), pp.4-5: This rule sets the number of members on each ALC subcommittee at 20, with 8 Senate members, 8 House members, and 4 ex officio members (the Senate and House ALC Co-Chairs and the Senate and House ALC Vice-Co Chairs). This rule allows for additional members of each subcommittee at the joint discretion of the ALC co-chairs. However, additional members may only be added during the initial selection of subcommittees for each biennium.

Although the members of the ALC subcommittees for the 2013-2014 biennium have already been selected, and several of the subcommittees exceed this number for membership, this rule is not retroactive and will apply on a going forward basis.

- Rule 5.(d)(2), p.5: This section was added to state that the ALC Co-Chairs and Vice-Co Chairs, as ex officio members of all ALC subcommittees, "shall enjoy the same rights and privileges as other members of the subcommittees". This language mirrors the language found in Arkansas Code § 10-3-301(a)(3)(A), which states that the listed ex officio members of the Legislative Council shall enjoy the same rights and privileges as other Legislative Council members.

Summary of Proposed Revisions to the Rules of the Legislative Council

- Rule 5.(d)(3), p.5: This language already exists in the rules and was simply moved from Rule 5.(a)
- Rule 5.(e), p.5: Paragraphs (1) and (2) are drawn from the statute at Arkansas Code § 10-3-301(b), which reads that alternate members shall be allowed to vote if the member or alternate he or she “represents is not in attendance”. There is currently nothing in the rules that deal with this issue. Paragraph (3) defines “not in attendance” by stating that a member or first alternate will be considered to be “not in attendance” when he or she is determined by the chair to not be in the committee room at the time that the motion on which action is required is made.
- Rule 5.(f), p.5: The proposed revision adds the words “for purposes of that study only” to clarify that a member becomes a temporary non-voting ex officio member of a subcommittee to which a proposal is referred for study only for the duration of that study.
- Rule 5.(h)(2), p.5: This new subdivision clarifies that members and alternates of ALC Subcommittees will have priority in subcommittee discussions over nonmembers of the subcommittee.
- Rule 5.(i)(2)(A), p.6: This new subdivision adds a requirement that a subcommittee of Legislative Council obtain prior consent of the ALC Co-Chairs before incurring any special expenses for their meetings or investigations. “Special expense” is defined as any expenses incurred beyond payment of per diem and mileage, and includes such things as witness fees, interpreter fees, and court reporter expenses.
- Rule 5.(i)(3), p.6: This rule clarifies how a subcommittee meeting may be called. The current rule simply states that a meeting may be called by “the chair”, however, each subcommittee has two chairs. The proposed revision states that the meeting may be called by either chair or by a majority of the members of the subcommittee.
- Rule 5.(i)(4), p.6: This provision was moved to Rule 5.(d)(1).
- Rule 5.(j), p.6-7: This rule clarifies that matters that fall within the jurisdiction of the ALC Subcommittees should be presented to the subcommittees rather than bypassing the subcommittees and presenting directly to the Legislative Council. If there is a showing of imminent need for direct review or approval by the Legislative Council, then the rules may be suspended and the matter heard directly.
- Rule 8.(b), p.8: This proposed revision changes the quorum and action requirements for ALC Subcommittees to mirror the provisions for the Legislative Council. The revision clarifies that the ex-officio members count towards a quorum and changes the requirement for action from “a majority vote of the full membership” to “an affirmative vote of a majority of the members present”.

Summary of Proposed Revisions to the Rules of the Legislative Council

- Rule 9.(d), p.7: This rule states that a substitute to a substitute motion is allowed, but that a substitute motion to the third degree is not. This is the rule that has been followed in ALC meetings and that appears in the House and Senate Rules.

Co-Chairs of the Legislative Council are unanimous in their evaluation that emergency review or advice is advisable, then the House of Representatives Co-Chair and Senate Co-Chair may act on behalf of the Legislative Council in regard thereto.

(c) All matters considered under the emergency procedures shall be reported in writing to the Legislative Council at its next regular meeting.

18. Rules.

(a) The rules of the Legislative Council may be adopted by an affirmative separate vote of a majority of the members of the House of Representatives and a majority of the members of the Senate.

(b) The rules of the Legislative Council may be amended by an affirmative separate vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the members of the House of Representatives and two-thirds (2/3) of the members of the Senate. Amendments to the rules may be made after six (6) days' written notice of intent thereof.

19. Subpoena Powers.

(a)(1) The subpoena powers of the Legislative Council shall be exercised only upon the two-thirds (2/3) vote of the entire membership of the Legislative Council at a regular meeting, after notice shall have been given in writing to all Legislative Council members setting forth the purpose or purposes for which the subpoena powers are to be used.
