Progress of Students from Consolidated Districts

Introduction

Arkansas Annotated Code § 6-13-1606 requires the Department of Education to track the educational progress of students from annexed or consolidated school districts and to submit a written report. The report compares the performance of consolidated students to non-consolidated students on assessments required under the Arkansas Comprehensive Testing, Assessment and Accountability Program Act, § 6-15-401 et seq. Charts show the percent proficient and advanced for students who were consolidated in 2010 as well as students that were not consolidated, for grade 3 in 2010, then the same students as they tested in grade 4 in 2011, and successive exams continuing through 2014.

PART I: ANNEXED/CONSOLIDATED SCHOOL STUDENT COMPARISON

Participants

Participants included two sets of cohorts for each of the annexation/consolidation years (2009, 2010 and 2013): Consolidated Students Cohorts and Non-Consolidated Students Cohorts. There were no consolidations in 2011 or 2012. Consolidated Students Cohorts were formed by year based on students enrolled in districts which were annexed or consolidated in that year. Non-Consolidated Students Cohorts were derived based on any student in the state system in the 2009, 2010 and 2013 years who was not enrolled in one of the annexed or consolidated districts. The district populations included in the Consolidated Students Cohort from 2009 are from Cushman (LEA = 3203000), and Northwest Academy of Fine Arts (LEA = 0441700). The district populations included in the Consolidated Students Cohort from 2010 are from Weiner (LEA = 5607000), Delight (LEA = 5501000), Turrell (LEA = 1805000), Van Cove (LEA = 5704000), Wickes (LEA = 5705000), and Twin Rivers (LEA = 6806000). The district population included in the Consolidated Students Cohort from 2013 is from the Bradley School District (LEA = 3701000).

Methods

For each consolidation year (2009, 2010, and 2013), percentages of proficiency were derived for Consolidated Students Cohorts and Non-Consolidated Students based on student performance of proficient or advanced on the required statewide administered criterion-referenced assessments, which included the Arkansas Augmented Benchmark Examinations in Literacy and Mathematics for Grades 3-8, the Arkansas End-of-Course Examinations in Algebra I and Geometry, and the Arkansas Grade 11 Literacy Examinations. Cohorts were also formed of students who were non-proficient in the starting year of each consolidation. Student proficiency is shown for consolidated and non-consolidated, non-proficient student cohorts.

Results were tracked through time based on Social Security Number (SSN) of students in the cohorts and using the unique 10-digit state identifying number in the cohorts. Results were captured for the 2010, 2011, 2012, 2013 and 2014 administration years (if applicable) for each grade and/or subject area assessment and are shown by the following subgroups: Combined Population, African American, Hispanic, Caucasian, Economically Disadvantaged and Students with Disabilities. Average ACT Results are shown for students consolidated in 2009, 2010 and 2013. The average ACT results of consolidated students are compared to the average ACT results of students that were not consolidated.

Summary of Results

The attached tables show full results of the report. A cell will contain n<10 instead of the actual value if there are less than ten students in the subgroup for grade and subject. For the cohorts consolidated or non-consolidated in 2010, proficiency level comparisons were done for each administration year (2010, 2011, 2012, 2013 and 2014). Comparisons were not done for students consolidated in 2009 or 2013 because of the small number of students assessed.

Consolidated in 2010, Grades 3-8, Combined Population Percent Proficient and Advanced Comparison

The percent proficient and advanced in the year 2010 for non-consolidated students was higher than the consolidated students 75 percent of the time. In 2011, the percent proficient and advanced for non-consolidated students was higher than the consolidated students 70 percent of the time. In 2012, the percent proficient and advanced for non-consolidated students was higher than the consolidated students 62.5 percent of the time. In 2013, the percent proficient and advanced for non-consolidated students was higher than the consolidated students 50 percent of the time. In 2014, the percent proficient and advanced for non-consolidated students was higher than the consolidated students 75 percent of the time. Graphs are attached that show the percent proficient and advanced for grades three through eight combined population students. The graphs compare proficiency of non-consolidated students with proficiency of consolidated students.

PART II: CONVERSION CHARTER SCHOOL STUDENT COMPARISON

Participants

Participants included students enrolled in Conversion Charter Schools throughout the state. The chart below shows the participating school populations included in the Conversion Charter School group, where applicable.

Methods

Percentages of proficiency were derived for Conversion Charter School Students and Non-Conversion Charter School Students based on student performance of proficient or advanced on the required statewide administered criterion-referenced assessments, which included the Arkansas Augmented Benchmark Examinations in Literacy and Mathematics for Grades 3-8, the Arkansas End-of-Course Examinations in Algebra I, Biology, and Geometry, and the Arkansas Grade 11 Literacy Examinations. Results were tracked through time using the unique 10-digit state identifying number. Results were captured for the 2011, 2012, and 2013 and 2014 administration years (if applicable) for each grade and/or subject area assessment and are shown by the following subgroups: All Students, Economically Disadvantaged, Not Economically Disadvantaged, African American, Asian, Hawaiian/Pacific Islander, Hispanic, Two or More Races, and White/Caucasian.

Summary of Results

The attached tables show full results of the report; however, a summary can be provided that shows comparison information between the Conversion Charter School Student Group and the All Other Public Schools Group. Graphs of charter and state averages are attached. Some subgroup comparisons may not be possible because of the small group size as noted by the restricted value indicator (RV). This summary will provide results based on those applicable comparisons by each administration year.

The percent proficient and advanced in the year 2010 for Conversion Charter School combined population students was higher than the students from all other public schools 66.7 percent of the time. In 2011 the percent proficient and advanced for Conversion Charter School combined population students was higher than the students from all other public schools 33.3 percent of the time. In 2012, the percent proficient and advanced for Conversion Charter School combined population students was higher than the students from all other public schools 16.7 percent of the time. In 2013, the percent proficient and advanced for Conversion Charter combined population School students was higher than the students from all other public schools 8.3 percent of the time. In 2014, the percent proficient and advanced for Conversion Charter School combined population students was lower than the students from all other public schools for each grade and subject.
