Purpose:

The purpose of grant is to support the expansion of comprehensive Domestic Violence (DV) support services to past or present victims of domestic violence and their children. This includes statewide and countywide domestic violence support services for eligible participants.

This initiative provides the transitional services necessary to overcome the DV crisis that victims have endured. Services are structured to meet each victim's unique circumstances. The initiative will also provide education, training, and related workforce services to help them obtain employment and become self-sufficient.
