The mission of the Cooperative Disability Investigations (CDI) Program is to combat fraud by investigating questionable statements and activities of claimants, medical providers, interpreters, or other service providers who facilitate or promote disability fraud. The investigative evidence helps the Disability Determination Services make timely and accurate disability determinations. The Social Security Administration, Office of the Inspector General (SSA OIG) also uses the evidence to determine whether other remedies (i.e., criminal prosecution and/or civil/administrative action) are warranted. The work of the CDI Unit supports the strategic goal of ensuring integrity of the Social Security programs with zero tolerance for fraud and abuse.
