Directions to Second Chance Ranch

From Little Rock / Pulaski County / West Little Rock:

Take Hwy 10 from I-430. Follow Hwy 10 until it intersects with Hwy 9 – turn LEFT onto Hwy 9. Stay on Hwy 9 thru Paron, Arkansas – approximately 4 miles past Paron exit LEFT onto Hwy 298. Stay on Hwy 298 for approximately 1.5 miles. Look for the WALKER THOMAS street sign on the RIGHT. Less than 1 block PAST WALKER THOMAS is DYER TRAIL on the LEFT. This is a well maintained country dirt road. The timber companies have recently logged the surrounding hillsides, making it visible. There is a street sign that faces the direction of the oncoming lane of traffic, which makes it a little difficult to spot from the direction you are traveling.

From West Little Rock, follow West Markham and/or Chenal Parkway to Kanis – turn LEFT (heading WEST out of town, thru Ferndale) on to Kanis and stay on it until it intersects with Hwy 9 at Paron, Arkansas. Turn LEFT on to Hwy 9 and follow directions indicated in the paragraph above.

From there, stay on Dyer approximately 3.6 miles, until you get to “ELDERBERRY”. Turn RIGHT onto ELDERBERRY and continue on all the way to Second Chance Ranch, approximately 2.5 miles. There are several forks along the way on Elderberry. AT EACH ONE OF THESE FORKS TAKE THE LEFT – if you look straight ahead there should be a red arrow pointing left. You will cross a bridge that spans the North Fork of the Saline River. It’s a logging bridge and is perfectly safe.

From Benton / Bryant / Saline County:

Exit off of I-30 at any of the marked exits. Follow either Hwy 5, or Salem-Congo and Steel Bridge Road to Hwy 298. From both routes, turn RIGHT onto 298. Follow 298 for several miles. You will pass TIMBER RIDGE facility, and travel thru a series of “S” curves. Look for THOMAS LOOP on the RIGHT. After the second end of Thomas Loop, approximately 1.5 miles, you will see DYER TRAIL on the right. Dyer Trail has a street sign facing the direction you are traveling from. It is a well maintained country dirt road. Turn RIGHT on to Dyer Trail.

From There, stay on Dyer approximately 3.6 miles, until you get to ELDERBERRY. Turn RIGHT onto Elderberry and continue on it all the way to Second Chance Ranch, approximately 2.5 miles. There are several forks along the way on Elderberry. At each one of these forks take the LEFT – if you look straight ahead there should be a red arrow pointing left. You will cross a bridge that spans the North Fork of the Saline River. It is a logging bridge and is perfectly safe.

From Hot Springs:

Take either Hwy 5 past Hot Springs Village to Hwy 9, turn LEFT onto Hwy 9 and follow it until you see Hwy 298 on the LEFT. Stay on Hwy 298 for approximately 1.5 miles. Look for the WALKER THOMAS street sign on the right. Less than 1 block PAST WALKER THOMAS is DYER TRAIL on the left. This is a well maintained country dirt road. The timber companies have recently logged the surrounding hillsides, making it visible. There is a street sign that faces the direction of the oncoming lane of traffic, which makes it a little difficult to spot from the direction you are traveling.

OR exit I-30 at Exit 117 (Hwy 5). Following Hwy 5 out of Benton you will pass Riverside Grocery on the left. Cross the Saline River and then turn RIGHT onto Hwy 298. Follow Hwy 298 for several miles. You will pass TIMBER RIDGE facility and travel thru a series of “S” curves. Look for THOMAS LOOP on the RIGHT. After the second end of Thomas Loop, approximately 1.5 miles, you will see DYER TRAIL on the right. Dyer Trail has a street sign facing the direction you are traveling from. It is a well maintained country dirt road. Turn RIGHT on Dyer Trail.

From there, stay on Dyer approximately 3.5 miles until you get to ELDERBERRY. Turn RIGHT on Elderberry and continue on it all the way to Second Chance Ranch, approximately 2.5 miles. There are several forks along the way on Elderberry. At each one of these forks take the LEFT – if you look straight ahead there should be a red arrow pointing left.
