Public Comments

Proposed Rule 11 – Survivors and Domestic Relations Orders

1. Page 1, § 11-101(3).

- a. ATRS Staff Comment: Should the definition of “immediately eligible” read “for the purpose of survivor annuity benefits means a survivor of an active member who at the time of his or her death is eligible for voluntary or early voluntary retirement and could have retired from the system” instead of “for the purposes of survivor annuity benefits means a survivor of an active member who at the time of his or her death attained the normal retirement age and could have retired from the system” the definition of “immediately eligible” ?
- b. Response: This recommend change aligns with Ark. Code Ann. § 24-7-710((b)(1)(C)(i). The rule has been amended to read “for the purpose of survivor annuity benefits means a survivor of an active member who at the time of his or her death would have been eligible to receive benefits and could have retired from the system”.

2. Page 4, § 11-104(c)(2).

- a. ATRS Staff Comment: Regarding § 11-104(c)(2), do the current spouse and deceased member have to be married for a certain period of time?
- b. Response: Yes. This rule is intended to align with Ark. Code Ann. § 24-7-710(a)(2)(B), which requires a surviving spouse to have been married to the member for at least two (2) years immediately preceding the member’s death in order to be eligible for a survivor annuity. The rule has been amended to clarify that the current spouse must be eligible to receive survivor annuity benefits, which would require the current spouse to have been married to the member for at least two (2) years immediately preceding the member’s death.

3. Page 4, § 11-104(c)(2).

- a. ATRS Staff Comment: Should “lump-sum death benefit” read “beneficiary designation form”?
- b. Response: The rule has been amended to read, “A member who remarries and desires to maintain his or her former spouse’s designation as the member’s alternative residue beneficiary shall file with the system a residue beneficiary designation form that:”

4. Page 5, § 11-106(a)(2)(A).

- a. BLR Comment: Section 11-106 of the proposed rule, which concerns dependent children, states that a qualifying member’s child shall be eligible to qualify as a dependent child or maintain his or her status as a dependent child if the qualifying member was the legal parent of the child at the time of the qualifying member’s death (emphasis added). This requirement is not found in Ark. Code Ann. § 24-7-710, which is also cited in the rule. What is the agency’s reasoning for adding the requirement that a member be the legal parent of the child?
- b. Response: ATRS staff and members have questioned whether a child must be the biological child of a member in order to be eligible for dependent child survivor benefits. Adding “legal parent” is intended to clarify that a child will be considered the child of a member if the child would legally have been considered the child of the member at the time of the member’s death. This change clarifies that adopted children of a member may also be eligible for dependent child survivor benefits.
- c. BLR Comment: With respect to the provision cited above, the term “legal parent” does not appear to be defined in the proposed rule. How does the agency define “legal parent” for the purposes of this rule?
- d. Response: ATRS defines “legal parent” for the purposes of the rule as the biological father or mother of a child or the adoptive mother or father of a child. A definition for “legal parent” has been added to the rules on page 1.

5. Page 6, § 11-106(b)(2)(B).

- a. BLR Comment: Should this subsection refer to a “deferred enrollment”?
- b. Response: Yes. The rule has been amended to refer to “deferred enrollment”.

6. Page 6, § 11-107(a).

- a. ATRS Staff Comment: Should nine (9) hours in graduate school be included?
- b. Response: No, § 11-107(a) provides that a dependent child may be considered a full-time student if he or she is engaged full-time in a curriculum or field of study based upon verifiable indices from an accredited institution. This provision covers nine (9) hours in graduate school. No changes to the rule have been made.

7. Page 12, § 11-120(b)(2)(C).

- a. BLR Comment: Section 11-120(b)(2)(C), which concerns the system’s acceptance of Qualified Domestic Relations Orders (QDRO), states that the system shall accept a QDRO issued by a circuit court of the State of Arkansas or other court of competent jurisdiction regarding a member and an alternate payee if the QDRO complies with the Arkansas Code, the system’s rules, the system’s model qualified domestic relations order, and other applicable laws. This appears to be premised upon Ark. Code Ann. § 9-18-103(b)(2)(B)(ii), which only provides that a state-supported retirement system is not required to comply with a qualified domestic relations order that does not substantially follow the uniform legal form approved by the Legislative Council. Is there a reason why the proposed rule’s language is different, and more restrictive, than the language provided in the Arkansas Code?

Response: ATRS does not consider the proposed rule to be different or more restrictive than language provided by Ark. Code Ann. § 9-18-103(b)(2)(B)(ii). The proposed rule is premised on Ark. Code Ann. § 9-18-101 et seq. and not Ark. Code Ann. § 9-18-103(b)(2)(B)(ii) alone. The proposed rule requiring the System to accept a qualified domestic relations order that complies with the System’s rules, the System’s model qualified domestic relations order, and other applicable laws aligns with Ark. Code Ann. § 9-18-101 et seq. In relevant part, Ark. Code Ann. § 9-18-101(4) defines “qualified domestic relations order” as a domestic relations order “[w]hich does not require the retirement plan to provide any type or form of benefit, or pay options not otherwise available under the plan”. The System’s rules address benefits and pay options available under ATRS. Additionally, other state or federal laws may impact benefits and pay options available under a retirement plan. Furthermore, ATRS’ model qualified domestic relations order (“ATRS-model QDRO”), which was approved by Legislative Council, was drafted by ATRS staff to ensure that only benefits and pay options available under ATRS were included. Finally, as the proposed rule merely states when ATRS will accept a qualified domestic relations order and does not prohibit ATRS from accepting or complying with a qualified domestic relations order that does not substantially comply with the ATRS-model QDRO, the proposed rule complies with and is not more restrictive than Ark. Code Ann. § 9-18-103(b)(2)(B)(ii).

- b. BLR Comment: With respect to the provision cited above, who would make the determination that a QDRO issued by a circuit court of the State of Arkansas or other court of competent jurisdiction fails to comply with the Arkansas Code, the System’s rules or other applicable laws?

Response: For the limited purpose of determining whether ATRS will accept or comply with a qualified domestic relations order, as provided by § 11-120(b)(2)(A) on page 12, upon receiving a qualified domestic relations order, ATRS will determine whether the qualified domestic relations order complies with the Arkansas Code, the System’s rules, the ATRS-model QDRO, and other applicable laws.

- (7) an agency plan for review of the rule no less than every ten (10) years to determine whether, based upon the evidence, there remains a need for the rule including, without limitation, whether:
 - (a) the rule is achieving the statutory objectives;

 - (c) the rule can be amended or repealed to reduce costs while continuing to achieve the statutory objectives.
