

Exhibit E

Publication Options for Title 19

Brief Summary of Issue

Following a regular session, each volume of the Arkansas Code receives a printed supplement that contains legislation from that session and other sessions since the volume was last replaced. Depending on their size, these supplements can be either a pocket part, which can be inserted into a pocket of the volume, or a stand-alone, which sits beside the volume.

The 2025 supplements for Title 19 present a unique situation because the entire title was recodified by Act 419 from the 2025 Regular Session. Except for a few exceptions, this act repealed and reenacted the entire title. The traditional pocket parts or stand-alone supplements may not be suitable for Title 19, which currently consists of Volume 19A, Volume 19B, and an appendix attached to Volume 19B.
