The supply of care for Pre-K children is higher than demand in most counties.

The overall median demand met is $177 \%$.

HANDOUT 1

[^0]When you consider only high-quality programs (Lv3BB), Pre-K supply & demand are near evenly matched in most counties.

But some counties have significant unmet demand.

The overall median demand met is $92 \%$.

0-24\% $\quad 25-49 \% \quad 50-74 \% \quad 75-99 \% \quad 100 \%+$

\section*{Only a handful of counties come close to meeting the demand for infant and toddler care. \\ Statewide, just 4 in 10 working parents can find \\  \\ | $0-24 \%$ | $25-49 \%$ | $50-74 \%$ | $75-99 \%$ |
| :--- | :--- | :--- | :--- |
| $100 \%+$ |  |  |  |} licensed care.

When you consider only high-quality programs (Lv3BB), no counties come close to meeting demand.

Statewide, just 1 in 10 working parents can find quality, licensed

$0-24 \% \quad 25-49 \% \quad 50-74 \% \quad 75-99 \% \quad 100 \%+$

[^0]:    $0-24 \% \quad 25-49 \% \quad 50-74 \% \quad 75-99 \% \quad 100 \%+$

