

OFFICE OF THE LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR

Enabling Laws

Act 22 of 2005

Constitution of Arkansas, Article 6

History and Organization

The Office of the Lieutenant Governor purposes to fulfill the duties designated by the Arkansas Constitution, preside over the Senate when the Legislature is in session and act as Governor when the Governor is absent from the State or incapacitated and unable to complete the duties of the Office of the Governor. In addition, by initiative of the Lieutenant Governor, the Office serves as a facilitator and spokesman for economic development for our State. The Office also serves as an ex-officio Ombudsman office assisting Arkansas citizens accessing proper authorities for possible resolutions to state agency issues.

Agency Commentary

The Office of the Lieutenant Governor is requesting Base Level for the 2007-2009 biennium. The Office is currently authorized three (3) full time positions and three (3) extra help positions. No personnel changes are being requested pending the Classification and Compensation Study.
