

State of Arkansas

76th General Assembly

Regular Session, 1987

HOUSE BILL 1738

By: Representatives Allen and Wynne

"AN ACT TO PROVIDE THAT WHEN ANY EMPLOYER IS SERVED WITH A WRIT OF GARNISHMENT ON AN EMPLOYEE, AND THE EMPLOYER FAILS TO ANSWER WITHIN TEN DAYS AFTER SERVICE, THE EMPLOYER SHALL BE LIABLE FOR THE AMOUNT OF NONEXEMPT WAGES OWED THE EMPLOYEE AT THE TIME THE WRIT WAS SERVED; AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES."

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ARKANSAS:

SECTION 1. Notwithstanding Section 9 of Act 115 of 1889 (Ark. Stat. 31-512) or any other law to the contrary, if an employer garnishee fails to answer a writ of garnishment within ten days after the employer is served the writ, the employer garnishee shall only be liable for the amount of nonexempt wages owed the employee on the date the employer was served with the writ regardless whether the garnishment is for one pay period or is a continuing garnishment.

SECTION 2. All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this Act are hereby repealed.

