SECTION 3. That the Legislature of the State of Arkansas acknowledges that the above-quoted article of amendment to the United States Constitution may still be ratified by states' legislatures as a result of the ruling by the United States Supreme Court in the landmark case of Coleman v. Miller, [307 U.S. 433 (1939)] in which it was opined that Congress is the final arbiter on the question of whether too much time has elapsed between Congress' submission of an amendment and the most recent state legislature's ratification of same if Congress did not specify a deadline on the amendment's consideration.

SECTION 4. That the Secretary of State shall notify the Archivist of the United States (pursuant to 1 U.S.C. 106b and 112; as amended by PL 98-497 [98 Stat. 2291]) of the action of the 76th General Assembly of the State of Arkansas, Regular Session, by sending to him a copy of this resolution.

SECTION 5. That the Secretary of State shall also send copies of this resolution to both United States Senators from Arkansas, all four (4) United States Representatives from Arkansas, the Vice-President of the United States and to the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives with the request that it be printed in full in the Congressional Record.
