(e) In the case of a qualified patient, the patient's health proxy, in consultation with the attending physician, shall have the authority to make treatment decisions for the patient including the withholding or withdrawal of life-sustaining procedures."

SECTION 3. WHEN DECLARATION OPERATIVE. A declaration becomes operative when (i) it is communicated to the attending physician and (ii) the declarant is determined by the attending physician and another physician in consultation to be in a terminal condition and no longer able to make decisions regarding administration of life-sustaining treatment. When the declaration becomes operative, the attending physician and other health-care providers shall act in accordance with its provisions or comply with the transfer provisions of Section 7.

SECTION 4. REVOCATION OF DECLARATION. (a) A declaration may be revoked at any time and in any manner by the declarant, without regard to the declarant's mental or physical condition. A revocation is effective upon communication to the attending physician or other health-care provider by the declarant or a witness to the revocation.

(b) The attending physician or other health-care provider shall make the revocation a part of the declarant's medical record.

SECTION 5. RECORDING DETERMINATION OF TERMINAL CONDITION AND DECLARATION. Upon determining that the declarant is in a terminal condition, the attending physician who knows of a declaration shall record the determination and the terms of the declaration in the declarant's medical record.

SECTION 6. TREATMENT OF QUALIFIED PATIENT. (a) A qualified patient may make decisions regarding life-sustaining treatment as long as the patient is able to do so.

(b) This Act does not affect the responsibility of the attending physician or other health-care provider to provide treatment, including nutrition and hydration, for a patient's comfort, care, or alleviation of pain.

(c) The declaration of a qualified patient known to the attending physician to be pregnant must not be given effect as long as it is possible that the fetus could develop to the point of live birth with continued application of life-sustaining treatment.

SECTION 7. TRANSFER OF PATIENTS. An attending physician or other health-care provider who is unwilling to comply with this Act shall as promptly as practicable take all reasonable steps to transfer care of the declarant to another physician or health-care provider.

suant to the requirements of this Act.

(g) The sanctions provided in this section do not displace any sanction applicable under other law.

SECTION 10. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS. (a) Death resulting from the withholding or withdrawal of life-sustaining treatment pursuant to a declaration and in accordance with this Act does not constitute, for any purpose, a suicide or homicide.

(b) The making of a declaration pursuant to Section 2 does not affect in any manner the sale, procurement, or issuance of any policy of life insurance or annuity, nor does it affect, impair, or modify the terms of an existing policy or life insurance or annuity. A policy of life insurance or annuity is not legally impaired or invalidated in any manner by the withholding or withdrawal of life-sustaining treatment from an insured qualified patient, notwithstanding any term to the contrary.

(c) A person may not prohibit or require the execution of a declaration as a condition for being insured for, or receiving health-care services.

(d) This Act creates no presumption concerning the intention of an individual who has revoked or has not executed a declaration with respect to the use, withholding, or withdrawal of life-sustaining treatment in the event of a terminal condition.

(e) This Act does not affect the right of a patient to make decisions regarding use of life-sustaining treatment, so long as the patient is able to do so, or impair or supersede any right or responsibility that a person has to effect the withholding or withdrawal of medical care.
